THE GREAT PROSPERITY OF THE CANADAS.

But few of our readers are aware of the very remarkable progress that has been made in the great country lying North of the United States and forming a part of the vast British Empire, about which the greatest orator of New England and one of the greatest of Americans has spoken in such felicitous and eloquent terms. Said Daniel Webster, very finely, as he remembered the reveille he heard once at Quebec, in one of his grand orations, in referring to the greatness of England, whose power circled the earth, that it "has dotted the surface of the whole globe with her possessions and military posts; whose morning drum-beat, following the sun and keeping company with the hours, circles the earth with one continuous and unbroken strain of the martial airs of England." We confess that the growth of what is now known as the "New Dominion" has been a surprise to us. We had not studied the statistics with care enough or else we would not have remained ignorant of the fact that although our own county has grown with such rapidity the progress has not been equal to that of the Queen's "Dominion." In 1790 the population of the United States was 4,000. 000. In 1880 it was 50,000,000-an increase of 121 times in ninety years. In 1790 the population of British North America was 250,000; in 1880 it was 4,500,000-an increase of 18 times in less than a century. The prospect is that it will continue to grow with very great rapidity since the vast western section is being opened up, and there are the best of

There is no probability that Cana da will be united to the American Republic within a century, if at all. There is some prospect that before a quarter of a century the Canadian people will be resolving to set up for themselves. There is some indicanow of a growing spirit of independence, but there are but few Canadians who desire an union with this country. Blackwood says that towards the end of the century the Dominion will have some 10,000, 000 of people and that then "Canadians may aspire to a higher position among communities." That is to say, they may ask for their independence. It is safe to say, that the sentiment of nationality is deepening, and a great Power will yet flourish in the regions north of our own vast country.

reasons for expecting unusual developments in the next decade.

Let us glance briefly at a few of the most impressive facts connected with the Dominion, as we gather them from a long discussion in Black-First, then, look at the shipping of the Dominion. It is the fourth maritime State of the world. It has between seven and eight thousand vessels, having a tonnage of over 1,300,000 tons, valued at $8,-000,000. The United States with their vast population, have but one million tons more. The marine activity is on the increase in the Canadas. "They are greatly outstripping their American neighbors," says Blackwood, "as a ship-owning, shipsailing people." It thinks that the time is coming when this Dominion will "obtain the maritine supremacy in the waters of the Western hemiphere." That will be owing to the distructive policy of the Republican party. Since 1860, the shipping of the United States has declined, and will continue to decline. By the end of the century there will be more than 90 millions of people in the United States, and if the Canadians are allowed to become supreme on the waters it will be the fault of our Government.

The growth of manufactures in the Dominion has been satisfactory to those concerned. Blackwood, a Tory exponent and not in favor of the principle of free trade, admits that if there was free trade between Canada and the United States that the result "would be practically to make Canada one of the States themselves." It says that owing to the high tariff of to the necessity of having "protection in a modified form." It thinks there of the United States was to be adjusted to one of revenue. But there is considerable development of manufactures and the annual value of exports and imports is 45 million pounds sterling-thus outstripping Sweden, Norway and Brazil.

The Dominion has a large debt created in developing the country, but it is wise enough to leave it to be paid by those who shall enjoy the full benefits of the enterprise and pluck of the present generation. Thirty years ago there were but forty miles of railroad in the whole country. Now there are 8,000 miles completed, with 2,500 in the course of erection. It has double what Norway and Sweden have: two thousand more miles than Italy has, and half as much as France has. In a few years the Pacific Railway will be an accomplished fact when there will be a continuous line from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to the Pacific Ocean. The Northwest is a vast region, more than rivalling in extent and productiveness the great Northwest of our own country. It makes better wheat and roots than Iowa or Illinois. It has as good an educational system as England has. In 1840 there were educational facilities but for one in fifteen of the children; at present the proportion is about the same as it is in Massachusetts. They have various kinds of societies for the promotion of art, literature and science. There are one or two other points that ought not to be overlooked in even a hurried survey like this. but we must reserve them for a brief supplemental article.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DO-MINION.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada differs somewhat from that of England and from our own. l'here is a Central Government, and there is a Government of the Provinces. The Central Government has a great deal more of power than our General Government has, whilst the Provinces have less power than our States. The Central Government can disallow the acts of Provincial Legislatures, for instance. The Sovereign is represented by the Governor-General. Each Province has a Lieutenant-Governor, a Legislature of one or two Houses, and an Executive Council. These Provincial bodies have a right to legislate concerning education, local work, and matters of a municipal or provincial character strictly. The Dominion Parliament is not supreme. Its acts can be disallowed by the Central Government. Trade, commerce, revenues, postal affairs, militia, &c., are all in the hands of the Central Government. There is a Supreme Court, as in our country. The Governor-General is advised by a Privy Council, responsible to and dependent on the support of a majority in the House of Commons. The Civil Service is composed of a permanent body of officials. The Judiciary is appointed by the Crown, but a member can be removed upon an address of the two Houses of Parliament. The system is mainly British, but modified to meet the changed conditions of the Dominion. It has a permanent Executive, a Ministry directly responsible to Parliament, a non-political body of public servants and an independent

