	thing. It is to be noticed that whenever a	AN ENGLISHMAN AS A WITNESS. During the campaign our space was so much needed for political	flesh.' The girl to be disposed of is rep- resented to be very handsome, and cheap at $CO3 It is to be hoped that she will fall into good hands, and that the money	, Public Dabi Amendment-For, 286,	PENDER. RCKY POINT, November 2 - The elec- tion has passed off quietly here to day.	COUNTY COMMISSIONER Abstract of Prochedings 36 R Nension.
	Government becomes thoroughly	matter we were compelled to over-	paid for her may be a ressonable invest-	Asylum Amendment-For, 9; against,	Our people have furned out well to vote. Owing to some mistakes in spelling the	The Board of County Commission in regular monthly setsion yesterday venal and abandoned and aggressive	look many things that would not escape us ordinarily. We have refer-	THE ELECTION.	325. FOURTH WARD.	names of some of the Republican candi-	P. M., all members being present.
MILWINGI ON IN ON	and determines to live that it cannot be overthrown at the polls. The	red more than once to the founding	STATE, CONGRESSIONAL AND COUNTY.	Sepate-Scott 169, Worth 271, Shepard 9.	dates we will mak: a gain in Pender of several hundred votes for Shack ifoid and	Sheriff Manning presented his r definquent uses. This wing and mday November 311 1000. I		of an English colony in Tennessee	NUMBER OF ANTIMUM PRO	House-Waddell 169, Wilson 167, Meares	some of our county ticket. They should	$169 17 paid over to the Treasurer.
Notices of Marriage or Death, Tributes o	forth will have no more significancy	under the auspices of a number of	The following are the official returns from	269, Moscley 267, Holt 8, Curtis 10; scatter- ing 6.	have to spell correctly Withamson P. Canaday got about as miny votes here as	The County Treasurer presented port for the month of October, as ec', Resolutions of Thanks, &c, are charged	or fairness than a plebescitum under	persons of means, headed by Mr. Thomas Hughes, a delightful author	this city and county, so far as received : FIRST WARD	County Treasurer-Hewlett 174, Fennell	Wm. P.	General fund, balance $12,767.77
a paid for strictly in advance. At this rate ou	Louis Napoleon. The people in the North will vote as the Government	and a member of the British Parlia-	Upper Division - Senati - Scott 359,	.264, Bremer 13. Register of Deeds-McLaurin 272, Samp-	DUPLIN. Vote for Congressional tickct in Magnelia	Special fund, due Treasurer $99 or Death	decrees. Free elections are s thing	ment. Mr. Hughes spent some weeks	Worth 88, Shepard 78.	son 163, Reed 12.	Township: Shackelford,213; Canaday 152.	surrendered ek ven coupons of and two coupons of $2 each, wh Romitiances must be made of cheering	of the past. A man is blind and	in the South and formed a most	House-Waddell 345, Wilson 346, Meares 90, Moseley 90, Cartis 76, Holt 76	Surveyor-McRae 14. Coroner-Hays 257, Hewlett 179, Avant	McDOWELL. MARION, N. C, Nov. 2Hancock and	cancelled by the Board. ers will register letters when desired. Only such remittances will be at the risk of	stupid or worse who cannot see it.	favorable opinion of our people.	Treasurer-Hewiett 360, Fennell 72,	13.	Jarvis have a gain in McDowell; Old Fort	Educational fund: Balance in 1 only such remittances will be at the rise of	When a corrupt Government is	This has surprised and, possibly, dis- gusted the Radicals in the North.	Bremer 91. Register of Deed - Jampson 259, Mc-	Sheriff-Manning 170, Bagg 239, Watson	Township gains 25 votes.	The Register made his report of managed by men of resource in ras-	He was taken in charge as soon as he	Lurin 71, Roed 89.	55. Congress-Shuckelford 267, Canaday	PENDER Grant Township gives Shackelford for	ceived from marriage licenses for th
AS FAR AS KNOWN.	callty then it callot be withstood.	landed and a studious effort was	Surveyor-McRae 88.	170; Kornegay 10.		of October, exhibiting a receipt County Treasurer for the amount
New York has gone Radical by	The usual methods of voting amount to nothing. Take the Radical Ad-	made to fill his mind full of prejudice	Coroner-Hewlett 366, Hays 68, Avant 88.	Governor-Jarvis 270, Buxton 173 Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 270,	POINT CASWELL, November 3Gaifield	paid over. carried probably California, Ne-	ministration. It agreed with the	against our people and to thus induce	Sheriff-Manning 356, Bagg 28, Watson	Barringer 173.	122, Hancock 107, Jarvis 107, Buxton 120, Shackelford 104, Canaday 121, Kornegsy	men prooccucu to a and New Jersev. We will have	Stalwarts-Grant, Conkling, Came-	him to change his plans and locate his colony in some Northern State.	141. Congress-Shackelford 89, Canaday 359,	Secretary of State-Saunders 273, Nor- ment 172.	2, Worth 104, Scott 119, Ward 109, Wil-	venire of jurors to serve at the ap ing term of the Criminal Court:
Legislature of the first two, but	ron and Company that the Govern-	But like a level-headed Englishman,	Korne ay 79.	Auditor-Roberts 272, Cannon 172.	liams 118. The south side of Caswell gave	James Kendrick, D. M. Fenne
Radicals will probably have the	ment must not pass out of their	as he is, he determined to see for	Governoi-Jarvis 89, Buxton 389.	Treasurer - Worth 272, Jenkins 172.	a Democratic majority of 18. A Demo- cratic gain.	Colville, J. M. Bremer, C. D. islature of the last. We are glad	hands. what then why, the	bimalf Same for marks and ha	Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 89, Bar-	Superintendent of Public Instruction- Scarborough 272, Black 174.	CATERE F.	Samuel Reid, Jesse Ives, Wm M. Thomas Reed, Henry Reeder, earn that Gen Rosencrans is elect-	moneys of the whole people were used freely and abundantly. The	made an address at Chattanooga, and	Secretary of State-Saunders 89, Nor-	Attorney General-Kenan 272, Moore 172.	MOREHEAD CITY, Nov. 3, 1880Shack-	Reaves, Gabriel Reaves, E. J.
