

Table with 4 columns: Year, Total Revenue, Total Expenditure, Balance. Rows for 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883.

ADVERTISING SCHEDULE. Single Copy 1 cent. 6 months 1.00. 1 year 1.50.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE. The subscription price of the WEEKLY STAR is as follows: Single Copy 1 cent. 6 months 1.00. 1 year 1.50.

RADICALS RESPONSIBLE. The Radical effort at tax reduction proved a magnificent fiasco.

The Radical effort at tax reduction proved a magnificent fiasco. The bill has been put to sleep until next winter. It was a sham in conception, in progress and in its final disposition.

The continuation of the public burdens is to be laid at the door of the Radical party. The North Carolina Radicals in convention assembled took high ground for the retention of the revenue system and the present high protective tariff.

We have been accustomed to hear frequent and loud boasts of the superb capacity of the Republican party for legislative work. In this respect that party has been in the habit of challenging comparison with the Democracy.

The public speakers should not fail to errand the Republican party for their crime of omission, and for their legislation to favor the monopolists and money gods of the North.

Figures are instructive. They give us something tangible to build on. Let us glance at the Federal taxation. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, the total taxes were $330,000,000.

The new daily Democratic paper is to be started shortly at Charlotte with the above title. Col. A. M. Waddell, of this city, is to be editor-in-chief.

Much to the surprise of everybody familiar with the case, we learn, Mr. Timothy C. Orr, the old gentleman who was so badly stabbed by his youngest son near Lillington, Fender county, on Saturday last, the 30th inst., is recovering.

THE WEEKLY STAR.

VOL. XIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, AUGUST 11, 1882.

NO. 41

lows the rate of increase that has obtained during the last two years, there will be collected in taxes this year about $450,000,000, or nearly $50,000,000 more than was collected last year.

ASTRINGENT ILLUSTRATIVE POINT. We find in the Examiner's report of Judge Bennett's speech at Fayetteville a point concerning county government that is too good to be overlooked.

What have the Republican party in the Congress of the United States done for the District of Columbia? According to the census, the district had about 88,000 white votes and about 48,000 colored votes.

We thank Judge Bennett for bringing out the illustrative point: the negroes and corrupt white men run the District under the demagogical cry that ignorance and vice have a right to control the taxpayers.

In the District of Columbia, after trying with most disastrous and sickening results the control of the negro element, the Radical Congress was so undemocratic—that is to say, was so much persuaded that "the people" ought not to elect the men who levy the taxes—that it changed the whole thing and gave the control of the District to persons appointed by President Arthur.

The voters of New Hanover should never forget what was done in the way of taxes in their county when the negroes were the bosses and controlled the finances.

The Examiner makes the following judicious comment upon the District of Columbia negro experiment. It says: "Having tried it two years—not so long as they compelled us to submit to it in North Carolina, they found the credit of the law was destroyed."

A new daily Democratic paper is to be started shortly at Charlotte with the above title. Col. A. M. Waddell, of this city, is to be editor-in-chief.

Much to the surprise of everybody familiar with the case, we learn, Mr. Timothy C. Orr, the old gentleman who was so badly stabbed by his youngest son near Lillington, Fender county, on Saturday last, the 30th inst., is recovering.

AT SMITHVILLE.

The First Gun of the Campaign Fired with Splendid Effect—Speeches by Green, Bennett and Jarvis. The steamers Passport and Minnehaha, the latter decked with flags and bunting, left their wharves yesterday morning for Smithville, having on board Gov. T. J. Jarvis, Hon. R. T. Bennett, Democratic candidate for Congressman-at-Large, and Col. Wharton J. Green, our nominee for Congress from this District, and a goodly number from this city, who were going down to hear the discussion.

On arrival at the port of destination about 11 o'clock, the speakers were met and greeted by a goodly crowd of Brunswick and the most hospitable citizens. After the usual shaking of hands, introductions, &c., the crowd repaired to the Hotel Brunswick, where they were handsomely entertained by Capt. Perry and his courteous assistants.

About 12 o'clock the large concourse of people, with eager expectancy, gathered around the side piazza of the Hotel Brunswick, and Dr. W. G. Curtis introduced the first speaker, Col. W. J. Green, our nominee for Congress from this District.

Col. Green made a short but felicitous speech, that was attentively listened to and greatly liked. He said he was proud to represent the Democracy of such a District, for in point of intelligence it had no superior inside or outside of North Carolina.

This was the Colonel's first effort in this section, and he made an impression that was very gratifying, winning many friends and earning the esteem of all hearers.