The Dominion as yet has not much literature of its own. The Canadians, however, are intensely British and do not read much of American writers. There is much talk among them of imperial federation and but little of annexation to the United States. We have thought it well to enable our readers to understand more of the progress, institutions and government of a country lying North of us that is destined to become great and

Here are some records of one day's crime in the North as reported by telegraph in the Philadelphia Press: A girl was stabbed at Phillipsburg, Pa., for refusing to dance; at Kenosha, the city treasurer has stolen $600 and fled; in New York Katie Junker recovered $10,000 of Peter Heckman, for seduction; Philip Ryan, Jr., a Chicago embezzler, arrested for stealing $3,000; Richard C. The Democrats made large gains in Chicago, and the scenes on election day were disgraceful. There is but little doubt that Chicago is the worst governed city on the continent and with the poorest police. The this country the Dominion is driven Democrats must improve things.

Senator Vest, of Missouri, has been talking politics. He thinks McDonwould be a change if the tariff ald, of Indiana, stands the best chance for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. Of Arthur

"At present I am inclined to think that the race will be between Arthur and Mc Donald. Arthur is working for the nomi-nation. He is all for New York now in regular Van Buren style. He is trying to compromise all around, and the report that he and Conkling is out of politics, is devoting himself to making money, and is making it fast. He can come round all the fat fees of any of the departments, and when a man does that he is on the high road to fortune. Logan may give Arthur trouble, as he is strong and represents all that is left of Stalwartism."

The New York Sun is disgracing itself by retaining a correspondent who is travelling in the South just to make up false reports and slanderous insinuations. He calls a certain class in the South before the war "thieves." And still the Sun has thousands of subscribers in the South whilst home papers either languish or are neglected. The Sun has never been friendly to the Southern people.

The New York Financial Chronicle thinks the present cotton crop is the greatest ever grown and will exceed 7,000,000 bales:

We note with great pleasure the improvements now being made by the Seaside Park Improvement Company, of Wrightsville Sound, at their pleasant resort, and have gathered from its President the following information, which will be of interest to our readers: The property has been leased by Mr. B. L. Perry, of the Purcell House, this city, with the privilege of the Company having the right at all times to sell or rent lots for private use, and they hope to induce outsiders to build cottages and use the hotel in connection with the same. This will do away with all the disadvantages of keeping house on the Sound, and at the same time allow one all the privacy which he could have at his own home. Parties of high standing in our State have been corresponded with, and it is hoped that before the summer fairly sets in we will have in our midst gentlemen with their families, who own cottages on the Sound, and have a common interest with our own people in the Seaside. Two thousand dollars is now being judiciously spent in beautifying the place, and building additional accommodations. Two hacks will be run daily to the Sound, one in the morning and the other at night This will no doubt add wonderfully to the convenience of our friends who can only be absent from the city during the day. We are gratified that the Company have commenced in earnest to make the Sound a resort of some note in North Carolina, and we predict for them a most prosperous future. Our best wishes attend them

Relieved of His Collections. A friend writing us from Rose Hill Duplin county, says what may be termed a daring robbery occurred in that little village on Monday night. Mr. D. T. Carr. agent there for the Navassa Guano Company, of this city, had been out collecting during the day, and on his return late at night, he proceeded, before retiring, to sum up his collections and place the amount in his trunk, in his bed-room. Upon arising Tuesday morning he found that the trunk had been removed to his sitting-room, and that the money ($63) was gone. There are grounds for the belief that the burglar was looking through a window in the room when Mr. Carr placed the money in the trunk, and that he entered through the door, which was thoughtlessly left open on the night in question.