to the U. S. House from Sau	immense horde of office holders-	he thus gave the voluntary testimony	ment 389	President-Hancock 274, Garfield 171,	elford's majority will probably reach 390 in this county.	Isauc D. Reynolds, Robert Sweet Jancock and is a good Democrat.	over one hundred and four thousand	of a highly educated, practical and	Auditor-Roberts 89, Cannon 389. Treasurer-Worth 88, Jenkins 389.	Weaver 9. Judges-Fourth Distric -Bennett 269,	CUMBERLAND	Maunder, A. B. George, Stephen & W. O. Fergus, P. Lukins, Wm.
New York had voted as we had a	-became at once their instruments	sagacious Englishman. He said :	Supt. Public Instruction-Scarborough	McLean 168. Fitth District-Gilmer 270,	FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 3, 1880.—Our coun-	Benj. Farrow, Jr., A. G. McGirt, ht to expect Gen. Hancock would	of corruption. Every enginery that	length concluded there was no place we	88, Black 389. Attorney General-Kenan 88, Moore 389.	Headen 167. Constable- Dicksey 254, Smith 97,	ty ticket is elected. FAYETTEVILLE, November 3: Cumber-	Hewlett, Balaam W. Wade, Josep Henry G. Davis, J. T. McIver, e been President of the United		would so likely succeed as on the High- lands of Tennessee. At this conclusion	President-Hancock 131, Garfield 371.	Constable Dicksey 254, Smith 97, Carr 50	land gave Canaday 47 majority. Rose and	Wadded, Joshua T. Foreman.
les as lar as we now know. Money	fabricate was set in motion. The whole power of the Government	some of my friends in England remon- strated. They said we would find a recep-	Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 85,	Amendment concerning Public Debt-	Townsend, Dems., are elected to the Legis jaure. Large gains for the Democra's.	The Board next proceeded to Radicals and fastened Garfield	-and it is vast, tremendous,	deterred by that, for I had heard these	McLean 366. Fifth District-Gilmer 85, Headen 366.	For amendment 53, against amendment 1. Amendment in Reference to Asylum-	ONSLOW.	venice o jarors to serve during the ber term of the Superior Court, as on the country. New York is	irresistible-was brought into op-	doleful sayings before, and I knew how fallacious they were. I was startled some-	Public Debt Amendment-For, 26;	For amendment 11, against amendment	SWANSBJRO, Nov. 3 -Hancock 48. Gar-	First Week-Daniel Lee, Rob John R. Lutin, Robert A. Orrel nonsible for the curse. We	eration, and although there is a	what on our arrival at something of the	against, 9. Asylum Amendmen'-For, 26; against	364. FIFTH WARD.	field 25, Jarvis 42, Buxton 25, Shackelford 41, Canaday 30. Linwook-Hancock 41,	Harriss, H. Brunhild, C.F. Van n one Congressman in Brooklyn,"	majority of the people who at heart	towns. The spear the of three days in the	Asylum Amendmen'-For, 26; against 241.	Senate-Scott 506, Worth, 137, Shep-	Garfield 40, Jarvis 39, Buxton 43.	W. H. Styron, William Dent, Girdts, Eli G. Whitney, John A.
