OUTLINES.

Sheriff W. B. Flannigan, of Draper, N. C., was shot and instantly killed in Danville yesterday by W. Belt Samuels, a former saloon keeper. The sheriff was in Danville in search of two runaway boys—William R. Hearst at a mass meeting of the Independence party in New York last night read more letters, these pertaining to the relations of ex-Gov. William A. Stone, and Judge John P. Ellens, of Pennsylvania, with the Standard Oil Company. After a celebration as never before seen in Japan the Atlantic battleship fleet left Yokohama harbor yesterday morning to continue its voyage around the world. Quietness prevailed at the Republican National headquarters in New York yesterday, preceding the political whirlwind of this week, when members of the President's Cabinet will go on speaking tours—Chairman Mack makes a statement as to the political outlook in which he says that Bryan will surely receive 301 electoral votes and perhaps more. He says the Republican campaign fund of $3,000,000 for doubtful States does not frighten the Democrats at all—Sillas C. McFarland, American consul general, commits suicide in a railway carriage in Germany—Georgetown, Carolina football game was not played yesterday on account of rain—Bryan yesterday wound up his tour of New Jersey and passed into New York State—Charles Francis Adams spoke in Richmond, Va., last night. He advocated Taft's election rather than Bryan's but scored Roosevelt—An American car won in the Vanderbilt automobile race, an Italian car second. The race had to be stopped then by the crowd rushing on the track—New York markets: Money on call nominal, time loans very dull. Spot cotton quiet, 5 points decline, middling uplands 9.35, middling gulf 9.60. Flour dull but steady. Wheat irregular, No. 2, 1.07 5-8 to 1.08 1-8 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2, 77 1-4 nominal. Oats quiet, mixed 52 to 52 1-2. Rosin quiet at 2.35 to 2.90. Turpentine steady at 39 3-4.

Poor Loeb. Of course, he will have to bear the blame for it and explain to the public how a fault of his prevented Roosevelt electing Taft as his successor.

The language that Roosevelt will use when he receives the news of Bryan's election will hardly be sought after by publication by editors of Sunday School newspapers.

The Democratic labor plank is "vague and hazy," according to Roosevelt. All the same, the laboring class prefers it to the Republican and is going to support the candidate who stands on it.

If the President does not succeed in throwing off the restraint now put upon him by cooler heads and making at least one political speech before election day we will be greatly surprised.

If the National banks voluntarily subscribe to a fund to protect their customers against burglars and forgers, why should they be opposed to doing the same to protect them against dishonest bank officials?

As all the Cabinet officers will be out campaigning next week, Roosevelt will be complete master of the situation in Washington official circles. Then will be his chance to throw off the lid and rush into speech-making before he can be headed off.

It is generally supposed that no candidate can be elected on the National ticket unless he carries New York State. It is possible for this not to hold good this year, if the Democratic managers' estimate of Bryan's strength in the West holds good.

Roosevelt continues to help the Bryan cause by his letters of attack on the Democratic candidate and others of that party. If he could be gotten on the stump two or three times there is no telling how many votes he would make for our candidate.

If the Republicans are not scared why are they calling for an additional million dollars for the closing days of the campaign? and why has every cabinet officer been ordered on the stump in those States considered doubtful?

The output of tin in the United States for the year 1907 was 62 tons, only about one-twentieth of one per cent. of the world's production, but there was great activity in prospecting in Alaska and the States of Washington, South Dakota, Texas, North and South Carolina.

With all the big men in the Republican party being ordered into the field by Roosevelt, Son-in-Law Longworth must feel mighty lonesome. Roosevelt ought to write a speech for him and let him deliver it on the promise that he would not interpolate any jokes of his own making.

BIG REGISTRATION

Close of Books Yesterday at Sunset Finds Nearly Four Thousand Names Recorded.

REPORTS FROM PRECINCTS

Nearly a Thousand More Than Votes Cast in Late Prohibition Election Which Was Taken as a Basis.

