Jay Hawk confesses in his last circular that the sinews of war are money and that without it there is no showing for rotten Radicalism. Hear this new specimen of a Radical saint ply his appeals to the poor fellows who hold office and are afraid to say that their life is their own. Says the devoted and well steeped Hubbell :

"We are on the skirmish line of 1884 with a conflict before us this fall of great moment to the Republic, and you must know that a repulse now is full of danger to the next Presidential campaign.

"Unless you think that our grand old party ought not to succeed, help it now in its struggle to build up a new South, in which there shall be as in the North of the struggle to build up a new South.

which there shall be, as in the North, a free ballot and a fair count, and to maintain such hold in the North as shall insure good government to the country. "It is hoped that by return mail you will send a voluntary contribution equal to 2 per cent, of your annual compensation as a substantial proof of your carnest desire for the succe's of the Republican party this

Unless we can get the money with which to debauch the ballot and bribe the voters there is no chance for us this fall, and if no chance this fall then we are beaten in 1884. If this calamity to us should happen then farewell, a long farewell, to grub and grab, and we must gather up our spoils and give way to the victors. This is the meaning of Jay Hawk's appeal put in plain terms. He tells the faithful that it is either two per cent. or decapitation. You must give proof-"substantial proof" -of your fondness for the government swill-trough by "forking over" just two per cent. of every dollar you date and overawe the voters, and then with the effrontery of Satan himself pass pious resolutions and with sniffling nose prate about honest, fair, and full elections. Shame upon them !

There is no doubt that tens of thousands of this blackmail money, wrung from the pockets of the old men and women and others in Government employ who have small pay and hard work, will be expended in North Carolina. Some of it doubtless has already been applied in sending out fellows who have deserted the Democratic party that they may endeavor to allure from their allegiance those claiming to be Democrats, and hand over the grand old Commonwealth, now flourishing, prosperous, free and peaceful under Democratic rule, to the watch-care and tender mercies of the most corrupt and vicious party that ever flourished in any country in any era, and that brought so much of suffering and spoliation and oppression upon the white people of the State.

STAND LIKE AN ANVIL.

There are in North Carolina at least 70,000 men who have never cast a vote. Of these 50,000, we believe, are not Radicals. What then is to hinder a Democratic victory but Democratic apathy? There is not an intelligent Republican in the State who will not concede readily that North Carolina is a Democratic State if he is a man of ordinary candor. The only chance for the Democratic candidate to be beaten is for the Democrats to stay away from the polls in sufficient numbers to allow the enemy to triumph. In other words, the question of victory or defeat is in the hands of the Democracy. As they shall will in the matter will be the result and the Radicals cannot prevent it.

Every Democrat who refuses to vote is using his personal privilege and influence in behalf of the rotten Radical party. Whether he so regards it or not such is the inevitable, legitimate deduction. In refusing to vote for his own party candidates he thereby helps the Radical candi-

It is a very high power under our system of government to exercise the rights of an elector. The people are the masters under our system although Northern authors of a certain school try to deny it. If he refuse to exercise his authority he is at fault, because the man who antagonizes him will exercise his authority and so triumph at his expense.

You cannot possibly discharge the functions of sovereignty by refusing to vote. You cannot meet the imperative obligations of citizenship by staying away from the polls. Think of it and act like one who loves his country and is true to sound and be-

Under no pressure of circumstances could we be persuaded to support any man for any office who was willing to place us and all of the tax-payers of the richest section of the State under the bossing of incompetent, ignorant and in great part dishonest rulers. We sincerely believe that such a proposition is infamous and one that no man can make who is a friend to the white race. We would rather lose every Representative, the State Government, the Judiciary, than to have a return of the rascalities and plunderings and debaucheries and

"Abundant crops, everywhere," seems to be the general verdict, therefore let voluntary contributions go forward to the Oxford Orphan Asylum, as not only have provisions been very high and contributions small the present year, but a new building for the boys, which was an actual ecessity, has been erected at considerable expense. In this connection we would, by equest, state that it is proposed, and the press throughout the State have been asked to extend the notice, that on Thanksgiving Day, which will probably occur on the 28rd of November, a collection be taken up for the benefit of the Asylum wherever services are held.

