SPEAKER AND PRESIDENT APART.

President Roosevelt, according to the Star's Washington dispatches yesterday morning, will send to Congress to-morrow the report of his emissaries lines, The Industrial News prints a sent to Chicago to inspect the pack- 'clarion call' from Mr. Stewart, chairing houses. Enough of their report has leaked to cause a sensation in the United States and Europe where the Chicago packing houses do a large business as well as in this country. The affair promises to be a great sensation, and it is hinted that the report Republicans than the rate bill.

President Roosevelt gives as his lican party to prosper and to build up. reason for making the packing house If he does, let him retire. Yes, let disclosures public that packers were him at once resign from Congress, and lation and the House Committee on Agriculture was showing a disposition to delay the progress of legislation on the subject. There was enough in the dispatches yesterday morning to indicate that in his message to Congress tomorrow the President will have something to say that will rile the shout for Rollins to quit when they House committee, for the President's thought Rollins had Blackburn by the ably less than the number of men?action seems to be based on some vindictiveness against the committee as burn's ox was being gored it was all well as against the packers.

The committee, however was not all that the President's message tomorrow is to stir up. He is going to make the exposure because the packers and the committee, as alleged, are trying to defeat Senator Beveridge's amendment, already adopted by the Senate. providing for inspection of cattle, inspection of meats and products, and inspection of the slaughter and packing houses. The President's message will not only hit them but if the Washington dispatches are true, Speaker Cannon will be hit, as it is said to be the Republican State executive com-"now definitely established that, as mittee at Greensboro, last Saturday, ing all of the fun out of it.