The close of the books yesterday at sunset in the various wards, precincts and townships in the county, finds nearly four thousand names of persons properly registered and qualified to vote in the general election to be held throughout the State and Nation next Tuesday week.

Yesterday was the last day for registration and the various registrars were at the polling places and found themselves overrun with work, nearly everyone reporting that more names were recorded on the last day than during all the previous days of registration. There were many who desired not to register but who wanted to see that their names were properly entered, while many others, having removed to other wards or townships, desired to be transferred. Still others availed themselves of the last opportunity to register under the grandfathers' clause of the constitutional amendment, thereby qualifying themselves with the right to register at each succeeding election for life.

The registration, to be more exact, as received approximately last night by the Star from all wards and precincts is 3,911. The registration books for the prohibition election last May were taken as a basis and the number of names recorded then was something over 3,000 with 2,855 votes actually cast in the election. If the same proportion can be polled now in the general election, Chairman Furlong and other local Democratic leaders will be satisfied. The returns received last night from the various wards and precincts are as follows:

First Ward	650
Second Ward	700
Third Ward	700
Fourth Ward	640
Fifth Ward	850
Delgado	224
Seven Miles Post	94
Cape Fear Township	30
Masonboro	85
Federal Point	18

Total 3,911. All the effort will now be concentrated by the Democratic leaders in getting the votes out on election day. This is especially desirable in order that the county may get her proper representation in nominating conventions and ultimately upon a re-apportionment, another representative in the Legislature. This is very important and voters themselves are charged with the responsibility of seeing that they vote not only themselves, but that they induce a friend to do likewise.

The campaign here this week will be waged with no flagging interest because of the close of the registration. Though nothing definite had been heard last night, Chairman Furlong still has hopes that Hon. T. W. Bickett can be induced to speak in Wilmington on Monday night while passing through here on his way to Salemburg, Sampson county, from Burgaw. Hon. W. M. Tye, a well known labor leader, an interesting speaker and a man of deep convictions on Tuesday night will speak in the Court House on the "Relation of Labor to the Democratic Party." Workingmen especially are invited to hear him.

It was learned yesterday that the appointment of Republican Nominee Cox and Republican Elector Settle for this city was a mistake and that Williamston, N. C., will get the date. They were billed through error to speak here on Wednesday night.

Mr. Bickett at Burgaw. A long distance telephone message last night from Burgaw was to the effect that great preparations are being made for the Democratic rally there on Monday when people from all parts of the county are expected. Mr. Bickett is without a doubt the peer of any speaker in the State and is especially effective on the stump. Lunch and barbecue will be served on the Court House green and the fine Italian band of 14 pieces from St. Helena will furnish inspiring music. The Wilmington people and those of all the surrounding country are most cordially invited to be present.

New Stalls at Central Station.

Five new iron stalls are being placed at the central fire station, which will be a modern and serviceable addition. The work will be completed some time during this week and is being done under contract by Mr. B. H. Stephens. They are built of iron and imbedded in concrete foundations, similar to those in modern fire stations throughout the country.

If You Have Money awaiting investment, there is no necessity for it to lie idle. The People's Savings Bank pays 4 per cent. compound interest on deposits, and you can withdraw it at any time.

FOOTBALL YESTERDAY

Carolina-Georgetown Game Postponed on Account of Rain—Even Score Between Pennsylvania and Carlisle—Yale Won.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—The University of Pennsylvania and the Carlisle Indian football teams played each other to a standstill this afternoon the final score being 6 to 6.

The biggest crowd that was ever present saw the annual game between these teams—10,000. Pennsylvania scored the first touch down before the game was ten minutes old. The Indians reversed this in the second half when they scored six goals. The red men gained the more ground and should have scored either an additional touch down or a field goal.

