Interesting Civil Action.
Justice Sykes heard a rather interesting civil action yesterday entitled Charles Craig against Morgan Davis, proprietor of the Pure Food Market, in which the plaintiff is suing for $66 as wages alleged to be due his son, E.
C. Craig, a minor. Some weeks ago Mr. Davis opened up a restaurant and E. C. Craig is alleged to have been employed to run it. The contention of the plaintiff in this case is that Mr.
Davis agreed to give the young man half the profits of the business and $6 a week in addition. Mr. Davis claims that he agreed to give only one-half of the profits. Several interesting questions of law are involved in the case and the justice took the matter under advisement until 10 o'clock this morning when he will render his decision. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan represents the defendant and Woodus Kellum, Esq., the plaintiff.

To Carolina Beach and Sea.
The steamer Wilmington will make a trip to sea Sunday, leaving the city Beach pier and Southport going and coming. The fare to Carolina Beach and return is 25 cents and to Southport or out to sea and return is 50 cents. If the weather is favorable the boat will very likely carry a large crowd.

debts owing for goods and merchandise by the old firm as well as the new

SOUTHERN IN HIS IDEAS

Young Greek Who Resented Slur Upon Name of Lee.

It is remarkable how soon after coming to this country the more intelligent foreigner becomes distinctively American and truly Southern in his sympathies and views. This is especially true of the large majority of Greeks who come to this section.

A newspaper man dropped casually into a downtown restaurant kept by one of these few nights ago and the enterprising young proprietor was exhibiting to a gentleman seated at one of the tables in the restaurant a number of souvenir postcards kept for sale. The gentleman was evidently more intent upon drawing the young Greek out in conversation than in buying the pictures, and when the young Hellenian, his face beaming with admiration, exhibited from a number of others an elaborate memorial card of the peerless Lee, all done in Confederate flags and embossed wreaths, and asked the stranger to buy that one especially, the would-be purchaser cast it aside with evident scorn, remarking that he didn't care to buy the picture of a "rebel."

The young Greek quick as a rifle shot noted the insult, caught up all the pictures on the table before the stranger and cast them back into the case impatiently and with contempt, returning behind his counter and leaving the man to his own devices.
"You don't like Robert E. Leay," he flashed at the stranger with a look of disdain that would have withered a heart of adamant; "you must be a Yank, an' I don't like you. You need out!"

And the stranger stood not upon the order of his going.

Submissions by Agreement.
Mrs. Mary A. Gurganus and Mrs.
Florence Porter, neighbors residing on Seventh street, between Wright and Meares, were before Justice Bonnemann yesterday afternoon to answer peace warrants, sworn out one against the other. It seems that the families have not been on friendly terms for some weeks and recently Mr. Porter erected a fence on his property near the house of Mr. Gurganus. Before the case was called the attorneys in the case, Herbert McClammy, Esq., for Mrs. Gurganus, held a consultation with the defendants and agreed to enter a plea of submission in both cases. Counsel requested that bonds in the sum of $50 each be required to keep the peace on both sides of the fence for a period of two months, which course was adopted by the justice. The defendants were taxed with the costs in the cases.

MATE INJURED IN EXPLOSION

Occurred on Launch Lilly at Market Street Dock Early Last Night.
Boat Was Badly Damaged.
Cause Unknown.

In an explosion on the launch Lilly, tied up at Market street dock last night about 7:20 o'clock, the mate, Leland Bryan, was thrown violently from the cabin of the burning vessel and sustained painful injuries, while the boat was considerably damaged by fire.

Captain P. T. Dicksey, the master, was nearby when the accident occured and questioned the mate as to the cause of the explosion, but he stoutly denied having any fire around the tank, and no reason has been assigned for the same. Mr. Bryan was painfully burned about the arms, legs, and sustained a cut on the left ear and was otherwise slightly hurt. He jumped overboard to save himself from the flames and for fear that the gasoline tank would explode. He managed to swim ashore.

Captain Dicksey in making a statement about the explosion said that at the time the gasoline tank was being filled from a barrel in the bow of the boat and the explosion was that of the free gasoline in the pipe leading to the tank. He said that the mate, seeing that the gasoline was not going into the tank fast enough, went to the tank below to investigate, and the explosion occurred shortly afterwards.

The loud report was caused from the boat being so tightly closed and it is a mystery why the tank in the boat was not set on fire. All the windows were blown out and the flames spread to all parts of the cabin.

The fire department responded promptly to the alarm and the fire boat Atlantic was on the scene in quick order. The flames did not get beyond the cabin and were extinguished within a short time. Capt.
Dicksey placed his loss at between $500 and $600 with no insurance.
Parts of the cabin were badly burned, but until a further examination of the engine can be made, the actual loss cannot be estimated.

As soon as the flames had been extinguished Capt. Dicksey and members of the crew set to work pumping her out to keep the hull from sinking. The launch when the explosion occurred was lying beside the launch Mohawk, Capt. Hall's new boat, and it was very fortunate that the latter was not damaged.

The Lilly has been on the river several years and is used principally for towing. Repairs will be made immediately and she will soon be ready for service again.

Mr. Bryan, the mate, was given medical attention by Dr. F. H. Russell at Bellamy's drug store and was later able to go to his home. He was burned so badly that it will be some time before he recovers sufficiently to go back on the boat.

