Weber & Fields' Giant Production Scored Great Hit at the Theatre.

Weber & Fields' greatest of musical comedy successes," Holty-Toity," with a combination of all star leads and a as follows : well-trained, shapely chorus, rich in msgnificent costumes and gorgeous scenery, was seen last night at the Academy by an audience which was large and bubbling over with laughs and smiles from beginning to end of the big production. There was plenty of snap and breeziness all the way through and a brightness about the whole affair which captivated everybody under the roof of the theatre. Even the players themselves must have found it difficult to suppress a laugh or repress a smile at the various situations which developed during the action of the play. Miss Lillian Durham, as "Lady Grafter;" E. F. Gallagher, as "General Steele," an American Billionaire, and the trio of Dutch comedians were superb, while the lines and songs all the way through fell into most compstent hands. The audience was one of the largest of the season and "Holty-Toity" was a brilliant success from
