It is said that the Gautemalan ants have totally disappeared from the Texas cotton fields. The ants had been good press agent to start with, but he seems to have fallen down. The boll weevil still has his way.

The latest from Alexander Dowie, Eljah III, is that he is building an air ship so as to travel about the country in his religious work. A chariot of fire would be more spectacular and about as useful.

In the Indianapolis, Ind., Congressional District, Geo. L. Knox, a leading negro, will run as an independent candidate for Congress. There are 6,000 negro votes in the district and it worries the regular Republican nominee.

The man in the moon would quite likely think women in this country have wings, if he were to get hold of an American novel which says: "Aylona, with eyes sparkling with unrestrained tears, flew up stairs and flung herself on the bed."

Speaker Cannon warns the Republican managers that the Democrats are making rapid gains in the middle West. The Saratoga, N. Y., Sun says Speaker Cannon is a too shrewd and seasoned political observer to put forth that warning to please Democrats, but it is because the old campaigner is alarmed.

In this election the people of the United States will have an opportunity to vote against a "stand pat" protective policy that takes from the people and gives to the trusts, which, in turn, use their protection to favor their foreign customers with lower prices than they give to their home customers. We think we know how we will vote on that proposition. Do you?

A Chicago dispatch makes the melancholy announcement that Mr. Joseph Jefferson is very ill, and that his wife expresses the belief that he has made his last appearance before the public. Mr. Jefferson had mapped out a farewell tour for this season, and Wilmington was in his itinerary, but the statement is made that all his engagements have been cancelled.

It looks like the American tariff law is good for the foreign consumer. During the year ended June 30, 1904, the sale of American manufactured products to foreigners amounted to $452,000,000, of which fully eighty-five per cent, according to trustworthy estimates, was sold at lower prices than was charged for precisely the same goods which were sold to Americans. The average price of these goods in foreign markets was twenty per cent. less than the selling price in the home market.

Handsome invitations to the 27th anniversary reception of Cherokee Tribe, I. O. R. M., on Thursday evening of this week were mailed yesterday. The committee in charge, composed of Messrs. W. H. THREE WHITES HELD.

Herring Brothers and Jordan Jones Held for Murder of Sam Carver, Jr., Col.

CORONER'S JURY OF INQUEST.

Committed to Jail Without Bond—Evidence, However, Only of Circumstantial Nature—Police Made Arrests Yesterday.

As the result of an investigation of the circumstances of the death of the negro, Samuel Carver, Jr., who was shot to death in front of the Marine Hospital Saturday midnight, the inquiry having been instituted by Coroner Bell soon after the murder, and concluded by the jury of inquest late yesterday afternoon, Chas. Herring and A. R. ("Rep") Herring, young white carpenters employed in the Coast Line shops, sons of Mr. Tom Herring, an estimable man who lives on the south-side of Red Cross, next to its southwest intersection with Second street, and Jordan Jones, a young electrician, who says he is a native of Louisville, N. C., and came here about a week ago from Charlotte, are in jail without the privilege of bond, charged with implication in the deed, which appears to have been cold-blooded murder. The evidence against the young men, however, is only circumstantial and several who heard the testimony before the coroner's jury, while concurring in the verdict based only upon probable cause, expressed the opinion that the higher court would never convict. All three of the defendants admitted having been in the vicinity of the commission of the crime about midnight, but said they went straight home, young Jones being a boarder at the house of Mr. Herring on Red Cross street. The story of the movements of each of the trio after they left Eighth and Castle streets about midnight, however, is slightly at variance and evidence was introduced to show that they returned to Eighth and Castle streets after the crime was committed in face of their denial of that fact.

IN SUPERIOR COURT.

One Week Term for New Hanover County Convened Yesterday Morning.

ORGANIZATION FOR THE TERM

Judge Moore Making Very Favorable Impression—Rapid Progress in Clearing the Docket, Which is Unusually Heavy—Notes.