Califonia Wa mill probably	love liberty and an honest govern- ment, Radicalism triumphs. Money	Northern towns. We met friends, and had talks, and I confess that the views that	Constable-Dicksey 64, Carr 115, Smith	hard 46.	GUILFORD. GREENSBORO, November 3Hon. A. M.	beck, F. M. Hewlett, Thomas E n a United States Senator in Cali-	is the lever that overthrows the Re-	were expressed were startling, but not alarming. They told me that there	264 Lower Division Senate -Scutt 474, Worth	House-Waddell 505, Wilson 505, Mose-	Scales, Democrat, is reclected to Congress	Southerland C W Veter
nia. We do not credit the suppo-	public. The manufacturers, the		51, Shepard 15.	ley 154, Means 153, Curtis 47, Holt 45. County Treasurer-Hewlett 541, Fennell	from the Fifth District, by a majority of	John A. Hewlett, J. H. Grotjen Hardwick.
on that we will lose a United	bond-holders, the money-gods of the	occasion of great trouble all over the coun-	House-Meares 51, Moseley 51, Waddell	127, Bremer 53.	about 1500 over Keogh, Republican, and Winston, Greenbacker.	It was ordered that the tax of tes Senator in Tennessee. Paul,	North are all with the Government.	try and that all that had been done since the great war was to be reversed, and I	473, Wilson 473, Curtis 15, Holt 15 Sheriff-Manning 469, Bagg 51, Watson	Register-Sampson 541, McLaurin 141, Reed 44.	MECKLENBURG.	worth of stock listed in the name Gore and the $1,500 in the name adjuster Democrat, is elected in	They care for nothing but self. They	confess that I was somewhat depressed by these interviews and felt that my views	28. I THE THE ARGING STATES	Surveyor-McRae 54.	The Democratic majority in this county	Gore be remitted, the same has care for neither constitutional go- vernment nor the people so they are	were a little too rose-colored. After	Register of Deeds-Sumpson 472, Reed. 13, McLaurin 54	Coroner-Hewlett 576, Hays 108; Avant	will not exceed 100, a loss of 700 on the vote of 1876. It is reported that the Re-	Bank of New Hanover.
is largely Democratic. Gen.	protected and fostered. They use	were without foundation, and these feel-	Treasurer-Fenneil 54, Hewlett 478,	38. Sheriff-Manning 506, Bagg 109, Wat-	publicans gain a member of the Legisla-	licenses to retail spirituous liquo les is re-elected from the Fifth	their millions to debauch the people	were converted into truths when I reached	Bremer 17.	son 101.	ture in Lincoln county.	county of New Hanover: James Martin O'Bricn, Sarah J. Mey and to convert the ballot-box into an		Coroner-Hays 53, Hewlett 473, Avant 17 Surveyor-McRae 17.	Congress-Canaday 512, Shackelford 170,	ROBESON. Robeson elects the entire Democratic	Deumelandt, John W. Gerdts, I Ahrens, William Ulrich, M. C.
ity. He had to contend against	instrument of oppression. In the	seen the men who stood front to front in the great struggle now working side by side	Governor-Jarvis, 54, Buxton 480.	Kornegay 43. Governor-Jarvis 179, Buxton 508.	ticket with a Democratic loss of 16 votes.	son, F. A. Schutte, J. M. Breme Gleymyer, J. H. Grotjen, Pet inston, a Greenbacker, who was	hands of the corrupt and abandoned Government, backed by the countless	and talk freely and frankly on the future	Licutenant Governor-Robinson 53, Bar	Lieutenant G vernor-Robinson 178, Bar-	UNION. Union county gives 800 Democratic ma-	John F. Rulfs, George Steink Mugge, A. K. Heyer, C. Sten ing Keogi, the Radical caudidate.	millions of the rich men in the North,		ringer 480, Carr 1. Secretary of State-Saunders 54, Nor-	ringer 516	joiity, a Democratic loss of 20.	R. J. Scarborough, J. D. Stelje
MID CLOUDS AND DARKNESS.	the ballot box becomes more power-	THE LIWS UPHELD AND EN- FORCED.	ment 480.	Secretary of State-Saunders 176, Nor- ment 515.	CABARRUS.	Bryant, Eliza Burden, Lamb & C. F. VonKampen, R. H. Bordea ful than the cartridge box.	Law has been found necessary in	Auditor - Roberts 54, Cannon 480. Treasurer-Worth 54, Jenkins 480.	Auditor-Roberts 176, Cannon 515.	There is a Democratic loss in Cabarrus of 300, defeating Means, the regular nomi-	Schutte, E. W. Dascher, R. F. I Schulken, H. Schulken, J. G. Ol ep mortification and regret over		every condition of society. From	Superintendent of Public Instruction-	Tressurer-Worth 175, Jenkins 515. Superintendent of Public Instruction-	nee for the Legislature.	E. Bryson, Charles Wessell, John H. Litgen.
yond any selfish or local considera-	ocratic party. It has been defeated		Scarborough 54, Black 480.	Scarborough 176, Black 515.	ROWAN.	Oa motion the Board ad journe ns we can but mourn for the fu-	before. Only ten or twelve years ago it was utterly routed. It had	grated from place to place, there has	Attorney General-Kenan 88, Moore	Attorney General-Kenan 176, Moore	Rowan county gives 900 Democratic ma- jority.	on the first Monday in December re of our common country. The	but few members in either House of	been government. Even the savages have chiefs whose voice is heard and	Congress-Shackelford 54, Canaday 464,	D14. President-Hancock 183, Garfield 510,	GASTON.	MURDER AT SHOE HE west, meanest of American poli-	Congress, and the affairs of the coun-	whose mandates are obeyed. The	Kornegay 16.	Weaver 38.	Gaston county elects an Independent member of the Legislature, a Democratic	A Mulano Kills a White Man ians has been chosen by the domi-	is were an in and hands or and	last thing any people will tolerate is	President-Hancock 54, Garfield 476, Weaver 15.	Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 100	loss of 300.	capes.
