

THE FACE ON THE CENT.

It is Not That of an Indian, but of a Pretty Little Girl.

Mrs. Sarah Longacre Keen, who died in Philadelphia, nearer being the queen of the American mint than any woman who lived.

It is usually assumed that the on the head side of the copper is of an Indian, but a close look will reveal a Saxon profile.

Between 1828 and 1840 James L. Longacre was chief engraver of the United States mint in Philadelphia.

One morning a number of Indians with their chief, who had been to pay their respects to the great white chief in Washington, came to the city and were shown through the mint.

At the last moment of the period given for sending in engravings he thought himself of the possibility of the combination of Indian features and Saxon sweetness.

SAID ABOUT WOMEN. A battered woman is always indulgent.—Chenier. The test of civilization is the estimate of women.—Curtis.

Provided a woman be well principled she has dowry enough.—Plautus. Beauty is the eye's food and the soul's sorrow.—German Proverb.

Women are supernumerary when present and missed when absent.—Portuguese Proverb.

A termagant wife may in some respects be considered a tolerable blessing.—Washington Irving.

Telling the Time. One of the accurate ways of telling the time is to use your hand as an hour mark.

Horses and Oil Cakes. "Say, d'you know anything 'bout hosses, hey? D'ye know they'll eat pork? Well, they will when it's fed 'em an' they have to.

True of Trouble. "He's out of a job now. He had a good opportunity, but he didn't take the trouble to improve it."

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Have come and gone and may there be many pleasant remembrances of this joyful season for you.

The year of 1906 has gone, and there is placed on my books, business that has never been equalled by any before.

We have the money with which to discount our bills and we are giving that discount to you in the way of trading stamps which we own and operate our own system.

Since beginning this business nineteen years ago in this city, each and every year surpasses the last.

In our dress goods and silk departments, white goods and gingham your want can be easily supplied.

Our business was all that we could attend to and even had the opportunity, we had not the force to do any more.

If you have anything in view for Immediate purchase, give us a chance to show you those. I do not hesitate to say we undersell the other fellow and all I ask is an opportunity to prove it.

Remember we sell the Royal Muslin Underwear and we are sole agents for this line in the city.

We also sell The Mentor line of knit underwear for ladies and children.

Our cloak department has quite a nice assortment of new cloaks just received as well as a nice line of new furs.

The young lady in that department is in a position to give you liberal discount in those goods and we will be glad to have you see her stock.

I thank you again for your holiday patronage and trust that each one is well satisfied with purchases.

The store is now thoroughly cleaned up and looks bright and new and we ask that you come to see us again.

Our business was all that we could attend to and even had the opportunity, we had not the force to do any more.

The Big Department Store on Front Street.