Mr. J. A.: Summersett, of Fair Bluff Columbus county, informs us that a negro entered the postoffice at that place Monday night, while the postmaster was making up the mail, and got away with a registered letter in transit from Conway, S. C., to some place in Florida. The negro was caught in about twenty minutes afterwards and confessed, but said there was no money in the letter, and that another negro prompted him to the act, saying that he had a letter in the postoffice and if he would get it for him he would give him half the money that was in it. The robber was sent Tuesday afternoon to Whiteville jail. He came from Lumberton Monday afternoon as a mail driver. His companion

Annual Sermon Before the Baptist Missionary Society.

Rev. Dr. Taylor, Pastor of the Firs Baptist Church, preached the annual sermon before the Woman's Missionary Society of that church on Sunday morning last, taking for his text the 9th verse of the 36th chapter of Acts-"This woman was full of good works and alms deeds which she did." The discourse was a deeply interesting one, giving a full and graphic exposition of the duties pertaining to a thorough and consistent Christian womanhood. and reciting in touching terms the many acts of Christian benevolence and beneficence performed by women in all ages of the world; adverting somewhat particularly to their labors in heathen lands, in upholding the armor of the cross, to the many religious works emanating from their pens, and the beautiful and touching songs and hymns composed by them and which form so important a part of public worship in the churches

The receipts of cotton for the month o March just closed footed up 6,255 bales, as against 6,158 bales for the corresponding month last year, showing an increase of 97

The receipts from the crop year from Sept. 1st to date, foot up 122,794 bales, as against 131,669 bales for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 8,875 bales.

CITY HOSPITAL.

Report of Manager on Part of County to Board of County Commissioner Interesting Statistics, &c.

From the report of Commissioner Rog Moore, Manager on the part of the County of the City Hospital, presented at the late meeting of the Board, we glean some facts of interest. The report covers the period from October, 1881, when the Hospital was opened, to January 1st, 1888. Dr. W. W. Lane, Superintendent and Surgeon in charge, has control of the Hospital and grounds, and devotes his entire time to it management and the treatment of the pa tients under his care. He has a competent steward and faithful matron, who give every care and attention, under Dr. Lane's direction, to those under treatment. There had been, up to the time stated above, 136 admissions, of which 122 were treated suc cessfully, and 14 had died. The entire expenditures for the fourteen months were $3,708.07, of which $458.70 were paid for furniture, $60 for legal services (rendered in examining and arranging titles to property) and $599.75 to public buildings account, such as repairing houses, building and repairing fences, building cisterns, etc. aggregating $1,113.45. Add to this amount the further sum of $211.50, received from pay patients, for rents and for medicine sold, and it makes the total of $1,324.95 which deducted from the amount of tota expenditures, leaves a balance for operating expenses of the hospital for fourteen months of $2,383.12, or an average monthly cost of $170.23. The number of pay patients is expected to increase as the Hospital becomes better known.

The immediate erection of a ward kitch en or dead house is recommended. The management has given the matter atten tion, and is of the opinion that at an expense not to exceed $1,500 a ward containing room for eighteen beds, a bath room kitchen and small dead house can be built and sewerage pipe laid. He considers these improvements absolutely necessary to the successful management of the insti tution; for at present, in the absence of a regular ward, the sick are scattered about in the small houses of the premises, which entails a great deal more care upon the Superintendent, and causes at times unavoidable delay in attending to the sick. Mana ger Moore, in conclusion, compliments in high terms the management of the Hos-

The admissions to the Hospital from Nov. 1st, 1881, to Jan. 1st, 1883, according to an accompanying report of Dr. Lane, embraced 45 white males, 27 white females 43 colored males, 21 colored females. To tal, 72 whites, 64 colored. Grand total, 136 The deaths for the same period embraced 3 white males, 2 white females, 5 colored males, 4 colored females. Total, 5 whites, 9 colored. Grand total, 14.