nt North as a fit man to be their esident. The South has had no	cuciny. It has known the numination	anarchy. Dangerous men may preach	Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 52,	McLean 505. Fifth District-Gilmer 160, Headen 506.		A terrible murder was comm Shoe Heel, Robeson county, o rt or lot in the selection. Garfield	or ucreat and the joys or victory.	incendiary doctrines and arouse the	McLean 466. Fifth District-Gilmer 52,	Constable-Smith 358, Dicksey 157, Carr	The Oxonian is the title of a twelve page monthly devoted to	morning last, about 1 o'clock.
ll be no President of ours and of	We cannot, while resting under the sharp pains of recent defeat, un-	bad passions of the worst men, out	Headen 466. Public Debt AmendmentFor 49, against	39. • Amendment on Public Debt-For amend-	literature and education published at	that a young white man by the whole country. He has sold him-		at last there comes a time when the	2. All the barren and the strength of the	ment 120, sgainst amendment 2.	Oxford at 50 cents a year in advance.	Caton, who keeps a store at that a mulatto boy by the name of Pet
f to the Grant, Conkling, Cameron	of our party. Whether or not it will	best portions of society unite for their salvation, and when the wicked	Asylum Amendment-For 22, against	Amendment in Reference to Asylum-	Mr. J. C. Horner is the proprietor,	aged about 18 years, had a per
, and to them he owes his election	again denver barrie as a Brear e alon	and reckless undertake to overturn		For amendment 16; against 587.	and it is edited by the teachers in the	lision on the street, after which turned to his store. A short the ore than to any other cause. He Il gather a Stalwart Cabinet	party of principle and liberty we	society and destroy all law and	369.	HARNETT TOWNSHIP. Senate-Worth 80, Shepard 70, Scott	Horner School, but nainly by Prof.	quently a gentleman informed C order it is found that they are	Senate-worth a25. Scott 147. Suco-	113.	T. H. V. Jasmund so well known to our citizens. The initial number	Hines was threatening to have him
n who spit upon local self-govern-	petuity of true liberty and pure go-	met at the very threshold by	ard 8.	House-Meates 79, Morscley 79, Curtis 69, Holt 69, Wilson 113, Waddell 113.	makes an excellent beginning and we	on Monday for hitting-him, wher latter went out to the railroad, nt and the rights of independent	vernment on this Continent. Whether	those who have the power and	House-Meares 326, Moseley 323, Wad- dell 141, Wilson 141, Curtis 8, Holt 7,	69, Holt 69, Wilson 113, Waddell 113. Treasurer-Hewlett 118, Fennell 74,	hope it will be well sustained. It has	crowd of colored people had ates, and who rejoice with Garfield	it will disintegrate gradually, or cling	the minit of avil and to maintain	scattering 1	Bremer 73	the promise of timely help from com-	with Hines in their midst, and a what he intended to do about th the predominance of Hamiltonian	together with a greater tenacity and	fairil institutions and the social order	Tressurer-Fennell 327, Hewlett 146,	Register of Deeds-McLaurin 74,-Samp- son 112, Reed 70.	petent outside writers. It is pleased	Hines replied, "Nothing." Mr. aristocracy of the ood fish bird it	cohesiveness than ever before, we may not undertake to tell. Time only	No people like the Americans will	Bremer 11. Register of Deeds-McLaurin 323, Samp-	Coroner-Hays 73, Hewlett 118, Avant	in its salutatory to thus refer to this	advanced upon him, when he true, and will bask in the sunshine	can show.	Tong colerate communities views and	son 150, Reed 7.	70.	"The Ozonian undertakes to task, follow-	toldhim to keep off. They clin swung each other around in a cir the "powers that be" more than		principles after they become aggres-	Surveyor-Brown 1, McRae 8. Caroner-Avant 7, Hays 317, Hewlett	Sheriff-Bagg 62, Manning 114, Wat- son 92.	ing in the footsteps of its able contempor- ary, the Wilmington STAR, to urge upon	Hines told Caton to keep off, cal
a. 1. 1910 and the second s	from the clutches of venal men who		151. and graph setting to unly	Congress-Shackelford 86, Canaday 160,	parents the absolute necessity of giving to	the crowd to witness that he had, the warning. In the meantime
We say we mourn for the future	would blast and corrupt. Thank	carry into practical effect the dan-	I Depart Hand 986 Manning 158 Wal-	Kornegay 25. Governor-Jarvis 75, Buxton 173.	showing to townships and counties the	Hines by the collar, when the latte our country. With a bribe-taker,				Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 82, Bar-	high importance of increased facilities for educating the people, and to demand from the Legislature a liberal provision for an	knife and plunged it twice int insincere wonal debanched	God for that! North Carolina has	gerous, senseless, wicked and agrarian	CODELCOL. DAACACHOLGOLGOL	The start of the s	A REAL AND A REAL AND A REAL AND A REAL AND	body, the first thrust making a insincere, venal, debauched po-	its own bonest government. There	views that have been imported from	Kornegay 8.	rluger 173.	efficient supervision of schools."	the fight side near the groin /en insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may	its own honest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that.	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo-	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150.	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79,	efficient supervision of schools."	watch chain, and the second, w
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros-	its own honest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently,	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143.	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District – Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113.	Talk about your processions. When	watch chain, and the second, watch the left side, actually spl
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ation and national decadence. A	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering,	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor-	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District – Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84, Garfield 152,	efficient supervision of schools."	watch chain, and the second, the tered the left side, actually spi heart in twain. After receiving the
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of	its own honest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143.	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1.	Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of mean-will hardly desire honest,	its own honest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera-	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142.	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84, Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen.	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his cost, thr
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will	its own honest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Becretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar-	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84, Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par-	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his cletk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his cost, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell, back we
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of mean-will hardly desire honest, sh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore-	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MASONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never m has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may k for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ation and national decadence. A n of Garfield's type-meanest of mean-will hardly desire honest, sh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base n to those of elevated character d firm principle.	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless.	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143.	riuger 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84, Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MABONBORJ'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearce 24, Mosely 24, Waddell	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad-	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never may has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min wards.
