

OUTLINES.

The horrible and thrilling story of wreck of the steamer Valencia on Pacific coast is being unfolded in a raft containing 20 men picked up at sea, all on board in a pitiable condition from exposure and hunger; their rescue was being and they give some heart-rending accounts of the loss of the Valencia. In the defense in the Town Topics case in New York yesterday Ed. M. Shepard denounced that paper as a history of gruesome details involving society people. Joseph Wheeler, the Confederate cavalry officer and Chief of the United States Army, died of pneumonia in New York yesterday evening at 5:35. He will probably be buried in the (national) cemetery at Arlington. In London a Unionist bill for Parliament has resigned the defeated Premier, Mr. Balfour. The House of Representatives yesterday passed the bill for the States of Oklahoma and Iowa, the act requiring both new States to adopt constitutions providing prohibition of the sale of intoxicants to Indians, in order to make good effective. In the Senate yesterday, Money, of Mississippi, made a declaration against the wisdom of President Roosevelt's sending delegates to the Moroccan convention, and the President exceeded his authority in practically carrying out the bill with Santo Domingo without consent and advice of the Senate; Mr. Domingue was made a colloquy. In the House, the bill for a trial at Savannah was passed. Government introduced a number of letters and telegrams which were read between Captain Carter and defendants; some of them refer to partnership in different money-making schemes. Warning to Paper Thieves.

Every newspaper that's worth the name has more or less annoyance at times by the number of complaints from subscribers that they do not receive their papers. More often the delinquency is saddled off on the carrier boy, but sometimes, the fault lies elsewhere. In Richmond the past week the Times-Dispatch had great trouble with its city delivery. An investigation developed that the carriers were being followed by sneak thieves who lifted the papers from the front porches of subscribers and sold them. In the Richmond police court yesterday the carriers were being followed by sneak thieves who lifted the papers from the front porches of subscribers and sold them. Cochran, a restraining order, enjoining the Raleigh and Southport Railroad Company from proceeding with its construction force to work on the proposed line through Myrtle Hill farm. The order is returnable for a hearing before Judge M. H. Justice at Robeson court in February."

Advertising Pinehurst.

Mr. W. B. Rose, city passenger agent for the Seaboard, has received some advertising Pinehurst as a winter resort. The pamphlets are beautifully and profusely illustrated and are topographically perfect. The North Carolina winter resorts, as well as the Summer resorts on the beach and in the mountains, are becoming known all over the country and are being patronized as never before.

LOCAL DOTS.

Mr. J. D. Kerr, of Acorn Branch, killed a fine hog yesterday, the weight of the pork being 517 pounds. Yesterday was the Chinese New Year. It was celebrated appropriately by the colony of Celestials in Wilmington. Capt. Geo. S. Phillips, for many years a conductor on the old W. & W. Railroad, died yesterday morning at his home in Fayetteville. Several vessels in port are ready to clear for their respective destinations with cargoes, but are detained on account of the rough weather. Fayetteville Observer: "Yesterday afternoon two trains loads of laborers passed through this city on their way to the Panama Canal." Fayetteville Observer: "At a meeting of the board of directors of the Bank of Fayetteville, Mr. A. E. Martin, this day, was elected a member of the board." Lillie Pugh, a colored woman living at 1107 North Seventh street, was quarantined for smallpox yesterday. Five others in the same house were detained as contacts. An Orton lobby has been furnished with a set of blueprints for the Florida automobile race yesterday the 15 mile race was won in 2:25 actual time, and the ten mile in 2:28. The House of Representatives yesterday passed the bill for the States of Oklahoma and Iowa, the act requiring both new States to adopt constitutions providing prohibition of the sale of intoxicants to Indians, in order to make good effective. By deed filed for record yesterday.

