LOCAL DOTS.

Mr. G. W. M. Ahrens went out for a duck hunt on the river yesterday. By noon he had returned to his home in the city with 25 fine Summer ducks.

Two South Carolina excursions will be here to-day—one from Hartsville and the other from Darlington. Both will come via Florence and return same day.

Mr. Frank Greer, one of Southport's popular young men, was married Wednesday night in Clinton and arrived in Wilmington yesterday morning with his bride.

Col. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, will be the orator of the day at the unveiling of the Confederate monument, at Winston-Salem, October 3rd.

A case of forgery and a charge of peddling without license against Mr. Ben Lane, of this city, were dismissed by Justice of the Peace Furlong yesterday.

By deeds filed for record yesterday: M. S. Willard and wife transferred to Edward F. Johnson, for $600, $3. property on north side of Church's alley, between Front and Second streets, 3375 feet in size, and James McNeil transferred to Mrs. Otto Bank for $500, property on north side of Brunswick, 192 feet east of Seventh street, 35x132 feet in size.

AN ANTE-BELLUM DARKEY.
"Orders of His Missus" Must Be Obeyed—Ice-man.

An amusing trial and the only one in the police court yesterday was that of Henry Pigford, an old darkey of the ante-bellum period, charged with assaulting a young negro employed on an ice delivery wagon.

"Uncle" Henry is a "chief dignitary" around the home of Col. Thomas Evans, nearly opposite the City Hall, on Third street.

Mrs. Evans told "Uncle" Henry a day or two ago that the colored ice-man had been in the habit of coming up and had been in the habit of using her name and she wanted him hereafter to take the block and receive the ice ticket around at the back door.

"Uncle" Henry urbanely bowed his understanding to his "missus" and all was serene until the ice-man came around Wednesday afternoon as usual and started right in at the front gate.

"Uncle" Henry met him and being deaf and half-witted, the ice-man could not explain before the old-time darkey had patted him once or twice in the face and had started out with him.

"The orders of de missus is boun" to be carried out, co' or no co'," he disrespectfully but honestly declared to the Mayor when arraigned yesterday.

"Uncle" Henry was discharged, of course. The entry was "on account of his mental condition."

"THE GREAT EASTERN BAND."
New Musical Organization Formed Last Night—The Members.

The "Great Eastern Band" was organized last night at the office of Messrs. Cowan & Fettel, on Third street, by a number of prominent local musicians, many of whom were formerly identified with the Haymakers' Band.

The band is organized as follows: J. T. Martin, director and cornetist; F. L. West, manager and baritone; Fred Dock, secretary and treasurer and trombonist; T. K. Curtis, cornet; H. R. Smith, cornet; C. C. Bagwell, cornet; Alvah Standland, cornet; Phillip Ashenback, clarinet; Henry Wrede, clarinet; W. Scott Decker, saxophone; Eugene Sellers, Preston Sellers and Julius P. Taylor, altos; R. H. Morris and D. N. Chadwick, trombonists; J. M. Culbreth, baritone; C. E. Sellers and J. A. Fettel, basses; W. L. Burkheimer and Jno. T. Yates, drums; W. B. Savage, cymbals.

Married Last Night.
Last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Thirteenth and Marsteller streets, Justice G. W. Borneemann united in marriage Miss Caledonia Roderick, a daughter of the late James E. Roderick, and Mr. H. T. Blake, a son of Mr. J. W. Blake, of Folkstone, N. C. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of the young friends of the couple.

Carolina Savings & Trust.
A special meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Savings and Trust Company was held yesterday. It was decided to postpone the election of the four additional directors until later. At the meeting yesterday the constitution and by-laws of the new institution were adopted. The bank is now well organized and doing a very encouraging business.

CALL CAME QUICKLY

Sudden Death of Mr. Joseph H. Hanby Occurred Early This Morning

ATTACK ON FRONT PORCH

Recently Returned from Mountain Trip and Seemed Much Improved—Highly Esteemed and Beloved in the Community.

Mr. Joseph H. Hanby, one of Wilmington's best known and most highly esteemed citizens, died this morning at 12:30 o'clock at the home of his son, Mr. John R. Hanby, No. 405 Dock street, following an acute attack of heart trouble suffered about 9 o'clock last night while he was seated on the front porch of the residence, laughing and talking with members of the family, apparently in the best of spirits, and in the enjoyment of much improved health.

Mr. Hanby's health had been very poor for some time, necessitating his retirement from business last February. He went to the mountains of Western North Carolina with the hope that the change of climate would do him good and had returned to his home here only a few days ago, feeling greatly improved and very hopeful.

