PRINCE LOUIS HONORED AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

General Chaffee Tendered Him Luncheon, and President Roosevelt Gave State Dinner Last Night.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Washington, Nov. 4.—Rear-Admiral Prince Louis was the guest of the American army to-day. To-night he was the guest at a state dinner at the White House, where the President had a distinguished company to meet Britain's admiral-prince. The health of the sovereign relative of the Prince, King Edward, was proposed by the President.

The guests at the luncheon given by General Chaffee numbered sixty, including members of the President's cabinet, Assistant Secretary Bacon, the Acting Secretary of War, and ranking officers of the general staff. The Prince sat at Gen. Chaffee's right, and was most congratulatory in his references to the commanding general's war services and to the American army.

When cigars had been lighted, Lieutenant-General Chaffee introduced Secretary of State Root, who in a few graceful words proposed the health of the President and the King. As the first health was drunk the band played "Star Spangled Banner." The American national anthem was merged into "God Save the King," as the health of King Edward was drunk. Admiral Prince Louis then asked permission to say a word.

"Next to your loyalty to your king," the Prince said, "every British officer cherishes the President of the United States. The King first, but the President next."

They had, he said, a peculiar affection and esteem for Theodore Roosevelt—not the President alone but particularly for Theodore Roosevelt—the man. Wherever the English language was spoken that sentiment prevailed. The Prince then thanked the American officers, army and navy, for the hospitality and courtesies which he and his officers were receiving.

From the luncheon, accompanied by Lieutenant-General Chaffee and a number of guests, the Prince, his personal staff and his commanding officers drove to Fort Myer, where the Prince witnessed one of the famous American cavalry drills, executed by troop F, Captain Preston, of the Thirteenth Cavalry.

SCHOOL OF TROPICAL MEDICINE.

New Orleans Has Stamped Out Fever—Pensacola's Fight.

By Wire to The Morning Star. New Orleans, Nov. 4.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. to-day: New cases to-day, none; total cases to date, 3,398. Deaths today, one; total deaths to date, 450.

Cases under treatment, 8. Discharged, 2,940.

With only eight cases under treatment and only one of these still in the first four days of illness, the fever is at its latest stages, and before leaving out. One or two sporadic cases are looked for and there may be one or two deaths but that will be all.

Professor Ruppert Boyce, dean of the Liverpool school of tropical medicine, left for Greensboro, N. C., to-night where he will be the guest of President Spencer of the Southern Railway and will then go to New York and sail for Liverpool. His advice and suggestions have been sought on the question of establishing a school of tropical medicine in connection with Tulane University and before leaving he expressed himself in the highest terms of the project and said that from what he had heard the fund for its establishment would be secured without difficulty.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 4.—The fever situation tonight presents the brightest aspect at any time during the past two months. Summary: New cases to-day, one; total cases to date, 556. Deaths today, one; total deaths to date, 79. Under treatment, 35; discharged, 442.

THE CHORUS GIRL TRAGEDY.

Dr. McLeod Furnishes $20,000 Bail—Dragging for Girls' Head.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Except for the arraignment of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, his release later on very heavy bail, and the granting of a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary S. Dean, the missing nurse of the Roxbury house, comparatively few additional facts developed to-day regarding the death of Miss Susanna A. Geary as the result of an illegal operation at a private hospital, and the finding of portions of her dismembered body in two dress suit cases in the harbor. The police made a fruitless search for Mrs. Dean. Three business men furnished $20,000 bail for Dr. McLeod, and the harbor police dragged all day in vain for the satchel which, it is said, contains the head of the unfortunate girl, the only portion of her body that has not been recovered.

NEGRO PARTY ORGANIZED.

Virginia Colored Voters Resent Treatment by Lilly Whites.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—Developments today have confirmed the report of an organization among the negroes, of immediate result of which will be the practical elimination of the Republican negro vote from the State election next Tuesday. The organization is that of an independent negro party, the idea being for the members to absent themselves from the polls for the present as a rebuke to the white leaders of the Republican party in the State. "The white leaders say they are glad to get rid of the element represented in the new party, this element having always been an incubus on the party as a whole. The present effort of the white leaders is to build up a white Republican party in the State."

TOO REVOLTING FOR DESCRIPTION

Butchery of Jews at Odessa Only Ceased for Lack of Victims

MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

There Are 5,657 Wounded in the Hospitals—Killed Among the Mob Attacking Was 120—Situation in Russia.

According to the latest dispatches that have come out of Russia, Count Witte is making his force felt. His hand is on the helm and disorders are beginning to cease. Emperor Nicholas has signed the manifesto granting political economy to the Poles and it has been dispatched to Helmsingfors where a grave revolution was threatened and battleships had already reached that port with 10,000 troops to quell the insurrection.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—Count Witte is getting his hands on the helm and the Russian ship of State is beginning to right itself. Gradually the disorder that followed the promulgation of the constitution giving the people liberty is being put down. The premier has met the immense difficulties confronting him, and the pressure of the demands of the different classes of society with the energy and sincerity that are more and more giving him the support of the moderate liberals, who have been frightened by the curial of disorder into which the country has been plunged and the inordinate demands of the proletariat under the leadership of "reds" and Social-Democrats.

Count Witte yesterday solved the railroad strike at a conference with the strike leaders, at which, he did not hesitate to make a practical surrender of the government's demands. The basis of settlement includes increases in wages, right to organize, freedom of meeting and re-employment of strikers.

One of the newspapers, after a careful investigation gives the number of victims in St. Petersburg during the disorders as six killed and thirty-two wounded.

Amnesty Manifesto. St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The text of the imperial manifesto granting amnesty to political prisoners signed by Emperor Nicholas yesterday, declares that by virtue of the intention expressed in the manifesto of October 30 to accord the population inviolable principles of civil liberty free pardon is granted to political criminals of various categories, which are enumerated, and also to participants in strikes and those responsible for breaking contracts. Persons convicted of crimes committed over ten years ago are to be released and will be sent to the Siberian colonies. Those who are now convicts will be allowed after four years to choose their place of residence but are prohibited from living in the capitals, St. Petersburg and Moscow, for three years. Convicts not coming under these categories have their sentences reduced by one half and persons condemned to imprisonment for life have their sentences reduced to 15 years imprisonment. Persons arrested by imperial or administrative order are released. Those condemned to death or liable thereto have the penalty commuted to 15 years imprisonment at hard labor. The amnesty decree includes political offences committed up to October 30.

Finnish Revolution.

Helmsingfors, Finland, Nov. 4.—Three Russian battleships, a cruiser and ten thousand troops have arrived here from Revel. The warships are anchored in the harbor. Batteries have been placed on two commanding hills outside the town and the cannon in the Sveaborg fortress have been turned against the city which also lies under the guns of the warships in the harbor. The authorities with the assistance of the 10,000 reinforcements which have arrived here, hope to be able to control the situation though the insistence of the socialists in their impossible demands makes the position critical. Russian families are seeking shelter in the Nylands barracks.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The manifesto of Emperor Nicholas granting demands of the Poles has been signed and dispatched to Helmsingfors. It convokes the diet December 20, abolishes the dictatorship, rescinds Governor General Bobrikoff's illegal enactments, annuls the manifesto of February 15, 1899, which provided for common legislation in the Empire and all the laws since enacted. It announces that the extraordinary diet now convoked is for the revision of the diets electoral basis.

Odessa, November 4.—It is believed that the worst is over. Owing to the mobs' being satiated with two days' carnival of murder and destruction by flames, the revolt against law and order is dying down, partially perhaps because of lack of material upon which to prey. Almost the entire Jewish quarters of Molodavanka, Slobodka and Bugaiovka are devastated and their inhabitants have either been killed or wounded or have sought refuge in other sections of the town. The whole fury of the mobs was directed unchecked against the Jews. During the first demonstration over the Emperor's manifesto and the sudden acquisition of "freedom," tens of thousands of men who had hated the Jews through generations became drunk with the desire for Jewish blood, swarmed into the Jewish sections of the town and killed for the very joy of killing.

In some instances the military aided instead of preventing the work of vengeance and fury which culminated yesterday in the quarters mentioned. Every Jew, man, woman or child who was caught was slaughtered. The methods employed in the work of butchery were too revolting for description.

Before this morning's dawn the material had become exhausted, and the men who had for the moment become beasts, left the wrecked sections of the city, and though sullen were easily driven back before the rifles of the infantry. A trip of investigation this evening over the Jewish quarters confirmed the stories of horror and devastation. Some bodies, mutilated, among men, women and children, were still unre-

Close of Whirlwind Campaign in Greater New York Last Night

ALL CANDIDATES CONFIDENT

Thousands of Money Wagered on Contest—Tammany Leader Mum—Postal Authorities Seize Postal Cards Caricaturing Hearst.

By Wire to The Morning Star. New York, November 4.—No municipal campaign in recent years has aroused greater interest throughout the country than that which will be concluded in Greater New York on Tuesday of next week. The fact that party lines evidently have been broken down and that each of the candidates will draw more or less largely upon the strength which logically belongs to his opponents makes the canvass which is now drawing to a close at once unique and exciting. The country-wide possibilities involved in the issues have added an element of national interest such as has not marked any preceding local elections.

THE MARYLAND CAMPAIGN

Forecast Says Suffrage Amendment Will Be Defeated—Many Democrats Against It.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The main issue of the Maryland campaign, which practically closed to-night, is the proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which is to disfranchise the illiterate negro voters. One of the clauses of this amendment provides that to be qualified to vote, a person must be "able to read any section of the constitution of this State submitted by the officers of registration, and to give a reasonable explanation of the same as the registration officer."

This provision has been vigorously opposed by a large number of Democrats, including Governor Warfield, Attorney General Bryan and United States Senator Rayner as opening the way to flagrant abuses, with the result that many Democrats, including Independents and Regulars, have openly joined the Republicans in opposing the amendment. Apparently the foreign vote in Baltimore, which has heretofore been divided between the two parties will be cast almost solidly with the Republicans.

To-night both the Republicans and Democratic State chairmen express confidence. The Republican chairman claims that the State will give a majority of 25,000 to the amendment and that the Republican candidate for State comptroller will be elected. The Democratic chairman does not make any specific claim, but said: "The amendment will surely win and we will elect the State comptroller and a majority of the Legislature."

The conservative view at the end of the campaign is that Baltimore will give a large majority, probably 10,000 against amendment and this majority is not likely to be over come in the counties.

MURDER OF YOUNG GIRL.

Believed to Have Been Killed by Her Lover.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—The dead body of Wilma Charlotte Newton, aged 15 years, daughter of Thomas Newton, a painter, was found to-day beside a bridge over a small stream near Fifty-fifth street and College avenue, on the outskirts of the city. The girl evidently had been murdered. The girl's face had been disfigured by many cuts, there were finger marks on her throat, and a stone weighing 150 pounds weighted down the body. The theory of the police is that the girl went to the bridge last night to meet her sweetheart, that they quarreled and that he murdered her. The police to-night arrested Austin Francis, a girl's reputed sweetheart. He denies having been with the girl last night.

A hasty examination by Deputy Coroner Parker at the undertaker's rooms, to which the body was taken, disclosed that the stomach contained a large quantity of acid, but the officers assert that death resulted from violence before the acid had had time to act. Above the right eye was a cut made by a blow delivered with such force that the skull had been fractured. The police believed that after the supposed quarrel, the girl swallowed the carbolic acid in an attempt to commit suicide, but she was murdered before the drug took effect.

PERSECUTED BY WHISKEY TRUST

Sensational Feature in Old Nick Williams Company's Case.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 4.—What promises to develop into a sensational feature of the case of the Government against the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company, of North Carolina, for alleged cheating the government out of revenue in the operation of their plant, was developed to-day when the character of the defense was made known. The attorneys claim that the Kentucky Whiskey Trust are the moving spirit in the prosecution with the intention of driving out of business the Old Nick Williams Company, which is an independent concern. Lee Redman, the general manager for three of the largest distilleries in Louisville, was on the stand to-day for the government as a distillery expert. Under cross examination Mr. Redman testified that whiskey was developed to-day when the distilleries he represented North Carolina. The Old Nick Williams Company are large slippers in the State.

TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA.

Seven People Killed, Many Injured, and Property Destroyed.

By Wire to The Morning Star. Mountain View, O. T., Nov. 4.—A tornado struck Mountain View this evening killing seven persons, injuring many others and damaging much property. The school house, two churches, two livery barns, one hotel, a cotton gin and about twelve dwellings were blown away and many more houses were wrecked. The business part of the town was untouched except a few windows blown in. Mountain View is a small town a few miles from Snyder which was wrecked by a tornado last Spring, with the loss of 120 lives. "I Thank the Lord!" cried Hannah Platt of Little Rock, Ark., for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years. It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; 25 cents.

THE MUTINY HORROR

and said he was going forward to give the cook a— Very soon he saw Coakley take hold of the cook, a small man, and the mate went to the cook's rescue. Sawyer and Adams came running up and Coakley let go the cook, grabbed the mate, shot him three times and threw him overboard. Sawyer fired two bullets in the cook and then they threw him overboard. Next Scott said he saw Adams and the "engineer," a large man, tusseling and Sawyer and Coakley ran up to take the part of Adams. Each of the colored men fired into the engineer one time and threw him overboard. Scott described the location of each killing on the ship and told of subsequent events. He found a pistol on the starboard side of the vessel and put it in his pocket. Sawyer and Adams came to him and asked about the directions and said that if the ship were put to the westward they could reach land by morning. At 8 o'clock Sawyer relieved witness at the wheel and he went down to put the lights out. He looked for the captain but could find him nowhere. He then went down and got breakfast for the crew; also prepared dinner which was eaten at 12 o'clock. Sawyer went down and got supper. Sawyer and Coakley had charge of the ship.

McLELLAN BETS THREE TO ONE

At this juncture a recess was taken until 3:15 P. M. At the latter hour court convened, but Mr. Peschau counsel for defense, did not put in an appearance. Bailiffs were sent out to look for the missing attorney, the judge announcing that he would wait for the absent counsel until 4 o'clock. Shortly before that hour, Mr. Peschau came in quite demurely when his absence was inquired of by some one in the court room. Mr. Peschau glanced at his watch, then at the clock on the wall and was surprised to find that the time-piece was running an hour late. He promptly apologized to the court and the trial was resumed. Scott said after supper Coakley went to the wheel and he and the two other members of the crew sat down on the cabin and Sawyer proposed the idea of letting one of the yawl boats go adrift, pretending that the captain and officers had gone aboard it and been drowned while they would get in the smaller boat and pretend that they had abandoned the vessel and come back to it. In this way they could steer the vessel in, fill her with water and claim prize money. Scott said he would not hear to the story and Sawyer knocked him down with his own exertions, that ever growing thirst for Whiskey, that was consuming body, mind, and soul, and with each fall went further down the dark abyss; no place to hold and begin where I left off, but on, and on, further and further, faster and faster, the accursed hell-broth dragged me, until I could almost hear the lost souls of the damned on the verge of Satan's Kingdom beckoning me on; but, as it happened, I fell into Keeley instead of damnation's darkest chasm, and now the past is looked upon with regret. Without the treatment there would be no doubt but long before this time I'd have been sailing along the river Styx, or stranded on its far away shore, remembering the past in the sickly fumes of the sulphur fumes of hell.

More than proud of the treatment because it has brought glow to the cheek, a sparkle to the eye, and hope to the heart of her whose happiness is more precious to men than gold of Ophir or the diamonds of Galedonia. The treatment has enabled me to cut loose from every associate whose influence or habits would in the least persuade, or offer the shadow of a temptation, and I now live in myself the confidence of a Gibraltar to resist every temptation that comes against me. During the month I was with you every officer connected with the Institution did everything to make it pleasant for its patients, and for each you there is a bond of friendship that is as lasting as time. I and the half would not be told, but suffice it to say the Keeley Cure pulled me out of the deep, dark, murky, muddy, miasmic cess-pools of drunkenness, vice and crime, and now I have a hope to that City whose builder and maker is God. "Consumption runs in my family, and through it I lost my Mother," writes E. B. Reid, Harmony, Me. His mother's death was a loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds.
