

LYNCHERS' TRIAL GROWS DRAMATIC

Daughter of Sheriff Bogan of Anson County, N. C. Was Witness.

SHE IDENTIFIED LYNCHERS

Saw Them on Night They Broke Into Jail, Seized J. V. Johnson and Carried Him Away—Lynchcr Describes Tragedy.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Charlotte, N. C., July 16.—The trial of twenty citizens of Anson county, this State, charged with lynching J. V. Johnson, which was begun yesterday at Monroe, continued today.

Miss Alice Bogan, daughter of the sheriff, who was on the stand yesterday, resumed her testimony, detailing how the mob broke into the jail on the plea of having a prisoner to commit, and how they seized and held her father, took the keys to Johnson's cell away from him, released Johnson and after tying him with ropes, dragged him off down the road to the point where he was lynched. She positively identified several of the indicted men as being members of the mob.

The cross-examination of Sheriff Bogan who was recalled, failed to shake his testimony in any particular. He recognized many of the members of the mob and called their names. John Jones, against whom the present test case is directed, was recognized as one of the leaders. Henry D. Kimball, Sr., who turned State's evidence at the preliminary hearing and gave testimony against his fellows of the lynching mob and one of the State's strongest relatives, today testified as to the meeting at the house of Tom Johnson in Anson county on the Sunday night preceding the lynching, when the plans to ride to Wadesboro and lynch J. V. Johnson were perfected. The witness knew all the members of the party and gave their names. While the others rode toward Wadesboro and they met another crowd from Richmond county and all proceeded to Wadesboro jail, took the prisoner out and lynched him. The witness' son was one of the mob. Kendall's story of the lynching was dramatic in the extreme. He told how they took the prisoner, struggling and praying for mercy, tied him with ropes and dragged him along the road a mile to a point in the woods when more dead than alive he was drawn up to a limb and then riddled with bullets. His identification of the leaders of the mob and many of its members was complete and cross-examination failed to shake his testimony.

William Meeks and H. D. Kendall, Jr., members of the mob turned State's evidence today and corroborated the evidence of the elder Kendall. At the conclusion of this testimony the State rested.

WORLD'S THEATRE TRUST.

Klaw & Erlanger Will Control Amusements in Two Continents. (By Wire to The Morning Star.) Chicago, July 16.—The Daily News says that plans for the formation of a $100,000,000 trust in world's theatres became known today. A lawyer representing Klaw & Erlanger, it is said sailed from New York today for London, to pass upon the legal features of the plans before their acceptance by the syndicate for which they were prepared.

The international theatre trust will, according to report, not only control the best theatres in Europe, but have under contract the highest talent in legitimate and vaudeville fields. The attempted formation of this new theatrical undertaking is said to grow out of the recent decision of the New York courts that theatres and amusements are not "trade and commerce," and, therefore, their combination is not a violation of law. A. L. Erlanger is quoted as saying: "I will say that it is true that we are about to make our interests co-extensive with Europe and America. I can see no reason why a homogeneity of management and ownership will not be highly beneficial to the public, the players, the producers and the owners. Whether some of the principal amusement interests in Europe and America can be wedded into one necessarily requires a concert of thought and action on the part of those who are the leaders abroad and here in that line. Our counsel called this morning on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm to investigate and discuss legal plans.

TWO-CENT PASSENGER RATE. All Western Roads Will Reduce Fare on Friday. (By Wire to The Morning Star.) Chicago, July 16.—The long talked of reduction in inter-State passenger rates of Western railroads will actually be made next Friday. Generally speaking, all rates east of the Missouri river will be on a basis of two cents per mile. The reduction of inter-State fares by the Western lines is the natural result of the passage of laws by Arkansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota. The Eastern roads propose to make similar reductions in their inter-State fares. The rate clerks will meet here tomorrow and continue in session until they have checked up all the inter-State fares on the basis of the maximum legal mileage of the various States.

Madison, Wis., July 16.—Governor Davidson today signed the two-cent railroad fare bill. The new law will take effect on August 15, 1907. The law applies to all lines having a gross earning of $3,500 a mile per annum. This will affect all of the larger lines of the State and some of the smaller ones.