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of a mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base in to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un-	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149,	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MASONBOR. ¹ . Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearce 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his cletk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his cost, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never may has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years - unmarried, and we learn that he
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A in of Garfield's type-meanest of a mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base on to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming?	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MASONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearce 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Brev mer 8.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st mst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent.	watch chain, and the second, w tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving th Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never m has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community.
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days frand and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330,	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84, Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MABONBORJ'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Bre- mer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22, Reed	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st mst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn-	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell, back was the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days frand and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer.	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty-nivil and re-	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Garfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MABONBOR.J. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Bre- mer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22, Reed 9, Sampson 47.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his cletk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell, back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tra
insincere, venal, debauched po- cian in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of a mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base on to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying,	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious.	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time.	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330,	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MASONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurin 22, Reed 9, Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae / Coroner-Hewlett 87, Hays 14, Avant 8.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st mst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what	watch chain, and the second, we there is the left side, actually split heart in twain. After receiving the chair, and walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never makes killed me?" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tray yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have committed the the may have community.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless ber! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty-civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884.	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time.	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Garfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152. Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Bre- mer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae / Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his cost, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell, back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tray yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have condinection a description of the
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South the people in the North. In 1880, arly sixteen years after the Con-	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home conserns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what?	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTION-AMIABLE, PREPOS- sessing American orphan girl, 14, cul-	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MABONBOR.'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Bre- mer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22, Reed 9, Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae / Coroner-Hewlett 87, Hays 14, Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36, Bagg 7, Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13, Canaday 48,	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st mst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spl heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store this clerk for his pistol, but imatterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never much has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four minewards. Caton was only about 22 years to unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tray yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have condinection a description of the may not be amiss. He is represented the tray is represented to the time the tray and the may not be amiss.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of a mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base on to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South the people in the North. In 1880, arly sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis-	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Among the oldest editors in the	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTION AMIABLE, PREPOS- seesing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse: full surrender: financial misfortune	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79, McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79, Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23, against 143. MASONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14, Worth 23, Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24, Mosely 24, Waddell 52, Wilson 43, Holt 12, Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89, Fennell 9, Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22, Reed 9, Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87, Hays 14, Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36, Bagg 7, Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13, Canaday 48, Shackelford 85. Governor-Jarvis 85, Buxton 58.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st mst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually spliheart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store this clerk for his pistol, but fin afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four minimaris. Caton was only about 22 years in unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tranyesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have com direction a description of the may not be amiss. He is represent to the model of the model of the model of the may not be amiss.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, ientless, bitter hatred of the South the people in the North. In 1880, arly sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis- ie and distrust is as great as it was	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State-let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty-civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Among the oldest editors in the State it is a pleasure to be able to	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTION AMIABLE, PREPOS- sessing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse; full surrender; financial misfortune requires adopted parents to reside abroad;	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Garfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367.	ringer 173. Judgec-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152. Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 23. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13. Canaday 48. Shackelford 85. Governor-Jarvis 35. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Bar-	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually splitheart in twain. After receiving a catom walked back to his store his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his cost, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tray yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have condinection a description of the may not be amiss. He is represent that and has before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high fore yery little, is snare-built and has have condinection with middling high fore yery little.