Miss Margaret Louise St. George and Mr. W. H. Stope, Jr., Plighted Troth at Hymen's Altar-Bridal Tour.

A beautiful wedding ceremony in Trinity M. E. church, of Southport, at high noon yesterday joined in marriage two popular young people, well known and highly esteemed in Wilmington-Miss Margaret Louise St. George, the accomplished and attractive young daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William St. George, of Southport, and Mr. William Henderson Stone, Jr., formerly of this city, but now secretary and treasurer of the large mercantile firm of the Stone Brothers Company, of Little River, S. C. The pretty church was attractively decorated for the occasion with a notted plants, making a charming of-feet which was enhanced by the large and fashionable assemblage of guests in attendance. The bridal party entered to the tuneful strains of a wedding march from Lohengrin played with exquisite touch by Mrs. Cary. The usbers and bridesmaids came down the main aisle forming a semicircle about the altar, while the groom with his best man, Mr. L. F. Bryan, of Little River, S. C., entered from a rear door at the left, having been joined at the altar by the bride with her sister and maid of honor, Miss Eva St. George, who came in from the right. Rev. Euclid McWhorter performed the beautiful service which joined the happy young people in marriage while the organist played softly and with beautiful effect, Then You'll Remember Me." The party left the church to the glad strains of Mendelsohn's Wedding

The bride was attractively costumed in a beautiful gown of brown cloth with hat and gloves to match. She carried a lovely bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaids wore Miss Victoria Stone, sister of the groom; Misses Nellie Newton, Ida Manson, Bsulah Weeks, of Southport, and Miss Mamie McGirt, of Wilmington. They were lovely creations in cream colors of crepe de chine, with stylish black hats and carried bouquets of white and pink carnations and ferns. The ushers, Dr. J. Arthur Dosher, Rivers St. George, Joe W. Ruark and Fred R. Mintz, of Southport, and H. J. Vereen, of Little River, wore suits of conventional black.

One of the pleasing features of the ceremony was the attendance in a body of the bride's Sunday school and Epworth League classes, thirty small boys having formed in a company and marched to the church, thence to the home of the bride and later to the boat where they gave three rousing cheers and doffed their caps in honor of their teacher to whom they are tenderly devoted. After the ceremony a brief reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and at 4:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Stone, accompanied by a host of Wilmington friends who went down on the boat at 8 o'clock, returned on the steamer "Sanders" under special charter, arriving here in the late afternoon. They were both entertained by friends at The Orton and left at 7 o'clock on the northbound A. C. L. train for an extended bridal tour to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other Northern cities. They will be at home after Nov. 1st at Little River, S. C. Accompanying them from Southport to Wilmington were Miss Eva St. George and Mr. Fred. R. Mints and the following party from the city who went down on the steamer in the morning: Capt. and Mrs. W. A. Sanders, Mrs. T. L. Vines, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Stone, Misses Katie and Zillah Rourk.

"HOITY-TOITY" THIS EVENING.

Weber & Pield's Greatest Musical Comedy To-night-Remainder of Week.

The box sheet for the appearance of Weber and Field's great comedy success "Holty-Toity" at the Academy to night, opened yesterday morning at Plummer's and already the sale of seats is larger than upon even the close of the sale for the Marie Wainwright production Tuesday evening. The fact is a gratifying one for the lovers of smart musical travesty and doubtless the comedy will prove one the big auccesses of the year at the local playhouse. Weber & Fields never do things in a niggardly manner. Their productions are staged with an utter disregard of money: they are after results, and lovers of musical comedy and bright, clean burlesque, will admit when they see stand alone in their class, schieved til the deceased saw that this affiant remarkable results with this, the greatest of all their many beautiful and costly productions, upon flaming headlines, that the coroner's which it is said they have lavish- jury had pronounced this affiant $25,000, bringing the direct from a solld year's run at their New York theatre. In "Hoity Toity" there are said to be more laughs, more chuckles and still more smiles than in all the other musical comedies. Seats now on sale at Plummer's.

To morrow and Saturday evenings and Saturday at matinee the Wills' Comedy Company will be at the Academy in three elaborate productions of "3weet Sixteen." The Charlotte Observer of yesterday said of the same bill in that city the night previous: "The specialties are quite good. The performance is really better than a lot of dollar shows that have come here this season." The company carries special scenery, and 20 people, mostly girls, make up the cast.

PRETTY SOUTHPORT WEDDING | A CHANGE OF VENUE.

Counsel for Hill Terry Ask Removal of His Case to Another County.