BLOWN TO PIECES BY TWO BOMBS

Terrible Revenge of Russian Revolutionists on General Alikhanoff Tyrant.

THREE PERSONS WERE SLAIN

One of Them Was Madame Gliboff, Wife of Gen. Gliboff—Assassination Was to Avenge Cruelties of Alikhanoff.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Alexandropol, Russia, July 16.—General Alikhanoff, former Governor General of Tiflis, Madame Gliboff, wife of General Gliboff and the coachman who was driving their carriage, were blown to pieces by two bombs thrown at their conveyance at half past two o'clock this morning. A son of General Alikhanoff and a daughter of General Gliboff sustained serious injuries. The party was returning to the residence of General Alikhanoff from his club. The bombs were hurled in Bebutoff street.

General Alikhanoff was seriously injured by a bomb at Borjani May 30 of last year. This bomb was thrown just as he was about to take a train for Tiflis. Its explosion seriously wounded, in addition to the general, a member of his staff and several Cosacks. The remainder of the Cosacks fired into the crowd, killing many persons, and then burned to the ground the buildings into which the people had fled.

General Alikhanoff, the "pacifier" of Kulis Province, was the most hated in the Caucasus. For several months in the Fall of 1905, the government was completely in the hands of the revolutionists, they being in full possession of the railroad from the Black Sea to Suram Tunnel, which they had blown up previously. General Alikhanoff sent a column of Cosacks who laid waste the fertile Rion Valley. Hundreds of the inhabitants were slaughtered. Many of the men were driven into the mountains and the women were given over to the Cosacks. Fifty villages were wiped out. The atrocities committed attracted the attention of the entire country.

ROANOKE'S SQUARE DEAL.

Virginia City Will Renumerate Greeks for Mob Violence.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Roanoke, Va., July 16.—The special grand jury to investigate the riots of last Saturday night when a mob wrecked all the Greek restaurants in town, today heard thirty witnesses and will continue its work tomorrow. All the smashed restaurants but one reopened today. The Belmont restaurant, where the trouble started, is still closed and its proprietor has left town.

Two men arrested on the streets last night for offering to wager that there would be more trouble before daylight, were fined in the police court today.

A priest from the Greek Church in Washington arrived here today to make a personal investigation of the trouble. He is not here in any official capacity, but the report he will make will be made to the representatives of the Greek government at Washington.

In his message to the city council tonight, Mayor Joel Holoman Cutchin recommended that a committee be appointed with full power to take up the question of damages and to make such reparations as is just and settle the same without delay, and in this way, "convince the government, both State and National, that Roanoke can and will settle the matter according to justice and right, not taking advantage of any technicality, and in this way redeem the good name of the city as much as possible."

THE DEVIL AFTER ROOSEVELT.

He Called Yesterday and is Still Loose at Oyster Bay.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Oyster Bay, July 16.—The usual Summer visitation of cranks to Oyster Bay in the hope of reaching the President began today with the advent of a woman of 70 years who wanted to go to Sagamore Hill to present a claim of $11,000,000. The secret service guards intercepted her and placed her on board an outgoing train. They were unable to discover on what she based her claim.

Just as she was leaving town an old man appeared at the village and announced in a loud tone: "I am the devil, and am going to see President Roosevelt." He has not yet been apprehended by the President's guards.

ORDER OF ELKS AT PHILADELPHIA

Two Strenuous Business Sessions in The City of Brotherly Love Yesterday.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Sharp Contests Over Some of the Positions—The New Grand Forum Parade and Other Spectacular Features Come Today.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Philadelphia, July 16.—The Grand Lodge of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, after two strenuous business sessions today adjourned without announcement as to the result of its election. It is generally conceded, however, that Jno. K. Tener, of Charleroi, Pa., has been chosen Grand Exalted Ruler of the order.

Dallas, Texas, was chosen for the next convention and Grand Lodge reunion and Judge Henry A. Melvin appointed the following to constitute the Grand Forum: Charles E. Pickett, of Waterloo, Iowa, for one year; Marc Rohner, Detroit, two years; William H. Moore, Seattle, three years; Thomas J. Cogan, Cincinnati, four years, and Robert W. Brown, Louisville, five years.