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of a mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base on to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South the people in the North. In 1880, arly sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis- te and distrust is as great as it was hen the heroes of Lee after Appo-	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Among the oldest editors in the State it is a pleasure to be able to bear witness to the ability and effec-	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NOETHEEN SLAVEEY. A DOPTION-AMIABLE, PREPOS- seesing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse; full surrender; financial misfortune requires adopted parents to reside abroad; respectable persons willing to pay now for her future services address Mrs. CARRIE	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367. THIRD WARD. Senate-Worth 290, Seott 161, Shepard 8.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152. Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBOR.'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Bre- mer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae / Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 18. Canaday 48. Shackelford 85. Governor-Jarvis 85. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Bar- ringer 57.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now adopted to our wants. We will do better to -morrow.	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually splitheart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store this clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, the chair, and exclaimed, "Never im has killed me!" and fell, back we the floor, dying in about four min wards. Caton was only about 22 years unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tray yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have condinection a description of the may not be amiss. He is represent 18 years old, as before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high fore very little, is spare-built and ha ward look.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? 'e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South y the people in the North. In 1880, early sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis- ice and distrust is as great as it was hen the heroes of Lee after Appo- attox took their melancholy way to	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Among the oldest editors in the State it is a pleasure to be able to bear witness to the ability and effec- tiveness of our Democratic exchanges	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTION AMIABLE, PREPOS- sessing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse; full surrender; financial misfortune requires adopted parents to reside abroad; respectable persons willing to pay now for her future services address Mrs. CARRIE NEWTON, Philadelphis; reference ex- changed.	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- riager 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constabk-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367. THIRD WARD. Senate-Worth 290, Scott 161, Shepard 8. House-Mearbs 292, Moseley 290, Wil- son 159, Weddell 157, Ourtis 6, Holt 7.	ringer 173. Judges-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152, Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MASONBOR. ¹ . Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52, Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13. Canaday 48. Shackelford 85. Governor-Jarvis 35. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Bar- ringer 57. Secretary of State-Saunders 35. Nor- meat 57.	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now adopted to our wants. We will do better to -morrow. North Carolina is blessed—blessed	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually splitheart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store to his clerk for his pistol, but im afterwards pulled off his coat, three chair, and exclaimed, "Never min- has killed me!" and fell, back we the floor, dying in about four minu- wards. Caton was only about 22 years to unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tra- yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have com- direction a description of the may not be amiss. He is represe 18 years old, as before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high forei- very little, is spare-built and has ward look. The murder, of course, created eitement in the community.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days frand and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? 'e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South y the people in the North. In 1880, early sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis- ice and distrust is as great as it was hen the heroes of Lee after Appo- attox took their melancholy way to be homes of poverty and desolation.	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us nnite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what?	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTION AMIABLE, PREPOS- seesing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse; full surrender; financial misfortune requires adopted parents to reside abroad; respectable persons willing to pay now for her future services address Mrs. CARRIE NEWTON, Philadelphis; reference ex- changed. This is taken from the New York	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367. THIRD WARD. Senate-Worth 290, Scott 161, Shepard 8. House-Mearbs 292, Moseley 290, Wil- son 159, Waddell 157, Curtis 6, Holt 7. Treasurer-Fennell 293. Hewlett 163.	 ringer 173. Judgee-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152. Weaver 29. Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13. Canaday 48. Shackelford 35. Governor-Jarvis 35. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Barringer 57. Secretary of State-Saunders 35. Normeat 57. Auditor-Roberts 35. Cannon 57. 	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now adopted to our wants. We will do better to -morrow. North Carolina is blessed—blessed very greatly. It has most bountiful crops, it has a guarantee of good,	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually splitheart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store to his clerk for his pistol, but im- afterwards pulled off his coat, three chair, and exclaimed, "Never mi- has killed mel" and fell, back we the floor, dying in about four minu- wards. Caton was only about 22 years to unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tra- yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have com- direction a description of the may not be amisa. He is represe 18 years old, as before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high forei- very little, is spare-built and has ward look. The murder, of course, created eitement in the community.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- ution and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will efer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character d firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- pected and yet so overwhelming? 'e shall not have to go far to find e answer. First and chiefest is the undying, lentless, bitter hatred of the South y the people in the North. In 1880, early sixteen years after the Con- derate banner was furled, the dis- te and distrust is as great as it was hen the heroes of Lee after Appo- attox took their melancholy way to be homes of poverty and desolation. he main cause of the defeat of	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us unite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the angient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Among the oldest editors in the State it is a pleasure to be able to bear witness to the ability and effec- tiveness of our Democratic exchanges	views that have been imported from the Continent of Kurope, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NORTHERN SLAVEEY. A DOPTION—AMIABLE, PREPOS- tured, industrious and excellent child's requires adopted parents to reside abroad; respectable persons willing to pay now for her future services address Mrs. CARRIE NEWTON, Philadelphis; reference ex- changed. This is taken from the New York Herald. Here we have a direct	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Gilmer 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constabk-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367. THIRD WARD. Senate-Worth 290, Seott 161, Shepard 8. House-Meares 292, Moseley 290, Wil- son 159, Waddell 157, Curtis 6, Holt 7. Treasurer-Fennell 293, Hewlett 163, Bremer 8.	 ringer 173. Judgee-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 153. Weaver 29 Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurin 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13. Canaday 48. Shackelford 85. Governor-Jarvis 35. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Barringer 57. Secretary of State-Saunders 35. Normeat 57. Auditor-Roberts 35. Cannon 57. Treasurer-Worth 35. Jenkins 57. 	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now adopted to our wants. We will do better to -morrow. North Carolina is blessed—blessed very greatly. It has most bountiful crops, it has a guarantee of good, just, honest government at home.	watch chain, and the second, we tered the left side, actually split heart in twain. After receiving the Caton walked back to his store a bis clerk for his pistol, but im- afterwards pulled off his coat, three chair, and exclaimed, "Never mi- has killed me!" and fell, back was the floor, dying in about four minu- wards. Caton was only about 22 years of unmarried, and we learn that he respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the tra- yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have com- direction a description of the may not be amiss. He is represent 18 years old, as before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high foreit very little, is spare-built and has ward look. The murder, of course, created eitement in the community. PERSONAL.
