

Ohio votes on the 14th of October for minor State officers and for members of the House of Representatives. It is very important election and both parties are putting forth extraordinary efforts to capture the State.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, ALFRED MOORE SCALES, of Guilford. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, CHARLES M. STEDMAN, of New Hanover.

TAXATION AND THE SURPLUS.

All voters should understand that in this country there is a division in the application of the Tariff. The difference of application is so great it might be likened unto two different systems. This is seen in this: a portion of the tax collected goes into the U. S. Treasury and is applied to the maintenance of the Government.

Mr. Hamilton Fish says he will vote for Blaine. The New York World reported him as saying this personally. He has made a splendid record as Governor and I believe would do equally well as the Chief Executive.

Ohio has been a Republican State by from 10,000 to 30,000 majority, but Garfield carried it by very nearly 50,000 majority. If the Republicans should fail to carry it the loss would be utterly disastrous to their candidate.

People now can see after reading the last 15 Mulligan letters why Jim Blaine talked of suicide in 1876, and why he got on his knees to Mr. James Mulligan in Washington.

For some time the reporter has contemplated a visit to the dairy and stock farm of Mr. W. R. French, known as "Hanoor," and lying just one mile and a half east of the city on the old Newbern road.

At Conyers, Ga., a supposed insane man turned incendiary and burned two churches and several other houses. A dispatch says that he was shot and wounded in four places. He admitted all and says he will keep on as he is doing the Lord's work.

Gen. John B. Gordon's son, named after him, a young man of great promise, has just died. The Augusta Chronicle says of him: "Physically he was a perfect specimen of manhood, and mentally gave promise of a bright future."

Gen. M. W. Ransom spoke at Kenansville on Tuesday and at night at Warsaw. A gentleman who heard his night speech tells us that it was very conservative and sensible.

Next comes "Kate Daisy," five years old, white and fawn color, a very handsome cow, and bearing evidence of the highest quality. She, too, is a fine milker and a favorite.

The following is a list of judgments drawn to serve during the term of the United States District Court, which convened in this city on the first Monday of November, 1884.