The new body, which is really a court which will decide all matters within the organization, came into life with the adoption of the new constitution which went into effect today. Under the system of appointment adopted the forum will be infused with new blood each year, the term of one member of the body expiring annually.

Members of the order say there were several unexpected and close fights in the election. Grand Secretary Robinson stated there were 1,700 ballots to count and that there would be no official announcement until tomorrow morning.

Jno. W. Wagner, of Kansas City, was opposed for Grand Treasurer by E. W. Leach, of New York.

Fred C. Robinson who, it was expected would be unanimously re-elected Grand Secretary also found opposition in George H. Reynolds, of Saginaw, Mich.

The candidates for these places on the board of trustees are Benjamin F. McNulty, of San Antonio; Thomas McNulty, of Baltimore; John M. Kehlor, of Kenosha, Wis.; T. B. Mills, Superior, Wis.; Mayor Charles Schmidt, Wheeling, W. Va.; and Colonel A. T. Nolly, of Hackensack, N. J. Robert E. Green, of Brooklyne, Mass., was placed in nomination in opposition to John D. Shea, of Hartford, who was thought to be a sure winner for Grand Esteemed Leading Knight.

The feature of tomorrow's celebration will be the parade of brass bands through the court of honor.

NINTH VICTIM OF EXPLOSION.

One More Dies as Result of Accident to Battleship.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Boston, Mass., July 16.—Edmund J. Walsh, seaman, died at the naval hospital at Chelsea this afternoon, the ninth fatality resulting from the accident on board the battleship Georgia in Cape Cod Bay yesterday. Twelve injured remained in the hospital of whom Midshipman James F. Cruise, of Nebraska, and Seaman James P. Thomas, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are not expected to recover.

The other men's condition has not changed since they were brought to the hospital.

Seaman Walsh's mother and brother arrived early this morning at the hospital.

Walsh showed that he recognized his mother, stretched out one hand toward her but he could not speak.

Rear Admiral Goodrich returned to New York today. He was with his son an hour before he died but the young man was unconscious. Mrs. Goodrich bore up bravely under her grief. The body of Lieutenant Goodrich will be sent today to Stone Church, N. J., that of Midshipman Goldthwaite to Hopkinsville, Ky., that of Seaman Thomas to Newport, R. I., and that of Seaman Burke to Quincy, Mass.

Two great boxes, one addressed to Midshipman Cruise and the other to "The Soldiers of the Georgia" were received at the naval hospital today. They contained flowers, and inside of each box was the card of Admiral Yamamoto, the Japanese naval officer who visited Boston yesterday. Messages of condolence were received from both him and President Roosevelt.

BONI DE CASTELLANE'S FINISH.

Final Decree of Divorce Entered. Countess to Pay His Debts.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Paris, July 16.—The appeal of Count Boni de Castellane from the decision of the court on November 14, last, granting a divorce to the Countess Boni de Castellane (formerly Miss Anna Gould, of New York) was dismissed this afternoon and a final decree of divorce duly entered. Although the Count, under the law, has still sixty days in which to appeal to the Court of Cassation upon legal grounds, the judgment of today is regarded as final, inasmuch as negotiations have been practically concluded by which Madame Gould is to settle the cases of the creditors both against herself and the Count out of court.

SOUTH'S GROCERY JOBBERS.

Six Hundred Members of Association Gathered at Baltimore.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Baltimore, July 16.—The sixteenth annual convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association assembled in the Maryland theatre here today with about 600 grocers from the South in attendance. A delegation of one hundred from Memphis, came in a special of Pullmans and will wage a vigorous campaign for the election of D. N. White, of Memphis, for president of the association. J. A. Van-Hoese, of Birmingham, Ala., who has been president for six terms, is a candidate for re-election and a hot contest for the position is expected. The sessions will continue until Thursday. Special arrangements have been made for the entertainment of the visitors.

A Wonderful Happening.
