

WILLIAM H. BERNARD. WILMINGTON, N. C. Tuesday Morning, Jan. 23.

COMPULSORY PILOTAGE

Congress is to tackle the question of pilotage at this session if the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries can get up to the point of making a report on a bill introduced by Representative Littlefield, of Maine. His bill is one to take into the hands of the Federal government the regulation of all ports, with the specific purpose of abolishing compulsory pilotage as now maintained by some States, principally in the South.

The American Protective Tariff League held its 25th annual meeting in New York on Friday. It was conspicuous for the fact that the attendance represented men who are reaping the benefits of protection and for the absence of consumers who pay the freight. That accounts for the fact that this was one of the similar sections of the resolutions adopted. "Resolved, That the country is to be congratulated upon the failure of the 'Tariff Reform' element to force upon Congress a revision of the existing tariff schedules, and upon the prospect that tariff revision is not likely to be undertaken for some time to come."

Receipts at the ports today were 17,792, against 19,682 last week and 26,336 last year. For the week (estimated) 110,000 bales against 135,840 last week and 171,000 for the year. TWINKLINGS.

It is a difficult matter to treat a man for drunkenness. As a rule the more you treat him the drunker he gets. - Philadelphia Record. "A photographer is really among the most trusting of men." "How do you make that out?" "Doesn't he always take people at their face value?" - Exchange. "Pop!" "Yes, my son." "What is it a man loses and then can't tell what it is until he finds it?" "I really don't know, my boy." "Why his breath." - Yonkers Statesman. "Oh, it's easy to pick out a girl that would make a good wife." "Perhaps, but you generally do it until after you've married some one else." - Philadelphia Ledger. "I'm afraid," said the junior member of the law firm, "that we are causing our client unnecessary trouble." "That's all right," rejoined the senior member. "I'll charge him for it." - Chicago News. "Adam," said Eve, "I wish you would put a few cutworms on my favorite fig tree." "What, and have the nice leaves bored full of holes?" "Certainly, I wish to make an openwork shirt waist." - Houston Chronicle. "Ignorance of the law, you know," said the justice of the peace, "is no defense." "In that case," replied the prisoner, "you wouldn't have a leg to stand on if they ever hauled you up before you?" - Chicago Record-Herald. "Of course," said the ponderous statesman, "in the course of my remarks I said some things which were not popularly understood." "How do you know that?" "Because," rejoined the ponderous statesman, dropping his voice to a whisper, "I didn't understand 'em myself." - Washington Star.

Liquor Disease of Twenty Years Standing Cured by Greensboro Keeley Institute - Notable Case. The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C. To any unfortunate brother that can not control his appetite for drink or who has tried to give the advice to go to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C. and take the treatment. It certainly will cure you if you want to quit the bad habit. I speak from experience. I drank 20 years; the older I got the worse I was. I tried my best to quit, but to save my life I could not. I was a complete wreck; my health ruined; my happiness gone; family ashamed of me; my credit falling fast; my money all gone. I had to borrow the money to go to Keeley, but it was the best money I ever spent; my friends and relatives - brothers and wife - begged me for two years to go to the Keeley Institute, but I would not. I had a horror of the idea; I thought I would be disgraced, but at last my wife persuaded me to go, saying it had cured others and it might cure me. I got to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C. the 5th day of January, 1901. When I sobered up I found myself in the hands of gentlemen and friends. I never met more kind and attentive men than the officers and assistants, and physician of the Institute. The treatment cured me and made a man of me; it restored my health and happiness. I now have as happy a home as anybody. I have never returned to the use of the stuff; I had two friends who had nearly killed themselves - one I am certain would not have lived sixty days if he had not gone to Keeley; they are both now in good health, sober gentlemen. I know it has saved three men from drinker's graves, and it will save all who try it. JOHN D. MARTIN. Leadville, N. C., Nov. 28, 1904. Send names and addresses of those who may be benefited to the Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.
