mains were interred in Bellevue.

From an authoritative source yesterday the STAR learned that the handa nade such a desperate effort to some Latimer residence on South Third when the Republican candidate street, recently transfered to a New le Major of Indianapolis. It was York man for $10,500, has now be-ed to and Chief of Police Furlong is rels rosin. Cotton had been handled sued peremptory orders for the carnival building to cease until a reckoning was had. Mayor Springer accompanied by the Jr. O. U. A. M. Central Committee then visited all the centres of objection and tried to effect an amicable adjustment. The "hobby horses" were the chief objects of distaste and after having been moved four times at length were located and were being established at Third and Market streets last night. Meantime other tents and appurtenances were being moved hither and thither until at last the men in charge were able to "stake a claim" in friendly territory. Early in the afternoon it was seen that it would be impossible to get everything ready for opening at night and a postponement until this afternoon had to be resorted to. Then it was the cue of the "Juniors" and Manager Layton, of the carnival company to get angry. The latter talked mildly of suing the city for trying to revoke street privileges after he had gone to the expense of bringing his attractions here and the "Juniors" talked of boycotting those merchants whom they said had discriminated against them in favor of the K. of P. and Elks on former occasions.

However, matters were assuming more favorable shape at nightfall and one or two of the shows were opened at 5 o'clock. Confetti was sold by the peck and Second and Market street was thronged with merry-makers until a late hour last night. The crowds were in truth a revelation to those who heard so much adverse criticism upon a return of the carnival. The shows that were open did a smashing business, as did also the cane and knife racks, the base-ball games, the striking machine, the ferris wheel, the palmistry parlor and the novelty photographer's tent. Market street from Front to Third Slow Progress Upon Dispensary Agitation. Registration and Signatures.

Members of the Anti-Saloon Executive Committee have commenced work securing signatures to the dispensary election petitions in their respective wards, pursuant to instruction from the general meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night. It is learned that only fair success is be ing met with. It is pointed out, however, that it will be an easy matter to secure the necessary number of names as the registration in the last election was very light and only one-third of that number is required. No registration was required for the primary, which virtually decided the race for municipal honors and conse quently few people took the trouble to register for the general election which was a mere matter of form. A convass of the registration books yesterday disclosed that out of a vote of 2,086 in the last primary for mayor only 1,248 registered for the election, consequent ly only a third of that number will be required to sign the petition for calling an election on the liquor question. The committee, however, will be handicapped because of the fact that no voter whose name is not on the last registration books is eligible to sign the petition. The registration by wards in the last municipal election was as follows:

Gare. Judge Brown's charge having been ompleted the trial of cases was entered upon. The most important disposed of during the day were those of Walter J. Lucas, the desperate young negro criminal who gave Police Sergeant C. 8. Burnett such a strenuous fight for his life in an isolated negro quarter of the city a few weeks ago. The case is remembered well by readers of the city papers. He was represented by Messrs, Herbert McClammy and Brooks G. Emple and having been found guilty of resisting the officer was sentenced to three months on the county roads. Upon the charge of having snatched a watch from Mr. N. M. Hunt he was given 13 months. His conviction in the latter case having been first, Judge Brown was disposed to suspend judgment in the case for resisting the officer, but Solicitor Duffy referred to the growing practice of certain negroes to show bsolutely no respect for the law or officers and Lucas was given the three months. Bobert Spicer, the negro charged with aiding Lucas in his resistance to the officer, was found not guilty and discharged. Joseph Moore, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, waived bill, submitted and was sentenced to 60 days on the roads. Ella Henry, the colored woman who was fined $10 and costs in the Mayor's court some time ago and appealed, withdrew the appeal, having paid the fine and cost to the city authorities. She was also required to pay Superior Court costs in the appeal out of cash

Mayor's Court Yesterday,

The last case before a recess for the day was that of Charles Dunston, the colored painter who was arrested by Justice Bornemann and Policemen Gray and Wells some time ago and upon whose person a pistol was found. Court took a recess while the jury was out and the clerk shortly thereafter received a verdict of guilty. Two Civil Matters Heard, During the day Judge Brown heard the petition of J. W. England, of New York, against the Fishblate Clothing Co., asking that the appointment of Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., as temporary receiver be made permanent. The matter was allowed and Mr. Bellamy now becomes permanent receiver. It is understood that certain creditors of the same corporation who are not satisfied with the receivership will seek a winding up of the business in the bankruptoy court, Judge Brown also heard yesterday and overruled a motion for dismissal of the case of Mrs. Barbara Bear and others against the Mutual Reserve day.

noon at the home of her daughter. Mrs. W. F. Penny, No. 710 Orange street, where she and her husband had lived since the tragic death of their son, Joseph C. Meier, who was killed by being run over by a trolley car near Greenville Sound, only a few weeks ago. Mrs. Meler had been in poor health some time, but lately she had grown more feeble and though everything known to medical science was done for her comfort, she passed quietly into the Great Beyond at the hour indicated.

Mrs. Meier was a daughter of the late Capt. Henry Blanchard, of Providence, R. I, and was born in Wilmington 68 years ago on the 16th of last March, the family having moved here from the north. The 50th anniversary of the marriage of Capt. and Mrs. Meier would have been celebrated a short time ago, but for their deep bereavement in the deplorable death of their son. Mrs. Meier was a devout Christian woman and was loved and esteemed by every one who enjoyed her acquaintance. For more than 50 years she had been a member of the Methodist church and at her death was consistent member of Grace M. E. church. She is survived, besides her grief-stricken husband, by two sons and two daughters, Mr. John Meler, Mrs. P. H. Walsh, Mr. Frank Meier and Mrs. W. F. Penny, all of this city. Mr. Jacob Meier, a well known merchant tailor of Jacksonville, Fla., is a nephew of the deceased. He was telegraphed yesterday of the death, as was also Mr. P. H. Walsh, who was in Florida on business for the A. C. L. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the residence; thence to Grace church and Oakdale cemetery.

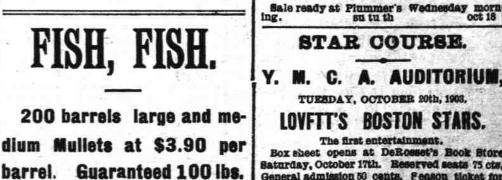

The Mayor had a large number of offenders in his court yesterday at noon. Isaac Singleton, the negro tramp charged with attempted criminal assault upon Sarah Payne, a little colored girl, was sent to jail for the present term of Superior Court, and the same fate awaited George Boney, the the notorious chicken thief who some time ago raided a coop of fancy birds belonging to Mr. M. C. Kreeger. Two of the trio of young negro crap shooters captured Saturday night by Policeman Leon George were also sent over, the third, Arthur Taylor, having been discharged for want of evidence. Several defendants were fined $10 and cost for drunkenness.
