PLANS FOR CARNIVAL.

Spectacular Parade of Exquisite Floats and Military Will be One of Features.

ARRANGEMENTS IN PROGRESS

Layton Company at Elizabeth City This Week and at Newbern Next-Some of the Paid and Pree Attractions Which Will be Seen.

To-morrow two weeks the big street fair and carnival by the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will be inaugurated in Wilmington and the various sub-committees of arrangements have their work well in hand, The fair promoter of the Layton Company, which will furnish the attractions, is still in the city, losing not a minute, and is enthusiastic over the prospects for a big success. This week Mr. John W. Blomme, special advertising agent, will make a trip up the various railways radiating from Wilmington and will make the country|blaze with attractive lithograph matter calling attention to the attractions here during "Fair week." The territory between Wilmington and Newbern, Goldsboro, Fayetteville, Florence and Southport will be persistento'clock. The funeral arrangements ly worked.

One of the main features of the week will be a grand parade on Wednesday night 31st, which is being arranged by the Parade Committee consisting of A. Watkins (chairman), Jno. H. Griffith, W. L. Burkhimer, W. P. Mc-Glaughon, H. O. Thomas, Joseph Horton and E. P. Dudley. The committee met last night and the chairman appointed Mr. Dudley as secretary, with instructions to extend a cordial invitation to the W. L. L. Naval Reserves and Boys' Brigade to form a part of the procession. A detail will also be asked from those organizations to act as guard of honor for the Queen of the Carnival, who will be selected by popular vote, beginning to-morrow, and who will ride with her maids of honor in an exquisite float. Messrs. Jno. H. Griffith and H. O. Thomas were appointed to make all arrangements for the float, etc., and to solicit at least four additional floats from business men. A committee was also appointed to invite Governor Aycock, Mayor Springer and State Jr. O. U. A. M. Councillor Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, to ride at the head of the procession. A unique and what promises to be a pleasing feature of the parade will be a body of uniformed Mechanics representing the U.S. flag, which is a conception of Mr. Watkins, the enterprising chairman. Men will represent the 13 stars in white, while the stripes will be represented by separate columns of men in red, white and blue. It is estimated that 150 men will be required for this display. Calclum lights will be used, and it is proposed to make the effect very pretty. Uncle Sam will escort the flag in a clever impersonation by some tall member of the order, and Miss Columbia will be elegantly costumed as an escort from the rear. The Layton Carnival Company is at Elizabeth City this week, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, and will exhibit in Newbern next week, under the auspices of the volunteer fire department and other organizations of that city. There are five free and 15 paid attractions. The free attractions embrace Selzer, the famous high wire walker; Percino, who does acrobatic feats on single and double trapeze; McLain, who does acrobatic work on Spanish rings, and McFarland, who will dive from a ninety-foot ladder into a basin of water four feet deep. five feet wide by ten feet long.

Among the paid attractions are the 'Red Dome," Miss Alice Fisher in illustrated songs and Swanson's funny moving pictures; "Trip to the Moon," "Lunette," the Plantation Show; Conchits, the "Spanish Dance;" the "House Turning Upside Down;" "Osay," the snake eater; the "Palace of Art;" the "Eden Show;" the Big Ferris Wheel and the "Statue Turning

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the City Hall, those present having been Mayor W. E. Springer (chairman), Dr. C. T. Harper (secretary), Olty Engineer S. P. Adams and Mr. M. W. Jacobi. The draft of an ordinance establishing a sanitary plumbing system in the city was presented by the committee to which the matter was referred, but final action was deferred until a subsequent special meeting to be called by the chairman. The other business of the Board yesterday was of a routine character.

COMING TO-MORROW NIGHT.

"When Her Soul Speaks," With Miss Eva Mountford in Leading Role-Concert by the Orchestra.

"When Her Soul Speaks" will be seen at the Academy to-morrow night. It is said to be a new play by Mr. Elmer Grandin, and is depicted as a powerful psychological story-the story of a woman's soul. A beautiful love romance runs through it and the many situations are novel and intensely dramatic. The leading female role "Ruth" is assumed by Miss Eva Mountford, an actress of great emotional power and sympathetic methods. The author, Mr. Elmer Gradin, an actor of splendid repute, will be seen in the leading male role of "David Dangerfield," a clergyman of modern and human idear. The scenery and costumes are said to be striking and handsome.

A feature of the evening will be the superb rendition of a special programme by the Academy Orchestra directed by Prof. C. W. Hollowbush, which will be as follows:

BURGLAR IN HIS RESIDENCE.

apt. A. L. DeRosset Had Unpleasant Experlence With Intruder Last Night.

Electric lights turned on and shining as brightly as day, Capt. A. L. DeRosset came face to face with a burglar in one of the rooms of his residence, No. 113 South Second street, as he returned rather late last night from the office of Mesers, Alexander Sprunt & Son, where he is employed. All the other members of the family had retired earlier and the house was left in srkness. As Capt. DeRosset approached his home, returning from the office, he saw the lower floor of the residence ablaze with light and he was naturally at a loss to know what to make of it. He approached rather cautiously, opened the front door, proceeded into one of the rooms and there found a rather well-dressed stranger, who was evidently taken by complete surprise and wanted to talk. Capt. DeRosset was unarmed and could do no better than to drive from the premises the intruder whom he says he could easily identify should he see him again.

