ke a white lady from her bed. And jagged brazen arrows fall Athwart the feathers of the night, And a long wave of yellow light Breaks stlently on tower and hall,

And spreading wide across the wold, Wakes into flight some fluttering bird, And all the chestnut tops are stirred, And all the branches streaked with gold. Coulog Married in North Carolina.

Reldsville Times. A couple from Virginia landed in Milton the other morning to be mar-ried by 'Squire Lewis. They walked and-in-hand up Main street and took a seat upon the front steps of the 'Squire's office, and the man asked for the license. As the 'Squire was reparing to make it out, the buxom girl began to inch off, and hesitated, and finally said to the young man, in half whisper: "John, I don't believe I will-I never did feel so flustrated-lawd! I wonder what pappy's doing now—I feel right tremblesome—less go back;

come on, John." "Well, you don't want the license, then?" said the 'Squire.

"Hold on thar, Mister; yes, we do," said the man; and he moved closer up and set his chin to earnest work. "Now, Sally," said he, "don't go on thater way; what 'ud the folks say? It 'ud be awful hard on me. An' thar's the candy stew at Bob Brown's to-night, an' aller that; an' Sukey Jones would jest die a-grinnin, over you about it. She was mad as pizen yisterday when she heard we was comin'-"I don't mind her no more'n the dust off my feet, but I feel so skittishlike, John; wish'ermydie ef I hain't sorry we come. I don't want'er get married, John."

"Say, Mister, fix on your papers," said John. "Marryin's nuthin; no more'n standin' up in spellin' class at Oldfield School."

"Well, stand up," said the 'Squire. "I'm ready." But as the ceremony was under way the girl jerked back, exclaiming: "I'll be Johndinged ef I do!" The 'Squire suggested that the liense had been given, and they had one most too far to back out now. "That's so!" said John. "Stand ast, Sally! Don't git all in'er quiver low," gently taking her arm. "Com'er

"You bet 'tis - easy as spellin'; and now we'll go," said the man; and they mounted the horse double and rode out of town.

Mummtes Identified.

Twenty-six of the mummies discovered near Thebes have been identified by the scientific resurrectionists their own satisfaction; and the London Saturday Review says that it would not be easy to exaggerate the mportance of the find. As catalogued, they are: Kings Amosis, Amenophis, Pinotem, Thotmes I., H. and III., Ramses I. and II. and Seti I.; Queens Ashmes Nofert Arı, Arhotep, An, Setka and various other royal personages of the seventeenth, ighteenth, nineteenth and twentyfirst dynasties, the latest of whom reigned a thousand years before the Christian era. The inscriptions and papyri when fully read will, in all probability, throw a flood of light upon what is now a dark place to Egyptologists-the great middle period of Egyptian history, which includes the captivity and exodus of the Jews.

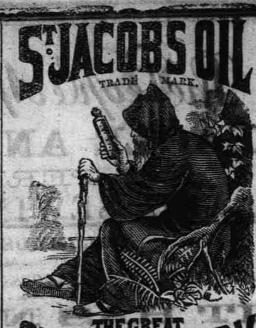

Gultenu's Curtous Calendar. Washington Dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial.

some curiosity having been expressed as to the manner in which Guiteau kept his reckoning so as to know that Thursday last was his birthday, Warden Crocker undertook to find out for a reporter. The war-den proceeded to Guiteau's cell, and, as he reported afterward, the following conversation ensued: "Well, Mr. Guiteau," said the warden, "can you tell me how it is you can fix the date of your birthday, having been so long confined?" "That's easy enough. I will show you," replied Guiteau and drawing a chart since Guteau, and drawing a short piece of candle from under the mattress of his bed he held it up and said: "Just count the days on that." General Crocker looked at the piece of candle and saw upon it a number of nicks, and counting them saw that they were marked up to date and that Guiteau had by no means lost his reckoning.

A Popular Lie. Pittsburg Advocate.

Religion divorced from morality is a lie. Morality divorced from religion wants vitality. It lacks its most essential quality, that which gives it tone, fibre, character, exaltation, endurance. The religion that sees God's order everywhere, in everything, in the least as well as in the greatest relations of life, and then seeks harmony therewith; seeks to the soul in happy accord with the divine pleasure, trying to fulfil the duties that come with cheerful hearts, is that sort of religion that will transfix life with a heavenly glory, carry its torch undimmed through the valley of the shadow of death, and blaze on, without relighting, when religion and morality are lost in that charity that never faileth.

IRON

Is a preparation of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark and the Phosphates, associated with the Vegetable Aromatics. Endorsed by the Medical Profession, and recommended by them for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Female Discuss, Want of Vitality, Nervous Progration, Convalescence from Fevers and Chronic Chills and Fever. Itserves every purpose where a Tonic is necessary. Manufactured by The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., St. Louis. The following is one of the very many testime-nials we are receiving daily:

nals we are receiving daily:

Gentlemen:—Some three months ago I began the use of Dr. HARTER'S Inov Tonic, upon the advice of many friends who knew its virtues. I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that my labor was exceedingly burdensome to me. A vacation of a month did not give me much relief, but on the contrary, was followed by increased prostration and sinking chills. At this time I began the use of your IRON TONIC, from which I realized almost immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently abated. I have used three bottles of the TONIC. Since using it I have done twice the labor that I ever did in the same time during my illness, and with double the ease. With the trangull nerve and vigor of body, has come also a cleamess of thought never before enjoyed. If the TONIC has not done the work, I know not what, I give it the credit.

Most gratefully yours,

Teachers' Home Agency. A LL PERSONS WHO WISH GOOD TEACH-ers, and all Teachers who wish Good Positions, and all Young Men and Women who desire to make themselves Good Teachers, apply to S. HASSELL, A. M., Seperintendent State Normal School, Halifond Matters. Pittsboro Record.

We invite the careful attention of our readers to the statement of Senator Vance, elsewhere published. As a sentinel, guarding the interests of the people of North Carolina, he sounds the note of alarm, and places himself squarely in opposition to a powerful corporation that is so hurtful to those interests. In doing this he should receive the hearty support of every North Carolinian. In this contest he is a worthy champion of our people, and should he succeed in thwarting the schemes of the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company, and freeing us from the coils with which they would surround us, he will become more than ever before the favorite of all North Carolinians. Zeb Vance's devotion to North Carolina was proven long years ago-during the dark days that overshadowed us in the war-and that love for his State now prompts him to come to her rescue when she is imperilled by this grinding railroad corporation. In this struggle Senstor Vance is acting the part of a patriot, and not a demagogue. Already the people of North Carolina have honored him as they have no other man, and they have taken delight in conferring their highest offices upon him. He is not seeking office or popularity; of that we may rest assured, for both he already has,

This railroad contest has become the great issue of the day in this State, and may absorb all others. It affects our people more than any other. The question is, shall the people of North Carolina become "hewers of wood and drawers of water" to the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company? Shall we allow this gigantic corporation to obtain control of all our railroads and oppress us with exorbitant freight charges? Shall we allow our North Carolina railroads to discriminate against, and thus injure, our own towns and cities?