Judge Bennett, our nominee for Congressman-at-Large, was the next speaker, and was introduced in a happy style by Capt. V. V. Richardson. Col. Bennett spoke for nearly three hours and a half. His speech was pronounced by every one Democrats and Republicans—a splendid effort, many hesitatingly declaring it the greatest campaign speech they had ever heard.

Gov. Jarvis commenced speaking just as we were compelled to leave, so we were without a report of his speech, but he will also speak to-morrow night, and our citizens will then have an opportunity to hear him in person.

There ought to be a tremendous crowd to hear the speakers to-morrow night, and we do not doubt that there will be.

More Horse Thieves Around. The sheriff was notified yesterday by John Gatling, Esq., a member of the legal fraternity of Raleigh, now sojourning at Morehead City, that two fine and handsome mares had been stolen from his stables at that place on the night of Wednesday, the 2nd inst., and that he has reason to suspect that the thief will make his way in this direction.

SMITHVILLE.

Exciting Now Instigated by a Turbulent Colored Man—He is Arrested and Escaped by a Mob—The Marines from the Revenue Cutter Colfax Come to the Rescue. Smithville was the scene of considerable excitement yesterday. It seems that a colored individual, by the name of Sam Kelly, was asked by a Mr. Weeks for some money he owed him, when Kelly commenced cursing Weeks. The brother of the latter interrupted and finally a general row ensued, during which Kelly drew a knife and tried to use it upon the Messrs. Weeks, two brothers by the name of Piver, and others.

In the meantime the authorities had applied to the Revenue Cutter, which was lying in the harbor, for assistance in maintaining law and order, and about fifteen marines, under command of Lieut. Ross, were sent ashore. As soon as the mob perceived the reinforcement approaching they fled precipitately to the woods, carrying the prisoner with them, and the marines scoured the neighborhood in search of Kelly, but failed to find him. They succeeded, however, in arresting five or six of the ringleaders of the mob who rescued the prisoner, and they were held for investigation.

A Capital Case. The case of Sam. Reese, colored, charged with committing a nameless outrage upon a colored girl named Jennie Hall, on the night of Sunday, the 30th ult., came up for examination before Justice Hill at the Court House yesterday. The investigation commenced at 10 o'clock and continued for five hours, during which time about forty witnesses were examined, there being about an equal number summoned for each side, and we learn that Officer Simon A. Richardson, who was charged with getting this large array of witnesses together, found it quite a serious undertaking, having to go to some of their houses before day in order to catch the inmates at home.

After a patient hearing of the case, and brief arguments from counsel, the magistrate announced that he would commit the defendant for the action of the Grand Jury at the approaching term of the Criminal Court, without the benefit of bail.

Reese is a young man, probably about thirty years of age, and is well known about town. Mr. Solicitor Moore appeared for the State, and Mr. Marsden Bellamy for the defence.

One of the Exorcionists that Paid Debt for his Trip. We learn that one of the exorcionists from the neighborhood of Goldsboro' got himself into a right serious scrape while at Smithville on Wednesday. He is said by some to be a young man of good habits and excellent reputation, but in the giddy whirl of excitement and confusion with which he was surrounded, and being in a strange place, he indulged too freely in intoxicating beverages, and ere he was aware of it, was so tipsy that he didn't know how to behave himself. While in this state he came across a young lady, the daughter of a respected citizen of Smithville, and snatched a kiss from her, and some say passed his arm around her, for which liberty the unappreciated youth (as we have the charity to presume him to have been) was soon after arrested and taken before the Mayor of the town, who sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and the costs; and we learn that he only escaped imprisonment as a part of the penalty of his indiscretion through the intercession of friends.

Rev. W. M. Robey, editor of the Methodist Advance, at Goldsboro', and pastor of the Methodist church at that place, has been on a short visit to this city during the present week, and assisted in conducting the services at the weekly prayer meeting at the Front Street M. E. Church Wednesday evening.

Rev. W. T. Jordan, son of Rev. F. M. Jordan, the evangelist, who is so well known in Wilmington, was in the city yesterday on his way to Smithville, where he is to assist in a revival, which is in progress in the Baptist church there.

The following were the foreign shipments yesterday: The Norwegian barkentine Polander, Capt. Henriksen, for Antwerp, by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co., with 1,750 casks of spirits turpentine, and 142 barrels of rosin, valued at $36,000; and the British barkentine Ellen Holt, Capt. Duncan, for Rosario, Argentine Republic, by Messrs. Edward Kidder & Son, with 244,739 feet of lumber, valued at $4,708.22. Total value of foreign exports for the day, $40,774.22.

