

which saved the crew. The vessel will vice and brought offerings in kind and stay, light to fresh north to be a total loss.

will be sent from Mexico City on Thursday, accompanied by his family, to the United States. His fellow countrymen in Mexico City will take ap-official, who was greatly loved in that

R. F. Warren, Saturday, evening, the gift being a handsome silk umbrella.

Mr. Warren reciprocated the kindness of his employes by inviting the his position as a special officer, yester

A. C. L. CONSTRUCTION.

Noted in Railway World.

The current number of the Railway

"The Atlantic Coast Line has erect-point was strengthened, its span short-

The company has also improved the entrance to its transfer bridge at Pin-facilities for handling freight, chiefly lumber. A new steel span 155 feet long was erected during the past fiscal year at Albany, Ga., and a new steel structure with concrete founda-community.

home to-night.

in money for the indigent of the comsons not connected with the transpor- birthday we are now commemorating.

ation lines

loss by this pillaging, usually by per- Who says this? The child whose lege to walk in the footsteps of Him what nineteen hundred years shall bring to pass. Thon art the Truth. Thou are He whom thou claimest to ALMANAC-Dec. 25 7:09 A. M 4:51 P. M. 9 hrs. 42 min. like and an address by the pastor. The church will be handsomely decorated ter at Wilmington . 10:04 P M. for the occasion The body of the late American Contar wishes everybody a sul General, J. B. Russell Parsons.

Christmas and a permanent ee on Easy Street. editors in North Carolina r to be gifted in the art of vituperative vernacular.

funny to see a man precendstand on his dignity when mas gift to their genial proprietor. Mr. feen take him down by a whenew Philippine tariff "force" to an elegant supper at his yswell look out for a mix-Manila tobacco in our flalavana eigars.

proletariat in Russia is giv-Czar so much trouble that combatants were taken up to the City iable to make a typographi-Hall where arrangements were made m and set it up polecat. for their apearance before the Mayor at noon to-morrow.

ever heard of a woman's silent partner in anything in a matrimonial partnergoes on the assumption he is the principal of the asbury man not only won cating two dozen raw eggs ent back and wanted more on necessary to remark that an eggstraordinarily eggs-0'Brien needn't think he world says: whole cheese. He must rethen he tackled Fitz. we one more fight to conand not in the ring.

will build that Panama f it is possible to find a he can do it. The fellow ult those splendid canals in can get a job if he'll drop rfolk Landmark is au- Terminal improvements were made at or this: "And it is at this

-The Christmas exercises at Brook munity, the distribution to be without regard to denomination or church aflyn Baptist church will be held tofiliation. Holy Communion will be obnight in the main auditorium beginning at 8 o'clock. The exercises will served at 7:45 this morning and the consist of songs, recitations and the regular service at 11 o'clock.

Annual Elks' Charity. The annual distribution of food, clothing and delicacies to the poor of the community by Wilmington Lodge so convenient to send away to Rich- tion. No. 532. Benevolent and Protective mond, Atlanta, Cincinnati, St. Louis Order of Elks will take place this morning. Over 20 packages of sub-Wilmington dealers have had their stantial gifts have been prepared at hands full. The records at the Exthe store of the Holmes Grocery Compress office show that the shipments propriate action in memory of the late pany and will be taken out at 8:30 of jugs and crates the past week o'clock this morning in delivery waamounted to over 2,000 per day. Extra gons manned by Elks themselves, the messenger service on the trains had -The employes of Warren's Steam Bakery presented a handsome Christ-mas gift to their genial proprietor. Mr to be employed and all the aggigtance possible was secured in the office but the work is such as requires experi-Charities, pastors of congregations enced hands and the clerks were workand from private sources and none of the worthy poor wil be neglected. The committee is composed of Exalted Ruler T. B. Carroll, Messrs. I. W. Solomon, John J. Furlong, W. Van ments for the week amounted to more Hardin, and Eugene Forshee. Should than 15,000 gallons, to say nothing of -Capt. "Billie" Monroe, by virtue of any worthy cases be neglected a telefreight shipments and the supply carphone message to Secretary H. J. Gerried away by hand. day morning about 9:30 o'clock arrest ken will bring a prompt response. To ed a couple of sailors who were en all Elks and visitors in the city a cor-PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. gaged in a Christmas fight on Front, dial welcome is extended by the lodge between Dock and Orange streets. The to visit the club rooms of the lodge during the day. -Mr. H. J_Lyon, of Elizabethtown,

The Day's Amusements.