Capt. DeRosset says he found no vidences last night of the means of entrance employed.

The fivehundred weight of cotton is said to nave dropped on the negro a distance of fully 40 feet and the wonder is that he was not killed instantly. He had no bones broken, but suffered a severe concussion and has a number of severe sprains and bruises. There may also be a fracture of the base of the skull but the physicians were unable to tell as to that last night. Waddell is at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where he was getting along very nicely last night.

CASES COMPROMISED

End of Beer and Sandwich Litigation in the Superior Court Yesterday,

HILTON RESORT NO MORE

Judge Neal Reached Happy Termination of Troublesome Fight in Collins' Indictments-Other Proceedings. Several for the Roads.

Upon intimation of His Honor, adge Walter H. Neal, that from the estimony submitted by the State and in the absence of anything in rebuttal thereto by the defendant, he would virtually instruct the jury to bring in verdict of guilty and that upon such verdict he' would feel constrained to sentence the defendant to 12 months on the roads, attorneys for Mr. C. E. Collins in the Superior Court yesterday morning adopted the suggestion from the beach by which the defendant was allowed to plead guilty and pay a fine of $25 and costs in the case then on trial and the cost in four other similar cases against him, for selling beer on Sunday and without license. The aggregate of the fine and court costs was about $86 and was settled by Mr. Collins in the afternoon. By the same compromise Collins was required to enter into a verbal agreement and give $250 justified bond to appear at succeeding terms of the Superior Court for 12 months to show that he has desisted from further violation of the law in the manner of which he had pleaded guilty and not to again enter into the sale quor, with or without license. That settlement of the cases against

Mr. Collins was reached when all the testimony was in after another trial yesterday and while the jury was out Judge Neal, who desired to speak paired. with Mesars. Herbert McClammy and The County Home was found to be in Mareden Bellamy, attorneys for Collins, relative to what he would charge the jury. The compromise by Judge Neal was readily accepted by pumps and walks be repaired. counsel for defendant after a brief conference with their client in the judge's room. Only a half-day's session of the

lins' case occupied most of that. It was taken up first thing in the morning and more than an hour and half was consumed in selecting a jury. The special panel of 20 taleamen was soon exhausted; Judge Neal sent out and had a dozen more summoned and about twice that number were pressed into service from spectators in the court room before a jury had been secured. Solicitor Duffy and Iredell Meares, Esq., very strenuously conducted the prosecution and every point was taken advantage of. A number of ministers of the gospel were interested speciators. The State introduced only four witnesses-Policeman J. W. English, who made a purchase of the proverbial sandwiches and got three bottles of beer "on the side;" for a quarter, James G. Green, who accompanied English and "knew the ropes;" D. T. Turley, who testified that he frequently visited Collins' place and saw beer drinking there on Sunday, and U. S. Commissioner S. P. Collier, who testified that he had drawn up the usual application for United States license for Collins. The latter evidence was, howevur, objected to and exceptions were noted. That was also true of much of the other evidence, the jury having been sent out of the room two or three times argued as to competency. The defence dling. offered no testimony, relying upon what had been brought out on cross-examination of the States' witnesses. Finally the case was ready .for counsel to begin argument to the jury and it was at that stage of the proceedings that the jury was passed out at Southport at 10:30 A. M. again sent out and the settlement was proposed by Judge Walter Neal and accepted by defendant's counsel Judge Neal in pronouncing judgment said that defendant had made some concessions and he would do likewise. However, he wanted it understood that | der Sprunt & Son. Mr. Collins expressed a perfect willingness to abandon any violation of the law, and said he would move the building or burn it up, if it was ordered by the court. Later it was suggested that the house had been built by Mr. Collins with the understanding that when he vacated the premises the same was to revert to the owners of the land, and under al., in which a temporary restraining those circumstances Judge Neal didn't order was sought to prevent the de-

CLOSE OF SUPERIOR COURT.

Grand Jury Made Brief But Pointed Report-Term Just Ended-Another Begins Two Weeks Hence.

The one-week term of New Hanover Superior Court, Judge Walter H. Neal presiding by exchange of terms with Judge George H. Brown, Jr., came to a close yesterday afternoon with the presentation of the report of the grand jury, which was discharged with thanks by Judge Neal. The docket was pretty well cleared with the exception of five or six cases which came over from the mayor during the closing hours of the term, among the number of defendants being Walter J. Lucas, the negro who so violently resisted Police Sergeant Burnett last week, and Robert Spicer, colored, charged with aiding and abetting the colored belligerent. The cases will be called at the two weeks' term of court to be convened two weeks hence, Judge Brown presiding. During the term just ended Solicitor Duffy and Judge Neal cleared the docket of 129 cases, an accumulation of nearly three months. The next term will not be so crowded with criminal matters and several important civil suits will likely be adjudicated. The grand july's report yesterday was as follows:

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 3rd Hon. Walter H. Neal, Judge Superior
