GARRIOT.

If we did not get the test farm, we will congratulate "Prond Pender" on her success. Wilmington does not "want the earth," anyway.

Our Virginia friends will now find evidence on the historic grounds at Appomattox, that North Carolina was there last Monday.

We presume that among the people over here who think Admiral Rojstevsky has a darn queer name are the clever folks who make their home in Pensacola, Florida.

We still hear of an occasional engagement between the nobility of Europe and the nobility of America. The impetuous barons are still after the wealthy daughters of our robber barons.

There is death on the gallows for a man who takes life but envy for the man who takes life easy. This might appear strange to a Chinaman but we suppose he can take his funny language and make it say all kinds of things too.

The daughters of Weightman, the late Philadelphia quinine manufacturer, in squabbling over his $60,000,000, threaten to air the secret that the old man tried for years to marry his son's widow. Looks like it would be just as bitter a pill for the girls to swallow as for the balance of the family.

A Washington young man married with a girl and after he had married her, he telegraphed his mother-in-law: "I am married and all my troubles are over." Married men are positively forbidden to laugh in their sleeve at a young fellow who thinks matrimony will make an exception in his case.

This paragraph is from the Hendersonville Hustler: "Blue-back spellers have been in demand this week." Mr. Pless has exhausted his supply and the nooks and corners of many residences have been searched for the dear old book. To the above the Charlotte Observer says: "We have pleased to learn from this that the 'children' of the mountains are fixing to get educated. There is no true education apart from the blueback." My! What terrible risks some editors run to give their age away.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Other local on fourth page.
—The quarantine at the residence of Capt. R. M. McIntyre, on Market street, has been lifted.
—Schooner Chas. C. Lister cleared yesterday for New York with cargo of 310,000 feet of lumber from the Cape Fear Lumber Co.
—The Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.
—Twenty-five words in the Business Locals department of the Star will cost 25 cents; but no advertisement, however small, taken for less than that amount.
—All next week, opening Monday night, the Academy will offer the Crescent Stock Company, which is considered one of the best organizations of its class on the road. The company is playing this week at Durham.
—Henry Middleton, an insane colored man, escaped from the County Home yesterday. A telephone message was sent to Wilmington to look for the man and he will doubtless be captured and returned before morning. The man is harmless.
—There was nothing doing in spirits turpentine on the local market yesterday but other items of naval stores were strong. Rosin was steady at $2.80; tar firm at $1.80 and crude turpentine firm at $2.30/4.25. The cotton market locally was quiet on a basis of 7-1-3 for middling.
—There was no police court yesterday, all cases having been continued until today on account of the absorbing interest in the primary. Jane Kelley, a colored woman serving a term in the work house, escaped yesterday and was arrested last night by Policeman E. R. Chadwick at Fourth and Bladen streets.

Residence Burglarized.

While members of the family were away from home last night between 7 and 10:45 o'clock, a burglar entered the residence of Mr. C. W. Hollowbush, No. 701 Dock street, and stole $18 or $20 in money and a fine revolver from a bureau drawer in a bedroom of the house. Entrances was gained by breaking into the side of the house with an axe or other heavy instrument under a window in the rear. A large trunk had to be pushed out of the way of the opening and the wonder is that the burglar was not detected. Luckily for him, the thief took nothing that could be identified. A lot of silverware and jewelry belonging to Mrs. Hollowbush was left in the same room from which the other articles were taken.

Train and Wagon Collided.

Mr. Norman Cordes, clerk in the grocery store of Mr. W. A. Vollers, and George Jackson, a colored driver for the same house, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, saving themselves by jumping. Mr. Cordes and the colored man were driving in Mr. Vollers' delivery wagon to the A. C. L. for some freight and had just turned the corner at Nutt and Mulberry streets, when a string of cars being backed from Boney & Harper's mill, ran into the vehicle. It was pretty well demolished and the two men were shaken up to some extent but not seriously hurt.

Order Was Good.

Notwithstanding the "strenuousness" of the times yesterday, the day was remarkably quiet so far as open breaches of the law were concerned. One or two personal encounters occurred around the polls in the Fifth Ward but no serious injury was done and the police made fewer arrests than usual upon such occasions.