insincere, venal, debauched po- ician in the highest place we may ok for a return of the Grant days fraud and crime, of political pros- tation and national decadence. A an of Garfield's type-meanest of e mean-will hardly desire honest, gh-toned men about him. He will refer tricksy, pliable, corrupt, base en to those of elevated character and firm principle. But how came the defeat—so un- spected and yet so overwhelming? Ve shall not have to go far to find he answer. First and chiefest is the undying, ilentless, bitter hatred of the South y the people in the North. In 1880, early sixteen years after the Con- iderate banner was furled, the dis- ke and distrust is as great as it was hen the heroes of Lee after Appo- nattox took their melancholy way to be homes of poverty and desolation. he main cause of the defeat of Vinfield S. Hancock—a hero with-	its own bonest government. There is great cause for rejoicing in that. All is not lost. We may now attend to home concerns more diligently, while the Garfield crew are running the Old Ship of State upon rocks and amid whirlpools. Let us, true men of the State—let us nnite and stand by old North Carolina, may God fore- fend and bless her! Come what may, let us be faithful amid the faithless. Let us unite our shields to uphold and protect the ancient honor of our mother and to save to our children the heritage of liberty—civil and re- ligious. After Garfield then Grant in 1884. And then what? Monog the oldest editors in the State it is a pleasure to be able to bear witness to the ability and effec- tiveness of our Democratic exchanges in North Carolina during the cam- paign just ended. We do not know	views that have been imported from the Continent of Europe, that mo- ment a match will be applied to the mine of the people's long suffering, and such an explosion will be heard throughout this whole country as will fairly startle the reckless despera- does who would topple in ruins the grandest and stateliest and most beneficent fabric that was ever reared by the genius and wisdom of man. Our people will give great latitude to free speech, but lawless- ness and crime will not be tolerated for any length of time. NOETHERN SLAVERY. A DOPTIONAMIABLE, PREPOS- sessing American orphan girl, 14, cul- tured, industrious and excellent child's nurse; full surrender; financial misfortune requires adopted parents to reside abroad; respectable persons willing to pay now for her future services address Mrs. CARRIE NEWTON, Philadelphis; reference ex- changed. This is taken from the New York Herald. Here we have a direct proposition to reduce a free-born Amarican will horeaved of parents	Kornegay 8. Governor-Jarvis 320, Buxton 150. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 324, Bar- ringer 143. Secretary of State-Saunders 323, Nor- ment 143. Auditor-Roberts 324, Cannon 143. Treasurer-Worth 326, Jenkins 142. Superintendent Public Instruction-Scar- borough 325, Black 144. Attorney General-Kenan 325, Moore 143. President-Hancock 338, Gatfield 149, Weaver 6. Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 330, McLean 147. Fifth District-Gilmer 330, Headen 147. Constable-Dicksey 296, Carr 74, Smith 76. Public Debt Amendment-For 285, against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 22, against 367. THIRD WARD. Senate-Worth 290, Seott 161, Shepard 8. House-Mearbs 292, Moseley 290, Wil- son 159, Waddell 157, Curtis 6, Holt 7. Treasurer-Fennell 293, Hewlett 163, Bremet 8. Register of Deeda-MeLaurin 383, Samp-	 ringer 173. Judgee-Fourth District - Bennett 79. McLean 113. Fifth District-Gilmer 79. Headen 113. President-Hancock 84. Garfield 152. Weaver 29. Debt Amendment-For 74. against 1. Asylum Amendment-For 23. against 143. MABONBORD'. Senate-Shepard 14. Worth 23. Scott 52. House-Mearcs 24. Mosely 24. Waddell 52. Wilson 43. Holt 12. Curtis 12. Treasurer-Hewlett 89. Fennell 9. Brewmer 8. Register of Deeds-McLaurip 22. Reed 9. Sampson 47. Surveyor-McRae Coroner-Hewlett 87. Hays 14. Avant 8. Sheriff-Manning 36. Bagg 7. Watson 66. Congress-Kornegay 13. Canaday 48. Shackelford 35. Governor-Jarvis 35. Buxton 58. Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 35. Barringer 57. Secretary of State-Saunders 35. Normeat 57. Auditor-Roberts 35. Cannon 57. 	efficient supervision of schools." Talk about your processions. When Mr. Parnell visited Limerick, Ire- land, on the 1st inst., he was es- corted by a procession numbering 50,000, including 3,000 horsemen. Ireland is stirred to its centre. Par- nell, in his speech, was for getting rid of the great proprietors. He ad- vised the people in the meantime to offer just rent. Our exchanges are dated the morn- ing of the election and there is nothing in them but what is to be, and what must be done. They are very dry reading at this present writing and we cannot glean anything now adopted to our wants. We will do better to -morrow. North Carolina is blessed—blessed very greatly. It has most bountiful crops, it has a guarantee of good,	Caton walked back to his store as his clerk for his pistol, but imp afterwards pulled off his cost, three chair, and exclaimed, "Never min- has killed mel" and fell back was the floor, dying in about four minu- wards. Caton was only about 22 years of unmarried, and we learn that he was respected in the community. Hines escaped after committing der, and up to the time the trai- yesterday morning he was still at it is likely that he may have com- direction a description of the may not be amiss. He is represent 18 years old, as before stated, is a mulatto, with middling high forei- very little, is spare-built and has ward look. The mutder, of course, created eitement in the community.