NORTH CAROLINA.

R. B. Vance Nominated for Congress in the Eighth District—Fire at Carthage—State Property Recovered from United States Authorities—Republican Opposition to the Coalition Movement. (Special Star Telegram.) ASHEVILLE, August 3.—General R. B. Vance was re-nominated for Congressman on the fifth ballot, over Robinson, Johnson, Gudgeon, Miles and Jones. The greatest harmony prevailed, giving assurance of a Democratic victory. Reuben McBryer was permanent chairman of the Convention. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

RALEIGH, August 9.—Hon. R. B. Vance, sitting member, was nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention of the Eighth District, at Asheville to-day, on the fifth ballot. The large store of Morgan & Worthy, and the building known as the premises of Carthage, North Carolina, were completely destroyed by fire to-day. The loss is estimated at $100,000; only partly insured.

GOVERNOR JARVIS TO-DAY TOOK POSSESSION, in behalf of the State, of the premises known as Camp Russell—property of the United States which has been held by the United States ever since 1865. Secretary Lincoln directed the sergeant in charge to withdraw from the premises the soldiers of the 8th Regiment, and to order the State to take possession of the property ever since 1877.

ATLANTA, August 8.—The Republican Conventions met to-day and received reports from joint committees of conference looking to an adjustment of the split. The syndicate wing demanded that Pledger be put out, and a conference of white men be allowed to select the State Central Committee. Pledger's Convention refused to accede to the proposition of the bolters.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was received at the White House to-day, and was almost immediately signed by the President.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—There were several cases of yellow fever here yesterday. BROWNVILLE, TEX., August 5.—There are about fifty cases of yellow fever now existing, and the disease is increasing rapidly. There was to-day one death, a German recently from Europe. There are conflicting reports about the disease existing throughout the country, but they are not reliable.

HAVANA, Aug. 5.—There were 84 deaths from yellow fever here Havana up to Thursday evening during the past week. The Secretary of the Government, Benigno Diaz Quintana, is now sick with the fever.

THE WAR IN EGYPT.

Fighting Near Ramleh—British Attack upon Arab Fakhis Position—An Engagement Lasting Several Hours—Severe Fighting and Heavy Loss on Both Sides—The Attacking Force Withdrawn at Nightfall. (By Cable to the Morning Star.) LONDON, August 5, 6 P. M.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegraph Co., dated Alexandria, 6.35 o'clock, this evening, says: At 5 o'clock this evening the British troops, with a number of field guns, assisted by snipers, attacked the advanced guard of Arab Fakhis near Ramleh, between the Mahmoudieh canal and the Cairo railway. They advanced upon the enemy's position from three sides. The engagement, which is of a serious nature, still continues.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 5, 11.30 P. M.—The object of the operations to-day was a reconnaissance in force. Commencing at 4 o'clock this evening a steady advance was made by means of the Cairo railway line, the British upon the west bank of the Mahmoudieh canal, and the South Staffordshire regiment and mounted infantry upon the east bank. The enemy were driven in front of their position, and compelled to bring into action all of their troops available in front of their principal line of intrenchments at Kafr-el-Dawar, mainly about four battalions of infantry, a force of cavalry and several guns. The latter were completely silenced by the accurate fire of our 40-pounders. The Egyptian infantry held their ground with considerable steadiness. The marines on the railroad, under the immediate command of Gen. Alison, pushed the enemy back upon their second line of intrenchments toward Kafr-el-Dawar. The marines were supported by the South Staffordshire regiment and the Rifles. They suffered some, but behaved with great coolness and steadiness. The object of the British operations, which was to compel the enemy to display what force and what guns they had in their main position, was completely attained. This was ascertained by nightfall, when the British slowly and steadily withdrew. No accurate return of the killed and wounded is yet attainable. The enemy's loss is unknown. A large number of wounded fell into the hands of the British and many dead were seen. A considerable number of the enemy were made prisoners. The British recently made successful experiments with the forty-pounder, mentioned while mounded on their intrenched railroad track.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Conference committee on the Naval Appropriation bill this morning agreed to the only clauses in controversy, which were in regard to the closing of the navy yards. The Senate conference receded from their disagreement, and as agreed upon the bill leaves the closing of the navy yards to the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy.

Spirits Turpentine.

