One-Week Term Convened Yesterday. Large Number of Cases Disposed of After Formal Organization-The Grand Jury--- Submissions.

ness with fever of ex-Governor D. L. Russell, one of the leading attorneys for the defence, who was especially anxious to be present in behalf of his made by Marsden Bellamy, Eq., senior counsel for defence, soon after the organization of the court for the present term yesterday morning. As the motion was about to be made, Judge Brown asked if the State was ready. Solicitor Duffy replied that it was. Mr. Bellamy then arose and said that only two attorneys had been employed by the defendant himself to look after the latter's interest in the trial. That since the last term of court ex-Governor Russell, one of the counsel besides himself, had been ill with fever and was still ill that bour and unable to leave his room. Mr. Bellamy said the defendant felt and he felt that it was absolutely essential for a proper presentation of the case that all the counsel should be present. Governor Ruswas anxious that all should be present. On Sunday he had visited the home of his associate and found him very ill; he bore the testimony of one the patient's physicians that he was too unwell to think of being present. Mr. Bellamy further said there was no public clamor that Terry should be railroaded to trial and he would there fore ask in the interest of common trengthened this week by the arrival from Atlanta of Arthur McGrew, a fine trap drummer, and Prof. Cassio Solicitor Duffy replied that personally he would like much to yield to the motion but in justice to himself and the position he held, he could not. He said he had received a letter from Mrs. Rassell asking in behalf of her hus band that the case should be continued and it would be a great pleasure for him to accede to the request did he not feel that it was his duty to do otherwise. If there ever was a case that ought to be tried and tried speedidly, it was the one in hand. Judge Russell's law partner, Mr. Gore, was present, and other able counsel was at hand; he would not give his consent

Mr. Bellamy spoke briefly in reply and Judge Brown stated that he, too, had received a letter from Mrs. Russell informing him of the condition of her husband and beseeching, in his behalf, a continuance, saying that defendant had paid Judge Russell a large fee and that he craved an opportunity to be loyal to his client. At that intimation of the probability of a continuance, Mr. J. B. Schulken, for the prosecution, said that he could not sit idly by and not enter a protest. He desired to be courteous to every one but the affidavite handed in at last term contained the names of an array of counsel for defence, many of whom he saw present and that they would be well able to defend the prisoner. Mr. Bellamy interrupted to say that except Judge Russell and himself, the other attorneys had been employed to appear at the former trial to get up affidavits, etc., and these not by Terry but by Terry's counsel. Upon the conclusion under advisement until afternoon. At 3 o'clock when court assembled Judge Brown granted the continuance and supplemented an order to that effect with the explanation that he had come to Wilmington with the full expectation of holding the trial, but the illness of one of the leading counsel and his inability to be present were facts not to be ignored and according to the almost invariable rule and common practice, he felt it his duty to short illness with diphtheria at 1:30 his order as follows: (New Hanover County Superior Court, 8. H. Terry, (Dec. Term, 1903. The prisoner moves the court to continue his trial until January 1904 of this court upon ground that one of his leading counsel, Hon. Dan'i L. Russell is confined to his bed with malarial fever. Upon the statement of Marsden Bel lamy, Esq , in open court, the court is informed that he and Judge Russell are the only counsel employed by prisoner to try his case in court; that prisoner is a poor man and has used his means in payment of counsel, and is unable to employ other assistance; that Judge Russell has been confined to his bed for five weeks with majarial fever and is now confined to his bed. The same statement has been made to the court by the attending physician. It appears that the prisoner is in close confinement in jail and that no harm can come to the cause of justice by granting the prisoner's motion-The court is of the opinion the prisoner under the circumstances is rea. sonably entitled to a continuance until January term. It is so ordered.

Secretary, Correspondence School, . L. Cunnighim. Transferred to Western North Carolina Conference, E. W. Fox. THE MORNING SESSION

Conference was called to order promptly at 9:30 o'clock this morning, Bishop Candler in the chair. Rev. D. H. Tuttle conducted religious services. The journals of Saturday and Sunday afternoon were read and approved. On Sunday afternoon at the memorial service the following brethren read papers on the life work of those following their names: Rev. T. A. Smoot, paper on Rev. R. B. Hall; Rev. D. H. Tuttle on life of J. W. Wallace; Dr. T. N. Ivey, on life of B. B. Calbreth; Dr. L L. Nash, on life of Rev. L Johnson; Rev. R. B. John, on life and work of Rev. A. R Good-

The remainder of the morning session until 1:10 o'clock was devoted largely to routine business. The report of the committee on books and periodicals was read by Rev. R. W. Bailey, discussed by Rev. N. M. Watson and adopted. Committee on Conference Relations made report; the names of Rev. J. C Crisp, C. W. Smith, J. A. Lee, J. E. Bristowe, J. E. Thompson, J. H. Page, M. C. Thomas, W. S. Davis, J. M. Rice were granted the superannuo. W. Smith, R. W. Townsend, C.