A football game at Hilton Park this afternoon, the matinee and night per-Observer, is a guest at The Orton. -A Raleigh correspondent writes: formance at the theatre, oyster roasts Several pictures have been placed on on the sound and the opportunities for the walls among the already large hunting and fishing will be the chief collection in the portrait gallery of features of attractions for the gen-Christmas. the State Library, among these being eral public to-day. Railway people steel engravings of ex-Governor Ay- say there has been little let-up of at Rocky Point. cock, Captain Samuel A. Ashe and travel and all trains going and coming Hon. Kerr Craige; a crayon of Calvin yesterday were c.owded. The mer-H. Wiley, presented by Mrs. Wiley, chants who keep open to-day are also Cooper has gone to Clinton to spend and an oil painting of Hon. George looking for another immense day's Christmas at his old home. Davis, the gift of Junius Davis, Esg." husiness.

zen in these "diggin's" doesn't have Vast Improvements Over System as within himself.

WEDDED IN GEORGIA.

ed a new steel bridge over the Neuse the was up against the age ed a new steel bridge over the Neuse Mr. James H. Peirce and Bride Returning from Wedding Tour. of $18,000. The old er bridge at this

Mr. James H. Peirce and bride, nee ened, and it was then erected over Miss Ruth Leonard, of Eatontown, Ga., vice at Wilmington, Del., arrived home to-day a living force. Who is the best ed around. The music was hushed, the Pitzimmons that he is both the Tar river on the Nashville branch. spent yesterday in the city, guests last night to spend the holidays with the bistory and of area filed errory countemance. at The Orton, and left last evening his family. ident Roosevelt declares ners Point, Va., where considerable and Mrs. Peirce were married on the

> their honeymoon in Atlanta. Mr. Went- York to spend the holidays. Mr. Redd worth W. Peirce, United States Navy, expects to remain in the city until attached to the U. S. S. Florida, of the Spring. coast squadron at Charleston and which recently visited this port, join-tions was constructed over Haynesville ed the wedding party here, after atashington and call on the near Montgomery, Ala. In Savannah tending the wedding in Georgia, and the company built a subway at Guinaccompanied them to Warsaw last nett street crossing, at a cost of $14,000 evening. Mr. Peirce is on a leave of absence of ten days from his ship and Jacksonville; a machine shop was will rejoin it at Charleston Thursday. hat Judge Hanckel rules the line betwen Paola Junction and also attended the wedding in Georgia, built at South Rocky Mount, N. C.; wife cannot rob her hus- Trilby, Fla., sixty-nine miles, was returning to her home at Warsaw yes-who went about doing good. Has Je-Who says this? A carpenter, son of a sus influenced the practical every day be: The Christ, the Son of the liv-While the liquor trade has been uncarpenter in an obscure village hid life of man; has He given light on ing God. usually heavy in Wilmington, many of away among the Gallilean hills. way among the Gallilean hills. Who says this? The Nazarene to his fellow man? Who has given to the world the truest motive for the hearts, thanking our dearest for their hearts, thanking our dearest for the hearts, thearts, the hearts, the hearts, the the out-of-the State dealers have also shared in the sales. They have the adteacher in the temple at Jerusalem. to the world the truest motive for the vantage of the Inter-State Commerce And the chiefs of the Nation rebuke highest life? Who has shown men Xmas gifts, let us look up into the Law, which permits them to ship any-him for his arrogance and his fellow where lies the fullest happiness? Who face of our God Father with glad and TO-DAY where they choose. But it is not quite townsmen jeer Him for the presump- has given humanity the best example grateful hearts, thanking Him for the

of his own teaching? Who has taught best of all gifts, His precious Son, to Who says this? A rejected prophet us and shown us how to live? Jesus, be the light and life of the world. or Louisville for a rush order, and the of a despised people far away from the prophet of Nazareth. Let those O, brother men, as we who serve in the centre of art and learning and who stand apart from Him confirm school, or firm or profession or corporation or army, take pride and pleasure power; ave, a crucified criminal to the me in my statement.

