(By Wire to the Morning Star.) Chicago, Mich., 12.—The passing of the professional Southern negro politician as a Federal office holder by a man of color has been made an essential feature in the proposed policies of President Taft.

"News of this complete change in administration policy has arrived in Chicago directly from the White House. The information was disclosed in connection with the candidacy of Col. John B. Marshall, commanding the Eighth Infantry, Illinois National Guard, the negro regiment, for the post of receiver of deeds of the District of Columbia.

WARM WIRELETS.

News has just reached Camille, Ga., of the killing of Robt. L. Mallard, a merchant of Branchville, at his store last night. James Spence, of Camilla, is in jail charged with the killing.

At Cleveland, O., three workmen were fatally injured and three other employes seriously hurt by an explosion at the open hearth furnace of the American Steel and Wire Company yesterday. Water coming in contact with the molten metal caused the explosion and the hot metal was thrown upon the workmen severely burning them.

Jim Olsen, H. S. Houston and Carl Steunville, all charged with murdering Fred Anderson, an engineer of a small gasoline launch, whose body was picked up on Cumberland Beach with a bullet through his head, were yesterday acquitted by a jury in Camden county, S. SWOONED AT THE BELL.

Odd Effect of One Cure Through the Subliminal Consciousness.

A very well known oculist tells of one case where healing through the subliminal consciousness was really a source of embarrassment to the physician who was responsible for it. Several years ago when the eye specialist—he knows about ears and throats, too—was studying in Vienna a young girl was brought to the hospital to be treated for some nervous disorder. Hypnotism—or suggestion, as one is asked to call it these days—was used, and she was brought under his influence by the ringing of a bell. After a few treatments she went to sleep, or into the unconscious and receptive state, as soon as she heard the bell. She was speedily cured and left the hospital. Next day she was brought unconscious, roused and sent away. The day after that she was brought in again. Indeed for some time scarcely a day passed when she wasn't carried in limp and unconscious. She became a positive nuisance to the great neurologist that had hypnotized her, and he finally sent persons to watch her. It was found that on her way to work she passed a certain church and usually was at the door at the moment during the celebration of the mass when the bell rang. At its tinkle she calmly curled up and went to sleep. It was necessary to suggest to her the next time she was brought to the hospital that no bell in the world could have any effect on her except the one rung in the hospital by the neurologist. After that she went about the city quite unaffected by the bells, and the neurologist drew a breath of relief.—Washington Herald.

Just a Way They Have.

Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight speak of "going to England" when they leave their own fragment of the kingdom. A patriotic Cornishman also "goes to England" when he crosses the Tamar. Similarly inhabitants of the Balkan peninsula talk of "going to Europe" when they leave their own corner of the continent, in curious contrast with the people of Great Britain, who regard themselves as both of and in "Europe," and it is only "the continent" that they visit. There is an old story of a Scottish minister who prayed for a blessing upon "the inhabitants of Great and Little Cumbræ (islands in the Firth of Clyde) and the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland." Massachusetts people speak of going "down east" when they start for the Maine coast.—Chicago News.

Parcel Wrappers.

"The hardest thing to wrap up," said a shipping clerk, "is a violin. A department store will often test a new wrapper by giving him a violin to do up. If he passes that test he is all right.

"Abroad bags and string, being expensive, are rarely used, and the young grocerman must be able to wrap potatoes, flour and all sorts of things in sheets of paper alone. He gets a kind of knack. He lays his flour or beans in a square of paper, doubles the paper over and, with an end in each hand, swings the parcel round and round. Like magic, then, it is done up, and you can carry it safely quite a hundred yards or so, provided you are careful."

Overstocked.

Hubby was evidently worried, and wife was trying to cheer him up. "Cheer up, John, and don't worry," she said. "It doesn't do any good to sorrow trouble." "Sorrow trouble," echoed her husband. "Great Caesar's ghost! I ain't sorrowing trouble; I've got it to lend!"

PETTING A HORSE.

If You Want to Please Him Rub Him Between the Ears.

"Not many people know how to pet a horse, from the horse's standpoint, at any rate," said a trainer. "Every nice looking horse comes in for a good deal of petting. Hitch a fine horse close to the curb and you'll find that half the men, women and children who go by will stop for a minute, say 'Nice horse' and give him an affectionate pat or two.

"The trouble is they don't pat him in the right place. If you want to make a horse think he is going straight to heaven hitched to a New York cab or delivery wagon, rub his eyelids. Next to that form of endearment a horse likes to be rubbed right up between the ears. In petting horses most people slight those nerve centers. They stroke the horse's nose. While a well behaved horse will accept the nasal caress complacently, he would much prefer that nice, soothing touch applied to the eyelids. Once in a while a person comes along who really does know how to pet a horse. Nine times out of ten that man was brought up in the country among horses and learned when a boy their peculiar ways."—New York Globe.

Queer Old Book Titles.

These are some of the odd titles of old English books published in the time of Cromwell: "A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nosegay For God's Saints to Smell At." "Biscuit Baked In the Oven of Charity, carefully conserved for the Chickens of the Church, the Sparrows of the Spirit and the Sweet Swallows of Salvation." "A Sigh of Sorrow For the Sinners of Zion breathed out of a Hole in the Wall of an Earthly Vessel known Among Men by the name of Samuel Fish." "Eggs of Charity Layed For the Chickens of the Covenant and Billed with the Water of Divine Love. Take ye out and Eat." "The Spiritual Mustard Pot to make the Soul Squeeze with Devotion."

The Sailor's Prayer Book.

"This is what you call the sailor's prayer book," a seaman said bitterly as he kicked a holystone out of the way. "Why is it called that? Well, in the first place, it is called that because in using it, in holystoning the deck, the sailor has to kneel down, and, in the second place, because all holystoning is done on Sunday. Don't you know the chantey— 'Six days shalt thou work and do all that thou art able And on the seventh holystone the decks and scrape the cable. 'The stone is called holystone because the first holystones were bits of tombs stolen from cemeteries. It's got a pious, religious sound—holy and prayer book and Sunday and all that—but it is when he is using this stone that the seaman is most profane."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

My wife suffered for some time from backache and distressing pains in the region of her kidneys. The irregular action of the Kidney secretions was also another source of annoyance to her. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and had my wife take them. They soon relieved her suffering and improved her general health."
