COMMITTEE MET YESTERDAY.

T. C. James, Milltery Post Commander, Assures Imperial German Consul of Desire to Co-operate in Honor of Visiting Ship.

Although as yet no definite information has been received here as to the probable arriving time of the German gunboat "Panther," which will visit this port in the near future, preparations for entertaining the distinguished visitors upon the occasion of the visit are going on apace and the attention shown them promises to be quite elaborate.

The Chamber of Commerce is the first organization to take official notice of the expected visit, but others will likely follow suit this week. The "Panther" sailed from Halifax, Nova Scotis, the 16th inst., and is expected at Newport News any day. She will then proceed down the coast to Wilmington, remaining here for several days. The ship was to have paid a visit to Savannah while down this way but official advices have been received there that the visit has been indefinitely postponed. The "Gazelle," a sister ship of the "Panther" visited Savannah some time ago and during her stay there the Germans made quite an impression and the officers were shown marked social attention. Many Wilmington people are looking forward to a visit aboard the "Panther" because of the very conspicuous part it played in the German fleet during the late Venezuelan troubles. The Chamber of Commerce has thus far acted only through its Executive Committee, which met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, those in attendance having been President J. A. Taylor, Vice President S. P. McNair, Secretary James Kyle and Messrs. L. B. Rogers, M. S. Willard and M. F. H. Gouverneur. The coming of the war craft was very generally discussed and all agreed that the usual courtesies should be shown to the ship and its flag. Accordingly the matter was referred to the standing committee on Public Entertainment, which was requested to ascertain what are the usual courtesies in such cases, outline a plan for fulfilling the same and report back to the Executive Committee at the earliest convenience. The committee is composed of Messrs. M. W. Jacobi, Jno. R. Turrentine, Jr., Jos. H. Watters, Jno. H. Rehder, Capt. T. D. Meares and Col. T. C. James. The Chamber has no funds that are available for public entertainment purposes and the cost therefore will have to be borne individually. Mr. John H. Rehder, a member of the committee, is also president of the Merchants' Association, and that body will join heartily in any movement looking to the entertainment of the visitors. Col. T. C. James, another member of the committee, is ranking officer of all the military organizations in the city and he has already assured Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., Acting Imperial German Consul here, that it will not only be his privilege but a pleasure to add anything possible in his power to make the distinguished guests' visit to Wilmington something to be remembered. He also writes Acting Imperial Consul Peschau that he will await with much interest further advices from him as to the definite time of the arrival of the

the city met last night on the fourth floor of the Atlantic National Bank building for the purpose of organizing a local union of the National association. However, only a temporary organization was effected and after appointing a committee to call upon the various clerk in the city, a recess was taken until next week when it is hoped to have a much larger attendance.

At the meeting last night Mr. Henry C. Howard was called to the chair and Mr. Julius P. Taylor was requested to sel as secretary. The benefits to be derived from the formation of a local union, were generally discussed and much enthusiasm was shown. The committee appointed to call upon other clerks and to interest them in the movement is composed as follows: J. P. Taylor, D. Wilborn Davis, Hardy Hear and Hiram Jenkins. Mesers. J. Edgar Lewis, from the Typographical union; Mr. A. H. Weedov, from the Electrical Wire Workers, and Mr. G. F. Quinn, from the Carpenters and Joiners union, were among the other trades organization represented at the meeting last night.

His Relative Bereaved.

Mr. James H. Taylor, Jr., received a telegram from Savannah yesterday announcing the death of Mrs. Campbell Wallie Coney, wife of Mr. Neill Coney, his cousin. The death is very sad, as the couple was married only last June. Scores of friends of Mr. Coney in Wilmington will receive the news with deepest regret. Mr. Coney lived in this city until he was grown. He is a son of Captain Walter Coney.

AT THE ACADEMY THIS WEEK. HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Raleigh Was Pleased With "Human Hearts"-Sale of Seats Open This Morning-May Sargent.

To-morrow night the popular melo. drama, "Human Hearts," will return to the Academy and will be given an elaborate scenic production. Of the play and players, yesterday's Raleigh Post says:

"Human Hearts" was presented at the Academy of Music last night before a well filled house. The play itself is a clever combination of humor and pathos, and the emotions of the audience were thoroughly exercised.

The heroes won unstinted applause while the villains were complimented with storms of hisses. The play was well received throughout."

The sale of seats will commence s Plummer's this morning.