New Hanover Superior Court, Judge Fred Moore, of Asheville, presiding, convened yesterday and will remain in session for one week for the trial of criminal cases, of which there are a very large number on the docket, more than 60 of the defendants being confined in jail and a number of petty offenders being detained at the convict camp at Castle Hayne, owing to the crowded condition of the jail. Remarkable progress was made yesterday in clearing the docket, though none of the cases was of especial importance. Judge Moore is making a fine impression on the people and the bar. At the present rate of disposition he and Solicitor Duffy will likely clear the docket by the end of the week. His charge to the grand jury was able and very clear, special emphasis having been laid on a proper realization of the weight of duty which grand jurors are called upon to perform. Judge Moore gave notice that every effort would be made to clear the docket as speedily as possible, and to that end the court sessions will begin daily at 9:30 A. M. and continue well on towards 6 o'clock with an intermission of only about an hour for dinner.

HERNE DAMAGE SUIT.

Complaint as filed yesterday in the damage suit against the Consolidated Company, recently entered by Melvin Horne, the young lamp trimmer who was so severely burned last February by contact with a live wire at Front and Dock streets. The complaint alleges negligence on the part of the company and damages in the sum of $40,000. are asked. Herbert McLannan and Woodson Kallum, Esq., are attorneys for Mr. Horne.

THE "A BOY WANTED" COMPANY.

—The "A Boy Wanted" Company, which was the first to appear at the local theatre this season, has stranded in Savannah.

THE MAYOR ON HOBBY HORSES.

"The hobby horses are a prolific source of disorder," observed Mayor Springer upon the completion of the police court docket yesterday. Several instances were cited where breaches of the peace had resulted from crowds congregating around the festive amusement which is operated by Mr. J. K. Hefflin on Queen, between Seventh and Eighth streets, and peremptory orders were issued to Chief Furlong to silence the music and cease the operation of the riding gallery at once. Assistant City Clerk and Treasurer White was called into the court room from the office adjoining, and it was ascertained that the "hobbies" had paid no license tax for several days. The arrest of Mr. Hefflin later in the day for non-payment of license tax resulted, and Chief Furlong gave orders that the gallery make cease operations. The case of Mr. Hefflin will be called in the police court to-day.

SPEAKING AT SOUTHPORT.

Hon. R. N. Hackett, of Wilkesboro, one of the leading Democrats in the West, is a guest at the Orion. Mr. Hackett came within three-tenths of a vote of being nominated for Congress in his district over Hon. W. C. Newland after an all-night convention session recently, but gracefully accepted his defeat and placed his services at the disposal of the Democratic campaign committee in this State. He spoke yesterday at Faison and will conclude his speaking appointments at Southport to-night, returning to speak in the West the remainder of the campaign. Hon. A. M. Waddell, of this city, will also speak at Southport to-night and an effort will be made to harmonize contending factions in the Democracy of Brunswick.

GOLF COURSE RECEIPTS HEAVY.

Yesterday's cotton receipts on the local market were 8,416 bales—the heaviest for one day, perhaps, in the history of the local exchange. More than half the receipts were via the W. C. & A. railroad from points in South Carolina and lower North Carolina. The receipts same day last year were only 2,723 bales. There was a break in the future market yesterday, but local quotations were unchanged.

THE CIVIL SUIT OF THE NAVASSA GUANO COMPANY.

The civil suit of the Navassa Guano Company against the Western Union Telegraph Co. for the recovery of about $300 loss by the plaintiff as the result of an error in the transmission of a telegram from High Point, N. C. reference to which has previously been made in these columns, a non suit was taken upon motion of Rountree & Carr, attorneys for the plaintiff, a satisfactory settlement of the differences having been made.

Sep. Holttum in Port.

The roar of artillery down the river early yesterday morning announced in his wonted enthusiastic manner the arrival of the popular Capt. Chas. E. Holttum aboard his good ship "Tonias," which will take a berth at the Champion Complex Wednesday for a cargo of cotton. Capt. Holttum is as genial and handsome as ever and his friends here could hardly wait for the Custom House folks to get through with him before harking him in tow for a round of hand-shaking and an exchange of greetings.