C. L. Dickinson and wife transferred to A. P. Southland, for $750, property of Seventh, 66 feet south of Wooster street, 55x11 feet in size. The meeting of the colored company that saw service during the Spanish-American war is for the purpose of taking steps to secure back pay that is due to be available under a recent Act of Congress. During the extremely cold rain that fell all day yesterday a man afflicted with rheumatism became unable to go near Front and Dock streets. The ambulance was summoned, and the man was taken to the hospital. The January germ of L'Espresso Cotton Club will be danced in the Masonic Temple ball room tonight. The affair promises to be fraught with much pleasure for the members of the popular organization and their friends. Messrs. Warren & Davis have an interesting announcement to house-holders in another column. In the future every loaf of their celebrated bread delivered in the city will bear the trademark of their bakery. The moral trademark is "L'Espresso" for the label and accept no substitute. Burglar Chronicle: "We understand that our enterprising townsman and saw-mill man, Mr. Geo. W. Collins, was in Wilmington this week awarded a contract with the Carolina Trucking & Development Co. to saw all the timber on their Rocky Run and Castle Haynes estates, estimated to be 2,000,000 feet or more." Newbern Journal: "The lease of a new Masonic Opera House was awarded to the Carolina Trucking & Development Co. by Wilmington, yesterday. The public have benefited by the lease to these gentlemen and we are very glad that they are to continue in control of the Opera House. The attractions secured through them have been good." There was literally nothing doing in police circles yesterday during the day. One lonesome offender for being drunk and down was let off with a caution. The Mayor's court and a chronic inebriate was taken to the police station in the afternoon for trial to-day. But these are incidents too tame to excite comment or interest.

Friends of Policeman Leon George.

Friends of Policeman Leon George will regret to know that he has become necessary for him to return to the hospital again for treatment of an injured knee hurt some weeks ago while engaged in chasing a fugitive. The Mayor's court for him to remain in the hospital several weeks, according to the advice of the attending physicians.

THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Verdict of Guilty and House-breaking in Frank Bur-glary Case

IMPORTANT TRIALS TO-DAY

True Bill For Murder Against McGraw

Several Sentenced to Roads and County Farm During the Day. Proceedings.

The only case of more than passing interest in the Superior Court yesterday was that of B. Frank, alias Frank Anderson, colored, charged with burglary in the second degree in that he broke into the store of Mr. C. H. Casteen last November and stole therefrom in the night time goods to the amount of about $25. The case was entered upon during the afternoon and was the last one disposed of during the day, the jury having returned a verdict of guilty of larceny and housebreaking at 6:30 o'clock after being out about fifteen minutes. The prisoner was defended by Woodus Kellum and T. B. Meares, Jr., Esq., who looked well after the interest of their client. The maximum penalty for housebreaking is ten years, or the punishment may be less in the discretion of the court. Judge Webb has not yet pronounced sentence upon the prisoner.

Witnesses in the cases of Shockley and Lamb were ordered yesterday to be present at the convening of court at 9:15 o'clock this morning.

It is probable that according to present arrangements one of these cases will be reached this afternoon, most probably the Shockley case. The trial of Lamb will likely not be reached until the first of next week. The grand jury yesterday at 12:45 P. M., came in with a body and returned a true bill for murder against T. A. McCraw. He has not yet been formally arraigned in court but will be taken through that formality in a day or two. An effort will then be made to have the case continued until the next term. The calling of the names of each member on the grand jury yesterday, one member, George Schibben, was absent. His absence was explained by the foreman of the jury, who stated that Schibben was ill at his home and had been unable to attend and perform his duties. Mr. William J. Bellamy, McCraw's attorney, gave notice that he would make an exception to the true bill, but that having been regularly returned. Mr. Bellamy's contention is that the true bill should be unanimous, returned by the voice of the entire grand jury, eighteen members, especially in a case where the offence is one punishable by death. When the case comes for trial he will raise the point which is a novel one.

Court met at 9:20 A. M. yesterday.

The sheriff returned as jurors for the day, Alex Wells, C. H. Robinson, C. J. Grant, J. P. Harris, J. B. Cameron, J. H. Hewlett, and John R. Kenney. Excused by the court: E. H. Robinson, C. J. Mitchell, J. McRee Hatch, John A. Karr, A. A. Dock, J. R. Williams, Chas. W. Hill, J. E. Morris and W. B. Jones. The following were not found: R. O. Grant, J. P. Harris, J. B. Cameron, J. H. Hewlett, and John R. Kenney. Excused by the court: E. H. Robinson, C. J. Mitchell, J. McRee Hatch, John A. Karr, A. A. Dock, J. R. Williams and J. E. Morris.