eye of the cultured Greek and haughty Buchner, the learned German ration- in the feeling that we serve and folalist, says "'Do unto others as you low the wisest and the strongest and "I am the Light of the World: would they should do unto you' is an the noblest, so let us who serve Think of the curling lips and indig- entire code of virtue and morals, and Christ take pride and pleasure in the nant glances that would meet such a it is in a better and simpler form knowledge that we serve the truest, declaration in such a presence from than could be furnished by the thick- the holiest, the wisest, the mightiest such a source, were an untrained est manual of ethics." of all this universe. teacher to rise in this day, during a August Compte, the French founder O' brother men; let us throw open lon each, the shipments of liquor the great General Convention of the Y. of Positivisme, could find no better our hearts and wills to Him, giving M. C. A. or other large church body, maxim for his new religion than the him our love, our loyalty our obedithan 2,000 gallons per day. The ship-saying "I am the Light of the World." words of Jesus: "It is more blessed ence and getting back from Him cheer, Think of the scornful rebukes and to give than to receive." John Stuart strength, wisdom that will make this contemptuous hisses that would be Mill, the able English Economist, said life sweet, beautiful and bappy, that turned upon such an one. But there in that a man could not have a better life after this a joy and glory forever.

that gorgeous temple, surrounded by standard for every action in life than Scribes, priests and rulers, stands the the approval or disapproval of Jesus Nazarene, with ears deaf to their hiss- Christ. Herbert Spencer, the great es, with countenance unmarred by master of Evolution, declares that the Peruchi-Gypzene Company Begins Entheir scorn, with quiet, searching gaze ultimate ethics of humanity will be that looks down the rolling centuries, those of Jesus; that in other words, the World." -Mr. J. P. Lucas, of the Charlotte

-Mr. W. McR. Smith arrived home last night from Norfolk, Va., to spend ruth and soberness?

-Miss Bessie Holden is spending temple courts.

Roman.

day and if the average American citi- his friend, Mr. John C. McAllister. -Mr. Thos. S. Kenan, Jr., of Atlanhis old home in Kenansville, N. C.

was here yesterday.

--Mr. Clyde Scarborough, of ped as gods in their own day by in walked a pale, gaunt figure, yet at popular prices-10, 20 and 30 cents -Mr. O. B. Fulford, who is now in many only to point a moral or adorn and a cross on his shoulder. He cast the government river and harbor ser- a tale; but the Nazarene carpenter is down his cross before them and look-

-Mr. Clayton C. Redd, a popular of his times. Pontius Pilate. And yet slowly one by one these aged gods young exponent of the "art preservaimprovement has been made in the 20th at 10 A. M. and spent a part of tive of arts," is at home from New a critical period with Jesus.