Pennsylvania scored her only touch-down by carrying the ball from mid-field and over the Indian line in four plays. Quarterback Miller went around the Indians' end for ten yards. Manier took the ball over the line in two plays. Scarlett kicked the goal.

In the second half Balenti ran back one of Hollenack's punts for 25 yards to the Quakers' 40 yard line. On the next play Thorpe worked his way through the Quaker forwards and without interference started for the Quaker goal. He got by all the Pennsylvania backs but Reagan, who caught up with the flying Indian on the 5-yard line. Thorpe literally threw himself over the line and then kicked a difficult goal, tying the score. For the remainder of the half the Pennsylvania team was on the defensive.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 24.—A scoreless game was the outcome of a desperate encounter this afternoon between Princeton and Syracuse. Surprised at the outset by the appearance of an eleven which was superior in weight and attack, Princeton was lucky to escape defeat. Syracuse threatened repeatedly to cross the Princeton goal line while the only opportunity for a Princeton score came in the first few minutes of play when Cunningham dropped back for a try at goal from the field from the 30-yard line. The pass was high and his kick fell short of the posts.

Annapolis, Oct. 24.—The Navy and Harvard football teams played each other to a standstill at the Naval academy this afternoon, the final score being 6 to 6. From the standpoint of variegated football, the midshipmen outplayed their opponents. When the first half ended there had been a battle royal resulting in the blue and gold crossing the Crimson line within seven minutes after play commenced.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 24.—Yale easily disposed of Washington and Jefferson in their football game on Yale field today, 33 to 0. The noticeable feature of the game was the use of the forward pass by Yale and field goal by Wheaton, Yale's left half back from the 30-yard line.

MONTGOMERY LIBEL

Raleigh Newspaper Given Notice to Retract Statement in Dixon Arraignment.

SEVERAL CHARTERS ISSUED

New Fangled Typewriter—Tablet is Placed in Honor of Signers of Edenton Tea Party Resolves—Cancels Dates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 24.—Those in charge of the Raleigh News and Observer here, in the absence of Editor and Manager Josephus Daniels, who is head of the press department of the National Democratic headquarters, Chicago, will await instructions from Mr. Daniels before making any answer to the demand made by ex-Associate Justice W. A. Montgomery, of the Supreme Court, that the newspaper retract its part in the publication of the alleged libellous card of Thomas Dixon, Jr., heaping abuse on Montgomery for his strictures in a political speech on the work of Dixon in stories and plays that revive sectional prejudices.

Under the North Carolina law the News and Observer has ten days to retract if it cares to prevent a suit. Objectionable headlines and quotations therein from the Dixon card are the special grievances.

A horse biting off the tongue of a fine milk cow and necessitating the killing of the cow for beef was a remarkable occurrence at Garner, this county, today. J. A. Perry, a well known farmer there, owned both horse and cow. The horse was eating from a shock of forage against a fence. The cow was on the other side of the fence and raked her tongue through a crack to draw in some of the fodder when the horse, which is rather vicious, bit off the cow's tongue.

The Carolina Slot Typewriter Co., Greensboro, was chartered today to develop a remarkable patent by which a coin slot can be attached to a typewriter, hotel lobbies and other public places, anyone being able to put in a coin and use the machine as long as the coin pays for. The capital authorized is $120,000. J. T. J. Battle, Al Fairbrother and C. E. Holton are the incorporators.

The Gate City Mutual Life & Health Insurance Co., Greensboro, receives a charter, W. L. Carter, J. F. Thompson, C. G. Burton and others being the incorporators.

There is also a charter for the Regal Hosiery Co., Cameron, N. C., capital $25,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by C. C. Jones, Dunn Bros. Raleigh, and R. D. Jones Fayetteville.

The North Carolina Society Daughters of the Revolution scored a brilliant success and accomplished a long cherished aspiration today when, with especially fitting ceremony, a handsome and specially designed tablet to the memory of the 51 ladies who signed the Edenton Tea Party Resolves of 1774, was unveiled and dedicated in the rotunda of the State House in the presence of a large and representative audience, comprising Daughters of the Revolution, Colonial Dames, Society of the Cincinnati, Sons of the Revolution and other patriotic organizations.

Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, regent of the North Carolina Society Daughters of the Revolution, presented the tablet to the State, reviewing the purposes of the society and its struggles to accomplish this beginning in work of this character. The address of welcome was by Lieutenant Governor Winston, couched in his choicest language and commending most highly the noble effort of the Daughters of the Revolution in thus inspiring patriotism.

Chief Justice Walter Clark of the Supreme Court, followed with an able address, treating especially the stirring epoch of American history in which the Edenton Tea Party was a dramatic and inspiring feature, and presenting particularly the share North Carolina had in events leading up to the Revolution.

Rev. Robert Brent Drane, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Edenton, delivered the opening and dedicatory prayers for the unveiling and there was a preliminary address on the work of Penelope Baker Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, by the regent, Mrs. Patrick Matthews. There was special music and other features that rounded up a most admirable ceremony. The managers whose labors have assured the success of the ceremonies were Mrs. Hubert Haywood, Miss Martha Hinton Haywood, Miss Mary Hilliard Hinton, Col. Benjamin Cameron, representing the Society of the Cincinnati, and Marshal DeLancey Haywood, representing the Sons of the Revolution.

Because he feels that he has overtaxed himself the past few weeks in campaign work, Governor R. B. Glenn has notified the State Democratic headquarters that his engagements for Fayetteville and points in Harnett county must be filled by somebody else so that he can spend Saturday and Sunday at home for a rest. Then he will go Monday to Durham, to Graham, Alamance county, Tuesday and then he hopes to be able to keep steadily in the campaign to the finish.

THE MASS MEETING TODAY

Rev. R. W. Hogue Will Speak at Great Gathering in Academy of Music—This Afternoon—Leaves on Monday Evening.

The mass meeting planned under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. to be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Academy of Music at which Rev. R. W. Hogue, the retiring rector of Saint James Episcopal parish, will speak in a final discourse to the people of the city generally on the subject "Christian Manliness," has assumed much larger proportions than was at first expected and a great outpouring of the people is expected.

Rev. Mr. Hogue leaves Monday evening via Morganton, N. C., where he will join Mrs. Hogue and children who have been spending a part of the Summer there, and together they go to Chapel Hill where Mr. Hogue will be located in the future. His services at Saint James today at the usual hours will be the last to the people of his own congregation and special musical programmes have been arranged for these services.

The meeting this afternoon will be a popular expression upon Mr. Hogue's departure and more than the ordinary arrangements have been made for this service. The exercises will begin with a song service and the Saint James Male Quartette will intersperse the programme with a number of selections. The scripture lesson will be read by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist church, and Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace M. E. church, will offer the opening prayer. This will be followed by remarks and announcements by Dr. Jos. Akerman, president of the Association, and the presentation of Mr. Hogue by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church. Mr. Hogue's address, it is safe to say, will be ornate and pleasing. He is perhaps the peer of any man in the State ministry and the subject, "Christian Manliness" will appeal especially to the best that is in him.

The address will be followed by a quartette, a hymn and the benediction by Rev. George S. Bearden, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found an official call to the Wilmington Light Infantry to attend this meeting in a body, Mr. Hogue being the much beloved chaplain of the company and a sincere friend of the young men in every walk of life.

AT THE PALACE THIS WEEK

Extra Big Bill and One of Fine Novelty Will be Offered.

