The improved quality of the paper on which the Star is now printed is so satisfactory that we have placed an order for a car-load, of nearly 800 reams.

HERE IS A CONFLICT

Board of Audit and Finance Fail to Approve Street and Wharves Contract
BELGIAN BLOCK ARE HERE
Fourth Street Drainage Allowed After Long Discussion—Funds Are Scarce and Administration Must Go Slow, They Say.

The Board of Audit and Finance at its regular semi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the City Hall devoted more than an hour to a discussion of the question of drainage made necessary by the vitrified brick paving now in progress on North Fourth street. There were present to urge the matter before the Board Alderman O'Brien, chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee; City Engineer P. Matthew and his partner Civil Engineer O'Brien. Alderman O'Brien and City Engineer Matthew emphasized the necessity of the work and estimated the cost at about $1,500.

MERRY CARNIVAL IS ATTRACTING THE CROWDS

Red Men's Fall Festival Now in Full Swing—Parade To-Night and Boat Races To-Morrow.

Early last night, down every principal thoroughfare leading that way, were hurrying feet—helping to swell the immense crowds of merry-makers that swarmed the carnival district, the attendance, if anything, having been even larger than on the opening night. Weather conditions remained ideal and all the shows of the Jones-Adams aggregation were liberally patronized to say nothing of the country store, the confection stands and the privilege attractions. The public seems generally well pleased with the character of the various shows and many declare it to be the best carnival from many viewpoints held in Wilmington in recent years. The order in the district remains good, the sum total of arrests by the police last night having been one drunken negro, who was promptly silenced by Special Officer Tom Croom and hurried off the grounds.

MUTINEERS ARE HERE

Scott, Adams and Sawyer, Trio of Sailor Prisoners, Brought Up Last Night
NOW IN NEW HANOVER JAIL
Coming Had Been Kept Quiet, But Many Were Present to See Them—Some Impressions of the Desperate Men.

Adams, Sawyer and Scott, the negro mutineers and alleged murderers in the horrible butchery aboard the schooner Heavy, a Bermuda, off this coast last Tuesday morning, are now prisoners in the New Hanover jail. They were brought here from Southampton on the steamer Sea Gate last night at 8:30 o'clock by Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox and Special Deputies I. F. Hugstun and S. A. Barber, who went down on the steamer yesterday afternoon for the purpose of conveying the desperadoes to prison here, according to the order received Monday by U. S. Commissioners Collier and Pinner.

IN PINK AND WHITE WEDDING

Miss Agnes Anders and Mr. William L. Blesinger Plighted Their Troth at Hymen's Altar Yesterday.

In the presence of a large assemblage of admiring friends and relatives, the marriage of Miss Agnes Anders, the accomplished young daughter of Dr. W. K. Anders, and Mr. W. L. Blesinger, both of this city, was celebrated at five o'clock yesterday afternoon in Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, the Rev. Alex. D. McClure, D. D., officiating. The interior of the church had been very tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers and the wedding scene was a very pretty one indeed.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

Landed Sick Mate at Southport—Cotton For Liverpool.
The Clyde Liner New York passed down the river at 11:15 o'clock last night for her Georgetown trip. The schooner William Lathicum, Baltimore to Georgetown, which put in at Southport for harbor, proceeded at 9 A. M. yesterday. The British steamer Haverstoe, Capt. Foley, cleared yesterday for Liverpool with cargo of 13,700 bales of cotton, valued at $732,000 and consigned by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. She expects to sail at 7 o'clock this morning.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Claudia Orrell Becomes Bride of Mr. Wallace Sellers.
Miss Claudia F. Orrell, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Ida Orrell, No. 609 South Second street, and Mr. Wallace Sellers, a popular young man of this city, were happily united in marriage at 9:30 o'clock last night at the parsonage of Fifth Street M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. Alpheus McCullen, officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Lula Orrell, her sister, as maid of honor and the groom by Mr. T. S. Davis, as best man. After the ceremony the young couple returned to the home of the bride where they received many happy congratulations from a number of friends in attendance upon an informal wedding reception. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers will be at home at the residence of Mrs. Orrell, on South Second street.

AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Cosinne Runkell Stock Company Giving Great Satisfaction—Matinee.
The Corinne Runkell Stock Company, playing a week's engagement at the Academy of Music, is giving splendid satisfaction to large crowds in spite of counter attractions. Last night the company ably presented "The Little Showaway" and the line of specialties introduced between acts was declared by many to have been the strongest ever seen here. Nearly every member of the cast is a star and the list of plays includes new up-to-date ones. A special matinee will be given by the company at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The bill will be "A Dangerous Game," one which the management is confident will please the ladies and children as well as the general public. To-night the bill will be that pretty story, "In Sunny Tennessee." Popular prices are prevailing and seats are on sale at Plummer's.

Arrested For Short-Changing.

Wm. Schroder and a man by the name of Loumie, operating a shooting gallery as a side-line with the carnival people on Market street, were arrested yesterday on a warrant charging them with short-changing a negro patron, who applied to Justice Furlong for a warrant and offered a number of witnesses to the facts as he stated them. One of the men gave bond upon his arrest by Constable Savage but Schroder went to jail for a hearing before Justice Furlong at 10 o'clock this morning. They claim that if a mistake was made, it was unintentional on their part and they are perfectly willing to make restitution if the negro is right and they are wrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Bereaved.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Williams sympathize with them deeply in the loss of their little daughter, Adelaide C., aged 3 years and 84 days, whose death occurred at the family home, 805 Dock street, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral will be conducted at 10:30 this morning from the residence by Rev. J. Marvin Culbreth, pastor of Market Street M. E. church.

Depression of Cotton Market.

The New York spot cotton market reached the lowest point since June 27th yesterday, the quotations being on a basis of 9.85 for middling. Local receipts are falling off in consequence of the continued depression of the market, only 1,538 bales having been received yesterday against 3,729 bales same day last year. The falling off in receipts is welcome to the transportation lines entering Wilmington as they have been taxed to their utmost to take care of the shipments since the season opened.