The following cases were disposed of:

George Walker, assault with deadly weapon; verdict of guilty by jury. Fred Jones, assault with deadly weapon; verdict of guilty with recommendation to mercy of the court; fined $5 and costs. Minnie King, larceny; bill charged for forcible trespass; defendant pleaded guilty and judgment suspended on payment of costs. Perry Alderman, carrying concealed weapons; verdict of not guilty. John C. Burnett, selling wine on Sunday, and without license; bond of $100. Holly Grady, larceny; pleaded guilty; sentenced to 12 months in jail with leave to Commissioners to dispose of as they may find best. John E. Warren, larceny; not guilty. J. W. Ray, larceny; verdict of guilty by jury. B. Frank, burglary in second degree; verdict of guilty of larceny and house-breaking. The jury was composed as follows: Messrs. Geo. C. Schutte, Julius Moore, A. L. Motte, Jr., Joseph Todd, J. W. Perrin, J. E. Burnett, Chas. S. Denny, Chas. W. Hill, S. J. Brewer, Herbert Hankins, John Barry and T. E. King. At 6:30 o'clock court adjourned until 9:15 A. M., to-day.

"PARASITAL" BILL TO-NIGHT.

Payton Sisters Company Giving Great Satisfaction—Matinee.

"The Mysterious Mr. Raffles" was presented by the Payton Sisters Company last night and was well presented. The specialties as before, were greatly enjoyed. To-night "Parasitol" will be offered. It comes under the head of religious plays and is the dramatic version of Wagner's grand opera by that name. The Company makes this its feature and always presents it Friday night, as that night is considered the best of the week. At matinee to-morrow afternoon "Prince and Pauper" will be presented.

Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, is expected to return this morning from Shelbyville, Tenn., where he has been to look over the field with a view of accepting a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church. It is earnestly hoped by the North Carolina friends of Dr. McClure that he will decide to remain in Wilmington.

A young man with experience in padding and in use of paper cutter is wanted in the Star Book Bindery. Apply at once.

REPRIEVES FOR SCOTT.

Deputy Marshal Dockery With Important Paper for Negro Mutineer.

United States Deputy Marshal John C. Dockery, of Raleigh, arrived last night and at once went to Henry jail where he served upon Scott, one of the three negro mutineers from the schooner Harry A. Berwind, sentenced to be hanged to-day, a copy of the reprieve until July 1st, recently granted by the President of the United States. The formalities of reading a copy of the reprieve and leaving the same with the condemned man had to be observed before the day of execution, hence Mr. Dockery's visit to the jail last night. The reprieve bears the signature of Mr. Roosevelt and also that of Attorney General Moody. It merely recites that in view of the fact that the shipmates of Scott have been granted an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, it is deemed advisable that his execution shall not take place until the original case of Adams and Sawyer is heard. Scott paid good attention to the reading of the reprieve by the Deputy Marshal and thanked the officer and President Roosevelt. Mr. Dockery also informed Adams and Sawyer that their appeal had been granted and gave them what information he had as to about the time that the case would come up for final disposition. An uncle of Adams' has been here several days, visited his nephew for a second time in the jail yesterday afternoon. "In the time it will go to the reprieve on Scott, who came to serve the day on the morning train to-day to spend the day at his old home there."

DENOMINATIONAL DEBATE.

Rev. J. L. Vipperman, Formerly of Wilmington in Discussion.

The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday, has the following to say editorially concerning Rev. J. L. Vipperman former pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, in this city: "In the time it was not uncommon to have big debates between the partisans of different churches, where in a Baptist would give the Methodists 'down the country,' and a Methodist wouldn't leave a dry thread on the floor. The calling of the names of each member on the grand jury yesterday, one member, George Schibben, was absent. His absence was explained by the foreman of the jury, who stated that Schibben was ill at his home and had been unable to attend and perform his duties. Mr. William J. Bellamy, McCraw's attorney, gave notice that he would make an exception to the true bill, but that having been regularly returned. Mr. Bellamy's contention is that the true bill should be unanimous, returned by the voice of the entire grand jury, eighteen members, especially in a case where the offence is one punishable by death. When the case comes for trial he will raise the point which is a novel one."