May Sargent, who formerly starred in "Other People's Money," has a money-getter in "That Imprudent Young Couple" in which she plays down; his right thigh was broken ing the play the New York Sun said

"The talk is excellent jest and repartee, the characterizations strong and situations genuinely comical. The audience at the Empire Theatre laugh ed a great deal just as expected i would. In any comedy there is no higher aim than to make people laugh and in that respect a great success was scored by the author, Henry Guy A complication of misunderstand ings makes up the plot, and the encountered and explained away by the various characters are so plent ful that one regrets so charming piece to have any ending at all. Maude Adams' role falls into most capable hands, as no more agreeable choice than Miss Sargent could have The piece will be seen at the Acad-

OFFICERS OUT ALL NIGHT.

Country Negroes Rounded Up Night Before Last at Carolina Beach.

Constable W. B. Bavage, Deputy Sheriff Cox and Justice Bornemann spent all of night before last at and around Carolina Beach in search of several offenders who have been wanted by the authorities for a week or ten days. The officers drove down by private conveyance and after having scouted around until early morning they returned to the city with three colored boy defendants, whom they lodged in jail. Bylvester Evans and Dan Wright two of the number, are charged with the larceny of a hand bag containing a number of articles, including a pistol and other property, from Mr. W. E. Mayo, of this city. The property was stolen from the Carolina Beach cars as Mr. Mayo and family were going to the seashore early in August. They will be given preliminary trial before Justice Bornemann at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The third defendant is Dan Mitchell. colored, and he gave $50 bond to Justice Fowler yesterday for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court to answer the charge of having thrown and struck Walter Freeman. colored, in the eye with a clam. The offence occurred about two months ago at Carolina Beach and Freeman came near losing his sight as a result of the blow.

Marriage Ceremony in Jail. In the presence of 53 dirty, dingy prisoners perring through bars to witness the ceremony, Martha Lewis, of Southport, both colored, were married in the county jil at S o'clock yesterday afternoon. The bride carried no shower bouquet of roses, neither was she nor the groom arrayed in fine linen and costly jewelry. It was s plain every-day sort of an affair to save the groom from further court trouble, he having been committed to jail several days ago upon a charge of seduction preferred by the bride. Jardan bade his fellow prisoners goodbye immediately after the ceremony and passed out the big iron door to the jail with his bride.

A Fine Ear of Corn and a Parmer. Mr. Geo. J. Moore, of Atkinson, was here yesterday and left for the agricultural editor an ear of corn 14 inches around and 12 inches long. Mr. Moore says he has 84 acres that will harvest 50 bushels to the acre. He raised all the meat needed on his place this year and sold some at good prices. Ten-Year-Old Boy Frightfullly Injured by Falling Under Railroad Car.

LEGS AMPUTATED.

Little Son of Mrs. Strickland, Who Lives on Castle Street, Victim of Perhaps Patal Accident Yesterday Aftersoon at Oneen and Surry.

Kelly Barfield, the little ten-yearold son of Mrs. Nancy S. Strickland, formerly Mrs. Barfield, who lives on Castle, next to its northwestern intersection with Front street, was run over by a railroad car attached to a small engine on the dummy track of the Atlantic Coast Line at Queen and Surry streets yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock and was so badly bruised and broken that his life al most is despaired of.

He is at the James Walker Memo rial Hospital whither he was transferred in the ambulance a short time after the accident. Last night it was stated that he was still living and there was a possibility that he would survive the injuries.

The shifting engine had gone out from the A. C. L. yards in the northern portion of the city and had gone into the new sidetrack at Northrop's mill and brought out a car with which it had started back to the freight yard about a mile distant. The boy with other companions, as had been their custom, were jumping on and off the train for the brief rides it afforded them. The unfortunate Barfield boy wason the engine and when it started back along the wharf to the yards, he jumped off but failed to get his footing and went under the car attached to the shifter. There were other slight bruises about the body and head.

The engineman on the shifter stopped the car as soon as possible and Mr. R. H. Northrop and others quickly summoned a physician and sent an emergency call to the hospital for the ambulance. Dr. Wright Hall was the first physician to arrive and minister to the boy's suffering and very soon thereafter Dr. Akerman came in the ambulance and took the patient quickly to the hospital. He was taken up to the operating room and Dr. Akerman and Dr. C. T. Harper at once amputated the left leg at the knee and the right just above the knee. The fractures were also set as best they

The accident is a most distressing one and should the boy live the condition in which he will be left will make life a burden for him. The sympathy of the community is with the little fellow and those who are near and dear to him.
