DEJARNETTE.

The Noted Murderer out of the Insane Asylum.

[Raleigh News-Observer.] The facts of the murder of his sister Mollie, by the young man, Thomas J. DeJarnette, in a house of ill-fame, at Danville, Virginia, are doubtless fresh in the public mind...

It appears that an application was made a few days since for his release from the asylum. This, Dr. Grissom says, the Board of Directors did not oppose, but preferred on account of the character of the case and its history that the matter should be decided by a court of law...

DeJarnette was interviewed by a reporter the moment the trial ended. He is quite a handsome young fellow, and looks in much better health than when brought here in 1881. He says that he was 22 years old last August, and he does not look a day older, with rosy cheeks and a youthful countenance...

DeJarnette made this statement in a matter of fact way and without any hesitation. He said further that for months before he killed his sister he slept but little, ate little, was a wreck; that he often contemplated suicide, and once had nearly completed preparations for taking his own life...

BISHOP PAINE AS AN ORATOR.

[From a Mississippi Letter in Raleigh Advocate.] Bishop Paine was loved and honored throughout the Southern Methodist Church, but nowhere more than in the North Mississippi Conference...

At the close of several of these wonderful flights I found myself standing close to the pulpit, panting for breath, and my soul in a flame of glory. I took my seat each time and took hold of the bench with both my hands to hold myself down, but it was no use. I got up, I never knew when or how. I did not know who the preacher was until the sermon was closed...

[Bishop Paine was born in Person County, N. C.]

—Bishop Padock, of Washington Territory, is reported seriously ill at his former home in Norwich, Conn.

—The Baptist churches of Germany lost 1,897 members last year by emigration. The whole number is now 28,000.

—A pew in Dr. John Hall's church in New York sold the other day for $2,600. It ought to be close to the golden stairs.—St. Louis P. D.

—The German Catholic Congress have taken action in favor of a better observance of the Sabbath. A petition to Parliament will be signed asking for a law to this end.

—A minister was once asked what he thought of his two sons, who were both preachers. "Well," he replied, "George has a better show in his shop window than John, but John has a larger stock in his warehouse."—Hartford Times.

A Word to Our Readers. When you read of a medicine that will cure all diseases, beware of it, for every scientific physician will tell you that such a medicine does not exist. But when you read of a medicine which claims to cure only a certain disease, and furnishes proof that it does, then you may be sure that the medicine is genuine.
