MORE OF HOLDEN'S CORRESPONDENCE.

A correspondent of the Raleigh News obtained about the same information from Major John W. Scott, one of the best known citizens of Chatham, that was published in the last Star. It seems that Mr. Scott received this information about a month ago from Rev. C. T. Bailey, at the hotel at Cameron, Moore county, on Wednesday night last. Mr. Bailey stated that Holden had on several occasions confessed to him that the Republican party was responsible for the murder of Stephens. According to the News' correspondent Mr. Bailey stated that Holden made the first time that Gov. Holden made these statements to Mr. Bailey was on the train on the Western North Carolina road, about two years ago, when en route to the Republican State Convention at Fayetteville. (Holden) said that the reason that Mr. Bailey opposed the nomination of Holden (Holden) disqualifies him to get the Legislature to remove him (Mr. Bailey) to use his influence to get the other gentlemen. Was he indeed Mr. Bailey said to Major Scott and the other gentlemen, "was he indeed a party to the murder of Stephens, and could he be induced to say so?" Major Scott replied that he could. Mr. Bailey said that he would have an opportunity to see Holden at Cameron, Moore county, on Wednesday night last. Mr. Bailey stated that Holden made to Mr. Bailey the confession that Stephens was murdered by the Republican party. Holden confessed that he was responsible for the murder of Stephens. According to those who have been acquainted with the facts, Holden confessed as much of the murder as he could without implicating himself. Holden confessed this to Mr. Bailey, the statement was believed that he (Governor) was in danger, and he would have been murdered as was Stephens. Holden is believed to have made the statement with a view to getting Bailey to use his influence to get the other Republicans to support him for re-election. We cannot afford to furnish the paper at $1.00 per year and pay the postage besides.

The following will be our revised terms of subscription:
