Soldier Balks Death Plot.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran, of Kemp, Tex., that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 175 pounds. For severe Colds, obstinate Coughs, Hemorrhages, Asthma, and to prevent Pneumonia it's unrivaled. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

HE WAS NOT WALKER.

Rocky Point Posse Has Interesting Experience With a Tramp. (Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., Feb. 10.—Yesterday there passed here a gentleman of hobo appearance, who seemed anxious to see the morning papers. After he had left and proceeded up the railroad for one mile, a posse of our young men, headed by the chief burgomaster and doctor, beheld themselves, "It may be Walker!" immediately that $850 loomed up in golden figures. They formed a posse and were onto him like a duck or a June bug with three guns drawn. The poor hobo with tears in his eyes, told the crowd "he weren't Walker;" that he had been held up the second time and the next time has was "agwine" to bring a suit for mental anguish and slander against Pender county. About this time, a good Samaritan, Mr. Miles Sparkman, who felt sorry for the tramp, tendered him some dinner and filled his pockets with peanuts. Then the tramp explained the desire for the newspaper, stating he wanted to make a pillow of them to sleep on at night to keep pine straws out of his neck.

Mr. Thos. J. Brown, of this place, is happy in the possession of a pair of twins. He is in receipt of numerous congratulations from friends wishing him "many happy returns."

Mr. Obadiah Watkins' "santier" made a desperate attempt for liberty by gnawing a log through in the barn where he is confined attached by a trace chain. He happened to gnaw through the wrong log.

The Theatre

The "Dandy Dixie Minstrels" of thirty all-star colored comedians, singers, dancers and musicians, will be offering at the Academy of Music tonight. The latest song hits of the season, exclusive with the "Dandy Dixie" organization, will feature the performance, headed by Billy Ker-sands, best known of all colored minstrels. The parade, featuring the famous Cotton Pickers' Band, will move along the principal streets between 1 and 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Man of the Hour.

Seats will go on sale tomorrow morning at Plummer's for the production of the "Man of the Hour" at the Academy Saturday night. The attitude of the press toward this play has been most interesting because wholly unusual. On the day following the New York city production there was a perfect unanimity among all the newspapers as to the success and worth of the piece. This was echoed in the weeklies and re-echoed in the monthly and quarterly magazines. Educational bodies gave endorsement to the play without managerial solicitation and many men of affairs in all departments of activity found in the play inspiration for praise.

New Programme Today.

The Crystal Palace will present an entire change of programme commencing with this afternoon and this new bill will hold forth for the rest of the week. The different acts now running will be changed and the new ones will be just as delightful, so the Palace management promises, as the old ones. The people on this week's bill have proven very popular, this being attested both by the hearty applause given at each performance and by the large audiences that have greeted the present bill. The change which goes on today will be good for both novelty and merit.

Offerings at the Bijou.

Two high-class vitagraph films will be offered at the Bijou this afternoon and evening. "The Two Sons, the Saint and the Prodigal" is a story of tavern life near London wherein a dissipated young man and the village rector, Dr. Penfield, a gypsy girl companion and evil associates make up the dramatic personae. It teaches a wholesome lesson and will be well worth seeing. "The Bride of Tabva" is a beautiful Indian love story in which a brave and an Indian maiden are the central figures. There is a tragedy and then the "all's well that ends well." Both pictures will be found quite pleasing.

The LeGrand.

Going on all the time from 2 to 11 P. M., at the price of five cents. All new pictures daily. We are giving five pictures today, all up-to-date. Stop in and see something very funny and instructive. Special attention to ladies and children.

BAIDEN-HUGGINS NUPTIALS

Pretty Marriage Last Evening at Home of Bride's Uncle.

A wedding occasion of much interest to friends in the city and elsewhere was solemnized last evening at 9 o'clock, when Miss Willie Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Huggins, of Nichols, S. C., was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Hamilton Baiden, at the home of the bride's uncle Mr. T. J. Capel, No. 911 Princess street, where she has been residing for some time. Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist church, officiated, and the happy nuptials were witnessed by a concourse of friends and relatives, a number of whom were out-of-town guests.

The decorations were prettily arranged, appropriate for a Winter wedding, the color scheme of green and white prevailing throughout the home. The parlor was given an artistic display of Southern smilax, palms and ferns, forming a bank of greens, sheltered by an arch which was decorated in a profusion of smilax.

In the line of attendants was Miss Ada Smith, maid-of-honor; little Elizabeth Capel, ring bearer; Mr. Edgar Schardt, of Pittsburg, Pa., best man. Out-of-town relatives and friends present were Miss Louise Huggins and Mr. Hugh Huggins, sister and brother of the bride; Nichols, S. C.; Mrs. H. P. Millikin, of Clankton, N. C.; Mrs. E. L. Moore, and Miss Genevieve Huggins, of Dillon, S. C., and Mrs. Ella Hines, of Atlanta, Ga. The wedding marches were played by Miss Lucy Walsh, and the receiving party was composed of a number of friends of the bride in the city.

The bride is a young lady with a host of admirers in Wilmington and the groom is formerly of Toronto, Canada, having been connected with the jewelry firm of Mr. Geo. Honnet, on North Front street, for some time past. He has made many friends here and the couple was extended the best wishes of the many present. They will reside in this city. Following the ceremony dainty refreshments were served.

Valentine Dance and Party.

Miss Nannie Darden will give a Valentine dance and party Friday evening at Concordia Hall from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. The affair promises to be quite interesting and enjoyable for all who attend.

The attention of friends is again called to the ice cream festival to be given from 5 to 6 this afternoon and from 7:30 to 11 o'clock this evening for the benefit of the carpet fund of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. SOUTHWEST STORM. Its Passing Yesterday to be Followed by Cold Wave—Freezing. The early hours of yesterday witnessed the passing of the southwest storm in this locality as predicted by the Weather Bureau and for today we are promised much colder temperatures with the thermometer probably down to freezing by this morning. The storm manifested itself here by very high winds and a driving rain just before day and at intervals until about noon yesterday. Window lights the least insecure were blown out by the high winds and locomotion on the streets was difficult except in the direction of the gusts of the storm. The rainfall for the day was .63 of an inch, the largest for the month thus far. Will Inspect Steamers. Capt. P. T. Dicksey and Capt. J. T. Borden, United States steamboat inspectors, arrived yesterday from Charleston, S. C., and today will officially inspect the steamers Lyon, Capt. J. D. Bradshaw; Grayling, Capt. J. H. Williams; Navassa, Capt. F. B. Rice, and the Whitlock, Capt. W. D. Blizard. Capt. Dicksey, who is a popular Wilmingtonian, is serving as inspector, vice Capt. Rice, until April 1st.
