

OUTLINES.

London and Berlin were considerably disturbed yesterday over talk of war between Japan and the United States over the San Francisco school controversy; Japanese bonds declined in the London and Berlin markets; the Berlin papers published war-scare articles, but the London press derides the idea of war; at Washington the war talk is said to be all bosh. In the accident on Friday on the Seaboard Air Line at the Roanoke River bridge near Norfolk, N. C., in which two men were killed and two locomotives and twelve cars were plunged into the river, the bridge did not collapse, but was blocked with wreckage. The famous battleship Oregon is to be rebuilt at a cost of $1,000,000. The big eagle figurehead of the United States warship Niagara, flagship of the American squadron which went to Japan in 1855, and other naval relics, are to be exhibited at the Jamestown Exposition.—The House, at Washington, yesterday, laid aside business to pay tribute to the memory of the late Senator Gorman, of Maryland, among the speakers being Speaker Cannon.—The postoffice appropriation to be reported on Monday carries $209,180,561, the largest in the history of the country.—Representative Heflin, of Alabama, yesterday introduced a bill in the House to provide for the reimbursement of those who were compelled by the government to pay taxes on cotton from 1862 to 1866.—Harry Thaw was impatient in his cell in the Tombs prison, New York, yesterday, anxious for his real trial to begin for the killing of Stanford White; it is said that May McKenzie will be used as a witness by the State to prove that Thaw threatened White's life; there are rumors that District Attorney Jerome will make an effort to withdraw another juror and may spring a surprise on Monday.—The woodworking plant of the Wills Veneer Company at Plymouth, N. C., was burned Friday at a loss of $250,000.—New York markets: Money on call, nominal; time loans, easy; spot cotton, steady, 11 cents; flour, firmly held and dull; wheat, firm, No. 2 red, $1 1/2 elevator; corn, irregular, No. 2, 56 1/4 elevator; oats, steady, mixed, 44 to 45; turpentine, steady, 74 1/2 to 75; rosin, steady, strained, common to good, 4.40 to 4.45.

Senator Foraker has more notoriety but less reputation than he had this time last year.

The waterwagon drivers in Chicago are on a strike. However, it is safe to say that at this late day, since the first of the year, there are not enough men on any waterwagon to act as strikebreakers.

"The witch" is said to be playing Old Harry in Nebraska, as the "young men who meet her become irresistibly fascinated." Some North Carolina girls must be spending a while in Nebraska.

Western papers are making the boast that Simon Guggenheimer, Montana's new United States Senator, "began life barefooted." Well, here, now! We all began life that way, but that's no sign that we'll ever be able to purchase a United States Senatorship.

"A dollar will go only half as far as it would some years ago," says the Kansas City Journal. This shows that the purchasing power of a dollar is only 50 cents. Colonel Bryan is prepared to tell us that "free silver" couldn't have done any worse than that in the way of depreciating our currency.

New York's "stummick" turned against that operative adaptation of Oscar Wilde's "Salome" and its run at the Metropolitan Opera House was cut out. It's a pity that the Thaw trial, with its salacious revelations to be sprung on us this week, couldn't be salted down with that disgusting opera.

Carrie Nation tried to gain admittance to the White House a few days ago, but the fellows on duty told her "nay, Pauline." Because she was turned away she says "I resent the way President Roosevelt treated me." Our recollection is that Carrie never even got in where the treating was going on.

Says the Washington Post: "An Ohio man is asking for a divorce because his wife drinks a gallon of rye whiskey a day. He must be envying her capacity." If they keep a gallon in their house at one time and their house were in North Carolina, it would not be evidence that they are booze artists, but prima facie evidence that they are retailers.

At an "old hoss sale" by the Southern Express Company in Atlanta, on Thursday a furniture man bought an "infernal machine" containing enough dynamite to blow up his building. As good luck would have it, however, the powder charge was wet and the machinery out of order. This will remind "old hoss" bidders that most of the packages they buy are infernal fakes.

THE MILITARY PLAY SELMA CONNECTION

Cast of Characters for Production of "D'Arcy of the Guards"

REHEARSALS IN PROGRESS

Mr. Eduard D'Oize in Title Role With Favorite Local Talent in Other Parts—Costuming Will Be An Elaborate Feature.