CASE WAS DISMISSED.

Recorder Held That Daws Davis Was Not Guilty of Charge.
The Recorder's court convened as usual yesterday morning, but there were no cases on the docket for trial.
The Recorder rendered his decision in the case against Daws Davis, colored, charged with enticing two laborers away from the Champion compress, tried at Thursday's session of court.
He said that the element of doubt entered very strongly into the case and that he was forced to give the defendant the benefit of that doubt and would dismiss the action. Herbert McClammy, Esq., prosecuted the case and Geo. L. Peetah, Esq., represented the defendant.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Recorder will hear the case against J.
W. Humphrey, charged with abandonment and non-support, continued from Thursday. This promises to be one of the most interesting cases heard in a long time.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS
Marsden Bellamy, Esq., Sr., One of Ablest Members of Bar, in Critical Condition—Slowly Regaining Consciousness.

Hundreds of friends in this city and elsewhere learned with infinite regret yesterday morning that County Attorney Marsden Bellamy, one of the oldest, ablest and best known members of the local bar, was stricken with paralysis at an early hour yesterday morning at the Summer home of his son-in-law, Mr. R. C. DeRosset, on Wrightsville Beach, where he had been spending several days.
Shortly after 10 o'clock last night a telephone message from one of the attending physicians at the DeRosset cottage on the beach stated: "Mr.
Bellamy's condition is practically unchanged except that he seems to be slowly regaining consciousness. If anything his condition is a shade better."

THE THEATRE

At the Bijou today the feature picture will be "The Evil That Men Do." It is said to be a splendid picture and the programme today will be fully up to the usual Saturday offerings. The feature picture is one of those that appeals to the emotional side of life and its presentation will doubtless be witnessed by large audiences. Notwithstanding the threatening weather yesterday there were large audiences at the popular theatre.

A CREW OF CHINAMEN

Immigration Inspector Here From Norfolk to Clear Sophie Rickmers.
The German steamer Sophie Rich-mers, Capt. Kohn, with her crew of 25 Chinamen, cleared through the custom house yesterday and will sail today for Savannah, Ga. The steamer discharged a cargo of kaint to the Swift Fertilizer Works.

Immigration Inspector W. R. Morton, who is stationed at Norfolk arrived in Wilmington yesterday to see that the steamer carries all the members of her crew out of this port. He will deliver the clearance paper to the steamer this morning. One of the Chinamen attempted to escape from the ship at Norfolk after she had left the dock and the captain was forced to send back after him. The Rickmers will load cotton for foreign export.

QUESTION OF LAW INVOLVED

Interesting Civil Action Started in Supreme Court Yesterday.
A suit involving an interesting point of law was instituted in the Superior Court yesterday and is entitled Chadbourn Sash, Door & Lumber Company against C. E. Parker and wife, Thos. J.
Parker and wife and Sheriff S. P.
Cowan. To commence at the beginning, some months ago the Chadbourn Sash, Door & Lumber Company secured a judgment against C. E. Parker for about $600 and after the judgment had been docketed he sold his property to Mr. Thos. J. Pea. An execution was issued against the property and served February 2, 1909. Mr. Pea, the purchaser, claimed the homestead and a board of appraisers was named and after the homestead was laid off there was nothing left with which to satisfy the judgment. No further action was taken. The present suit, it is understood, involves the question of whether the purchaser of the property could claim the homestead exemption. Louis Goodman, Esq., represents the plaintiff in the action.

game. This is one among the series being played between the Y. M. C. A. and other city teams and it is expected that a crowd will be present to witness the game this afternoon.

The Road to Success.

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters

COOK'S POLAR CLAIM
single window in the gable end of the attic, the newspaper men grouped in front of him. Some of them mounted on piles of fish nets, others were seated on barrels, and a number squatted on the floor. In addition the crews of the steamers and sailing vessels in port, the local merchants and fishermen and a gathering of small boys filled the rude hall and listened to what might be termed Commander Peary's first public lecture since in-return from the Pole.
In explaining to the newspaper men what he considered the scientific value of his exploration, Commander Peary said he had taken soundings of the sea from Cape Sheridan to the Pole, which supplemented similar data taken on the other side by Nansen and Cagni. Continuing he argued that North Polar exploration is much more difficult than the same work in the Antarctic. In the Arctic the work must all be done in one season, while at the South Pole it is not necessary for exploring parties to turn back to winter quarters.
Commander Peary described the celebration of Christmas day, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving day and St. Patrick's day in the far North on Christmas day they had a special dinner and a distribution of presents brought with them. There were also running races for the members of the party and Eskimo men and women for which prizes were given.
Describing the flags he had raised at the Pole, Commander Peary made particular mention of the silk American flag given him by his wife 15 years ago and which he had carried on every one of his Arctic expeditions, leaving a portion at the most northerly point attained. The remnant of this flag raised at the pole consisted of one star and a section of the blue field and a part of the red and white stripes.

A. G. THORNTON DEAD.

Character Well Known in Fayetteville.
Married Negro There.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 18.—A. G.
Thornton, a character well known in the reconstruction history of this State, died here today. Thornton was a man of wealth and a prominent pol-as known Thornton is the only legally

The marriage was afterward legal-