UPPER CAPE FEAR WINS.

Senate Passes Bill for Fayetteville's Public Building—Others.

The Washington press dispatches last night brought good news to Wilmington's neighbors of the Upper Cape Fear—news of the passage of a bill by the United States Senate appropriating $75,000 for the erection of a public building in Fayetteville. The bill was reported favorably by the Senate Committee the day before. The presumption is that the bill has already passed the House and that the building is a certainty. The Senate at the same time of the passage of the Fayetteville bill, according to the press dispatches, also allowed $75,000 for a public building at Anderson, S. C., and $75,000 for the Missionary Baptist church, of Rock Link, Fla., for cemetery purposes, all of which administers Wilmington people that it is high time to be "up and doing" in the matter of public building enlargement here.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CROOM.

Remains of Good Woman Laid to Rest Yesterday Afternoon.

Impressive funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Croom, late wife of the late Mr. M. F. Croom, who passed away Wednesday afternoon. The services were from the residence, No. 610 Dock street, and were conducted by the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., assisted by Rev. N. M. Watson. A large number of sorrowing relatives and friends were present to pay a last sad mark of respect and esteem to the good woman and the floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery, the pallbearers having been: Honorary, Drs. Cranmer, Russell, Harris and Mr. Wm. H. Sprunt; active, Messrs. Oscar Page, F. E. Hagan, W. J. Meredith, J. L. Fennell, Tim Robinson and W. A. Martin.

WEATHER WAS BEASTLY.

Yesterday One of the Roughest of the Winter—Storm Warning.

Those who were wont to go into ecstasies over the balmy weather of the early part of the week, changed their tune yesterday. A cold smacking rain fell all day and all last night. It was decidedly rough under foot and but few peeped over the street. Just when everybody thought that the roughness of the weather was over the Weather Man came in with a northeast storm warning and the conditions of yesterday, according to the prediction, promise to be intensified to-day. The storm warning is published elsewhere in to-day's paper and carries with it a warning that it will be very rough—yesterday and last night.

LINE OF PAST YEARS

Baltimore Steamship Company Here in Connection With Clyde Late as 1878

THROUGH RATE ADVERTISED

Present Project Calls to Mind Arrangements of Former Days—River and Ocean Traffic in Those Times.

Some Other Notes.

Appropos of the Baltimore steamship connection, which may now be regarded as a certainty, a reference to the former line between Wilmington and the Monumental City may not be amiss. It was in operation certainly as late as 1878 and appears to have been maintained in connection with the Clyde Line, Capt. A. D. Casaux, at that time, being the joint agent of both. A very large business was done and instead of weekly trips of the steamers the schedule was twice a week between Wilmington and the other cities named.

The schedule on the Baltimore and Wilmington Line was leaving Baltimore Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7 P. M. arriving in Wilmington Saturday and Tuesday mornings and leaving this port on Wednesday and Saturdays. The Clyde steamers left New York on Tuesdays and Fridays at 7 P. M. arriving in Wilmington Friday and Monday mornings and leaving Wilmington Wednesday and Saturdays. Reuben Foster, of 90 Light street, was the Baltimore general agent, and Wm. F. Croom, of 100 W. 11th street, for the other line at No. 6 Bowling Green, New York. In the Wilmington City Directory of 1877, the New York and Baltimore lines are advertised on both covers of the book as a "Semi-Weekly Fast Freight Route to All Points North or South, via Wilmington, N. C." It was further stated: "Shippers may rely upon the prompt and regular sailing of the steamers and quick dispatch of all shipments by this route. No delays and but one transfer from point of shipment to destination; consequently all freight by this route is delivered in unbroken lots." "Through bills of lading given to and from all points in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama; also to Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Norfolk, Fall River and other Eastern cities. Rates guaranteed as low as by any other route and time as quick. Losses or overcharges promptly paid."

WARM WIRELETS.

The Senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of Gen. Luke E. Wright of Tennessee, to be ambassador to Japan.