R. Taylor, Samuel Leffers and J. J. Barker, were granted the supernumerary relationship. Dr. John C. Kilgo, when his name was called, gave a report as to the religious influences at Trinity College. He said in substance that while there was much adverse criticism of himself or the management of Trinity College. yet the religious life at Trinity was well looked after. In several instances there had been bright conversions and the student started well; that the indifference of pastors and coolness of churches had the effect to chill and discourage the young Christian and in several instances they had come back to the college without faith and he had to nurse them back to the faith. He spoke in rather a discouraged mood and said his management of the college was unsatisfactory. He was ready to go to Cuba or any other field, the church wanted him and his faithful little wife was ready to go

Bishop Candler said at the conclusion of Dr. Kilgo's address that he thought Dr. Kilgo was uselessly discouraged; that he been along there himself and that later he found he was unnecessarily alarmed. A few brethren have been very anxious to bring the Bassett affair before the conference, but up to the adjurnment of the morning session wiser judgment had prevailed.

THE MAYOR'S COURT YESTERDAY.

Number of Offenders Sent Over to Jail Two Cases Continued.

In the police court yesterday, Virgil Brown, the negro who so severely cut William Simon, a Syrian, on Water street Saturday night, was bound over to the higher court by Mayor Pro Tem Yopp in two cases, bond having been fixed at $100. A razor was the weapon used on the Syrian boy and the two charges consisted of assault with and carrying a concealed weapon.

Willie Davis and Willie Thomas, alias "Black Sam," who were arrested by Policeman T. G. Evans, while they were induging in a "quiet little game" in Strauss' alley Sunday afternoon, were also bound over to Superior

Joe Taylor, colored, was charged with the larceny of a watch from a sailor man whom he beguiled into "Racket Store" alley Saturday night, but the case was continued until to-day. Policeman H. W. Howell yesterday recovered the time-piece where it had been hidden under a house in Latimer's

Geo. Williams, colored, was charged with trying to break in the house of a colored woman, near Tenth and Market streets, but the character of the house was called into question and the case was left open for witnesses.

Chicago Lady Entertainers. The sale of reserved seats at DeRosset's book store yesterday for the Chicago Ladies, the popular entertainers, was unusually large. The Times, of Beavor, Pa., says: "The varied and excellent programme was rendered in a manner so faultless as to win the applause of the largest audience (composed of music lovers) ever assembled in the Academy here. Upon the reconvening of court at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Judge Brown handed down his order in the Terry case and immediately resumed the regular docket. Viola Edwards, colored, charged with the larceny of an amount of money and several articles from the apartments of the family of Mr R. W. Wallace, on Dock street, was arraigned and through her counsel, Woodus Kellum, Eeq., she pleaded not guilty. After hearing the evidence, however, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and she was sentenced to the county jail for six months. In another case in which she was charged with the larceny of a quantity of dry goods from the Paris Millinery Store, judgment was sus-Jim Whitted, the negro, who represented faisely that he had been sent by Mr. C'ayton Giles to several merchants and had thereby secured large quantities of eggs which he sold for his own benefit, submitted in one case of larceny and two of false pretence. In the larceny case he was sentenced to the roads for six months and in the others, judgment was suspended. Louis Lavendar, a notorious negro thief, stood trial for petty larceny; was found guilty and sentenced to six

Arthur Thomas, colored, for a simi ar offence, also got six months. R. Gooding, the young negro charged with baving stolen an overcoat from some A. C. L. workmen at the "Y" about two weeks ago, was found not guilty by a jury which remained out about 30 minutes after court took a recess for the day.

Raymon Jose, the white tramp who drifted into town with the carnival attempt to run away from her home, in this city, submitted to the charge upon advice of his counsel, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., and upon recommendation and at the request of the mother of the girl, who desired to avoid further publicity of the matter, judgment was suspended on payment of costs. Dave Merritt and Ben Bivins, both colored, submitted to gambling, and judgment was reserved. The same