Coronnr-Hays 284, Hewlett 161, Av pose such an advertisement appeared Weaver 11. bis official work as Postmaster General of rested one Willam Davis, colored, yesterbrought about by the unstinted use exciting canvass have been noticea-Sheriff-Bagg 264, Munning 163, Wat-Judges-Fourth District-Bennett 80, Great Britain to interfere with his professional duties as Professor of Political in this paper and one of the Northern day, who escaped from the penitentiary of money. Men were bought just as ble. We do not think we have Redital condiduce for Lichen McLean 47. Fifth District-Gilmer 30, fanatics and negrophilists got hold some time last year. The officer is not in-formed of the man's offence, or of the term for which he was sentenced. He is said to be from the western part of the State. He states himself, however, that he formerly lived in Onslow county. some time last year. The officer is not in-Congress-Shackelford 288, Canaday 168, hogs are bought in the markets of known the Democratic papers to be Headen 47. of it what a preachment he would Kornegsy 5, Scattering 2. Cincinnati and Louisville. Probably so efficient and earnest and forceful Public Debt Amendment-For, 15. Governor-Jarvis 300, Buxton 163 make over it. The "higher civilizaa hundred million of dollars was as they have been in the great strug-Asylum Amendment-For, 7, against 77. tion" can tolerate such things, how-Lieutenant Governor-Robinson 301. Constable-Elder 63, Fergus 35. expended in bribery on election day. gle of 1880. We could specify some Barringer 162: all Jadi the weather No official returns from Cape Fear and ever, and no indignation meetings are Probably half of this vast sum came he formerly lived in Oaslow county. weeklies that have been particularly - Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, begun an action for libel against the *Iri-*bune, laying his damages at $5,000. The Iribune published an article saying that the Mayor had counseled the Democrats to take forcible possession of the poils and Secretary of State-Saunders 299, Nor-Federal Point Townships. held and no denunciations from the out of the taxes of the people that strong and useful, but it is better mentilengen to guisierslot tol ina COLUMBUS. WHITEVILLE, N. C., November 2 - The - It is ramored on the streets political pulpits of political churches had been placed in the United States Auditor -Roberts 300, Cannon 162. perhaps to make no invidious dethat Mr. Canaday intends to confest the are heard. An exchange says of the stinctions. Tressurer-Worth 300, Jenkins 162. indications as far as heard from are that Treasury for safe keeping. election of Mr. Shackelford to Congress. "cultured American orphan girl of Superintendent Public Instruction-Columbus gives 600 to 650 Democratic ma-Upon these two great factors in We can't see upon what grounds. Playing with a buzz-saw is neither Scarborough 300, Black 161. jority. Some claim 700. fourteen" who is to be sold into sla-J. P. Carr, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Augusta, Ga.: "Tutt's Fills have been used in my case (Torpor of the Liver) and in my family, with marked success. I be-lieve them superior in all biliary derange." I be-lieve them superior in all biliary derange. American politics rested the hopes funny nor comforting. No reference Attorney General-Kenon 800, Moore BRUNSWICK. very with "a full surrender": and success of Radicalism-hatred SMITHVILLE, November 3 - The Repubsuri al President-Hancock 301, Gatfield 159, lican gain in Smithville township is 22. We flemomber that if you faiteway have made slight gains in Lockwood's have made slight gains in Lockwood's Folly township, Shallotte township and Waccamaw, and the Republican majority Waccamaw, and the Republican majority anch will find the A. S. T. Ce,'s Black Tip, advertised in another column, just the thing they have been looking for. Beantiful, neat, they will wear as long as the metal. Judges-Fourth | Districter Bennett 201, McLean 159 Fifth District-Gilmer 301, in the county will be 110. never fail." S.1 51