HIS NAME WADDELL

Ex-Mayor Nominated for Another Term as Wilmington's Chief Executive.

THE MAJORITY WAS 46 VOTES

Five Aldermen Nominated Favorable to the One Candidate and Five to Other—Contest May Develop in Fifth—Figures.

By a majority of 46 Colonel Alfred Moore Waddell was yesterday nominated in the city Democratic primary for the office of Mayor of Wilmington for a term of two years ending June 1st, while the Aldermen nominated from the several wards as declared by the Democratic Executive Committee are as follows:
First Ward—J. A. Karr and M. Rathjen.
Second Ward—P. Q. Moore and Martin O'Brien.
Third Ward—W. H. Yopp and E. F. Johnson.
Fourth Ward—R. W. Price and W. E. Yopp.
Fifth Ward—J. O. Brown and W. W. King.

Of the ten Aldermen, five of them, Messrs. Karr, Rathjen, O'Brien, Brown and King, were supporters of Col. Waddell in the primary and the remaining five, Messrs. Moore, W. H. Yopp, Johnson, Price and W. E. Yopp, supported Mayor Springer in the primary. The composition of the Board for that reason is interesting.
A very large vote was polled—2,400, the number being approximately five hundred more than were polled in the dispensary election last July. That the contest was close is evident from the figures, an actual count having been necessary to determine who was the nominee. Mayor Springer's friends were strongly relying on the Third Ward, where it was confidently predicted he would receive a majority of from 100 to 150 votes, but when the actual count was made the figures were reduced to 81, giving Col. Waddell the victory.
The vote for Mayor, members of the Board of Aldermen, members of the executive committee and the vote necessary to choose as declared by the Executive Committee, which received the returns in the Board of Audit and Finance room at the City Hall, are as follows:

For Mayor.
Waddell	Springer.

In the Aldermanic box were three Springer and one Waddell tickets. The Mayor's box there were three Johnson, two Yopp and one Behrends ticket. Those were thrown out.
Fourth Ward.
W. E. Yopp ..... 269
R. W. Price ..... 211
F. E. Hashagen ..... 194
W. S. Bernard ..... 184
Necessary to choose, 196.
Executive Committee—L. B. Rogers, 206; C. W. Worth, 206; B. B. Jackson, 110; L. H. Skinner, 110.
Fifth Ward.
J. O. Brown ..... 367
W. W. King ..... 302
W. P. Gafford ..... 274
C. C. Parker ..... 253
Necessary to choose, 312.
Executive Committee—K. W. Jewell, 282; Woodus Kellum, 282; J. C. Walton, 208; J. H. Burris, 208.

When the Fifth Ward, which was the last to come in, was reached the question arose as to whether or not Mr. King had received a majority of the vote cast for Aldermen. It was shown that he had not received a majority of the vote of 612 as was cast for Mayor and the poll-holders had no way of ascertaining the number of votes cast for Aldermen. It was suggested that the ballots in the box be counted and the number arrived at in that manner but it was explained that some voters had cast two separate ballots for the two Aldermen they were entitled to vote for and, therefore, the number actually cast could not be so ascertained. The matter was discussed at length and it was argued that if the Majority vote was taken as a basis in one ward for Aldermen it should be taken in another in which event, there would have to be a second primary between Messrs. Behrends and Johnson in Third Ward and possibly Mr. Hashagen and Mr. Price in the Fourth Ward. However, it was shown that the actual vote for Aldermen in the latter ward had been kept separate and distinct and it would be manifestly an injustice to issue a call for a new primary there. Finally a motion by Col. T. C. James, of the Committee, seconded by Brooke G. Emple, Esq., prevailed to the effect that in each of the wards the two candidates receiving the highest vote for Aldermen be declared elected and the motion prevailed.

