-Charlotte Observer, Dec. 13th The usual order of things was r versed last Sunday, when Miss Laur Percer, the 22-year-old daughter of M and Mrs. J. C. Percer, who live of North Caldwell street extension, sto away with 17-year-old Ernest Tomberli and married the youth. The youthf husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V James Tomberlin, who are very wrath over the matrimonial episode. It an interesting story. It seems the Miss Percer and Tomberlin had bee spoony for some time, but owing the difference in their ages, the friends did not regard the spell ser ously. However, Sunday morning Miss Percer, who is the undispute head of the family, took matters her hand. She secured a turnot drove by for him who was to becom her younger half, and hied away the South Carolina line. In the n tural course of events 'Squire Bail received his fee and pronounced h blessing upon the couple. Upon the return the bride naturally took he husband to her parents' home, when they will reside. It is understoo that the parents of the husband ha not yet let their wrath cool and th young man has not yet dared visit TOYS! TOYS! TOYS