James Long was shot and killed in Mecklenburg county by a young fellow, named Carlin. There had been some previous ill-will. Carlin had accused Long of certain offensive sayings. The parties met again when the Asheville Citizen says: Carlin renewed the accusation previously made. This was denied by Long, and an angry altercation followed. Carlin picked up a heavy stone and threw it violently against Long, striking him on the right breast, and for the moment stupefying him; but speedily recovering, he advanced to resent the blow, when Carlin drew a pistol, the ball of which struck Long in the bowels of Long, causing death in less than an hour. Carlin walked off, no attempt being made to arrest or detain him, and he is still at large. Both the parties were young men between 19 and 30 years of age.

Goldboro Messenger: At last reports Dr. Sewall appeared to be doing well. Mrs. Thomas Killeet was found dead in bed at her home a mile from town last Sunday morning. The fight between O'Hara and Hubbs "on the color line" is going bravely on, and O'Hara appears to be in the lead as the nominee. He flayed Hubbs on his own dung bill at New Bern one night last week, and the O'Hara supporters are setting their faces to a vigorous aggressive war upon the Hubbs faction all along the line. The committee having in charge the preparations for the 27th Regiment re-union on the 17th of August, are hard at it, intending to receive their old comrades in a becoming manner. Gov. Vance, Gen. Cook, Col. Gilmer, Maj. Graham and other distinguished citizens, are expected here.

Raleigh News Observer: Barrett's circus, which is to be here this month, is a new one, but the Virginia "color line" has been so bad that it is equal to anything that has ever come South. "Komee" Isaac J. Young will address the people of Burke county at Morganton on Saturday, August the 20th, at Marshallville, on Sunday, on Monday the 21st, and at Hendersonville, Henderson county, Saturday the 19th. We would call the attention of all who are interested, to the fact that the State Board of Education has made a city of Winston on Wednesday and Thursday, the 9th and 10th instants, for the purpose of examining such applicants to practice pharmacy as may appear before it. The new bonds to be issued by the State Treasurer in renewal of the construction bonds of the North Carolina Railroad, have arrived and are being issued. The commissioners are receiving the old bonds and issuing therefor their certificates, upon which the Treasurer is issuing the new bonds.

Pittsboro Record: Mr. I. H. Straighan, of Hickory Mountain township, raised this year 103 bushels of oats on one acre. The entire crop of oats amounted to nearly 1,300 bushels. He also made 1,000 bushels of wheat; all with two horses. On last Tuesday Henry Oakley killed W. N. Cassidy, near Ferrington's mill, in this county. They were white men from Person county, employed by the same farmer in the cultivation of tobacco. No person witnessed the homicide, and what is known about it was told by Oakley. He stated that they met near Mr. Atwater's residence, and after some words were begun to quarrel, and he stabbed Cassidy twice, who immediately fell, and he at once went to the house and told Mr. Atwater what had occurred, who hastened to the place, but found Cassidy already dead. Mr. Atwater at once arrested and tied Oakley, and sent for Justice Pearson and Deputy Sheriff Knight.

H. W. G. in Atlanta Constitution: Mr. Edwin Holt, of Haw River, N. C., is now worth a million, and his family own nine cotton farms. He has a son, a half, Frank Fries is dead, but his brother, who was his partner for many years, and his three sons, under the firm name of S. & H. Fries, are worth nearly a million, and own five cotton farms. Holt started with his present mill at Haw River, which then had 228 spindles. Out of his earnings he has added to it, until now he has $455,000 cash invested in buildings and machinery, and is just now making a large addition. He is himself worth much over half a million, every dollar of which was made by "cotton manufacture." He said: "I can demonstrate to any man that there is a clear and indisputable advantage of 14 to 2 cents a pound in favor of the South over New England. In this day of competition and of swift transportation this difference must tell at last. We are in the dawn of the greatest industrial development any section ever saw."

Weldon News: The crops are getting along well in this section. The principal complaint was caused by backwardness. The want of rain has retarded the growth of both cotton and corn, but there has been plenty of rain since then. One night last week a negro woman in the country near here got in bed for the night, she felt something bite her foot, and in a few moments the pain was again felt. An examination showed that she was in the bed and had bitten her toe. We learn that on Monday Mingo Taylor, colored, struck Stanley Coley, also colored, on the head with an axe, inflicting a dangerous wound. It seems that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft for $200, but it was afterwards refused. We were in error last week in saying that Mr. Kingsbury had money for the tables to be placed in the Low Memorial church. Mr. Kingsbury, in a note, says that Taylor was in the house with Coley's wife and Coley entered, and as he got in the door the blow was given. This happened a few miles from Halifax. We are informed that one of the Northampton delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention received a draft for $600 for his vote and went to headquarters to get his money, but failed to get it. It is said another delegate received a draft