motion prevailed. Messrs. Jas. H. Burris and B. M. Wilson alone voting in the negative. Mr. Burris entered a protest in the matter and it is possible that a second primary may be demanded between Messrs. Gafford and King, each of whom claims a majority. Members of the committee present, other than those mentioned, above, when the vote was taken were D. C. Love, chairman; Louis H. Skinner, secretary; B. G. Emple, Col. T. C. James and Jas. D. Mote.
Receiving the News.
The Majority boxes were counted first at the several polling places and before 7:30 o'clock the actual count for that office was available and the majority figured out to a nicety. Friends of Col. Waddell were jubilant and cheer after cheer down town and at the City Hall, where the official returns were being received, vent the air. Before the official count had begun friends of Col. Waddell gathered in a body and led by The Haymakers Band called upon their nominee at his home on Fifth street. Col. Waddell graciously accepted an invitation to come to the Opera House and make a brief address, which he did amid the wildest enthusiasm. He expressed his appreciation of the support of his friends and said that he had unkind words for no one. He pledged his utmost endeavor to the welfare of the entire city. The band played both before and after the speaking and the Waddell supporters assumed their former positions. The Springfield voters were naturally disappointed at the failure to nominate their candidate but took their defeat gracefully and good naturedly.
Mr. O'Brien Entertained.
Mr. Martin O'Brien, the genial nominee for Alderman in the Second Ward to succeed Alderman Jno. H. Sweeney, received a large surprise party of his friends at his hospitable home on North Front street immediately after the election. Col. Waddell in the Opera House. The band gave Mr. O'Brien a hearty serenade and the host most elaborately returned the compliment with a feast of good things, not only to the musicians but to several hundred of his warm admirers who came with the procession to his home.

IT PLEASED CHARLESTON.

Great Boer War Spectacle to be Seen Here Next Wednesday.
The Charleston News and Courier of Tuesday is unstinted in its praise of "The Great Boer War Spectacle" which exhibited there this week and which will be seen under canvas at Hilton Park next Wednesday, April 19th. The News and Courier says: "Briton and Boer found a warm welcome in Charleston yesterday on the occasion of the first day's presentation of the 'Great Boer War Spectacle.' Heralded by reports of past successes, the gigantic undertaking, which delighted thousands, would overcome here. On the contrary, the people, led by the Confederate Veterans' Association, have already prepared a fine reception for the company, and especially for the old lion of the land beyond the vaal, Gen. Piet Cronje.
To describe the daring horseman exhibited out on the Old Meeting street ball park, which has for the time being taken the appearance of a South African battlefield, and the thrilling battles of Colenso, Paarsberg, with De Wet's fight through a cord of British troops, would require many times the space which it is possible to give. It may be said, however, that the spectacle is like nothing that has ever been presented in this country before.
The introduction to the great show affords Mr. Piet Visser, a Boer, an opportunity for showing his magnificent physique mounted on a superb horse, and his voice is of great range and beautiful quality. Among the officers of either side introduced were Capt. Chapin, U. S. A.; Capt. Franklin and Surgeon J. Numele Casey, who served throughout the war with great credit, is also presented. Among the Boers are seen Lieut. Minnaar, Field Cornet Coetzien, Field Cornet Venter, Commandant Van Den Berg, Captain Boshoff, who was with Gen. De La Rey at the wounding and capture of Gen. Methuen.
Cape carts, four-hand, are shown, driven at breakneck speed, by Boers. It seems as though the rapid transit proposition had been solved down here in South Africa. Next are seen the Basutos, mounted on their native ponies, and their ox-wagons, of the kind without which there would have been no Transvaal possible, for the great trek was accomplished in the face of the Boer. Mr. Frank E. Ellis, organizer of the present undertaking, is next introduced, with that wonderful animal, "Provero" delighted the spectators last night with a series of dances to the accompaniment of the band. "Provero" executed a two-step last night, being encircled by the big attendants, which, for grace and willingness on the part of the black beauty was unique in equine training. The naval gun drill which followed gave an idea of what takes place when the jacksies from the war ships ordered ashore to join in a bombardment.

Pills, 'Provero' delighted the spectators last night with a series of dances to the accompaniment of the band. 'Provero' executed a two-step last night, being encircled by the big attendants, which, for grace and willingness on the part of the black beauty was unique in equine training. The naval gun drill which followed gave an idea of what takes place when the jacksies from the war ships ordered ashore to join in a bombardment.