Mr. Hanby was born in Berkley, Va., Nov. 25th, 1843, and was, therefore, in the 62nd year of his age. He had lived in Wilmington nearly all his life and for some years conducted a family grocery store on upper Dock street. He was a man of sterling character, a true Christian, honorable in all his dealings with his fellow man.

Mr. Hanby was a member of the First Baptist church and was one of the mainstays of that congregation. He will be missed by a large number of people who were recipients of his sympathy and charity, for he was big-hearted and generous to a fault. Mr. Hanby was a veteran member of Stone-wall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias and of Cape Fear Camp United Confederate Veterans.

Mr. Hanby is survived by his wife and two sons, the last named being Mr. John R. Hanby, of this city, and Dr. Joseph D. Hanby, of Paris, Tex. The funeral arrangements will not be made until Dr. Hanby can be communicated with in his far Western home.

WILMINGTON'S QUARANTINE.
Three Travellers Detained Yesterday, One for 15 Days.

Wilmington's quarantine against yellow jack continues to be rigidly enforced and from the number of detentions daily until the proper credentials are presented, the guards seem to be doing their full duty. Yesterday two travellers were detained at Hilton bridge until they had properly equipped themselves with satisfactory papers showing their itinerary.

Mr. O. H. Shoemaker, a manager for Kress & Co., on his way from Montgomery, Ala., via Asheville, was stopped at Maxton by the guard yesterday and upon advice from Chief Quarantine Officer Green here, the guard was told that Mr. Shoemaker would not be permitted to come to the city under 15 days. It is not the purpose of the authorities to work any hardship upon travellers to the city but at the same time they feel that the public health must be protected and are in no position to show favors in cases of doubt.

THE RALLY AT MAXTON.
Programme Announced For Big Meeting There Saturday.

Special Star Correspondence.
Maxton, N. C., Sept. 7.—The programme for the rally of Southern Cotton Growers' and Business Men's Association at Maxton Saturday has been announced. At 10:30 A. M., a procession will form in front of the Maple Shade Inn, headed by a brass band and preceded by the Chief Marshal and his assistants.

The address by Hon. Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Growers' and Business Men's Association, will take place at 11 A. M., followed by music by the band and an address at 12:30 P. M., by Hon. E. D. Smith, president of the South Carolina Association. A big dinner and banquets will be served at 2 P. M. and in the afternoon at 3:30 P. M. another address will be made by Col. Jno. S. Cunningham, president of the North Carolina Association. A large crowd is expected from this and adjoining counties.

The Kalamazoo Case.
Sheriff Shean and Mrs. VanNoppen, who came to Wilmington to identify parties here for the Kalamazoo, Mich., authorities, returned yesterday evening to their home, the identification of C. C. Cooley and wife as the parties wanted having failed. It is stated that Mr. Cooley has consulted Herbert McClammy, Esq., with a view of instituting an action against the county of Kalamazoo, Mich., for their alleged unlawful detention here.

Latta Railroad Case.
Assistant Attorney General W. H. Townsend, of the State of South Carolina, arrived last night from Columbia with Messrs. Henry Mullins, J. M. Johnson and F. F. Covington, of Marion, to attend a hearing to-day in the celebrated Latta case, which involves the stopping of the fast trains of the Atlantic Coast Line at Latta, S. C., Mr. P. A. Wilcox, of Florence, leading counsel for the A. C. L. in the case, spent yesterday in the city in conference with Superintendent A. J. Anderson. The Latta case is well remembered here and is now up for final settlement.

Regatta This Afternoon.
Under the auspices of the Regatta Committee the fleet of the Carolina Yacht Club will sail another race, and possibly the last for this season, over the club course in Banks' Channel this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The entries will be the same as for the last regatta with the exception of the Buttskiss. A large number of club members and their lady friends will, no doubt, be attracted to the beach by the race this afternoon.

Care By Charter.
The Consolidated Company announces that until further notice cars will be chartered for the evening to dancing or other parties at the rate of $10 each, going to the beach and returning at the pleasure of the guests. At Lumina there is an elegant dance provided free of cost, and dancing parties are expected to be made up quite frequently.

THE NEGRO DEMONSTRATION

All Quiet in Troublesome District Last Night—As to Management of Affairs and Race Feeling.