--Representative G. J. Boney went up to Wallace last night to spend

The Beach ACADEMY THIS WEEK. gagement With Matinee To-day. The Peruchi-Gypzene Company, pre-calmly speaking, "I am the Light of my friends, the perfect law of this senting Mr. Cheslo D. Peruchi, the faperfect life in that perfect state, vorite comedian, and Miss Mabel Gyp-Who is right? He who speaks, or which, he says this world will one day zene, the charming little comedienne, they who rebuke? Is Jesus an arro- reach, will be that laid down by the will begin a week's engagement at the gant, a silly, deluded fanatic, an impos- Carpenter of Nazareth centuries Academy of Music this afternoon at tor or is He speaking the words of since. Think of it! By the confes- Christmas Matinee, for which the bill sion of those opposed to His claims, will be "Our New Secretary." To-Wave the magician's wand and let the truest directions for the highest night the offering will be "The Devils the holidays with relatives and friends us consider that claim in the light ideal of the best life, after the pro- Web," a drama with enough comedy of the numbered centuries that have found intellects of this enlightened age to give tone to the general production. -Assistant Y. M. C. A. Secretary passed away since that day in the have spent their best efforts on this The company comes with excellent problem of problems, comes from the endorsements from a tour through What name is best known to-day Gallilean teacher who said eighteen Florida and will no doubt have a highin all the world? Jesus, the prophet hundred years ago in that Jewish ly successful engagement in this city. All in all there'll be lots doing to- arrived last night to spend Xmas with of Nazareth. The very name of the Temple, "I am the Light of the World." The company is said to be strong, mighty Emperor, who ruled the world Is it not the world's confession to the well balanced and each individual is when these words were spoken, is to-truth of the Master's word? 'Tis well able to take care of the lines that day unknown by thousands and tens said that somewhere there is in verse fall to his or her lot in the repertory. a merry Christmas, the fault will lie ta, spent yesterday in the city and of thousands who daily breathe the a picture of a feast of all the old world A pleasing line of specialties and vauleft last night to spend Christmas at name of Jesus. Where are the Kings gods. When the revelry was at its deville stunts are given between acts. and conquerors who were worship heigh, the door was thrown open, and Seats are now on sale at Plummer's

> Greensboro, came down yesterday to their fawning subjects? Gone. They wondrously attractive from the light for the night productions and 10 and spend the holidays with his brothers, live only in the memories of the in the eye and the smile on his face, 20 cents for the matinees, which will Messrs. Carl and Frank Scarborough. learned or are made known to the with a crown of thorns on his brow be to-day, Wednesday and Saturday.

DOG FAITHFUL TO MASTER.

Last Night. important personage in the history and of awe filled every countenance; Willie McDuffie, a colored boy, 15 or he is known only for his connection at forsook their seats and vanished into 16 years of age, a crowd of young upon the arena of business, a full air, leaving their ancient hall to the white boys and a dog added to the pledged SUCCESS! What means that ornament which Crucified, standing before his cross. flashes with its jewels on the throats | Let us for a moment change the pic- street last night about 9 o'clock. One For this manifestation of their conof queens or hang in jet or gold from ture. The hall is empty. At the bid- of the white boys, Willie Smith, had fidence in us, we make our bow of the girdle of the humble sisters in ding of the proud thinkers of the mod- a "run in" with the colered boy with sincere thanks, and, ON THIS GLAD their work of mercy? It is the Cross; ern world who would make their own whom he had some words before. The HOLIDAY OCCASION WE BRING the sign of infamy once, now the sym- ideals and fall down before them, negro boy drew a knife and made a EVERYBODY A WISH FOR UN-Christmas at his old home. His health bol of the purest motives and noblest shadows spring from the walls and pass at young Smith when the latter's SPEAKABLE PLEASURE, JOYOUS, continues good and his friends are en-action. Why the change? The death take shape before us. Each one of dog took offence at the assault upon HAPPINESS AND PEACEFUL PLEN couraged to believe that in a short of Jesus. Travel where you will among you. 'I say, take from your god the his master and grabbed the negro in TY!.

time now he will be himself again. the civilized nations of the world. highest virtue and with them together the seat of his pants. Then the col--Mrs. N. M. Culbreth has returned What is the central object of the vil- let us make a central figure to which ored boy slashed the dog across the from an extended visit to her daugh- lage landscape? What dominates the all of you can bow. 'Tis done. One, nose to make him turn loose and there ters in Petersburg and Richmond, Va. -Miss Helen Blair, the accomplish-a church, a building erected in honor the knee and say "Behold the Man." Appleberry appeared on the scene and ACADEMY OF MUSIC, ed milliner of Messrs. S. E. Memory & of the once rejected Nazarene. If Our hearts go out to him in love and arrested the boy with the knife, tak-

教会のなななななななななるのの

Cars to

EVERY HALF HOUR

FROM

1:00 to 7:30 P. M.

AGENTS FOR

承保总监督公告公告

ing, pushing and pushing Up-Hill" to be sure, at times, but have the solid its experimental stages and enter

Christmas gaities on lower Market TO THE GENEROUS PUBLIC-

Respectfully, MERCER & EVANS CO.

CHRISTMAS WEEK