THE MILITARY PLAY—The beginning of the last week of rehearsals for the production of "D'Arcy of the Guards," the big military play that will be put on at the Academy next Saturday evening for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry, under the direction of Mr. Eduard D'Oize and an all-star cast of local talent, finds the prospects for the piece exceedingly bright. Mr. D'Oize assigned the cast personally and is well satisfied with the manner in which all have shown up in their respective parts. The rehearsals will continue this week each night and the public is assured something brilliant in the affair. The costumes, from a well known New York house, have arrived and these will be second to none used by an amateur production in this city. The cost of characters and brief synopsis of the play is as follows:

Major John D'Arcy, of the Grenadier Guards, on the Staff of Lord Cornwallis—Eduard D'Oize.

Officers of the Grenadier Guards—Col. Sir Edward Jennison, William F. Robertson; Major Dalrymple, T. R. Orrell; Capt. Davier, W. L. Smith; Capt. Kelter, A. C. Smith; Capt. Farquhar, A. G. Bowen; Capt. DeCoursey, Z. K. Bell.

Capt. Gregory, Surgeon of the Grenadier Guards—William G. W. Kraff.

Sergeant Tripps of the Grenadier Guards—Joe C. DeHay.

Hessian Officers—Capt. Milhadsen, Joe C. DeHay; Capt. Raab, L. E. Hall.

Capt. Henry Townsend of the Philadelphia Dragoons, on the Staff of Gen. Washington—Howard McClintock.

Samuel Davis of the Society of Friends—Richard Bradley.

Sambo, Servant at the Townsend's—H. W. Angell.

Mrs. Townsend—Miss Lenora Cantwell.

Pamela, Townsend, her daughter—Miss Hattie Taylor.

Cynthia Deane, her niece—Miss Tullulah DeRosset.

Scenario.
Act 1—Garden of the Townsend House, Philadelphia.

Act 2—Sitting room of the Townsend House. Morning. Two months have elapsed.

Act 3—The same. The same night.

Act 4—Billiard room of the Townsend House. Morning. Five weeks have elapsed.

The entire action of the piece takes place in Philadelphia during its occupation by the British, under Sir William Howe, and the Lord Cornwallis, in the autumn and winter of 1777-1778. Gen. Washington and the American army are encamped 20 miles from Philadelphia at Valley Forge.

Restaurant at Lumina.
The restaurant at Lumina will be open today for serving oysters. It will be in charge of Mr. Stokely, and that insures the best of service. No oyster roasts will be served, but the luscious bivalves in all other styles will be furnished. Roasts will be served at the Light House as usual.

The new restaurant at Lumina has been moved from the second to the first floor, occupying the site of the refreshment stand, which has been moved upstairs. During the summer the upper restaurant department will be used for serving ice cream and other refreshments.

Southern Announces it Will Put on New Train From Greensboro to Goldsboro—Suits Withdrawn. Miss Dinwiddie Dead.

(By So. Bell Long Distance Phone.) Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 2.—The Corporation Commission received this afternoon official notice from the Southern Railway that beginning Sunday, February 10th, an entirely new passenger train will be operated from Greensboro to Goldsboro, meeting every demand the Commission has made in the noted Selma Connection case, requiring the road to maintain connection with the Atlantic Coast Line. This train will leave Greensboro at 10 A. M., arrive at Raleigh, 1 P. M., and Goldsboro, 3 P. M. Leave Goldsboro at 4:30 P. M., leave Raleigh, 6:30 P. M., and arrive at Greensboro at 9:30 P. M. No arrangement has yet been made for mail on this train, but it is stated that this service will be put on as soon as the schedule is established. The running of this train will be a great advantage to people all over Eastern North Carolina, greatly facilitating the travel between Wilmington, Raleigh and intermediate points.

It is understood that since the decision of the Southern to put on this new train the Corporation Commission will withdraw all pending suits in connection with the Selma case.

Miss Susan H. Dinwiddie, daughter of President Dinwiddie, of Peace Institute, and a member of the faculty of that institution, died suddenly to-night. She was a woman of rare talent and high culture. Her death was attributed to heart disease.

DOINGS AT DUNN.
Affairs Political—Two Stores Burned—Refund County Debt.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Dunn, N. C., Feb. 2.—Harnett now has two new county commissioners, making five in place of three as the number has been for the past six years. They are Messrs. W. H. Turlington and D. F. McDonald.

A bill has just passed the Legislature allowing the town of Dunn, N. C., to vote on the question of a dispensary. The election will likely come up in April of this year.

On Saturday last the store of Mr. John Adams, of Linden, with the stock was burned. There was partial insurance on the stock. Last night Mr. Allen Barefoot, of Bensca, a general merchant was burned out. The store and stock was a total loss with part insurance.

Harnett county proposes to refund its present county indebtedness now running at six per cent., with five per cent. bonds.

