It is now prothe course of a year.

The matter first suggested itself to the Mayor at the conference with the Board of Audit and Finance Wednesday night, but he was somewhat puzzled then to know if such action would be legal. The more recent act of the General Assembly provides that prisoners from mayor's courts all over the State may be worked on the county roads, but Col. Waddell the police court may be worked on the streets of the city, which, however is impracticable, or on "any public works," or words to that effect. Col. Waddell had a vague idea of the existence of such an act, but until yesterday he had been unable to find it and was much gratified upon doing so. The egal technicalities out of the way, Col. Waddell at once had a conference with Mr. C. H. Dock, superintendent of the quarry, and an arrangement was effected by which the prisoners will be boarded, housed, guarded and given medical attention with a return of 60 cents per day net to the city for each convict. This is regarded as a very satisfactory arrangement on all sides into effect to-day. If there are prisoners for sentence in the police court today they will go to the city rock quarry instead of to the county camp at While the ranks of the convicts at work on the county roads may be somewhat depleted, it is believed that those in the future of Wilmington being no comfiture, she sprained her ankle very force at all times in the country and less assuring than our own belief in severely and she was urged by her that at length things will adjust themthe ultimate primacy of the South. maid to withdraw from the last act selves to the satisfaction of both the hensive mind and his treatment fair.
