Only Few Cases of Ingerest on the Regular Docket Heard Yesterday

-A. C. L. Suit to Be Heard This Morning.

Aside from the Nelson case which is spoken of elsewhere in today's paper, there was very little doing in the Federal Court yesterday, only a few trifling cases being disposed of. The civil suit of Wiley Harker Camp Company against C. H. Smith on the Circuit Court docket was dismissed during the day, a compromise in the same having been effected.

One of the cases on the District Court docket yesterday was that of P. H. Voss, alias P. H. Loving Tribute Paid in Beautiful Exercises Held Yesterday in Oakdale.

ADDRESS BY REV. J. A. SMITH

Large Audience Delighted With His Able Discourse-Other Features of the Observance Fitting and Appropriate-The Military.

Loving tribute was paid to the memory of the Confederate dead who are at rest in Oakdale Cemetery in the beautiful and appropriate observance of Memorial Day under the auspices of Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, yesterday afternoon. The exercises were largely attended by the people of Wilmington, and all joined reverently in the spirit of the occasion. The address by Rev. J. A. Smith, himself a gallant Confederate and speaker of no mean ability, was highly befitting the occasion, eloquent and pleasing. He was heard with the greatest interest, and his remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. Mr. Junius Davis, of the Wilmington bar, was master of ceremonies, and made a most excellent presiding officer. Rev. Thos. P.