The duties of Coroner, between now and the election, will probably be performed by persons specially appointed by the Clerk of the Superior Court, provided the services of such an official are needed. Mr. A. H. Leslie, son-in-law of the late Coroner Hew-lett, was expected to take the position until the newly elected Coroner could qualify, but we understand that he declines, for one reason because the time is so short that it will not repay the trouble and inconveni-ence of giving bond and otherwise legally qualifying himself for the office.

Another Landmark Gone. The old poor house building, a dilapida ted brick structure, which occupied a position nearly in the middle of the square bounded by Fourth and Fifth and Walnut and Red Cross Streets, has been entirely demolished. It was a very old building and was considered one of the landmarks of the city. For some years after the war it was a favorite resort for colored voters about election times.

Desperate Shooting Affray at Knox-ville Between Gen. Joseph A. Mabry and His Son Joseph and Maj. Thos. PConnor-All Three of the Partici-

KNOXVILLE, October 19.—This morning at a few minutes after 10 o'clock, Gen, Joseph A. Mabry, Maj. Thomas O'Connor and Joseph A. Mabry, Jr., were killed in a shooting affray. The difficulty began yesterday evening by Gen, Mabry's attacking Maj. O'Connor and threatening to kill him. This was at the Fair Grounds, and O'Connor told Mabry it was not the place to settle their differences. Mabry then told O'Connor he should not leave. It seems that Mabry was armed and O'Connor was not. The cause of the difficulty was an old fend about the transfer of some property from Mabry to O'Connor. Later in the evening Mabry sent word to O'Connor that he would kill him on sight. This morning Maj. O'Connor was standing at the door of the Mechanic's National Bank, of which he was President. Gen, Mabry and another gentleman walked down Gay street on the opposite side from the bank. O'Connor stepped into the bank, procured a shotgun, took deliberate aim at Gen. Mabry and fixed. KNOXVILLE, October 19.—This morning gun, took deliberate aim at Gen. Mabry and fired. Mabry fell dead, being shot in the left side. As he fell O'Connor fired again, the shot taking effect in Mabry's thigh. O'Connor then reached into the bank and got another shot-gun. About bank and got another shot-gun. About this time Jos. A. Mabry, Jr., son of Gen. Mabry, came rushing down the street. He was not seen by O'Connor until he was within forty feet of him, when he fired a shot from a pistol, the ball taking effect in O'Connor's dake header as a short of the short are simple to the street of the short are simple to the short are simple t right breast, passing through the body near the heart. The instant Mabry fired O'Con-nor turned and discharged the shot-gun at him, the load taking effect in young Ma-bry's right breast and side. He fell pierced with twenty buckshot and almost instantly O'Connor fell dead without a struggle. Young Mabry tried to rise, but fell back

The whole tragedy occurred within two minutes and neither of the three spoke after he was shot. Gen. Mabry had about thirty buckshot in his body. A bystander was painfully wounded in the thigh with a buckshot and another was wounded in the arm; four other men had their clothes pierced by buckshot. The affair caused great excitement and Gay street was thronged with thousands of people. Gen. Mabry and his son James were acquitted only a few days ago of the murder of only a few days ago of the murder of Moses Lusby and Don Lusby, father and son, whom they killed a few weeks since. Wm. Mabry was killed by Don Lusby last Christmas. Major Thos. O'Connor was President of the Mechanics, National Bank here, and was the wealthiest man in the State. Col. E. J. Sanford, the Vice President, takes immediate control of the bank.

He was shot through the right arm at the battle of Ply-mouth, the ball lodging in his right lung, and for nearly twenty years he has carried the leaden missile in his lungs, suffering from severe hemorrhage at times. The right lung is now entirely gone and the ball is making its way towards the left. Not long ago a piece of a fractured rib bone passed through his mouth while having a severe hemorrhage. Mr. Barnes was wounded

-Raleigh News-Observer: Senator Vance is unwell, and is suffering greatly from a large tumor on the left shoulder. from a large tumor on the left shoulder. This was treated yesterday, and he hopes to get out to the Fair grounds, and speak if possible. All will unite in the wish that he may be there, for who is better loved than Zeb Vance? — Result, a large attendance and a day greatly enjoyed by every one. Exclamations of surprise at the extent of the exhibition and the elegance of its arrangements were heard. Through the halls surged a crowd of sight-seers, and every comment on the Fair (and they were made by every one) was full of praise. So the public pronounces the Fair the best we have ever had, and the people of the good "Old North State" have another reason to feel proud of their progress.
