State Treasurer Vincent a Defaulter for Over $200,000-The Money Lost in Cotton Speculations-Vincent's Disappearance-Action of the Governor.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star] MONTGOMERY, Jan. 31.—The committee to examine the books and accounts of State Treasurer Vincent were to begin examina-tion yesterday. Vincent left the city Mon-day night. A letter from him to his chief clerk was delivered to the latter yesterday afternoon, and was laid before the Gover nor. Vincent said he was behind, but was going to New York to get money which the letter indicated he had loaned. An examination of the cashier's and other books late last night, shows that Vincent speculated largely in cotton futures. The deficit as far as can be gathered at this time, is between $225,000 and $300,000.

Treasurer Vincent left Monday night, but by what route is not known. The ticket agent at the railroad office did not know him, and all the conductors who went out have returned and cannot tell anything about him. None of them knew him. The Governor will offer a large reward and has sent telegrams to the police of all the large cities. Vincent is 5 feet 10 inches high, very neat in dress, brown hair and beard, the latter full and long, with mustache. Has very bad teeth and a scar on the forehead from a wound in battle. The Governor sent to the Legislature the

The Governor sent to the Legislature the following message:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives;—It becomes my painful and mortifying duty to inform you that Isaac H. Vincent, Treasurer of the State, is short in his accounts and has left the city. This fact was made known by Vincent through the following note to A. O. Crawford, clerk in his office detect the 20th instruments. township lines of Ironson and his office, dated the 29th inst., which was received by Crawford on the afternoon of the 30th inst., and was communicated to me at 8.30 P. M. of that day:

"'DEAR CRAWFORD-I find this evening that my money is not here, neither has it been paid over to the Importers & Traders' Bank, as promised. I leave for New York to straighten the whole matter. I have, perhaps, waited too long, and will be cen-sured, but I have no idea of running away. I wish you would assist the committee and after the balance is ascertained ask them to wait a day and telegraph me, care of Fred. Wolffe, New York. If anything happens to me, I wish to state, emphatically and positively, that being behind in my cash is my own fault, and that you have had nothing to do with it.

"'Your friend, "I. H. VINCENT." "The amount of Vincent's defalcation can only be ascertained after careful examination of the Treasurer's books and a careful count of the money in the treasury, but a hurried and partial investigation indicates that it is more than $200,000. It is not known by what train or in what direction Vincent left Montgomery, Means have if possible. It is believed that the State is largely secured against ultimate loss. The two houses will have communications delivered to them from time to time of any further information that comes into my E. A. O'NEAL, Governor." Large sums of money sent to Fred Wolffe, supposed to be dealings in cotton, have been traced up. Vincent dealt also, it is supposed, with other cotton houses. A legislative committee is counting the money in the treasury. The Legislative committee has counted the money in the treasury vault and found $152,000. The deficit is $227,000, and is amply secured by good bondsmen. It has developed that the money was taken in the last two years, and nearly all before November last. Vincent, according to a statement by a witness made before the committee, lost over $100,000 in cotton through one house, Fred. Wolffe, and some through others. It is surmised that he may have loaned some, although no evidence to that effect has been shown. There has been some talk latterly, since he bought a new house, rich furniture and a carriage and

The privilege of voting a special school tax might be given to school districts, instead of townships as now is the case. "Served the Dentist Right."

The boys said that it served old Doctor Toothstuffer right, when he had the toothache so badly that he couldn't sleep at night. He had inflicted so much pain on other people, in pulling and mending their teeth, that they thought it would be good for him to suffer a little himself. The leading dentist of Portsmouth, N. H., knows what pain is and has relieved himself from the twinger and has relieved himself from the twinges of neuralgia by the use of PERRY DAVIS'S PAIN KILLER. He regards it without a per bbl of 280 lbs., at which the receipts | rival.
