NEW YORK.

The refusal of Gov. Seymour to receive the Democratic nomination for Governor, rendered it necessary that his place should be supplied by either the Executive Committee or the full Convention. Wisely it was decided to call together the State Convention. It will meet at Saratoga next Wednesday, the 13th.

The great speech of Gov. Hendricks, at Shelbyville, Ind., an extended synopsis of which has been printed in this paper, is worthy of a high place in the campaign literature. Gov. Hendricks, being a statesman, dwelt with force on the demands now made upon statesmanship.

INSTRUCTIONS.

The usage of the mellifluous Taft, sent out by General Sherman to the United States Marshals has been limited, restricted, modified by subsequent "instructions."

WILLIAM SMITH ON MOUNTAINEERING.

William, who wants to be Lieutenant Governor, has just returned from a canvass of the transmontane counties with his competitor, Capt. Jarvis. The Observer says he remarked when he got back as far as Charlotte: "Well, d-d if it ain't the roughest country I ever saw. I was never there before, and God knows I wouldn't cross the Blue Ridge again if a man would give me two thousand dollars in cash."

FEVER-STRIKEN SAVANNAH.

The important city of Savannah has been suffering deeply from the ravages of that dreadful tropical scourge, the yellow fever. We know that the great heart of Wilmington sympathizes with our afflicted neighbors, and we feel quite sure that anything that our own fellow-citizens can do will be done cheerfully to alleviate these afflictions.

IS HAYES A PERJURER?

We think it does neither side any good to utter slanders against the prominent men of the other party. Truth is safest as it is most manly. But the enemy have persistently sought since the beginning of the campaign to injure Gov. Tilden's private character by circulating false and injurious reports. One of these vile slanders has been exploded by the Albany Argus. It now seems as if Gov. Hayes were guilty of the very thing the Radicals charge upon Gov. Tilden.

REMEMBRANCE.

The great speech of Gov. Hendricks, at Shelbyville, Ind., an extended synopsis of which has been printed in this paper, is worthy of a high place in the campaign literature. Gov. Hendricks, being a statesman, dwelt with force on the demands now made upon statesmanship.

FEARS FROM FUTURE.

Last Saturday night, at the great demonstration in Indianapolis, Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, the German Reform leader of St. Louis, made a speech full of cogent logic and garnished with much earnest rhetoric. We make a few extracts.

BOWLES FOR ADAMS.

We thought so. Bowles couldn't help it. The thing had to be. Bowles was pledged to out-Adams every other Adams man, and so the Springfield Republican, although a Hayes paper, must perform support Charles Francis for Governor of Massachusetts.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Republican says the nomination of Mr. Adams is the smartest thing in politics this year, an unusual visitation of common sense. It compares the State ticket in detail with the Republican, and pronounces it fully equal if not superior in all respects, and it indicates its purpose to favor its election on grounds of State policy and reform.

THE RIOT REPORTED IN OUR TELEGRAPHIC COLUMNS.

The riot reported in our telegraphic columns this morning, was the result of the manipulations of wicked Republican leaders. The Charleston News & Courier, a paper of known moderation and liberalism, says: "The affair was the result of the settled determination of a gang of colored rowdies, calling themselves Republicans, to wreak vengeance upon some men of their own color, who have presumed to publicly affiliate with the Democratic party."

THE CONSERVATIVE NOMINEE FOR THE SENATE.

The Conservative nominee for the Senate from Randolph and Moore counties is Marmaduke S. Robbins, Esq., the able editor of the Asheboro Regulator. In the Convention Prof. O. W. Carr, of Trinity College, declined to allow his name to be used as a candidate for the nomination.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

On the 28th of August last a well dressed man, giving his name as R. Mills, and who was understood to hold a position on one of the vessels in port at the time, appeared at the boarding house of Mrs. Warren, on Second, between Market and Dock streets, and engaged board.

HUNTING FOR WORK.

A gentleman of this city, who has been on a trip to the western part of the State, says that he noticed on the road, in Cleveland county, numbers of white women, without any male protectors with them, who said they were in search of employment. It is bad enough to see men tramping through the country in search of work; how infinitely worse to find women in our own State of North Carolina reduced to such an extremity. Let us hope there is a better day coming.

A SETTLER.

To show that our candidate for Governor is a long ways in ad-Vance of Settle, we give the result of a vote taken on the Centennial excursion train which left here on Wednesday evening, forwarded by a STAR correspondent, as follows:

ON THE CANA, DANVILLE, VA., SEPTEMBER 8th.

DEAR STAR: A vote was taken on the train to-day, which resulted in Vance getting 318, Settle 7. The ladies did not vote, but of course are all for Vance. About six hundred on excursion; all well. Respectfully, EXCURSIONIST.

Of this number ten were females and seventeen males, being of the young and promising of the community.

THE DETERMINED SPIRIT IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

[Special Star Correspondence.] It has been the pleasure of your correspondent to spend much of the past few weeks in the border of South Carolina, and we have made it our business to post up on the situation with much care, that we might give your readers an insight into the doings over here, and it would fill the heart of any lover of good government to attend one of the public political meetings, and see the patriotic enthusiasm of Carolina's sons and tax-payers as they clamor for reform.

CONSERVATIVE CLUBS ARE FORMING IN EVERY TOWNSHIP IN THE STATE.

It is surprising to see the hosts flocking to the banner of reform. The Democrats have invited the colored men to help them reform the rotten and over-taxed government, and they are coming over with a right good will, and under the guarantee of the Democrats that they will guard and protect the lives, liberties and property of the colored men (with their own) who join in with them in behalf of reform, numbers have joined Democratic Clubs, and colored men can now declare their principles, and are raising Democratic Clubs in safety.

Tarboro Southerner: On Tuesday, at Hamilton, where Mr. Yates and D. McLandry had an appointment to speak, there came near by a general ror. McLandry was addressing the people. Mr. Jas. E. Moore, of Williamson, asked McLandry a question, which McLandry called him a liar. Moore then stepped him on the mouth. A burly negro, from behind, then struck Moore with a stick, knocking him senseless. At this time nearly the whole mob had gathered, and were carried off by the mob, evidently with the intention of murdering him. Sheriff Harrison happened to be on the ground, and but for his exertions blood would have been spilled. The negroes had concocted this thing an hour before the speaking.
