

THE MIRROR OF THE MIND. ALGERNON SYDNEY LOGAN

Eternal minstrel! who through every land Harpest wild melodies from door to door, Thy lays 'neath palace eaves are not more grand Than in the smoky chimneys of the poor.

Saddest of harpers! of thy songs can none Back to the lip a vanished smile recall? No, there is not of all thy ditties one But wakes a sigh, or bids a tear to fall.

Thou sing'st of home to those that house less rove,

Past friends to those mankind despise and scoru.

Thy songs tell trembling age it once could love,

And bid unwilling youth feel it shall mourn;

Thou sing'st of weed grown graves with mossy stones, Which we in life's rough race have left behind-But thou dost not neglect them, and thy tones With kindred music wake the sleeping mind; Thou sing'st of our own graves which thou shalt see, Of endless change which leaves thee still the same, Of all we are not, and yet wished to be In brighter hours ere hearts and hopes grew tame. Pilgrim impalpable! thy viewless feet

Through ages still must roam from clime to clime But even thee at last a bourne shall greet-

Thy head shall rest upon the tomb of Time.

Southern Baptist Convention. [Norfolk Virginian Report Condensed.]

NASHVILLE, May 10.

SECOND DAY.

Invitations were received from Rev. Mr. Phillips to visit the Colored Theological Institute; and from friends to visit Mrs. President Polk; both were accepted. Just here your correspondent would say that at the usual hour this morning your reporter visited the home of the distinguished lady, and sending in his name, was soon ushered into the presence of the former occupant of the White House. Mrs. Polk is about sixty five years of age, and receives you with all the grace and ease of former years. In fact, I was agreeably surprised to find her in the possession of so much mental and physical vitality.

The first order of business in the Convention this morning was the to amend the constitution so as to increase the power of the president pre-reading of the report upon Italian Missions. The report brought out several speakers, among them Rev. Dr. McDonald, of Virginia. Dr. McD. was once a member of the Romish Church, and he gave most touchingly his experience in renouncing popery and accepting the pure spiritual worship of New Testament Christianity.

In the afternoon the report upon Chinese Missions was read. Mr. Simmons, a returned missionary, made a very touching address. At night a mass meeting upon Home Missions was held, Rev. Mr. Lowry, of California, and Dr. J. A. Broadus addressed the people; the effort of Dr. B. was grand.

THIRD DAY.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 11. The committees were called to order, and the report of the Home Mission Board was' read.

Dr. McIntosh has given very great satisfaction in the management of the home interest of the Convention. Quite a number of speeches were made, and some of them very effective.

During the morning hour, and while this discussion was in progress, a tall, bony, careworn man arose and addressed the President. At once all eyes were turned to him, and so singular was his look that it was suggested that he was an Indian; but his clear, distinct voice soon told that he was not an Indian, but our missionary to the wild tribes of the West-Rev. H. F. Buckner. This devout man of God has spent more than twenty years of his life in trying to civilize and Christianize the savages, and his success has been remarkable. No one is more honored for his work-sake than the self-sacrificing man who has for so many years proclaimed glad tidings to the red men of the forest.

Atlanta, Ga., is the place for the next meeting, and Rev. Dr. Wingate, of North Carolina, to preach the openning sermon.

In closing the Convention ou Monday night, Drs. Boyce and Burrows made some very touching remarks pertaining to the past, present and future.

Before closing this letter allow me to say that Tennessee is a great State, and filled with grand people, who have descended from Virginia and North Carolina. With some few exceptions the soil is rich and the climate uniform. Cotton and corn and stock-raising are all profitable in this State.

Tennessee has given to the country three Presidents, Jackson, Polk and Johnson, all born North Carolinians.

Mo., Dr. Andrews, of Miss., and Dr. Lee, of Kentucky, participated in the discussion. Dr. Lovick Pierce also addressed the Conference, expressing his views and he was listened to attentively. The change in the discipline was made, but as it was merely a difference in words and no material difference in doctrine I will not consume space in giving it.

The Rev. Dr. Hunt, one of the Secretaries of the American Bible Society, and a minister of the Northern Methodist Church, was introduced to the General Conference to-day, and made a most impressive address in regard to the work of the Bible So-

Bishop Keener, in a very pleasant little talk, assured hlm of the hearty co-operation of the Church, South, in his noble work.

We met Rev. C. M. Payne, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of | For Kidney Complaint and Ner Wilmington, N. C., in the Conference room to-day. He was on his way to the General Assembly of his Church, which meets in Knoxville, Tenu.

FOURTEENTH DAY.

ATLANTA, GA., May 16. The fraternal delegates from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church-Rev. C. D. Foss. of New York, and Hon. Wm. Cumback, of Indiana--were received by the Conference at 10 o'clock to day, Bishop Paine presiding. They were introduced to the President by Gov. Colquitt. Bishop Paine then introduced them to the bishops of the Conference. Dr. Foss delivered an eloquent address, in which he expressed the kind and fraternal feelings of the Methodist Church North to the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He was followed by Mr. Cumback in an address full of sympathy and earnestly hopeful of a final and complete union of these two branches of Methodism. Both speeches were frequently ap-

VEGETINE

For Dropsy. CEBTRAL FALLS, R. L., Oct. 19, 1877.

DR. H. R. STEVENS: It is a pleasure to give my testimony for your val-nable medicine. I was sick for a long time with Dropsy, under the doctor's care. He said it was Water between the Heart and Liver. I received no benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine; in fact, I was growing worse. I have tried many reme-dies; they did not help me. VEGETINE is the medi-cine for Dropsy. I began to feel better after taking a few bottles. I have taken thirty bottles in all. 1 am perfectly well, never felt better. No one can feel more thankful than I do. I am, dear sir, gratefully yours, A. D. WHEELER. DR. H. R. STEVENS :

VEGETINE. — When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of cli-mate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VERTINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE

vous Debility.

ISLESBORO, ME., Dec. 28, 1877.

ISLESBORD, B.E., Dec. &, Iot. MR. STEVENS :-Dear Sir, --I had had a cough, for eighteen years, when I commenced taking the VEGETINE. I was very low; my system was debilitated by disease. I had the Kidney Complaint, and was very nervous-cough bad, lungs sore. When I had taken one bottle I found it was helping me; it has helped my cough, and it strengthens me. I am now able to do my work. Never have found anything like the VEGE-TINE. I know it is every thing it is trecommended to be. MBS. A. J. PENDLETON.

VEGETINE is nourishing and strengthening; puri-fies the blood; regulates the bowels; quiets the ner-vous system; acts directly upon the secretions; and arouses the whole system to action.

VEGETINE

For Sick Headache. EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 1, 1878.

MR. STEVENS :-Dear Sir,-I have used your VEEETINE for Sick Headachs, and been greatly benefited thereby. I have every reason to believe it to be a good medi-cine. Yours, very respectfully, MRS. JAMES CONNER, 411 Third St.

HEADACHE.—There are various causes for head-ache, as derangement of the circulating system, of the digestive organs, of the nervous system, &c. VEGETINE can be said to be a sure remedy for the many kinds of headache, as it acts directly upon the various causes of this complaint. Nervousness, in digestion, Cestiveness, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bil-iousness, &c. Try the VEGETINE. You will never recret it.
