PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Dr. Jas. O. Matthews, of Ingold, Sampson county, was in the city yesterday on a business trip. —Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ffoulkes, of Philadelphia, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends here left last night for their home. —Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Mrs. William P. Oldham, of Havana, Cuba, is visiting relatives and friends in the city." —Mr. Leake S. Covington, cashier of the Farmers' National Bank, of Rockingham, N. C., passed through the city yesterday on his way to Southport. —Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Miss Sallie Oldham, of the education class of the Baptist University, went to Hillsboro yesterday, where she gave a recital last night." —Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Smith have returned from their bridal tour and are now at home to friends in this city where the groom is a member of the firm of S. L. Smith & Son. —Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Bell delightfully celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage on Thursday evening. Quite a number of friends called at their home to tender congratulations.

BOYS SENT TO FARM

Juvenile Band Held for Vagrancy—Other Cases. The street urchins arrested Thursday, believed to have been implicated in several petty robberies, were before the Mayor at the session of the police court yesterday at noon and three of the number James and Harry Melton and William Jones, were sent to the county farm for 30 days. No direct charge of larceny was presented against them and consequently the Mayor tried them for vagrancy. John Justice, one of the same crowd, who was arrested last Wednesday charged with stealing brass, has been sent to Chapel Hill at the request of Rev. R. W. Hogue, who acted as guardian for the boy during his residence in this city. The facts given the police in the case of John Andrews, a Syrian, who was charged with cruelty treating a colored boy, Walter Bell, failed to be correct, when the latter appeared at court yesterday at noon. The statement that he had been stabbed and otherwise hurt was false. The charge was changed to simple assault and the defendant was released after payment of a fine of $5 and cost.

BUILDING INSPECTION MADE

Report Upon All Structures and Insurance Risks in Fire Limit. Under the provisions of the State Fire Waste Law, the office of Building Inspector John L. Furlong has just completed the quarterly inspection of all structures and insurance risks in the fire limits of the city. The inspection included 684 places in the down town sections of the city with a minute report on each. A copy of the report will later be sent to the Insurance Commissioner at Raleigh. In making the inspection a number of defective flues, etc., were condemned and the owners notified to make the required alterations, all of which the inspector is confident the owners will comply with.

Capt. Burris Killed Crane. Capt. O. D. Burris while on his regular trip down the Cape Fear on the steamer Madeleine Tuesday afternoon by a rather skilful shot killed a white crane weighing 13 pounds with a single shot Marlin rifle. Capt. Burris proved himself an expert by killing the crane while flying. The crane was an unusually large one and was shot at Crane Island.

They Take the Kinks Out. "I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

The Theatre

The popular and really wonderful Tora Japs, as well as the other four big and expensive acts at the Crystal Palace, will bid farewell today. No doubt, a large audience will greet every performance today, because the bill at the Palace is not only well worth seeing, but is exceptionally clever. It is also very costly. The act of the Japs is alone worth more than the price of admission and has drawn crowds to the vaudeville theatre this week. The act now being presented, as the "change-act," is really better than the one during the first part of the week. The foot-balancing of one of the members of the troupe from the Orient is nothing short of wonderful and has to be seen to be appreciated. He keeps a large, prettily painted barrel in the air with his feet in by far more skilled manner than the ordinary juggler could handle it with his hands. It is tossed on high and finally he spins the barrel around with great velocity. He balances other large objects in remarkable manner. His partner does some unique hand-juggling and intersperses it with quaint silent comedy that causes much laughter. The act of Billy Rogers, the well known black face comedian is also of splendid type and a big feature.

Double Bill at Bijou. A double bill will be the offering at Bijou today, "The Saloon Dance" giving the ludicrous antics of a couple of tramps, and "When Our Ship Comes In," being a sweet story of the sailor, his wife and little son. Both pictures are new and are expected to draw big business.

LOCAL DOTS.

—In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday Charles Bockingsagen, a white man, was indicted by R. L. Sellers, for disorderly conduct and was dismissed after payment of the costs. —The alarm of fire from box 16 at 10 o'clock last night was on account of a trifling blaze at 302 Bladen street, owned by Miss Heyer and occupied by W. H. King. The damage will not exceed $5. —The schooner Edith H. Symington, Captain Stiles, arrived in port yesterday from Philadelphia with cargo of 1,402 tons of coal for the Springer Coal Company. She is consigned to C. D. Maffitt. —Chief Williams yesterday received a telegram from Norfolk, stating that the police held in custody John Jackson, with the inquiry if the prisoner was wanted by the Wilmington authorities. The Norfolk chief was notified that Jackson was not wanted here.

—The British steamer Sandsend, Captain Clark, arrived in port yesterday from Hamburg via Charleston, S. C., with part cargo of fertilizer for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. She is discharging at the Navassa factory and is consigned to Heide & Co. —The Rocky Mount Echo says: "The Coast Line Directors will meet in Richmond on the 18th of November. It is likely at that time they may pass on some matter that may be of material help to Rocky Mount. We are not in a position just now to forecast anything, but it is not too much to say that things look decidedly hopeful." —The railroads have announced a rate of two cents per mile for delegates to the municipal convention in Charlotte next week from all points in North and South Carolina. Practically every town and city in this State and not a few from South Carolina will be represented. The Wilmington delegation will leave Sunday and Monday afternoon in time for the opening session Wednesday morning.

COMING OF ARCHDEACON.

Coming of Rev. Mr. Webber Being Looked Forward to With Interest. There is much interest in the coming of Archdeacon Webber for the purpose of holding a mission at St. John's Episcopal Church, in this city, beginning November 20th. Rev. Mr. Cox, the rector, and the brotherhood of the parish, are making all arrangements for a most successful series of meetings. The Archdeacon has already held a mission at Raleigh where he deeply impressed his hearers with his spirituality and he has just concluded another in Charlotte. Of him yesterday's Charlotte Observer says: "Another fine crowd heard the last sermon of Archdeacon Percy Clinton Webber, of Wisconsin, last night at St. Peter's Episcopal church, where he has conducted a mission for a week. Rev. Mr. Webber has made a profound impression upon those who have heard him for the past week. Clear in his conceptions and forceful in his delivery, he is a pulpit orator of extraordinary talent and a Bible scholar of wonderful comprehension."

Judge Waddill May Preside.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer has the following special from Richmond, Va., which will be read with local interest: "No definite provision for the courts left without a presiding officer by the illness of United States Judge Purnell has yet been made. An effort is being made to have Judge Boyd, who is now holding court at Greensboro, fill in at Raleigh and Judge Waddill will probably preside at Wilmington. Conflicting engagements may prevent this arrangement."

AT BLEWETT FALLS

"The lands in dispute in this case were bought by Mr. H. M. Chase and a portion leased to Mr. John P. Jones, who immediately, on October 28th, commenced a building. When the frame work was about up, representatives of the company appeared on the premises with guns and pistols. It is said, and orcey would tear the building down. Some of Mr. Jones' workmen quit work. On the 29th representatives of the defendants tore down all the building erected. "Messrs. Chase and Jones applied to Judge Long for an order restraining the defendants from trespassing on what they contended to be their property and interfering with them in the possession of their lands. Judge Long issued the order that night, restraining the defendants from interfering with the plaintiffs in the occupancy or enjoyment of their land and premises. But he also restrained the plaintiffs from building any new houses. After this, it is alleged, the defendants or their representatives, tore down a house (this was on the 30th) on the land, which had been erected by a previous owner and which the defendant had intended to occupy.

"The battle was then renewed. Mr. Chase got an order from Judge Long restraining the defendants from interfering in any manner with the plaintiffs in the use or occupancy of the property described in the complaint and authorizing and empowering the plaintiffs to erect a house to take the place of the one destroyed. Both these orders were made returnable before Judge Webb at Monroe, November 5th, requiring the defendant to show cause why the order should not be continued until the hearing. "On the 31st the last order was served on the defendants. A modification was said to have been secured by which the plaintiffs were allowed to replace the house but not to occupy it. This was said to have been secured by long-distance telephone conversation with Judge Long. Monday the plaintiffs announced their intention of occupying the newly-built house and did occupy it until ejected forcibly. At Monroe Judge Webb continued the hearing until today and it has since been postponed. "It is said that the MacRae faction believes that the Northern interests which have secured control of the Rockingham Power Company intend at some time in the future to dispose of it to the General Electric Company and it is this mainly which they wish to avoid."

FOOTBALL GAME TODAY

A. & M. Second Team Arrived Last Evening—At New League Park. Local football enthusiasts are greatly excited over the game to be played this afternoon at New League Park between the second team from the A. & M. College at Raleigh and the Wilmington team and a battle royal is expected. The A. & M. team, 16 men strong, reached the city last night and Captain Hall, who by the way is a Wilmington boy, and Manager McLendon speak enthusiastically of the prospects of victory for their team. The college boys have gone through a hard course of training and are in fine fettle for the fray. The locals, too, are in great condition and Captain Smith promises that his men will be in the game for all it's worth from start to finish. The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock and it is believed that a record breaking crowd will attend. On the Wilmington team are a number of former college players and under the training of Coach MacRae, they have developed old-time form and feel ready to put up the game of their lives today. Among the players are Smith, Parsley, Peschau and Tucker, formerly of the A. & M. team; Grant, of Sewanee; Yopp, of Stetson; Nine, of Maryland; Cooper, of Georgia; Polsson, of Bingham; Emerson, of the University, and the others are well known to local football fans. The officials will be Mr. J. McRee Hatch, referee; Mr. J. S. Stroud, of Raleigh, umpire; Mr. Preston Cumming, Jr., head linesman.

The line-up of the Wilmington team will be as follows: Jacobs, centre; Luder, right tackle; Yopp, left guard; Grant, W., right tackle; Williams, left tackle; Parsley, right end; Jordan, left end; Smith, quarter; Grant, R., right half; Nine, left half; Peschau, full back. Substitutes: Polsson, Schuklen, Kalk, Cook, Tucker, LeMassena and Hashagen. The A. & M. team will line up as follows: Albright, centre; Morris, right guard; Hewlett, left guard; Council, right tackle; Witherspoon, left tackle; Hanes, right end; Stafford, left end; Hall, quarter; Deans, right half; Sherman, left half; Parks, full back. Subs. Bruner and Goss. The admission will be 50 cents, this including grandstand with no extra charge for vehicles. On the result of the game today from a financial standpoint will depend whether any further games will be arranged for the local team and the sports are hoping that this will prove merely the fore-runner of many other big games to be played on the local gridiron.

A Paying Investment. Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ABUNDANCE OF FISH.

Three Fishing Schooners Bring 23,000 Pounds Here. After a most successful trip for deep sea fish the fishing smacks William Gaffney, Alberta and Chief came into port yesterday with an abundant supply of fish, the three bringing some 23,000 pounds. This was considered a rather unusually large catch and among the most successful trips of the season. The smacks are operated by Wilmington and Southport packers. The fishing smack Frank H. Williams, in charge of Capt. St. George, of Southport, also arrived late yesterday afternoon after a voyage of a few days and reported an excellent catch.