This week a good deal of cotton has been sold on our market. Prices ruled slightly lower.

MUSICAL AT GRACE CHURCH.

Delightful Affair Will Be Given Tuesday Evening This Week.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of Grace Church will give a musical for the benefit of the Local Department on Tuesday evening of this week in the lecture room of the building. The following delightful programme has been arranged:

Selection by Orchestra.
Selection by Acme Male Quartette.
Solo by Miss Nell King.
Violin Solo, Mr. John Kneissel.
Reading by Mrs. North.
Solo by Mr. Gilbert Ford.

Double mixed quartette, composed of Mrs. J. W. Yates, Mrs. J. D. Edwards, soprano; Miss Carrie Barker, Mrs. F. A. Muse, alto; Mr. C. E. Vale, Mr. Charles Dushan, tenors; Mr. H. E. O'Keef and Mr. A. S. Holden, basses. Delicious refreshments will be served and the public is cordially invited.

Aldermen Meet Tomorrow Night.
The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular monthly session to-morrow night, the County Commissioners in the afternoon. At the meeting of the Aldermen a number of important matters will come up, including the repaving of Front street. Definite action on this, however, will likely be postponed for a conference with the board of Audit and Finance on Wednesday night, following its regular meeting on Tuesday night. Another matter of some interest before the Aldermen will be the proposed smoke ordinance, which was brought up upon a petition of residents in the southern part of the city, who complain of smoke and soot from the Standard Turpentine Company, where large quantities of lightwood is burned in the new process employed at the factory. The manufacturers generally will oppose any radical legislation in this regard as smoke containers are very expensive and would result practically in driving several plants from the city.

Ordination Service Today.
The ordination of Mr. A. C. D. Noy, of Beaufort, N. C., to the diaconate of the Episcopal Church, at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, this morning at 11 o'clock promises to be a most interesting service. Bishop Strange will be present. The sermon will be preached by Rev. T. P. Noy, rector of the Chapel, and a brother of the candidate for ordination.

Ladies' and Children's Hats 19 cts, 25 cts, 50 cts, worth three times as much, this week at Rehder's.

RECORDER'S COURT A CONFIRMED THIEF

Bill Passed Senate Yesterday in Raleigh and Now Goes to the House.

MR. FURLONG A CANDIDATE

Definite Announcement Made Last Night—Delegation of County Commissioners Returned From Capital Last Night.

Chairman D. McEachern and Mr. H. L. Vellers, of the New Hanover Board of County Commissioners, returned last evening from Raleigh, where they spent the past week in the interest of the Recorder's Court bill, which they say is now well on the road to final passage, having passed the Senate yesterday. Mr. McEachern and Mr. Vellers say they are well pleased with the bill as amended and are certain it will result in a great saving to the county. They are perfectly willing to a submission of the question of the establishment of the court to the people and are confident of its being carried in the general election in May. This belief is based on a petition bearing the names of 1,100 voters of the county asking the Legislature to pass the bill authorizing the court. There were only 1,800 votes cast in the last primary, so there seems to be no doubt, unless there is a great change of sentiment, but that the court will be voted upon favorably.

Asked as to the amendments to the bill, Mr. McEachern said that the Commissioners were well satisfied with it in the present form. The court will not be weakened at all, so far as economy to the county is concerned, and the powers of the magistrates in the county are not the least abridged. In the original bill there were a few questions of constitutional authority not yet passed upon by the Supreme Court and at the suggestion of the Judiciary Committee these were eliminated, Mr. McEachern said.

As to whether or not it will be constitutional for the county to bear half the expense of the court, when the townships outside of Wilmington will have no voice in electing the recorder, Mr. McEachern said that he did not think that would affect the bill as at present the county is taxed without a voice for the James Walker Memorial Hospital and the two cases are somewhat parallel. However, this matter has been left with Senator N. A. McLean, of Robeson, a member of the committee and a lawyer of ability, with instructions that if it is believed necessary to provide for a special election in the county on the question on the same day as the citizens of Wilmington are voting on the matter, this will be included.

The bill as finally amended, was left in the hands of Chairman Stubbs, of Martin county, on the Judiciary Committee, and Representative Morton has agreed to support it, as amended, in the House. The bill will reach there for final passage this week, nullifying the other bill for a separate judicial district, which the Commissioners regard will rather increase than decrease the present expenses.

It was announced last night with authority that Justice John J. Furlong would be a candidate for Recorder in the event that the bill passes. While it has not been announced definitely it is generally understood that Col. A. M. Waddell will also be in the race, if he should decide not to stand for re-election to the Mayoralty.

