

S Department of Agriculture congregation. Weather Bureau. Wimington, N. C., Feb. 13, 1906.

Paper

resterday.

leterological data for the 24 mending at 8 P. M., Tuesday, Feb.

emerature at 8 A.M., 44 degrees; M. 31 degrees; Maximum, 60 des; Minimum, 43 degrees; Mean, infall for the day, .60; rainfall te first of month to date, 2.63.

tteville at 8 A. M., Tuesday,

Weather Forecast

minister in charge of the work at the 'r North Carolina-Fair Wednes-Chapel of the Good Shepherd, offment rain in extreme western ciated at the service and the house ion. Thursday fair, colder; varia- of worship was filled with friends and they can do and the newly project-

PORT ALMANAC-Feb. 14.

's Length Water at Southport. . 11:28 A. M. Water at Wilmington, 1:58 P. M.

periopsed for the United States ing eulogy upon the life and work easly chance of the Democratic V to get something with which to t the Republicans.

there is talk of making an effort to Hamilton from prolonging his in Paris since we have found out the took French leave of us.

istator Tillman is up in Washinggiving the Senate some hot stuff down in South Carolina slature is trying to cook the me of the Sentator's dispensary sys-Bamboozle hon y-inggle," etc. Senator Tillman's 10 10 Monday, ean ly found in the lexicon which he I when he was running for Goverar in South Carolina in 1888,

The Salisbury Point states that Dr. former superin Well, it would hear that he is a good man to turn ing the affairs of the hospital with sigthe stareblight

Notwithstanding the fact that for her Miss Anna Gould, the Countess de stellane, is trying to cut loose from Count, it is said that an American 1 worth $25,000,000 wants to marry get a title. Well she c'n get oar atine for half the money.

The Charlotte Observer asks: "Is wain Mate, First Class, W. Hull astro crazy or just a plain fool? seem to be a timely subject for ing; Lieut. John B. Peschau, Junior le in the literary societies." Per- Grade, and Ensign Walter S. Morris. the has been frenzied by the promo- close and exciting. this who have gone there from the Blad States and France. Maybe the Trolley Party Last Night.

Mr. Garrell will place on the corner of Second and Princess streets will also begin to go up and all told the TOUCHING MEMORIAL SERVICE. improvement to that part of the town will be great. Friends of Late. Rev. John E. Huhn The purchase price by Mr. Yopp Honor His Memory was $2,100 yesterday, giving Mr. Bon-A beautiful and very impressive itz a profit of more than 40 per cent. memorial service was held last night on his investment of less than four at 8 o'clock in the Chapel of the Good months. It is a striking example of the rapid appreciation of values in law provides, says the Collector, that Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, in honor of young Mr. John E. Huhn, uge of water in Cape Fear river whose sad death last week in far-away after Mr. Yopp's purchase yesterday, Alaska has been chronicled in these he could have closed out himself at a handsome profit. columns. Bishop Strange, the Rev.

in one parcel or at public auction in In this connection builders are com-W. Hogue and Mr. H. L. Durant, percels not less than 20 wine gallons. plaining of the scarcity of contracno tax shall be collected. ors. All responsible contractors in The question having been settled. Wilmington now are said to have all another has arisen. Was the seizure legal? The city official is advised by winds becoming northwest and relatives of the young missionary ed structures, it is said, must wait counsel that it was legal, but, presumwhose death in the service of his Mas- until contractors at present here can ably acting under advice of counsel, ter in the far-away field came to the get to them. The demand seems to Mr. A. A. Aveilhe, agent of the Seacommunity at large as very sad tid- be for contractors who will obligate board in this city, has written that ings. Included in the congregation to deliver what is called a turn-key the beer at the time of the seizure job, that is, do both the brick and carwere not a few of the members of was in the possession of the Seaboard Stonewall and other lodges of the penter work and turn the building as bailee and common carrier for the Knights of Pythias in this city of over to the owner ready for occuconsignor, F. W. Ortmann, of Wilmingpancy. which Mr. Huhn was a valued memton, and he therefore notifies the City

In regard to the Princess street im-Clerk and warns him against selling provement, it is said that there is a Bishop Strange pronounced a touchthe same as the railroad company likelihood that the county will overannex the North Pole. This may of the missionary who was in the first haul the old court house property and 'wanton and wilful trespass" under class for confirmation when the Bish- rent it for commercial purposes. color of the office of city clerk, delay-Should such action be taken it is safe op came as rector of Staint James' ing the delivery of the beer to the parish in this city years ago. Bishop to say that the expenditure would pay consignee. Hon. John D. Bellamy is Rowe, under whom Rev. Mr. Huhn the county a good dividend, besides counsel for the S. A. L., and the noserved in the Alaska mission, was greatly enhancing the looks of that tice by Mr. Aveilne is evidently upon quoted to show the singular devotion part of town. Negotiations are said his advice. to be pending for the purchase of the and fidelity of the young man. Bishop Love property, across the street, in-Strange's language in speaking of the O'NEILL TO-MORROW NIGHT.

