

Yesterday the convention met at Commons Hall, being called to order by Geo. W. Price, of New Hanover.

George Lane, of Pasquotank, said that if the white Republicans were indifferently repudiated, the colored men would never be anything but hewers of wood and drawers of water and cleaners of spittoons.

A resolution of thanks was tendered Mr. W. P. Canaday, of Wilmington, for the stand he has taken in favor of the negro.

Stewart Ellison, of Wake, introduced a resolution endorsing Colonel Ike Young, and advising his retention in office.

Hill of New Hanover, introduced a resolution in regard to what he termed the ignoring of the negro by the Democrats.

The chairman announced the following as the committee to wait on President Garfield: Geo. W. Price, Jr., A. Hicks, Jr., J. C. Price, I. B. Abbott, J. E. O'Hara, J. H. Harris, M. F. Thornton, John H. Law, J. T. Reynolds, E. W. Turner, J. S. Leary, J. H. Williamson.

A committee on credentials, composed of W. V. Turner, James H. Harris, J. C. Price, John H. Law, John S. Leary, was appointed. While they were examining papers, speeches were made by George L. Mabson and John H. Williamson.

The following were chosen Vice Presidents: Augustus Robbins, E. E. Smith, J. S. Leary, J. H. Williamson, J. H. B. Waugh, H. H. Martin, H. J. C. Chambers, J. H. Montgomery.

L. R. Ferrebee, a delegate from Granville, withdrew from the convention. He was not allowed a seat by the committee on Credentials.

had that no personalities would be indulged in; that no aspersions would be cast on any white office holder in the State, but that it would be a united effort of the representative colored men of North Carolina to elevate their race and see that they received a just recognition in the division of the spoils of office.

Ague Cure

Is a purely vegetable bitter and powerful tonic, and is warranted a speedy and certain cure for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, and all malarial disorders.

It is a startling fact, that quinine, arsenic and other poisonous minerals, form the basis of most of the "Fever and Ague Preparations," "Specifics," "Syrups," and "Tonics," in the market.

For Liver Complaints, AYE'S AGUE CURE, by direct action on the liver and biliary apparatus, drives out the poisons which produce these complaints, and stimulates the system to a vigorous, healthy condition.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

HAS NEVER FAILED. When used according to the printed directions it will cure every case of Ague, Fever, and Chills, in the most unobtrusive manner.