TO INSTAL ELECTRIC PLANT.

Chadbourne Ice Factory Will Operate Its Own Dynamo—Contract.

Messrs. Sutton & Williamson, the practical electrical contractors, have just closed a contract with the Independent Ice Company for the installation of an electric plant in the new factory at Chadbourne. The company will put in its own dynamo and furnish its own current from the engine of the ice machines. Mr. G. T. Williamson, of the firm, will go over to Chadbourne Wednesday to begin work on the contract, and will have everything ready by the time the factory is handling shipments of ice for the berry shipments. The contract calls for 65 large lights, which will greatly facilitate the day and night operation of the plant. It is understood that later the town of Chadbourne may contract with the company for furnishing lights and power for the town of Chadbourne, though this is not in immediate prospect.

Entertain Jefferson Lodge.
Miss Sarah Peck Hines, a gifted reciter, of Faison, N. C., will be in the city this week, and she has been asked and has accepted the invitation to give a reading of Damon and Pythias at the meeting of Jefferson Lodge, K. of P., at the regular meeting Wednesday night. All members of Jefferson and sister lodges are cordially invited. Miss Hines is especially gifted as a reader and the lodge is to be congratulated upon securing her service for this occasion, which will be a delightful one in every respect.

Peter Griffin, Colored Boy, Entered Hamme's Clothing Store While Under Suspension of Judgment of Superior Court.

Peter Griffin, the negro youth with a penchant for fine clothes, who was recently the star actor in a lively chase down the street with a hundred people at his heels anxious to effect his capture for breaking into the store of Mr. Julius P. Taylor, where he was employed as a bundle boy, the same who was let off in the Superior Court because of his youth and the high character of his father, his case being cited as the great need for a reformatory in the State—the same Peter is once more in trouble. He was locked up at the police station early yesterday afternoon, charged with breaking into the store of Mr. R. F. Hamme, on Front street, and abstracting therefrom three suits of clothing, an overcoat and various other articles.

The store of Mr. Hamme was broken into by a rear door night before last, the glass in one of the panels having been smashed and a bar lifted from the outside. The burglary was discovered by the policeman on the beat, who promptly reported to Capt. George Smith at the police station yesterday morning. Capt. Smith notified Mr. Hamme and together they made an examination of the break, four dust being left on the clothing, on the counters which the boy passed between the counters. The bakery of Mr. R. F. Warren is next door and there is an open alleyway in the rear. Suspicion at once pointed to the boy for whom Mr. Warren paid $29.50 and costs at the last term of the court on condition that the boy would work it out with him. Inquiry at the bakery disclosed that the boy had not been there that day. Capt. Smith at once swore out a warrant for the boy and early yesterday afternoon he was discovered in hiding behind a pile of wood on the wharf and was promptly arrested by Officer S. A. Nichols. When arrested he had on a pair of the stolen pants and confessed the theft, saying that he did it alone and that the balance of the goods would be found hid in some rubbish back of the bakery. The officers recovered the goods as indicated by the boy. He attributes his downfall to bad company, but those who have observed his case think that he would make rather bad association for any of his race except those on the convict force to which he will no doubt go. In the meantime Mr. Warren is out $29.50 that he paid for the boy just a week ago.

The boy's father is a highly respectable colored man at work on the steamer Wilmington. His father employed Robert Ruark, Esq., to intercede for him at the late term of the court. It will be recalled that the boy giggled in the prisoner's box when Mr. Ruark told the judge in court that the boy seemed to be all right and it seemed a pity to put him with hardened criminals. The court thought so, too, but will probably reverse that opinion when he comes to Wilmington again.

LUMBERTON RAILROAD FIGHT.
Negroes Revelling in Stolen Liquors. Condemnation Proceedings Begun.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Lumberton, N. C., Feb. 2.—The Virginia & Carolina Southern has brought condemnation proceedings against the Seaboard Air Line to condemn the strip of land on the Seaboard's right of way which they are now in possession of and on which they have laid their tracks. This will be heard before W. H. Humphrey, C. S. C., Thursday. The Seaboard Air Line Company and the Carolina Central Railway Company have brought in injunction against the Virginia & Carolina Southern Railway Company and Atlantic Improvement Company, town of Lumberton, N. C., and Blue and A. W. McLean, to enjoin them from interfering in any way with the Seaboard's right of way in the town or within one mile thereof.

These papers were signed by Judge Council and are returnable here before Judge Webb on February 9. They have all been served upon the defendants.