cluding the livery stables of Messrs. reward for this conscientious and self-Orrell & Alexander and the row of sacrificing duty by the young missmall law and magistrates' offices exionary, was beautiful indeed. tending about half way of the block

HOSPITAL IN JANUARY. Regular Monthly Meeting of Managers

week there was a revival of the talk of Held Last Night. the purchase of the old Currie pro-The regular monthly meeting of the perty at southwest corner of Second Board of Managers of the James and Princess streets and the conver-Walker Memorial Hospital was held sion of the same into a modern stalast night, members in attendance tion for the Consolidated Railways, having been Messrs. Wm. H. Sprunt, Light and Power Company, with of-George R. French, D. C. Love, John H. fices of the concern on the second Rehder and Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy. floor of the proposed structure. The business transacted was large routine. The report of Dr. Joseph kerman for January was interestng for the large amount of work

hown to have been accomplished during the month. The number of days of treatment was 1,159. Seventeen operations were performed in the hospital proper and 458 surgical dressings were furnished. In the out-patient department there were 44 admissions and 160 dressings. There were 55 ambulance calls during January. The report was a source of congratulation for Dr. Akerman, who is administer-nal ability. SAILORS' COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Award of Gold and Silver Medals by Naval Reserves The annual competitive drill for the Division silver and gold medals took night. place last night at the Naval Reserves armory and was quite a spirited affair. The gold medal offered by the Division was won by Seaman H. H. Sellars and the silver medal by Boats-January, 1906. Moore. The judges of the contest

Receipts - New Hanover county, $125; Miss L. H. Brown, $1; W. B. Cooper, $15; Mrs. H. G. Smallbones, $1; cash, $2.50; Mrs. Donald MacRae, John W. Atkinson, $10; Mrs. H. Vollers, $2; cash, $5; Mrs. M. E. Bridgers, crop this season will reach 2,250 car At first the question of the right loads, which, when reduced to crates, of the sale of the beer without paying the United States license will foot up 562,500 crates. These rewas duced to quarts make eighteen million the lodges of the State calling on sprung, but the technicality has been brushed away by an opinion from the quarts. At 16 2-3 cents per quart this the individual members to come foroffice of the Collector of Internal Rev- would mean the distribution of no less ward with contributions for the Grand enue in Raleigh. Collector Duncan than $2,880,000 in this territory from Lodge temple fund in Raleigh .. writes in reply to City Clerk Fowler the single crop of strawberries alone. states that the erection of the tem that he is advised that the city will The Charleston section will have from ple on the proper financial basis will not be liable in making the sale. The three to five hundred car loads, while insure the establishment and main the Norfolk section will reach from tenance of the home for aged and in-building lots in Wilmington. Even when spirits have been levied on by seven fifty to one thousand, making firm Masons and also support the any officer under order or process of the total shipments aggregate in the Grand Lodge Orphanage at Oxford. any court or magistrate and where neighborhood of 3,250 to 3,500 car To do this the Temple must be erect such spirits are sold by such person ed without creating a debt other than loads. the bonds so that the greater part of "Lettuce is growing nicely, and the Spring crop will begin to move out of the revenue can be applied to the this territory in car load lots about the home and the orphanage. latter part of this month or the first of March, unless some unforseen back- approved a schedule as prepared in set should come along between now and that time. The trade will then see some of the finest stock ever shipped from any part of the country."

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. to the four months, minimum limit.

Annual Meeting of Council-Officers for an apportionment received the full and Committees.

The newly elected council of St will look to him for damages for Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church v treasurers. met in the Memorial building Tuesday night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Vice President-L. Hanson. Secretary-H. L. Vollers.

Treasurer-Eduard Ahrens. The following committees were se ected:

Documents and Contracts-Messrs. . L. Vollers, M. G. Tiencken and E. H. Strunck. Building and Repairs-Messrs. C V. Polvogt, J. H. Rehder and Eduard London, led the field by a margin of Ahrens

William Niestlie, M. G. Tiencken and The sensation of the day was the breaking of the local course record by Ladies' Sick Committee-Mesdames William Bred, of Hampton Terrace, Schulken, William Niestlie, A. D. with a round of 68.

Altar Cloth Committee-Mrs. F. A. Bissinger and Miss Emme Hutaff.

