The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Among the subjects for consideration will be the entertainment of the officers of the German ship of war "Panther," expected here very soon.

Cotton receipts yesterday were 4,075 bales against 4,467, same day last year. The tone of the local market changed from steady to dull at 10to. Most of the receipts now are from over the W., C. & A. railroad. The steamer "Highlander," which arrived yesterday, brought 75 bales from Fayette-

Schooner "Nellie Floyd," Capt. Neilsen, arrived at Fort Caswell from New York at 6 o'clock yesterday evening with carge of stone for the extensive construction work now going on there. The big four-masted schooner "Three Marys," 1,034 tons, Capt. Conover, one of the largest which - Mr. Marks Nathan caught a ever visited this port, arrived at anmonster drum fish at Wrightsville chor at Southport at 6:40 o'clock yesterday evening.

The German steamer "Erns," 975 tone, Capt. Bradherring, arrived Sunday from Philadelphia and will receive a cargo of cotton from Mesars. Alexander Sprunt & Son. The German steamer "Erica," 1,301 tons, Capt. Rickman, also arrived yesterday. She is from Boston to Messrs. Sprunt & Son. Four other steamers, one of which was off the bar last night, will be here later this week for cotton cargoes. One of the number is the big British tramp "Falls of Keltie," 2,150 tons, Capt. King, from Baltimore.

Mr. T. D. Love, general manager of the Merchants' and Farmers' Steamboat Co., arrived in the city Sunday on the steamer "Highlander" from the scene of the foundering of the steamer "Tar Heel," two miles beyond Elizabethtown. The "Highlander," immediately took the run of the "Tar Heel" as soon as the latter was disabled and shipments by the line suffered no delay or damage. Mr. Love says the "Tar Heel" went down in only three feet of water and consequently her decks remained above the surface. Her cargo consisted chiefly of lard for the Armfield Co., of Fayetteville. The staunch little steamer was pulling off the shoals at the time and as the "Hurt" passed her, she settled back down on a stump which jammed a hole in her bottom. The "Highlander" on her trip to Fayetteville yesterday afternoon took a couple of lighters and the "Tar Heel" will be floated and will probably proceed to-and Again To-day. Rosh Hashonah, or the Jewish New Year, began at sunset yesterday and will continue until sunset to-day. The festival is a season of congratulations, feasting and the exchange of presents. It was observed yesterday evening by services in the Temple of Israel by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, the ra who will continue them from o'clock this morning until 6 o'clock this evening. Elaborate musical programmes were arranged for the two services, that yesterday evening having been especially pretty. The special choir was composed of Mrs. F. A. Muse, Misses Hattle and Lillie Taylor, Mr. H. K. Holden, Mr. Jake Solomon and Mr. Adolph Goodman, with Mr. A. H. Yopp organist. During the holiday the stores of all orthodox Jews are closed.

The New Year is followed by Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, ten days later. It is observed as a solemn fast of atonement, and from sunsetal sunset the devout Hebrew abstract from all food. During this morning's service the shofar, made of the horn of a ram, will be blown to awaken the worshippers to greater watchfulness and activity in the purification and sanctification of their hearts. [Special Star Telegram.] RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21.-Governor Aycock to-day announced that there would be no further consideration of any proposition to lease the A. & N. C. road from Goldsboro to Morehead City. He notified W. W. Mills that he could withdraw the second proposition to lease this property and consider all negotiations at an end. Mr. Mills stated to-night that a conversation with the Governor convinced him that personally the chief executive favors the lease but political reasons constrain him to exercise his prerogative and discontinue negotiations. The matter was to have been acted upon at the annual meeting of the directors of the road and Council of State Thursday of this week.

Chosen Yesterday to Succeed the Late County Commissioner Gabriel Holmes.

THE MAGISTRATES IN SESSION

D. J. Pergus, of Masonbore, Only Opposition-Nominated by E. P. Johnson. New Member of Board Well Equipped for His Duties.

By a vote of fifty-eight to nine Mr. Morrison W. Divine, a leading young business man of this city, was yesterday elected by the Board of Magistrates of New Hanover a commissioner of the county to succeed the late Mr. Gabriel Holmes for the term ending June 1st, 1904. The meeting of the magistrates was a highly representive one and ten more than a quorum were present. Mr. Divine's opponent was Mr. D. J. Fergus, of Masonboro township, who was nominated by Mr. E. F. Johnson, of Wilmington, and voted for principally by representatives from the country. The meeting was called to order by Chairman D. McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, and Deputy Register of Deeds John McLaurin was secretary ex officio. Roll call having shown more than a majority present the meeting organized permanently by electing Mr. C. W. Worth chairman. Mr. McEachern stated the object of the meeting to be that of electing a succossor to the late lamented Mr. Holmes. Nominations were declared in order and Mr. J. D. Kelly presented the name of Mr. Divine as a practical business man and one who had an interest in the welfare of his county. In the speaker's opinion, his nominee would make the ideal commissioner. The motion was seconded by Messrs. Geo. 8. LeGrand and Jno. H. Sweeney. Mr. E. F. Johnson placed in nomination Mr. Fergus, of Masonboro, whom he referred to as always faithful to the C. E. Goodwin, $6; 25 cents premium. Democratic party, eminently qualified to fill the position and a man who would represent truly the interests of the country townships, which would have no representation on the Board upon Mr. Alexander's removal to the city Oct. 1st. The nomination was seconded by Mr. C. W. Bishop, of Masonboro, and a vote by ballot was de> clared in order by the chairman. The secretary again called the roll and each magistrate present responded by placing a ballot in the hat. The result showed 58 for Divine and 9 for

