INSTINCTIVE action before entering the house—clearing off the clinging mud or snow. Every blow is a mighty wrench at the shoe—at every stitch in its every seam.

It takes the honest stitching of the Crossett Shoe to stand the abuse given so often without a thought.

What's the Use

of paying more for an article through prejudice, than you can buy for less, that's just as good?

Take Whiskey, for instance.

We make but one charge—just for whiskey—that's all. When you pay more than we ask for our whiskey you are being taxed for something else besides the whiskey.

Now "WHAT'S THE USE" of you paying an excess to anybody for imaginary superiority—when we have the same goods, but are content through immense volumes of sales, to break even on profits—instead of "hiking up" the price beyond the point of giving you value received.

"CHESTERFIELD" products are "AS GOOD AS THE BEST FOR LESS." That's the reason "CHESTERFIELD" Whiskies are popular.

"CHESTERFIELD NEVER DISAPPOINTS." Full quart $1.00. TRY IT.

GOVERNOR DENIES THAT COURT LEAK

Says He Has Had No Intimation as to Decision in Rate Case—N. & S. Excursion to Washington, N. C.

(Special Star Correspondence)
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 12.—Governor Glenn made a statement to the press today denying the charge that has been published in several newspapers that the Governor had summoned to his office members of the Supreme Court and sounded them as to the attitude of the court relative to sustaining the administration in its passenger rate litigation by affirming the lower court in the famous Green case in which the Southern was fined $30,000 in Wake county by Judge Long for violating the law by selling tickets for more than the prescribed 2 1/4 cents per mile. The Governor said: "There is absolutely no truth in the report that I approached the Supreme Court or any member of the court as to its attitude in this case. I have neither asked for nor received any intimation as to the position the court will take in its ruling or how the judges stand as to affirming or reversing the action of the court below. I would consider it a great breach of propriety to approach anyone connected with the Supreme Court regarding this matter or in any way attempt to sound its attitude in the case."

Owing to the unfortunate fact that the special train of eleven well filled cars composing the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce Special, Raleigh to Washington, N. C., yesterday was too heavy for the engine attached the train stalled on a long grade eighteen miles from Raleigh last night and delayed the party more than two hours, arriving here at 12:30 A. M., instead of 10 o'clock, as scheduled. The trip was in every way successful, however, every one of the five hundred guests of the Raleigh commercial organizations thoroughly enjoying the day. The entertainment accorded at Washington was something immense, more than sustaining in every detail the splendid reputation enjoyed by this old and flourishing seaport town. The arrival at Washington was at 1:30 o'clock and there were two thousand people or more there to extend the "glad hand." Leading the official reception committee was Mayor E. T. Stewart. Nothing was left undone that could add to the capacity for enjoyment of the Raleigh visitors. Indeed the problem was to anything like avail one's self of anything like the round of delightful features of entertainment provided. First of all there were vehicles there for all the five hundred visitors to take them on a drive through the principal streets with a stop at the splendid graded school building for an address to the children while they were drawn up in line in front of the main entrance. The drive terminated at the wharf where a stand prettily and patriotically decorated was prepared. Here a most eloquent address of welcome was delivered by Stephen C. Bragaw Esq., with response by President Frank S. Gannon, of the Norfolk & Southern, for the railroad, and by Col. Chas. E. Johnson, of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, and by Governor Glenn, for the Raleigh visitors. Following the ceremonies there was a monster oyster roast served in tempting form and most abundantly, followed by a sail down the Pamlico, three splendid steamers being used for the trip. The start back to Raleigh was at 5:30 o'clock.

On the trip down there were stops at Wilson, Greenville and Farmville that were thoroughly enjoyed and abounded with the most gratifying good feeling.

He Fought at Gettysburg.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist. 50c.