INTRODUCED AFFIDAVITS.

illegations of Strong Local Prejudice Against Prisoner and Inflamed Public Mind by Newspapers-Motlon for Removal Continued.

Will S. Hill Terry, charged with the murder of his son-in-law, George T. Bland, on the sixth of the present month, be tried by a jury of his peers in New Hanover county, or will a change of venue be granted and the wealth of palms, ferns, bamboo and cause be transferred to an adjacent county for trialt

That is the question now being argued in the Superior Court by able legal talent on both sides of the case and upon affidavits and counter-affidavits submitted yesterday and to be submitted to-day, Judge Brown will determine. What his decision will probably be none can tell, for not yet has all the evidence bearing upon the motion been heard, nor, of course, has His Honor made any intimation of the mportance placed upon the documentary evidence already in. As forecasted yesterday, the motion contemplated by attorneys for the defence was one of removal to another county, on the grounds of alleged local prejudice against the defendant. The motion was to have been made yesterday morning but was postponed until the afternoop. Affidavits of the defendant and six citizens of Wilmington and two from the country were submitted at 8 o'clock and the prosecution was given until to-day to answer. Solicitor Duffy and his associates, E. M. Koonce, Esq., J. B. Schulken, Esq., of the firm of Lewis & Schulken, Whiteville, and J. F. Seliars, Esq, of this city, will as speedily as possible, on next Monday, as originally set, and that there is no valid or legal reason for removal. On the other side a strong array of counsel will plead for change of venue. the attorneys for the defence having been strengthened yesterday by the addition of Messrs. A. J. Marshall and Brooke G. Emple, of the local bar. The defendant Terry was in court yesterday and followed the reading of the adffidavits attentively.

The prisoner in the dock was worn to the affidavit of removal and as the clerk administered the usual oath, Terry held the Bible nervously. Mr. Marsden Bellamy then turned to the court and stated that the motion of which counsel for defence had riven notice was one for removal of the cause to some adjacent county and in support of the petition he desired to read first the affidavit just sworn to by the defendant and some others which had been obtained by the attorneys interested. Mr. Bellamy began reading but the blatant music of the carnival hobby-horses on an adjoining corner interfered with the hearing of those present and Judge Brown sent Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox to silence the disturbing factor. Mr. Bellamy drew nearer the bench and read the affidavits through without comment. The first was that of defendant as follows:

AFFIDAVIT OF DEFENDANT TERRY. State of North Carolina,

New Hanover County. "Affidavit for Bemoval. State

3. H. Terry.)
"The defendant, S. H. Terry, makes oath that he cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial in the county of New Hanover, for the reason hereinafter "He is charged with murder in the first degree arising out of a homicide which occurred so recently as the 6th day of the present month.

"He is a person of limited means and has not been able to procure counsel until the last few days. The homicide, as he is informed and believes, has created great excitement in this county and the prejudice is substantially universal against the prisoner. The county consists almost entirely of the city of Wilmington where three daily newspapers are published; all three of these papers announced the homicide in great head lines and statements prejudical to the prisoner and calculated to produce a general belief that he is guilty of premeditated homicide, amounting to murder in the first degree. Among the statements amounting to editorial allegations were assertions which are untrue in fact, but which, if true, would be most prejudicial and fatal to the prisoner. Some of these newspaper assertions were such as follows: A narrative which in substance to an allegation, that the prisoner sought the deceased with premeditated purpose to kill; that the deceased did not draw his pistol "Holty-Tolty," that these men, who until the affiant fired, or at least unwas trying to kill him.

"In one of the articles, in one of the papers, were two allegations in fact that was, or is, inconsistent with the innocence of this smant.

"In another of said daily among many expressions and head-lines prejudicial to this prisoner, was an expression of editorial opinion to the effect that this prisoner's claim that he was fired at by deceased seemed to be poorly supported, and that the coroner's jury were unanimous in their opinion that the deceased did not

after the homicide there were as affiout of jail and kill him. Other frequent expressions as affiant is informed and believes have been to the effect that if this affiant should be acquitted, he ought to be and would be lynched.