The police apprehend no further trouble as the result of the demonstration by negroes in the vicinity of Fifth and Harnett streets Tuesday night. The extra number of policemen assigned to that district was reduced to only three last night and it is expected that by to-day all necessity for precaution will have passed. The guns and ammunition provided at the City Hall Wednesday night in case of an emergency were still there last night, but the police expected and had no use for them. The officers in the district reported to headquarters this morning that everything in "Brooklyn" was as "quiet as a lamb," even more so than ordinary.

There was a disposition on the part of some yesterday to believe the reports of the affair exaggerated, but those who were present Tuesday night when the first excitement was precipitated, saw the chief dash up to the City Hall in his buggy with the young man in mortal terror of his life and who accompanied the score of police who rushed over with riot guns and pistols to the scene, take no stock in this talk of exaggeration. The affair was pretty serious and the situation has been handled exceedingly well.

There are some who are disposed to criticize the action of Chief Williams in not stopping his horse and fring into the negroes who halted him, but as was stated in the first accounts of the affair in these columns, the chief was not armed for such an emergency. He had only a pistol and was responsible for the serious injury of a young man in the buggy beside him. He lost no time, however, in returning to the scene when he was prepared for the emergency and to guarantee safety to young Rivenbark, the object of the wrath of the blacks. The white feather was shown nowhere in the exciting events of that night.

It should be said here, now that the trouble is over, that the demonstration was not contended by the best class of Wilmington's colored-citizens. A representative of the better class of the negro race came to the Star office yesterday to say that the best class of his people stood ready and willing even now to proceed upon any case that would be furnished them to assist in every way possible in bringing the guilty parties to justice. "The statement was sincere and it may be put down as a fact that the responsible colored men of the community are for peace and are opposed to strife. That they painfully regret the unfortunate affair of Tuesday night is plain from talks with leading members of the race since the trouble. But the police have the matter well in hand and are giving no heed to the wild reports that are brought to them of threatened summary vengeance either by one side or the other.

ALDERMEN GET THEIR PAY.
Pay Roll Was Signed Yesterday for the First Time.

If any Alderman has not received his pay for the first three months of the present administration, twenty-five dollars in crisp bank notes awaits him at the office of City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler. The only condition to his receiving this sum, is that he sign the pay roll, smile at the general officer behind the desk and make no comment about his punctuations of conscience at receiving the money and amount to be paid.

The first three months salary of $100 per year for an Alderman, according to the law passed by the recent Legislature and very properly so. Only three members of the Board received their pay yesterday, though the Mayor announced to members of the Board at the meeting Tuesday that the pay roll had been made up and that they could drop around Thursday and get their money.

The "stuff" were Aldermen P. Q. Moore, W. W. King and Martin O'Brien. The others are expected to call to-day and receive the amounts enveloped for them.

PEMBROKE JONES BALL.
Function in Honor of Miss Jones at Newport.

The New-Yorker, a society paper of the metropolis prints the following: "The Pembroke Jones ball for pretty Miss Sadie, the bud, was a superb affair, as superb as a ball can be in Newport and that is saying everything. Fortunately it was arranged for an indoor affair, as the night was dismal and rainy, but the whole house and temporary ballroom had the appearance of an Italian garden. A fountain, statues in the niches, a marquee, trees, seats and beds of flowers carried out every detail and it required no effort of the imagination to believe oneself in the garden of some old Roman palace. The bud for whom so much splendor was planned was in liveliest spirits and, always pretty, looked her prettiest. Her eyes shone, her cheeks glowed and her teeth gleamed between parted rosy lips. She danced charmingly and in the cotillon when she led with Lisha Dyer, Jr., she was a partner worth having. "Mrs. Pembroke" her mother, was also in splendid spirits and was on the floor quite as much as the bud. Southern hospitality mixed with the luxury of Newport made an entertainment worth mentioning and the Pembroke Jones ball will not be forgotten in a hurry."

Commendable Act by Elks.
The Elks' Cottage Club, which occupied the Bear cottage, on Wrightsville beach, the past Summer, have kindly turned the property over to Rev. Dr. James Carmichael for the remainder of the season to be used as a place for convalescents and others among the less fortunate in the community, who may be in need of an outing at the seaside. The act upon the part of the Elks' Committee is commendable and it is to be hoped that the cottage will be of benefit to as large number as possible.

COUNTY'S FINANCES

Auditing Committee of Board of Commissioners in Session Yesterday Afternoon

THE PERMANENT ROAD FUND

Transfer from General Account Necessary for Continuing Highway Improvements Until Bonds Are Sold.

