Bandit Secured $500 From Chicago Bank in Day Time and Shoots Himself Rather Than be Captured-One Arrest.

Chicago, Oct. 13.-A fashionably dressed bandit, who early this afternoon robbed the savings bank of D. M. Erskine & Co., in Highland Park, Ill., an aristocratic suburb on the Lake Shore, 25 miles north of Chicago, committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth when driven to bay by the Highland Park marshal and a posse

A companion of the robber, who had driven him to the bank in an automobile was captured immediately following the robbery forcing the principal perpetrator of the daring daylight crime to flee on foot. He was engaged in a running duel with Town Marshal John Sheehan, who was the target for many bullets from the fugitives bandit's revolver one of which went through the sleeve of his coat. After running several blocks and failing to drive back his pursuer the robber ran into a shed closely followed by Sheehan. When he saw Sheehan enter the shed with his revolver levelled at his head the fugitive put the muzzle of his own revolver in his mouth and fired a shot which resulted in his death almost immediately. The idenpanion is known.