"This affiant is informed and betieves and on such information and belief, charges and alleges that many of the friends of the deceased have for many days been actively engaged in canvassing the city of Wilmington scliciting funds from its citizens with which to prosecute this affiant: that said subscription paper has been generally circulated, and that very many citizens of the town have subscribed and some of them liberally, to said "This affiant further charges and al leges that so violent is the local preja dice against him, that he has been unable to procure witnesses, although he has reason to believe that such persons are aware of all the facts occurring at the time of the homicide, and indeed it is true, as this affiant is informed by his counsel, some of such persons have refused to answer questions, or to be interviewed by his counsel some of them saying that they were afraid of the friends of the deceased, fearing personal violence if they should appear and testify to what they knew. That a very large number of citizens of the county qualified for jury duty, have openly expressed and are constantly expressing the belief not only that the prisoner is guilty, but also that he could not obtain a fair and impartial trial in this county, and yet so intense is the popular feeling against the prisoner that nearly all these citizens decline to make voluntary affidavits, stating what they openly express on the streets and other places, public and pirate. Since the day of the homicide this affiant is informed and believes that the facts as published have been generally and thoroughly canvassed and discussed by the citizens generally of Wilmington, and the county of New Hanover, and that so far as the information of this affiant extends, those discussions have been adverse to this affiant, and the opinion almost universally is, that this affiant is guilty of murder and should be hung, and that those who have expressed any opinion as to the trial have declared that this affiant could not get of New Hanover. 'That this affiant is informed and believes and therefore charges and alleges that the feeling in this county is so intensely hostile to him that threats have been made by a large number of citizens to take him from the jail and lynch him and that in order to prevent them from executing their threats, the county and city authorities have been forced to guard the jail.

THE AFFIDAVITS OF CITIZEES. Ms. Bellamy next read the affidavits of six citizens of the city and two living in the country, as follows: "-- being duly sworn, says that he is a resident of New Hanover county and has been a resident for --years, his occupation being that of -; that he has heard the matter of the killing of George T. Bland by S.H. Terry frequently discussed by a large number of those qualified to serve as jurors in the said county of New Hanover; and that the opinion expressed by all of them was adverse and prejudicial to the defendant, Terry, and that there is not one in his favor, and that the said defendant could not get a fair and impartial trial in the said county of New Hanover, and that this affiant knows from such expressions and discussions, that there is a strong popular prejudice against said defendant; further that this afflant has no interest in the said case and has never expressed the opinion that Terry is not guilty.

"Affiant further says, that from his knowledge of the opinions of those qualified to serve as jurors in this county and from the prejudice existing in this community against the defendant, he does not believe that the defendant can get a fair and impartial trial in this county.

WHO THE SIGNERS ARE.

The affidavits from citizens with only slight, if any, variations from the form printed above, are by Mr. N. M. Hunt, a foreman at the Wilmington Cotton Mills, 15 years a resident of the city; J. F. Casteen, a car inspector, 17 years a resident of the city; J. M. Chadwick, a car inspector, 17 years a resident of the city; Owen Martindale, a farmer, living 5 miles south of Wilmington in Masonboro township; Ernest V. Richards, a decorative painter, long a resident of the city; J. H. McDougall, a moulder, 19 years a resident of Wilmington; Geo. H. Ward, sergeant of the police force, 46 years a resident of Wilmington, and Elijah Hewlett, a farmer, 14 years treasurer of the county and sheriff four years, a resident of Masonboro township seven miles east of the city. Mr. Martindale qualified his affidavit by saying that he had talked with probably 100 persons eligible to serve on the jury who had spoken adversely of the defendant. Upon completion of the reading of the affidavit, Mr. J. B. Judge Russell said counsel for the defence would do so and he presumed that a private memorandum would be all that was necessary. Mr. Schulken said that would be satisfactory. Mr. Schulken then asked, in behalf of the State, for time to submit affidavits and argument in rebuttal and Judge Brown directed that court take a recess until 10 o'clock this morning, when he said he would hear the State. CRIMINAL SESSIONS OVER .: CARNIVAL PROGRESS.

In point of numbers the Carnival reached the zenith of its glory last night, vast throngs having been attracted down town by the announcement of the parade which took place about 9 o'clock. The street fair district was packed and jammed with people and the sidewalks along the route of parade were well lined with men, women and children. The parade, however, was not a success for a combination of reasons over which the committee had no control. The various features were slow in assem, bling; a promise of the carnival band to furnish music was fulfilled only at the ninth hour, and then its appearance was apparently a matter of indifference; the postponement of the fireworks display at Ninth and Red Cross streets upon such short notice, led many participants to believe that the parade would not take place, and consequently they came unprepared; the lighting effects for the procession promised by the Layton Carnival Company did not arrive in time; the trade flosts were crude and impromptu affairs, and "it wasn't a good night for parades anyway." With all the obstacles to encounter the committee did very well to have a parade at all. The flag effect by "Juniors" in costume was something in the nature of a failure because of the absence of lights. However, Chairman Watkins deserves unbounded praise for his tireless energy in working up the affair, which would have been perfect it he had had the "fire," as he expresses it. Mr. A. M.