THE NEW MARKET.

Agreement Between the Committee on the Part of the Board of Aldermen and the Committee on the Part of the Butchers - The Propositions Submitted, &c.

The following are the propositions sub mitted by the Committee on the part of the Board of Aldermen-W. H. Chad bourn, W. L. DeRosset and G. J. Boneyto the Committee appointed by the butch ers of the city, and which were formally accepted by them as satisfactory in every particular:

The Committee on Markets from the Board of Aldermen propose to use their in-fluence with said Board towards the passage of such ordinances as will fully and effectually cover the following points, pro vided the butchers of the city will agree to occupy the stalls or places in the public markets on the 1st day of May, 1883:

1st. To prohibit the sale of fresh meats beef, pork, mutton, game, poultry, fish, oysters, clams and other shell fish, garden truck and all farm products, at any other place within the city limits except the mar kets on Front street and at such other point as may hereafter be designated by the Board of Aldermen as a public market for the accommodation of the citizen

2nd. To protect all who deal exclusively n one or more of said articles of produce from any loss in consequence of any lease of premises now occupied by them, the value of said leases existing up to October 1st, 1883, as well as of all fixtures which will be useless to their owners by reason of their removal to the public market, to be credited to the several parties against rents due by them on and after October, 1883.

3d. To rent by public auction on the 20th of April, 1883, for one year from October lst, 1883, to be renewed at the option of the renter from year to year, all the stalls or designated places in the markets to the highest bidder for choice of location, such premiums to be divided pro rata among all the occupants of each market house sepa rately, in proportion to the total amount of rent and premium each shall have agreed to pay, which dividends shall be credited to each party against the rent which he may have agreed to pay. Premiums bid on the the 20th of April, 1883, to be paid the same day and yearly thereafter, commencing October 1st, 1884.

4th. To appoint one inspector, to be se-lected by the butchers, who shall give bond as required by the Board, who shall inspect, as required by the Board, who shall inspect, grade, and weigh all cattle sold on the hoof; fees for which to be paid by the seller.

5th. To further protect the occupants of the several markets by making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any one to violate the provisions of the ordinances framed and passed in accordance with the first proposition.

The committee on the part of the butchers J. R. Melton, W. J. Kellogg and J. C. Bornemann-in accepting the propositions, say: "We, the committee of butchers, accept your propositions in good faith, hoping and believing that you will keep your pledges, by giving us the protection which will be to our best interest and yours." THE CHICAGO ELECTION.

Polling Places Located in Saloons A Lively Time Among the Thugs and Sluggers - Murderous Affrays - The New Democratic Mayor. [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—A special to the Telegram, from Chicago, this morning, concerning yesterday's election, says: Never before in the history of Chicago were such shameful scenes enacted in an election as that an order had been issued for the closing of all saloons during polling hours, not a single saloon in the city was closed. The polling places were located in saloons, and while the ballots were being received through a side window the front door was swinging all day, while whiskey and been were served over the counter. The polling place of the first precinct of the Second Ward was located in a barber shop on State street, between two saloons, while the second story of the whole block seemed to be one continuous house of dis order. All day long the sidewalk was thronged with the most forbidding thugs. thieves and sluggers. Respectable colored people who ventured among them with Carey tickets were not allowed within sight of

The polling place for the fifth precinct of the First Ward was in rear of a saloon on State street. The election notaries had their places in a saloon, where the bar was patronized steadily all day, while policemen moved in and out with the surging crowd of State street roughs.

There were several murderous affrays during the day, the most prominent of which was a terrible assault upon George Young Roundtree, a colored barber, by negro named Macon Pointer. Roundtree was stabbed in the abdomen, and will die. Carter H. Harrison received the congrat lations of his friends in the council cham ber at midnight. Turning to the reporters he asked them to go to their office and say to their editors that abuse and vituperation would not do. The papers had villified him and the people had re-buked them by sustaining him with a ma-jority of 10,000. He then referred to the clergy, who preached politics from the pul-pit. Carey, his opponent for the mayoralty, was a good insurance man, but a very poor judge. If he and other gentlemen in the reform movement would now come to him and consult as to city affairs he would be glad to listen to them and consider their opinions. After this he intended to allow no low dives in the city, and as to gambling it would have to be carried on behind dark

The Mayor then bade his friends good

Later returns from the city election show the following Democratic majorities: Harrison, Mayor, 10,000; Gunnell, City At-torney, 12,000; Murphy, Treasurer, 3,000.