Again this week the Crystal Palace will offer something new and delightful in the way of vaudeville. The bill, which will open at matinee tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, will be especially strong and pleasing for variety and novelty. It will include the well known Zanonettas, comedy musical artists, who are presenting a refined and bright sketch, being prettily staged and superbly executed from a musical standpoint. The popular Graham Sisters are also on the bill and will be seen in an up-to-date and snappy singing and dancing act. Bashford, the noted "punching bag" artists, will also be a topper and will do some skilled bag punching. This act will indeed prove a novelty and will appeal strongly to all lovers of athletics. It is a thoroughly refined act and is interspersed with live comedy. So it can be seen that this week's bill at the Palace is going to be a hummer. The usual performances will be given both afternoons and nights.

RETURNS FOR TRIAL?

Report That Ex-Sheriff Aman Will Present Himself For Trial This Week.

IN SAMPSON SUPERIOR COURT

Defaulting Republican Official Said Now to be in This Section—Deputy Clerk Reported Missing Now.

With the arrival in the city yesterday of Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, Judge C. C. Lyon and several attorneys on their way from Onslow court during the past week to Clinton, N. C., where Sampson Superior Court will convene tomorrow, a well defined rumor became a fact that A. W. Aman, the defaulting Republican ex-sheriff of Sampson, had returned to North Carolina and is now awaiting an opportunity of giving himself up to the authorities of his county.

It will be recalled that the Republican ex-sheriff fled the State about two years ago when a shortage of something like $20,000 was found in his accounts and that though aggregate rewards of $400 were offered by the Governor and others for his capture, he has since remained at large. The rumor yesterday was that Aman, tired of roving around the country and his enforced absence from his wife and three children in Sampson, had written to his attorney, H. A. Grady, Esq., of Clinton, and that a meeting had been agreed upon between the two as a result of which Aman had decided to come in and take his medicine. Mr. Grady was in the city last Saturday and it is stated that the conference with his client was here or that he was in Wilmington on his return from the conference elsewhere. An attorney in the city last night who spent most of the past week in Clinton says that it is an open secret in Sampson that Aman is now in the State and that upon the convening of court Monday or on Tuesday, the ex-sheriff would be delivered to the court and an effort would be made to arrange bond for him in an amount that he will be able to give. When the indictment was returned some time ago, it is understood that the court fixed the bond at $10,000 but it is understood that the court in session at this term may reduce that amount, hence the purpose in postponing the surrender until this term.

Just where Aman is in hiding is not known but it is freely stated in Clinton that he will give himself up this week and stand trial for his defalcations. It is also hinted that some other Republicans high in the councils of their party in Sampson are rather perturbed about some disclosures that Aman may make in confessing all and throwing himself on the mercy of the court. An effort was made last night to get Mr. Grady, his counsel, by long distance telephone but the central office at Clinton stated that Mr. Grady was out of the city and would not return during the night. The rumors are so well defined and with an evident stamp of authority that make them exceedingly interesting and the convening of court Monday at Clinton will be awaited with unusual interest.

There was another interesting report from Clinton in the same connection. Deputy Clerk of the Court Crumpler, Republican, at the last term of the court was indicted on a charge of forging a witness ticket. The report yesterday was to the effect that other disclosures had also been made in this same connection and that the ex-deputy had also left the State. It is stated that as many as 60 forgeries are charged against him and that he took his departure last Sunday about the same time as the home-coming of ex-Sheriff Aman was announced. If Crumpler appears, he will be tried at the present session of the court.

USED STICK WITH FORCE.

Struck Husband in Head and Inflicted Painful Wound.

Zimmerman Williams, who lives at 13th and Wooster streets, after having an altercation with his wife, in which she dealt him a blow with a stick, inflicting a painful wound, appeared in Justice Bornemann's court and secured a warrant for her arrest. He alleged at the time that he had been struck by a brick. It required several stitches in dressing the wound and the negro carried a deep gash in the back of his head.

The woman was later arrested by Deputy River and the case was given a hearing yesterday afternoon. She proved that her husband had not provoked her for the proper support and abused her when he came home and that she struck him with the stick in self defense. The case was decided in favor of the defendant and the prosecuting witness was taxed with the cost.
