—At Lincolnton on Wednesday afternoon Dr. I Ruffin Self and Mrs. Isabel Tobey were married in the Methodist church. The best man was Dr. R. William Petrie and the maid of honor Miss Eva Witkie and they surprised their friends by concluding to get the same minister to marry them on the spot.

—Charlotte Chronicle: The Confederate veteran influence in North Carolina played out in the defeat of General Julian S. Carr for the nomination for Governor. The fact did not seem to be appreciated at the time, but at the Greensboro convention, later on, when Major Charles M. Stedman was defeated, it was emphasized beyond dispute. The time has passed, it would seem, when it is of any avail for a man to run on his record as a Confederate soldier, expecting the vote of his comrades to pull him through. The politicians are too smart.

—Asheville correspondence: Dr. Edlun, who has taken up headquarters in Asheville for the purpose of securing Swedish immigrants, left Thursday for New York where he goes to organize and accompany to this city the first installment of immigrants to western North Carolina. Dr. Edlun will remain in New York for a period of a week or 10 days aiding the Swedes in making arrangements to come to this section and will then personally conduct the colonist movement here. Dr. Edlun expects to bring at least 25 or 30 Swedes with him. Places have been secured for all those who will come and everything will be done to make the foreigners contented and happy. It is believed that when the movement of Swedes to Asheville and western North Carolina begins the inflow will be constant and that several hundred of these most desirable people will be induced to take up their residence in this section of the country. President Geo. S. Powell, of the Asheville Board of Trade, is greatly interested in the movement to bring Swedish immigrants to Asheville and has already secured places for more than one hundred.

—Greensboro special, April 9th: The trial of Mrs. Alice Smoot and her husband, G. L. Smoot, charged with counterfeiting, is now in progress in the Federal court. The defendants are represented by Messrs. C. M. Stedman and James T. Mofehead. The government has shown by Detective Taylor that on March 24th, he arrested the woman in Greensboro just as she was leaving on the train. Examination of her baggage showed some packages of bright new silver half dollars and five dollar gold pieces, each piece wrapped in tissue paper. In the satchel were two bottles, one gold and one of silver solution. The coins were rabbit metal plated and the stamp was a fine imitation. Several incriminating letters that were found in the satchel which has passed between herself and husband in West Virginia were exhibited. One of the letters from Smoot dated at Welch, W. Va., instructed the wife to keep busy and be sure and work Winston, Danville and Greensboro and Salisbury, as they were good points, before she came to him in Welch, W. Va. Another started that he would soon make some more "dollar marks." in the captured counterfeit, there were no counterfeit dollars.

—Asheville special, April 9th: Seno E. Parks, a well known white barber of this city, was this afternoon found dead, a suicide, in a deserted house in the southeastern section of the city. He had hanged himself and died from strangulation having been dead for hours when his body was discovered, perhaps since yesterday morning since which time he has been missing. Police officers have been searching for the man ever since his wife reported him missing yesterday afternoon. He was found by Patrolman Ballinger, of the city police force, and a lad shortly after six o'clock to-day. The man had fastened a wire to a hook in the ceiling of the room and then twisted it around his neck forming a noose. He then simply bent his knees and died from strangulation, being almost in a sitting position when discovered. He was fully dressed, his hat having fallen to one side and lying on the floor was a whiskey bottle, emptied. His neck was deeply cut by the fine iron wire and his face distorted from strangulation. He left no word to explain his rash act, but it is said that domestic and financial troubles, possibly brought on by his drinking, caused the deed. It is said at the shops where he was employed that his wife Saturday night came to the shop and that she and her husband had some words over money matters, she reproaching him for alleged non-support. At one o'clock Saturday night he left the shop entirely sober, and went to his home. Early Sunday morning, before breakfast, he left his house and then totally disappeared. Mr. Parks had formerly occupied the building in which he ended his life as a tenant, the house having been vacant since he removed.

—Rocky Mount special April 9th: The Central Labor Union of Rocky Mount and vicinity, which are affiliated with boiler makers, blacksmiths, carpenters and joiners, clerks, carmen, Federal union and machinist railway clerks have sent the following to the furniture manufacturers of High Point: "Gentlemen: We notice with regret the manner in which employers of labor are discriminating against organized workers of your city, and we beg to protest against such unfair treatment. We are aware that the manufacturers of your city are organized and are collectively discriminating against your workmen. You are condemning them for using a privilege you have taken. Where is the consistency of such dealings? "In the name of 800 union men of this city we ask you to give your organized employes a square deal. We beg further to say your precedent set in this matter will not increase the sale of any product manufactured in your plants; on the contrary union men here and over the entire country will refuse to purchase any thing manufactured under such unfair conditions. Desiring a satisfactory and speedy settlement, we beg to subscribe. Yours very truly, Rocky Mount Central Labor Union, per B. Moore, secretary. "P. S.—we are later advised that the furniture dealers of Rocky Mount will not handle furniture manufactured under such conditions. They advised our special committee to this effect."

—The regular correspondent of the News and Observer at High Point in a letter under the date of April 7th, says: There is practically no new developments in the situation. The idle men attend meetings of the union, visit the depot and walk the streets. Mr. F. C. Roberts, representing the American Federation of Labor, and other labor leaders are here. They have tried to get an audience with the manufacturers, but I am reliably informed, have been unsuccessful so far, the manufacturers saying they have nothing to discuss or arbitrate; that they have done what any man has a right to do and can see no need for a conference as they do not intend to employ union workmen if they know it. It has been called a "lock out," strike, been "fired" and many other names but any of these names do not seem to fit the case, as no demand was made to quit the union I am told, nor any man is not barred from working if he does not belong to the union, etc. The manifesto of the manufacturers was "that on and after April 2nd, no union man would be employed." This is a lock out if the union men refuse to work as non-union men but not a lock out if they will.