It will be remember that when the railroad was built it was predicted that the canals from Norfolk, the Albemaric Steam Navigation Company and the Roanoke and Baltimore Steamboar Company, would do but little work, or have to entirely give way to the railroad; such has not been the case. Each of these lines has done well.

- High Point Farm and Fireside The new cotton mills, soon to be erected and heretofore described by us and the new Yearly Meeting House, together with a contemplated block on the corner north of Smith's drug store corner, and Cartland and Cecil's new blocks, will make our town lively this season. The new Fayetteville & Winston Railroad building and a con-templated new depot of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, at this place, are additional sources of comfort to our business - Goldsboro Messenger: Mr. Sol.

W. Smith died near Princeton on Saturday last. — We understand that Capt. Tay. lor thinks of running a steamer between New Berne and Goldsboro. — Wright Daniel, the negro convicted of burglary in Pitt county, was sentenced to be hanged July 6th. — Capt. Swift Galloway and family arrived here Saturday evening, and have taken up their residence in this city, The STAR has named the oldest newspapers in the State. Of the six the Salisbury Watchman and the Salem Press are the only two which have been published under the same management the past sixteen years, since the Messenger and the STAR were established in 1867 by their present proprietors. The fact is, the four papers here named are the only journals in the State which have not changed management during the time stated. - We are called upon to perform a sad duty in announcing the death of Mrs. Lou Borden Kornegay, wife of W. Benn. agent at Gaston, was robbed on Monday of quite a sum of money. — The State Board of Agriculture, now composed of thirteen members, representing fully the various sections of the State meets here today-this being the first meeting of the Board as re-organized. - We hear of two new papers in contemplation at Ra-leigh, both dailies. One of them is to be Democratic in name, with a view of helping out the Republican cause. In the meantime it is well enough to understand that a political syndicate is said to he forming. Whether the purpose is to take the job of furnishing nominees for the people to vote for — or of arranging for the control of the federal patronage when we elect the President next year-we don't is any syndicate at all. We hope not. Yet we have heard enough to suspect it, independent of XX's positive statement. Naturally we would be among the last to know - Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic More than one dozen murderers were hanged on Friday-"Good Friday." But ten went free for every one caught. The election of a new pastor, held on Sunday by the congregation of the Lutheran Church in this city, resulted in the unanimous choice of Rev. T. S. Brown. — Just as the passenger train which arrived yester-day at 2 o'clock, was leaving Salisbury, Mr. A. S. Lewter, the depot agent at that place, met with an accident by which he had his arm broken. — Mr. M. D. L. Biggers, formerly surveyor for this county, had a rough experience in this city Sunday night. While passing by the Richmond & Danville freight depot he was met in the darkness by some unknown individual, wno knocked him down and robbed him of his money, mounting to five or six dollars. The blow that felled him was struck over the left eye, and must have been made with a club or piece of iron, from the appearance of the wound. — The First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of ment, in the church of that denomin ment, in the church of that denomination in this city yesterday, at 10 o'clock A.

M. The opening sermon was preached by the retiring moderator; Rev. R. G. Miller, of Fairfield county. — Just before the adjournment of court at Albemarle, on Saturday last, the grand jury returned a true bill against Dr. R. A. Anderson for the murder of young Charlie Cox. It was then agreed by Solicitor Osborne and Mr. Robins, who assists in the prosecution, that the defendant might be bailed out upon habeas corpus, whereupon His Honor habeas corpus, whereupon His Honor Judge Shipp fixed the bail at $10,000, remarking that he did so not because of any opinion of the guilt or innocence of the defendant, that he had not investigated the case, but because of Dr. Anderson's ability to give the bond. The hand was immeto give the bond. The bond was immediately given, with seventeen of the leading citizens of the county as sureties.

It seems impossible that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Buchu, Hops, Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., should make so many and such great cures as Hop Bitters do: but when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them your self, and doubt no longer.