The Auditing Committee of the Board of County Commissioners, Chairman McEachern and Mr. Robertson being present, was in session yesterday afternoon. The business of chief interest transacted was an examination and approval of the regular monthly report of County Treasurer H. McL. Green, showing receipts and disbursements from the several funds during August.

As will be seen from the report, on the first day of September there was a balance of only $1.85 to the credit of the Permanent Road Fund, the first issue of $50,000 bonds for the improvement of the public highways of the county and one of two transfers from the general fund having been exhausted in that work. With the sale of the additional $50,000 bonds for continuing the improvement deferred, there was no alternative for the Commissioners than to make a further transfer from the general fund, which was done at the regular monthly meeting of the Board Monday.

The permanent road work will now go on out of the transfer fund until the new bonds are sold. Elsewhere in to-day's paper will be found an official notice from Chairman McEachern stating that all previous bids for the new issue of $50,000, four per cent, 25-year road bonds have been rejected and that further proposals will be received until Sept. 13.

The treasurer's report showed receipts and disbursement for the month of August as follows: General County Fund, $21,027.57; Special County Fund, 1,020.79; Road Fund, 2,423.88; Road Sinking Fund, 6,623.69; Back Taxes, 124.42; Rents, 17.75; County Home, 80.07; Marriage License, 23.75.

Total, $31,341.92

Disbursements.
Out Door Poor, $222.14; Public Buildings, 125.22; Superior Court, 214.43; Roads and Bridges, 65.50; County Home, 310.25; Tax Listing, 250.00; Stationery and Advertising, 53.88; James Walker Memorial Hospital, 600.00; Magistrates, 29.30; County Commissioners, 124.00; Register of Deeds, 77.70; Superintendent of Health, 100.90; Coroner, 31.60; Constable, 20.80; Jailor, 60.00; United Charities, 45.00; Road Improvements, 2,422.03; Coupon Special Fund, 50.62; Treasurer's Commissions, 36.29.

Total, $5,167.37

Balance on Hand.
General Fund, $18,578.84; Road Fund, 979.17; Road Sinking Fund, 1,855.00; Road Sinking Fund, 6,623.69.

SAYS NEGROES WERE UGLY.
Young Railroad Employee Cursed and Abused by Blacks.

Mr. Sam Ballinger, a young man employed by the North Carolina Car Service Association, reports an unpleasant brush with 12 or 15 negro loafers collected yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock on Ninth street, near the old Union depot. Mr. Ballinger said he was running to catch a passing train in order to get a record of some cars and that in doing so one of the negroes pushed another against him. Then he turned to them and asked what they meant. The inquiry was met with in instant response a curse and vilify the young man who was helpless to defend himself. He says the conduct of the colored idlers was outrageous.

McGEACHY-MABRY.
Popular Young Wilmingtonian Claims Bride in Ridgeway, N. C.

(Special to News-Observer.)
Ridgeway, N. C., September 6.—The Methodist church here to-day was the scene of a most beautiful marriage. Contracting parties being Mr. John Alexander McGeachy, a prominent business man of Wilmington, and Miss Helen Eugenia Mabry, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Mr. M. C. Mabry, of Ridgeway. The ceremony was pronounced at 12:45 P. M. the bride entering as follows: the ushers leading, Messrs. Buxton Williams and Weldon Hawkins; Miss Margaret McGeachy with Prof. William Graham; the maid of honor, Miss Asia Collins, of Ridgeway, with Mr. Richard McGeachy, best man. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. C. Mabry, who gave the bride away.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a lovely creation of white crepe de chine over white taffeta and carried off with delicate touch "Hearts and Flowers" white white organdie and carried white carnations. The gentlemen wore the conventional black. The impressive and beautiful ceremony with ring was officiated by Rev. J. O. Atkinson, editor of the Christian Sun, Elon College, officiated. An array of elegant and costly presents, cut glass, gold and silverware etc., attest the very high esteem in which the popular pair are held.

The bride is one of Warren county's most beautiful and accomplished young women and the groom is held in high and popular esteem in Wilmington business and social circles. The happy couple left on the Seaboard train for a trip of several weeks to the "Land of the Sky" and "Sapphire Country" of North Carolina amid the heartiest good wishes and congratulations of their great host of friends.

The church was beautifully decorated the golden rod, evergreen and potted plants and lighted up with dozens of brilliant candles, shedding a mellow glow of soft light over the happy scene.

Miss Virginia Graham, of Warrenton, presided at the organ, rendering with delicate touch "Hearts and Flowers" and Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A host of friends wish for the popular couple a long and joyous married life.