Sunday large quantities of whiskey were being sold around town by various negroes. It turns out that this whiskey, about one-half barrel, was stolen on Saturday night from a car of the Seaboard at the depot. Numbers of hands here at work on the Seaboard and the new railroad, were drunk on Sunday. Four of the negroes have been apprehended, were tried by Mayor Floyd and are now in jail.

Conference on Bridge Question.
A further conference between the commissioners of the counties of New Hanover and Pender on the Northeast river bridge question will be held at the Court House in this city on Tuesday of this week. The Pender commissioners will come down on the morning train from Burgaw. It is expected that something definite will be decided upon at this meeting.

SOLICITOR'S BILL

Another Lengthy Discussion in the General Assembly at Raleigh Yesterday

SCHEDULE OF SALARIES

Large Number of Local Measures, Some Pertaining to New Hanover Dowd Bill for Public Instruction as to Evils of Narcotics.

(By So. Bell Long Distance Phone.) Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 2.—There was another discussion of the bill to put solicitors on salary in the Senate today. The bill came up for third reading as it passed the second reading yesterday with the amendments. The bill is by Webb, of Buncombe, and the principal amendment was by McLean, of Robeson, providing that the salaries shall be $2,500 per year, where the fees now amount to that or over, any residue to be paid into the State treasury for the school fund, but where the fees are less, then the solicitors are to receive only the fees. There was a still further amendment requiring solicitors to visit the scenes of lynchings, railway accidents and the like. The amendment today was by Senator Stamps Howard, of Tarboro, striking out the McLean amendment of yesterday and inserting in its place a regular scale of salaries as follows: 1st, 13th, 14th, and 16th, $1,800 each; 2nd, 7th, 8th, and 15th, $2,000 each; 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, $2,500 each; 11th and 12th, $3,000; 9th and 10th districts, $3,500 each. Fifth is the Wilmington and the Seventh the Fayetteville, districts in which the fees now amount to just about what salary is proposed. The whole matter was postponed and made the special order for next Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

The bill amended for a recorder's court in Wilmington passed today.

Several bills were introduced out of order, viz:

Bellamy, to validate certain land sales. Judiciary Committee.

Turner, to amend the revisal, fixing the salary of judges of Superior Court at $2,500 per year.

Daniel, of Halifax, to provide for the examination and licensing of attorneys before the Supreme Court, and providing for disbarment for unprofessional conduct.

A letter was read from John R. Lackey, of Southern Pines, urging that provisions be made for Winter residents to vote there either in person or by proxy, if they own property.

Among the bills passed were: To prevent scalping of witness tickets in criminal cases. To increase the salary of the marshal of the Supreme Court to $1,250 per year; also to increase the salary of the Librarian of the Supreme Court library $15 per month. The House resolution introduced jointly relative to letter of Governor Elrod, of South Dakota, with reference to State bonds. The bill providing for the uniform stamping of articles of gold and silver merchandise, the same being the bill urged by the State's Jewelers' Association. Bill relating to Falkland dispensary. Bill to amend Section 2903 of the Revisal, relative to required notice for sale for taxes, providing one paper instead of two. Bill to permit county commissioners to dispose of or lease county or township property under certain conditions. To empower State Board of Pharmacy to pass upon domestic remedies. To amend the law as to the service of process on corporations foreign to the State.

Among bills ratified were: To regulate conduct of dispensary managers and employees. To prevent felling of trees and damming of Sandy Run in Onslow county. To extend time to commute and settle the State debt. To regulate the pay of witnesses and jurors in Moore county. Relative to statistics of sales of leaf tobacco on warehouse floors. Authorizing the running of the State line between Virginia and North Carolina. Authorize commissioners of Brunswick to subscribe to the stock of the Wilmington, Brunswick and Southern railroad.

Just before adjournment of the Senate, new bills were introduced out of order as follows: Bellamy, to amend Revisal relative to pay of county commissioners.

In the House McNeill, of Cumberland, presented by request a petition from Fayetteville citizens in regard to modification of law regulating labor in cotton mills; also relative to State Normal Colored College at Fayetteville. Bills introduced were:

McRackan, to promote safety of traveling public by requiring flagmen on passenger trains.

McRae, to amend the revisal as to the State Department of Agriculture, including the recommendations of the State Board.

Buckran, by request, to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State.

Galloway, of Greene, for the support and maintenance of the Soldiers' Home, carrying the usual appropriation.

Crawford, to prevent the use of profane or indecent language in passenger coaches.

On motion of Mr. London, his bill for codifying the law as to mental anguish in suits against telegraph companies for failure to promptly deliver messages, was made the special order.