The following young men were nam ed as ushers: Messrs F. W. Ortman, Carl Fick, W. A. Mahler, Martin Brun-

Feederick Michaelis.

merce to Hear Report.

Chamber of Commerce will be held to about 120 miles from Charleston. It committee appointed recently to con- and is likely to be off her position

termine some means of relieving the congestion of freight traffic on the buoy tender Wistaria tomorrow mornfreight tracks extending through the ing to pick up the lightship and tow

Hugh MacRae and wife to C. R., L that all shippers be present as mat-& P. Co., for $1,600, lot on Wrightsters of importance to them will be ville Beach designated as No. 78 and one-half of lot No. 79, according to the Chase plan of the beach. munity'. C. S. Riggs and wife to J. O. Grimes, for $200, property at northwest inter-

E. M. Andrews, the well known furniture dealer of this city, has Master Francis D. Winston, of the added to his beautiful stock of Furniture, a Music Department under the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, has issued an urgent letter to special supervision of a man with seven years experience. We will handle these celebrated instruments

We invite the Musicians of Wilmington and surrounding country to come and examine these beautiful instrumments. Before buying, remember these goods are First-Class and are worthy of inspection. We have an experienced man for tuning and repairing

PALACE PHARMACY

126 So. Front St.

Than Duplicating Former Successes. The Academy to-morrow night will years will no doubt see a great devel offer the distinguished actor, James opment in property all along Princess O'Neill, in his farewell great play of streets in that section. Only this "Monte Cristo," and this is Mr. O'Neill's farewell tour in this popular success. The sale of seats for the performance starts this morning. Of Mr. O'Neill and production the Greensboro Record, Monday said: "A large and representative audience greeted James O'Neill and a clever supporting company in 'Monte

J. H. W. Fuchs. Wessell and C. Adrian

an exception showing talent and form- Jr., C. H. Bornemann, Luther Wessell,

THE "DUMMY" LINE QUESTION.

Special Meeting of Chamber of Com-

An important special meeting of the fer with the railroad officials and de- Commander Benson will go out on the transacted and it. is hoped to have a Fayetteville Fire Insurance Co. ull expression from the business com-the Scott's Hill road, containing 2 1-8 of Mr. C. W. Worth, Mr. Malcolm Mc. surance company with headquarters acres of land. Isaiah Casteen and wife, of Onslow committee appointed to wait upon the county, to Victor C. Bordeaux, for city officials and make known the great advantage of having insurance Fayetteville Observer: "We learn, by a circular dated 6th inst., received The committee appointed to confer at the Observer office, that a move-with the railroad officials is composed ment is making to organize a fire in-WARREN'S STEAM BAKERY, committee appointed to wait upon the $60,000. The circular sets forth "the $100, thirty-one acres of land in Cape wishes of the business interests in re- companies in our section, from whom 22 North Front St.

Yesterday.

A VESSEL IN DISTRESS. Tug Blanche Leaves to Assistance of Schooner Birdsall. In response to telegraphic advices the tug Blanche, of the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Transportation Company, left Southport at 11 o'clock last night for Cape Lookout where the four-masted schooner J Holmes Birdsall, 868 tons, Capt. Clark, from Fernandina, February 2nd, to New York, was reported in distress toward Second street. The next few

The tug is in charge of Capt. Peppe and will reach the vessel by 11 o'clock this morning. She is doubtless loaded in the northeast storm of Monday

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

were Lieut. H. M. Chase, commandthe he is neither, till we learn wheth-St. James' Episcopal Church, lated by the sailors as the contest was $164.32; St. Paul's Episcopal church, with lumber and is reported to have lost her rudder, sails and to be in a leaking condition. The vessel is lying southwest from Cape Lookout, Co., for $517.25, property between the about three miles off shore, and was

Report of Treasurer for Month of coast Railroad to A. G. Ricaud.

Cristo' at the Grand Saturday night yet the audience was smaller than the worth of the performance merited. O'Neill was, of course, the star, but he did not so far outshine the other members of the company as to make it a "one- man" attraction. His support was excellent, the cast without ing altogether one of the strongest dramatic aggregations visiting Greens- jes, August D. Christoffersen and bore this season. The stage effects were very elaborate and the costuming unusually good and appropriate.

Everywhere "Monte Cristo" is More

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Transactions Which Appear From

Deeds Filed Yesterday.

Hugh MacRae and wife, to Consolidated Railways, Light and Power

Atlantic ocean and the Banks channel, on east side of the right of way of the C. R., L. & P. Co., formerly transferred from the Wilmington Sea-wharf district. It is especially desired her back to position.

