Because Portner's HOFBRAU Export Beer is brewed from the finest hops and malt that can be procured, is bottled EXCLUSIVELY at the brewery, and is sold ONLY in bottles. Blending the nutritive qualities of barley and the bitter tonic properties of hops, with a minimum of alcohol (3 1-2-4 per cent), it constitutes a fine tonic for the sick and a wholesome beverage for the well. The remarkable hop strength of HOFBRAU is of great medicinal value in its sedative effect upon pervous disorders. With meals, it aids digestion, and will produce refreshing sleep if used just before retir-

The South and Western Railroad which is being built from Johnson City, Tenn., to Spartanburg, S. C., will run a branch line to Marion, N. C. Rapid progress is being made on the main line which crosses the Southern Railway near Marion.

-A charter has been granted the Gray Mining and Development Company, of Stateville, capital stock $100,000; J. H. Gray and others of that place; Mrs. R. H. Bennett, of Marion, and Mrs. R. L. Goodman, of Atlanta, being the stockholders.

-Pender Chronicle: At the meeting of the stockholders of the Bank last Friday W. D. Croom & Bro. were appointed to collect half of the subscribed stock, and the proposition of of Mr. McIntosh was accepted, therefore the Bank building will be on the corner now occupied by the store of Mr. George Highsmith, and will be two stories high.

-Fayetteville correspondence, Dec. 19th: Yesterday afternoon as Louis and wife, were crossing the arm of Hope Mills No. 2, mule backed over the embankment into 20 feet of water. Hardin, in attempting to rescue his wife, lost his life. People on the bank set out in batteaus and saved Hardin's wife, with much difficulty. Hardin was a doctor, well known in this city.

-Raleigh correspondence, Dec. 21: Attorney W. T. Miller, of Charleston, S. C., representing John . Skelton Williams and others who recently bought the Carolina & Northern Railway for the bondholders, the sale having been confirmed last evening, says it is the purpose of the buyers to extend the road from Marion S. C., to Charleston and from Lumberton, N. C., to Fayetteville, to which point the Raleigh & Southport Railway is now being built.

-- Pender Chronicle: Geo. S. Stone. of Avonia, Pa., last Tuesday purchased the entire plant of the Burgaw Manufacturing Co., including timber and all other belongings for the sum of $31,000, and sold it to The Garysburg Manufacturing Co., of Garysburg, N. C. who will take possession January 2 and start it up. The new owners are practical saw mill men and have a plant in operation at Garysburg now. They have an abundance of capital and will remodel the mill and run it to its full capacity. We welcome these gentlemen to Burgaw.

-Salisbury correspondence, Dec. 20th: Walter Myrick, a young white man of this city, yesterday made his panions bet him that he could not eat 24 raw eggs. One of them put up $5 and Mr. D. W. -Charlotte Observer: Must interest is being manifested in the coming meeting of the North Carolina branch of the Southern Cotton Association, which is to be held in Raleigh, January Capt. S. B. Alexander is Mecklenburg's representative, with Mr. C. C. Moore, alternate. The question of the day is "who will be next president of the State association succeeding Co. J. S. Cunningham, who, it is understood, will not stand for re-nomination?" The Progressive Farmer, of Raleigh, the most prominent agricultural paper in the State, publication this week's issue, a list of names of those who have been suggested as posible candidates for this office. These are: Messrs John P. Allison, of Cabarrus county; A. J. McKinnon, of .. obeson; Dr. R. H. Speight, of Edgecombe; J. A. Brown, of Columbus; C. C. Moore, of Mecklenburg; A. C. Green, of Wake, and W. A. Graham, of Lincoln. There are several familiar names in this list. Mr. C. C. Moore is known to every man, woman and child in the county. Major W. A. Graham. of Lincoln, is well known in the city as one of the best informed and most highly cultured farmers in the State. Messrs. J. P. Allison, of Concord, A. McKinnon, of Maxton, and J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, are all well known. It is needless to say that the selection of any of these will be a wise choice by the State assocation.

The Delineator for Januarys The Delineator begins the New Year with an attractive cover and a display of all that is new in the fashion world, to say nothing of the many features of literary excellence. Of particular interest is an article by Postmaster-General Cortelyou, describing woman's place and share of work in the postal service. The article in the Food" series is devoted to a discussion of the real value of glucose as a food product. Cecilia Loftus gives her impressions of "Ophelia" a character which she has acted with success, and N. Hudson Moore writes of "Old-Fashioned Beds." The various departments are filled with matter of interest and value to the woman of the

There is really only one complete stock of toys and dolls in the City of Wilmington, and Gaylord's big store is the place to find that. Here can be found everything that the child's mind will conceive of, or in less than five minutes that that is the minds of man can produce. In fact, there is nothing in the way of a Toy or a novelty for your child that we have not though of and brought here for your inspection. This we ask, and I am sure titat we will get your want more.

Bring the little ones to our store and let them see the many beautiful We feel over confident that their childish dreams can be realized here and furthermore we have made our prices so low that it will really take so little to make them happy, that we are sure you can supply their every want and then save money for their savings banks.

Come early before the stock is picked over, and you will be more than pleased; also, remember that the Big Store keeps other things besides Toys. No home in Wilmington is complete unless you have some of our Merchandise. This is the store that caters to your every want.

We can please your child, and we will please you, come and bring the little ones with you.
