

10 Months	12.00
6 Months	8.00
3 Months	5.00
1 Month	1.50

Entered at the Post Office at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Subscription Price.

The subscription price of the WEEKLY STAR is as follows: Single Copy 1 year, postage paid, $1.50

WHEELS AND WHEELS.

In a brief paragraph yesterday we referred to the proposed Protectionists convention to meet in New York November 24.

Some of the Protectionists think that "American labor" suffers from the present high-protective, war tariff.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

Rev. Campbell, Canon of St. Peters at Rome, has abjured Romanism and united with the Methodists.

THE MOST RIDICULOUS THING WE HAVE MET WITH IN POLITICS.

The most ridiculous thing we have met with in politics in a long time is the display of atrocious indignation on the part of the organs because the Democrats have a notion of electing one of their number President of the Senate.

There is one Republican paper that sees through the guise and probes the nonsense. The Philadelphia American says of the proposed arrangement:

Some Republican newspapers are trying to trick the Democrats into abandoning their purpose to elect a President of the Senate, in case of Mr. Garfield's death.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

THE MOST RIDICULOUS THING WE HAVE MET WITH IN POLITICS.

The most ridiculous thing we have met with in politics in a long time is the display of atrocious indignation on the part of the organs because the Democrats have a notion of electing one of their number President of the Senate.

There is one Republican paper that sees through the guise and probes the nonsense. The Philadelphia American says of the proposed arrangement:

Some Republican newspapers are trying to trick the Democrats into abandoning their purpose to elect a President of the Senate, in case of Mr. Garfield's death.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

THE MOST RIDICULOUS THING WE HAVE MET WITH IN POLITICS.

The most ridiculous thing we have met with in politics in a long time is the display of atrocious indignation on the part of the organs because the Democrats have a notion of electing one of their number President of the Senate.

There is one Republican paper that sees through the guise and probes the nonsense. The Philadelphia American says of the proposed arrangement:

Some Republican newspapers are trying to trick the Democrats into abandoning their purpose to elect a President of the Senate, in case of Mr. Garfield's death.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

THE MOST RIDICULOUS THING WE HAVE MET WITH IN POLITICS.

The most ridiculous thing we have met with in politics in a long time is the display of atrocious indignation on the part of the organs because the Democrats have a notion of electing one of their number President of the Senate.

There is one Republican paper that sees through the guise and probes the nonsense. The Philadelphia American says of the proposed arrangement:

Some Republican newspapers are trying to trick the Democrats into abandoning their purpose to elect a President of the Senate, in case of Mr. Garfield's death.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

THE MOST RIDICULOUS THING WE HAVE MET WITH IN POLITICS.

The most ridiculous thing we have met with in politics in a long time is the display of atrocious indignation on the part of the organs because the Democrats have a notion of electing one of their number President of the Senate.

There is one Republican paper that sees through the guise and probes the nonsense. The Philadelphia American says of the proposed arrangement:

Some Republican newspapers are trying to trick the Democrats into abandoning their purpose to elect a President of the Senate, in case of Mr. Garfield's death.

Are the taxes too heavy? Is there need of all the moneys that come into the United States Treasury from the war taxes levied upon the people?

Some persons favor abolishing the taxes for a double purpose, as it is said. First, that the States themselves may levy such taxes for the General Government as may be deemed sufficient.

The New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger, in its mention of the proposed convention, says of the discussions concerning it in New York:

When these manufacturers, who are so mean interested in their pockets in the continuance of a high protective tariff, with alterations, are the prime movers in the proposed convention, it is well enough to keep one's eyes open and read between the lines carefully.

Spirits in the Wind.

Mr. A. Gilliland, of Chatham, had eight barrels of whisky stolen from him recently.

Rev. E. A. Wingard had resigned the pastorate of the Lutheran Church in Charlotte.

Charlotte Observer: Ben Brown was sentenced to be executed on the 23rd of November for burglary.

We receive the New Becho News daily and the New Star weekly, but both are dated - low price.

Danbury Reporter: Hundreds of dead forest trees may be seen from Danbury, standing along the slopes and on top of the Saratoga mountain, killed by the dry, hot weather.

The Advocate reports revival results as follows: Tolson, 23 converts, 14 accessions; Joseph circuit, 28 converts, 17 accessions; Stanley circuit, 12 converts, 6 accessions; Rockingham circuit, 23 converts, 25 accessions; New River circuit, 20 converts, 27 accessions; Alexander circuit, 17 accessions.

Oxford Torchlight: H. C. F. Fitch of Salem, North Carolina, sent Mr. Mills, for the Attyim, a few days since, a most valuable contribution in the way of cloth for the children this winter.

The Raleigh Recorder reports revival as follows: Whitaker, 20 conversions, 13 baptisms; Dabbs, 18 conversions, 13 baptisms; Stokes, 6 conversions; Cameron, 10 conversions; Moore's Chapel, Alamance, 10 conversions; Cedar Springs, 7 professions; Shiloh, 11 professions; Beulah, 20 conversions, 9 baptisms.

Raleigh Recorder: Rev. K. T. Vann has been called to preach for the church at Mars Hill, Bertie county, and has accepted.

Winston Sentinel: Mr. Airy has a natural wonder about two miles east of her borders, known as the "Great Rock."

Durham Recorder: A negro man is going about the streets here who seems to be bullet-proof.

Tolson: Home: At Lovett's mill, in Nash county, last Sunday, there were 78 persons baptised - 28 male and 45 females - all of whom joined the Baptist church at Samaria.

Fayetteville Examiner: We learn that a white man crossed the Cape Fear river last week in a way somewhat out of the usual order.

A negro child was found murdered at Charlotte. The Observer says: A ghastly wound just above the right ear had broken the skull from temple to temple.

Raleigh News-Observer: The wind and rain storm of Friday last injured the cotton at points on the line of the Carolina Central and Raleigh & Augusta Railways.

A cable dispatch from Rome announces that the Rev. Harry F. Aloysius Northrop, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Charleston, S. C., has been named Vicar-Apostolic of North Carolina.

Vicar-Apostolic of North Carolina: A cable dispatch from Rome announces that the Rev. Harry F. Aloysius Northrop, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Charleston, S. C., has been named Vicar-Apostolic of North Carolina.

The case of W. C. Mooney, the old man from Shalotte, Brunswick county, charged with attempting to fraudulently obtain money from the Government, on the plea that he served as a soldier in the war of 1812, which has been in course of investigation before U. S. Commissioner McGehee for the past two or three days.

An old-fashioned minister, passing a new-fashioned church, on which a spire was going up, was asked how much higher it was going to be.

An old-fashioned minister, passing a new-fashioned church, on which a spire was going up, was asked how much higher it was going to be.