

THREE ANGELS.

They say this life is barren, drear and cold, Ever the same old song was sung of old, Ever the same long weary tale is told, And to our lips is held the cup of strife, And yet a little love can sweeten life.

Love, Hope, and Patience cheer us on our way, Love, Hope, and Patience form our spirit's stay, Love, Hope, and Patience watch us day by day, And bid the desert bloom with beauty vernal, Until the earthly fades in the Eternal.

SIXTY-FOURTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH-DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WILSON, N. C., May 28, 4 P. M.—The Convention met in Brown's Hall at 9 o'clock A. M.

Right Rev. Bishop Lyman in the Chair. A number of clergy and delegates arriving by last evening's train were enrolled.

The first business in order was the announcement of committees and the reference of business to each, also the election of standing committees, which consumed the morning hour.

The proceedings are entirely harmonious, and the delegates, both clerical and lay, are busy, and all speak in the highest terms of the hospitality and cleverness of our twin cities.

Gen. Saunders must be recognized by his broad pronunciation and his power of accumulating proof, till he could bury his adversary by saying, (and throwing tremendous emphasis on the last word) "And now, fellow citizens, I say that any man, who impartially considers all these facts, and then opposes this measure, is bound to be an ass."

The Herald predicted that Mr. Buchanan would carry New York in 1856. Gen. Fremont carried it by 80,000 majority.

The Herald predicted the Democratic electoral ticket would carry New York in 1860. Mr. Lincoln carried it by 50,000 majority.

The Herald predicted that Mr. Grant would carry New York in 1868. Gov. Seymour carried it by 10,000 majority.

The Herald predicted that Mr. Greeley would carry New York in 1872. Gen. Grant carried it by 52,000 majority.

FAYETTEVILLE.

Democratic Convention of the Third Congressional District. (Special Order to the Morning Star.)

The Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock by Capt. Charles D. Myers, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Third Congressional District, who called Mr. J. W. Shackelford, of Onslow, to the chair, temporarily, and appointed Messrs. T. W. Strange, of New Hanover, and W. S. Cook, of Cumberland, as temporary Secretaries.

The Convention was again called to order at 3 o'clock, but the Committee on Credentials not being ready to report, a recess was taken until 4 o'clock.

At 4 o'clock the Convention came to order, when the Committee on Credentials reported in favor of the seating of the regular or Chinnis delegates from Brunswick county. A minority report was presented, giving the contesting or Curtis delegates two townships from the county.

The majority report was adopted, seating all the Chinnis delegates; but after the announcement of the vote an error was discovered in the count, and a motion was made to reconsider the whole matter.

On motion, the Convention then proceeded to vote for candidates for the nomination. Messrs. Chas. M. Stedman, of New Hanover; A. M. McKay, of Sampson; J. G. Scott, of Onslow; and Wm. A. Allen, of Duplin, were placed in nomination.

1st ballot—Stedman, 8,981; McKay, 4,880; Scott, 1,888; Allen, 2,194.

FAYETTEVILLE, June 3, 1880.—The Convention was in session all night, and numerous ballots were had with varying results. Early this morning the name of Maj. C. M. Stedman was withdrawn from the contest, and Messrs. H. B. Short, of Columbus, and J. W. Shackelford, of Onslow, placed in nomination.

Mr. Shackelford was finally nominated on the 32nd ballot.

D. H. McLean, of Harnett, was nominated for Presidential elector from this District, and W. F. Howland, of Carteret, and C. M. Stedman, of New Hanover, selected as delegates to the National Democratic Convention at Cincinnati.

New York Herald as a Political Prophet. [Albany Argus.]

The Herald predicted Mr. Buchanan would carry New York in 1856. Gen. Fremont carried it by 80,000 majority.

The Herald predicted the Democratic electoral ticket would carry New York in 1860. Mr. Lincoln carried it by 50,000 majority.

The Herald predicted that Mr. Grant would carry New York in 1868. Gov. Seymour carried it by 10,000 majority.

NATIONAL REPUBLICANS.

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) CHICAGO, June 2.—The following manifesto is published this morning: "We the undersigned delegates to the National Convention from Pennsylvania, knowing that the sentiment of the Republicans of said State is largely against the nomination of Gen. U. S. Grant, for President, and having the best interest of the Republican party at heart, and desiring honestly to represent our constituents, hereby pledge ourselves to vote against his nomination." Signed by twenty-three delegates.

Senators Wagner, West, Robertson and others of the protesting New York delegation, are receiving numerous telegrams from their constituents, endorsing their action, and urging a dissent.

Senator B. K. Bruce was serenaded at the Palmer House last night by his colored friends among the delegates representing all of the Southern States. They were enthusiastic in their expressions in favor of his nomination as Vice President. He made a brief speech from the rostrum. George Williams, of Cincinnati, responded in his behalf, in an eloquent speech, full of compliments for the manner in which Senator Bruce had represented the colored race in Congress. There seems to be a determination on the part of the colored delegates to present the name of Senator Bruce in the Convention for Vice President.

The National Committee yesterday decided that neither of the Louisiana delegations should be admitted to the temporary organization of the Convention.

It is stated that the Grant managers are much more confident of securing his nomination on the first ballot. In fact they are pretty well convinced that they can secure it. If they should not, and should fail to secure an increased vote on the second ballot, it is rumored that some leaders have decided to throw the votes which they control, some 800 to 825, for Edmunds. The claim is made that this would nominate Edmunds as against any other candidate or combination.

The Blaine delegates also held a caucus. They claim 300 on the first ballot, with the probability of subsequent gains.

Ex-Secretary Boutwell admitted last night that his count left Grant forty or fifty short of a majority.

THE CONVENTION. The Exhibition Building and its Decorations.—The Delegates Generally Assembled, but no Signs of Coming to Order.

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) CHICAGO, June 2.—11:45 A. M.—The Exhibition building, in which the Republican National Convention has been held, presents a scene of striking interest. Situated on the lake shore, within a short distance of the heart of the city, it is within a few minutes' walk of the great hotels. Sitting on the platform of the Col. Boat, the appearance of an immense tunnel, with seats ranging up from the floor to one-half of the entrance height, those of either end and on the side facing each other. The platform occupies the south side, right under it being the section reserved for the committee-men, guests, reporters and correspondents of the press, who are here by the hundreds. The roof and sides are every available point of the building are decorated with the portraits of Lincoln, and the extreme north end is a large picture of Abraham Lincoln, and in the center of the canvass a strip bearing the celebrated motto, "and that the government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the face of the earth."

More towards the center hangs a still larger picture of Washington, while on the south end, over the stage, is a gigantic bust of the late Senator Chandler. The location of the various delegations are indicated by shields bearing the name of the State or Territory, and the prominent men as they enter are greeted with applause. Early morning delegates are entering and taking their seats, while the military band, stationed in the center, is playing patriotic and other airs.

At 12:30 the delegations were generally in their places. The galleries are filling slowly, with no signs of coming to order.
