BAPTISTS OF STATE DULL IN SUPERIOR COURT IN WAR OF WORDS HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING CAROLINA

No Cases of Interest for Hearing at Yesterday's Session-Verdict For Plaintiff in Taylor Against Thomas-Notes.

Again yesterday in New Hanover Superior Court there was very little doing of public interest. The jury in the case of J. A. Taylor against A. P. Thomas rendered a verdict of $1,526.43 and interest from Dec. 30th, 1907, in favor of the plaintiff, after being out but a short time, the case having been continued over from Monday for argument by counsel. Notice of an appeal was given by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, counsel for defendant.
