JUDEG PARKER'S CAMPAIGN.

The campaign to elect Judge Parker President of the United States is now assuming an aggressive form. In New York on Friday Governor Odell "jammed through" a Judge Parker conferred with the party leaders, and they went over the plan of campaign.

It is a gratifying announcement that it was agreed that the canvass shall now be gotten under way without delay and conducted in an en ergetic and earnest manner until the 8th of November. Heretofore the campaign has lacked the energy and enthusiasm that should have the Democracy a candidate who at least wears no boss' collar and bears no characterized it, but that was to be expected from the conditions attending the reorganization of the party on its present lines. The Democratic newspapers, however, have been doing splendid campaign work, and their influence in this campaign will be greater than in any former national contest.

It was agreed at the New York conference, and it is a most pleasing announcement, that there are now no party factions to harmonize in New York. The indications are that Parker and Davis and Herrick and Harrison will be enthusiastically supported.

Judge Herrick and Mr. Harrison will open their campaign without delay. Like Judge Parker, and very much unlike Senator Fairbanks who still declines to resign as Senator, Judge Herrick will resign from the Supreme Court bench as soon as he can finish the legal work now before him. He has written to Presiding Justice Charles E. Parker, of the Appellate Division, third department, requesting that another justice be designated to preside at the September trial term, which convenes there next Monday. Justice Herrick will convene the term and then transfer his duties to whoever is named to take his place. He announces that he will not open personal campaign headquarters until after his resignation from the · bench is accepted. It will then become the duty of Gov. Odell to appoint a successor to serve out the balance of his term, which will expire on the 1st of January, 1906.

Among the telegrams of congratulations received by Judge Herrick upon his nomination for governor was a message from Gov. Myron T Herrick, of Ohio, who is a distant cousin of the candidate.

Judge Herricks candidacy has been favorably received by the Independent press of New York. The Democratic press is strong for him, but, as was to be expected, the Re-Republican partisan press find fault, although some of the opposition papers speak highly of his character, while charging that Judge Herrick was too active a politician while on the bench. The Republicans, however, can make no capital out of that, but only take comfort by justifying Governor Odell's course in acting as Republican chairman while he is the chief executive of the State. In a speech at Binghamton,

"In view of the fact that the Democratic convention nowinated for governor Judge Herrick, its attack upon Gov. Odell for his catering partisan politics and accepting the chairmanship of the Republican State committee is interesting. Judge Herrick has been an able and apright judge, but he was the unquestioned leader and active manager of the Democratic party of Albany county when he was elected judge in 1886. Notwithstanding his judicial position, he has continued during the whole of his career upon the

I have myself dined with Booker Washington, and consider it a privilege to do so." In giving this as a reason why he flopped to Rooseveltism, Mr. Paine is considered inconsistent by Henry Brooks, editor of the Luverne (Ala.) Critic, and formerly a resident of Washington, D. C. While in Montgomery to day, Mr. Brooks said: "I attributed to a citizen of Massachusetts named Robert Treat Paine. Jr., in which he claims to have been a Democrat all his life, and that he has now become a convert to Roosevelt because the President dined Booker T. Washington. It is passing strange that Paine should pose at this juncture as the negro's friend. Robert Treat Paine, acting for his wife, bought through his agents, Wood, Harmon & Co., of Washington, D. C., a piece of land in Virginia, near Fort Myer and Arlington, laid it off into town lots, named it Clarendon, and sold it to people with a binding contract that said lots should never be sold to a negro. MR. DAVIS' CAMPAIGN IN WEST VIRGINIA. The Democrats of West Virginia one of the doubtful States, opened their campaign at Wheeling on Thursday night. The Hon. Henry G. Davis, the nominee for vice president, and others made strong speeches, Mr. Davis reiterating his position for a tariff with incidental protection, as declared by him in the United States Senate in the early eighties.

Mr. Davis' position is good old Democratic doctrine, and it carries out the only reasonable demand for protective tariff. It is a crime against the people to levy exhorbitant protective duties for the benefit of industries that can really not only defy foreign competition but can even undersell them in their own foreign field. Incidental protection and a tariff for revenue, with all legislation on revenues so cautiously entered into that business conditions will not be upset, is really what the Democracy stands for. The Democratic party is not the enemy of the industries of America, while it safeguards the interests of all the people without class or distinction or partiality. The West Virginia Democrats are making a hot fight to reclaim the State and the Republicans are making a desperate fight to hold it. The Hon. David B. Hill is to be one of the speakers in that State, and many strong campaigners are being sent there.

sy Eslegraph to the Morning Star NEW YORK, September 24.-The cotton market opened steady at a decline of one to four points, and ruled very quiet around that level to a little lower auring the entire first hour. The opening decline was rather a response to easy cables and good weather, but while smaller longs were taking profits there were some covering and moderate bull aupport. Receipts for the day were moderately full and a very large port movement is expected next week, which, however, is expected to be offset by correspondingly heavy export. Sentiment around the ring was still nervous and the ten dency among the smaller traders, apparently, was to even up rather than to enter into fresh commitments. Receipts of cotton at the ports to day 52,209 bales against 30,724 last week and 46,162 last year. For the week 350,000 bales against 289,144 last work and 292,348 last year. SO SOOTHING

Its Influence Has Been Pelt By So Many Wilmington Readers.

The soothing influence of relief

After suffering from Itching Piles From Eczema or any itchiness of the skin. Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Dosn's Ointment has soothed hundreds.

Here's what one Wilmington citizen says: H. Cronenberg, photographer, of 119 Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I proeured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the cintment, and I can say it brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name-Doan'sand take no other. sep 25 tf