Just before adjournment Justice G. W. Bornemann suggested the death of the late Capt. James M. McGowan and paid a tribute to his faithfulness as a member of the Board of Magistrates and as a citizen. No further business having been proposed, the meeting was declared adjourned.

The election of Mr. M. W. Divine as a commissioner will bring to the Board gentleman eminently qualified by business experience and executive ability to fill the position with credit to himself and the county. He is at the head of the large paint and building material house of M. W. Divine & Co., and is popular with all classes of citizens. The office came to him without his seeking and he will be a congenial colleague for the four other excellent members of the Board, as at present constituted. He has been in business in Wilmington since 1884, first as a member of the firm of Divine & Chadbourn and and senior member of the firm of M.W. Divine & Co. He is a director in the People's Savings Bank and is prominently identified with several other building and loan and financial institutions. He was formerly a civil engineer and was connected with the the Atlantic Coast Line for eleven years. The county is to be congratulated upon his election.

"Human Hearts" Thursday Evening and May Sargent in Big New York Comedy Success-Sale of Seats.

At the Academy of Music this week are two attractions which promise to be abundantly popular-"Human Hearts" on Thursday and "That Imprudent Young Couple," with May Sargent in the leading role, Friday night. The sale of seats for the first named begins to-morrow morning and for the latter Thursday morning. It has been said that some dramas die in infancy for lack of the elements of success. No matter how elaborately presented they may be, they fail to appeal to the public and soon go on the shelf. But a melodrama like 'Human Hearts" holds its original charm. It has been seen throughout the country for the past nine years, yet there is no decrease in public interest in this delightfui play. It contains all the elements of success—pathos, villany and comedy. Besides, the scenic surroundings make a picturesque stage production and that attracts attention.

The New York comedy success, in which May Sargent will appear at the Academy Friday night, is strongly endorsed. The New York Sun said of the play: 'Very bright was 'That Imprudent Young Couple,' acted at the Empire Theatre, on Broadway, last evening. Although Charles Frohman had the piece written by Henry Guy Carleton for Maude Adams and John Drew, May Sargent has been wisely chosen to head the road company in Miss Adams' role because of her striking resemblance to Miss Adams in every way. Mr. Carleton also wrote 'The Butterfiles,' which will be remembered as a flimsy affair, so far as dramatic qual ity went, but it provoked laughter by altogether polite and seemly means and it made an agreeable entertain-ment. Although Mr. Carleton might well have repeated himself he did not. He has improved and invented different manner and matter, and so we have this second comedy running at times perhaps to farce, but never at all rude or vulgar."

au 16 D&W tf

[Special Star Correspondence.] CHAPEL HILL, N. C. Sept. 21 .-The week just closed marks the most successful one through which the University has ever passed. Last year the total registration of students was

ed last week as regards the attendance in the law school. The number of students in that department is now greater than ever before, and prospects point to one of the most success ful year's in its history. It may interest some to know that out of the sixty men sent before the State Board in the the past year, fifty-nine have passed the examination successfully. Six of these applicants received the highest marks given. At a meeting of the Athletic Asso-ctation Saturday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: J. B. Ramsey, president; A. H. Johnson, vice president: T. Hill, secretary and treasurer; L. S. Holt, chief cheerer; R. S. Stewart, graduate member, Advisory Committee on Athletics; A. W. Haywood, Jr., Undergraduate Member of Advisory Committee on Athletics. Dr. Chas. Baskerville is the faculty member and chairman of this committee. The following men were elected to serve as editors of the Tar Heel, the official organ of the Athletic Associa-

chief: Assistant Editors: J. K. Wilson, J. V. Howard, W. T. Shore, Jesse Moore and John Parker; Assistant Manager, W. E. Pharr. . Last year's brilliant record in both foot ball and base ball has aroused the most intense interest in athletics this year. The foot ball team lined up for the first time Saturday afternoon as follows: Stewart, c; Donnelly and Parker, guards; H. M. and G. L. Jones, (captain), tackles; Fisher and Townsend, ends; Engle, q. b.; Mann and Jabobs, half backs; Robeson, full back.
