Verdict For Defendants in Case of Bryan Against Lee and Others S Yesterday-Other Proceedings.

In the Superior Court yesterday the jury, which had in hearing the case of E. K. Bryan vs. Chas. Lee O'Donnell and others, returned a verand mercan at New Orleans dict in favor of the defendants. Only one of the issues was answered: "Are the defendants indebted to the plainriff?" The answer was in the negaof the Southern owns the tive and judgment was given that the costs be taxed against the plaintiff. No notice of appeal was given. The case was the only one tried during for the day at 3:30 P. M.

> against the Consolidated Company was called but Mr. Marsden Bellamy. counsel for the defendant, expressed the opinion that the hearing could not be completed by the end of the term to-night and suggested a continuance. Herbert McClammy, Esq., of counsel for Mr. Rembert, offered no objection and by consent of the bar the case was set down for trial as the first on the second Monday of the next civil term in January.

in the case of Louisa B. Smith vs. Susan E. Moore, et al., the plaintiff was allowed to amend complaint and defendants were allowed time to file further pleadings. The case had aldeay been continued until next term.

There are no further cases set for rial at the present term and court will likely adjourn sine die this morning after the motion docket is called over and one or two divorce suits are disposed of. Judge Council, who presaued at this term, will go to Kinston next week to hold Lenoir court.

CLEVER TOGS.

If you seek garments, distinguished for style, better look us up -our needlemen fashion and mould enough "snap" in our garments to separate them from the "bunch."

If you knew our tailoring as we thusiasm-and you may be sure the garments justify our ecstasy. Our creations for FALL are the gossip of the town. "Save the worry-they'll fit."