The large tannery of the United States Leather Company at Petersburg, Va., was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is about $100,000. The trial of Midshipman Richard R. Mann, presidential appointee, was concluded at Annapolis yesterday and a verdict reached. A verdict was also recorded in the case of Midshipman Chapin, of Pasadena, Cal. Both were acquitted of having. Stephen Decatur, great grandson of Commodore Decatur, first class United States Naval Academy, was yesterday dismissed from the Navy by Secretary Bonaparte in conformity with the sentence of the court martial in his case on the charge of bawling. Representative Flood, of Virginia, introduced a bill in the House yesterday to provide for the purchase of the McLean property and adjacent land at Appomattox, Va., and to erect tablets in the commemoration of the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia to General Grant. A bill was introduced in the Virginia Senate yesterday providing for an additional appropriation to the Jamestown exposition of $150,000. Delaware's bill providing for the purchase of a bill to compete the purchase of all books for public schools at the lowest prices at which they can be obtained in open market. At the annual meeting of the Baltimore Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, last night, Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, promised that features of the Exposition would be an international yacht race for the King of England, and the greatest assemblage of warships of all nations in the history of the world. A committee of Atlanta citizens, headed by John Temple Graves, editor of the Atlanta Evening News, has started a movement to celebrate in Atlanta, January 19, 1907, the centenary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee. It is proposed that the celebration shall be national in character and the North and South alike shall be asked to join in the tribute to the Confederate General. The Senate Committee on Commerce yesterday heard arguments by a number of representatives of the cotton growing industry in support of Senator Overman's bill providing for the appointment of a committee for the extension of American markets in the Orient. Among those who presented their views were Senator Overman, former Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, and Editor Whitman, of the American Cotton Record. At a conference which lasted all day, the attorneys in the packers' case in Chicago were still trying, when evening arrived, to come to an agreement regarding the day entry in the public was dismissed for the day early in the afternoon, and Judge Humphrey informed that if an agreement was reached it would be submitted to him this morning. During the day several messages regarding the case passed between District Attorney Morrison who is prosecuting the case for Attorney General Moody in Washington. Grady Miller, the 16 year old son of Dr. S. L. Miller, was on Wednesday night shot and killed by the negro porter of the Lake View Hotel, at Florida, Ala. There were no eye witnesses to the shooting, but two pistol shots were heard. A search was made and nearby was found the negro in a dying condition. He lived long enough to say that he and Miller had engaged in a pistol duel. There is no way to ascertain the cause of the tragedy. Young Miller had come home for a few days from Wofford College, S. C., where he had been attending school.

There is no material change in the strike of the negro students of Talladega (Ala.) College for negroes.

A few of the participants have returned but many more have left. President Nice declares that there will be no compromise and he has the full cooperation of the American Missionary Association under whose auspices the strike is conducted. Many of the colleges through the streets of Talladega are receiving the encouragement of negro students of the city. It is believed that the strike will shortly end with no concessions by the faculty.

J. Gore, of this city. The tug Herbert M. was secured to go after the disabled craft and will bring her into the wharf at Skinner's to-day. Warranty deeds for sale at the Star Office.

ELECTIONS IN ENGLAND.

Unionist Candidate Resigns to Give Balfour Another Chance.

London, Jan. 25.—Sir Edward Grey, the new foreign secretary, has been returned for Berwick-on-Tweed division of Northumberland by the largest majority he ever had. This is typical of the general result of yesterday's elections which practically were an unbroken series of Liberal successes. Alban G. H. Gibbs, Unionist, has resigned his seat for the city of London in favor of former Premier Balfour, who has accepted the committee's invitation to be a candidate to represent the constituency. A writ for new election cannot be issued until Parliament meets, so Mr. Balfour will not be present at the opening of the House which will be his first absence from that ceremony for 31 years.

Henry Blount at Armyory.

Henry Blount, lecturer and entertainer, appeared last night at the Boys' Brigade Armyory, in his own version of "The Rip Van Winkle" and "Solan Shingle." The weather was very inclement and the audience was, therefore, small but those who heard him speak in the highest terms of the entertainment afforded by the gifted North Carolina. Mr. Blount will remain in the city and speak to the Brigade again this evening.

"The newspaper size" of a store—the relative space of its advertisements, compared with those of its competitors—is more in the public mind than the actual size of its buildings or sales-rooms.
