

Table with 4 columns: Name, Office, and details for various firms and individuals.

The subscription price of the WEEKLY STAR is as follows: Single copy 5 cents; 6 months $2.00; 1 year $3.00

A RAILING ACCUSATION. The Boston Advertiser, a Republican sheet, is always friendly to the South.

Of course there is intolerance of opinion just as there is all over New England. Every body knows that the New England people have been proverbial intermeddlers and propagandists.

The Chicago Current says: The Wilmington, N. C. Morning Star, a daily paper edited by a working scholar, expresses its satisfaction that a writer in the Atlantic (English) Magazine should have slightly depreciated the poetry of Longfellow.

As far as we can gather the news relative to the Supreme Court there is a steady growing sentiment against the renomination of the present Supreme Court.

The papers are beginning to touch up Mr. James H. Merrimon for volunteering to prosecute the Asheville Citizen.

We are really glad to see Mr. A. M. Kelley honored in spite of Austria and Italy and his defamers. He has received the appointment of Judge of the International Court at Cairo, Egypt.

The Indiana Democrats did not think enough of Mr. Cleveland's hobby, the "monumental humbug of the century."

The Northern Mugwump papers are delighted at the favor the Civil Service frand meets with in South Carolina.

Gen. Jo Wheeler has a walk over in the Alabama Eighth. Jo was an excellent fighter in the war and a good campaigner in peace.

It is now said that it is doubtful if Miss Cleveland will go to Chicago. But be that as it may the New York World has published an extra all of the first number under her editorship.

MRS. McCLAMMY NOMINATED. The nomination of Maj. Charles W. McClammy, of Pender county, for Congress in the Third District upon the 345th ballot, was a general surprise.

Tilden's property is on the rise. It is now estimated at between six and eight millions. The New York lawyers say that his will is "iron-bound."

Robert L. Taylor is the Democratic nominee for Governor of Tennessee, and his brother, Alf Taylor, is to be his Republican opponent.

The Democrats of the Third Congressional District met in Convention at Warsaw, Wednesday last at 9 o'clock m., and after balloting the remainder of the day and all night, yesterday morning, at 7 o'clock nominated Charles W. McClammy, Esq., of Pender county.

The Chicago Current says: The Wilmington, N. C. Morning Star, a daily paper edited by a working scholar, expresses its satisfaction that a writer in the Atlantic (English) Magazine should have slightly depreciated the poetry of Longfellow.

As far as we can gather the news relative to the Supreme Court there is a steady growing sentiment against the renomination of the present Supreme Court.

The papers are beginning to touch up Mr. James H. Merrimon for volunteering to prosecute the Asheville Citizen.

We are really glad to see Mr. A. M. Kelley honored in spite of Austria and Italy and his defamers. He has received the appointment of Judge of the International Court at Cairo, Egypt.

The Indiana Democrats did not think enough of Mr. Cleveland's hobby, the "monumental humbug of the century."

The Northern Mugwump papers are delighted at the favor the Civil Service frand meets with in South Carolina.

Gen. Jo Wheeler has a walk over in the Alabama Eighth. Jo was an excellent fighter in the war and a good campaigner in peace.

It is now said that it is doubtful if Miss Cleveland will go to Chicago. But be that as it may the New York World has published an extra all of the first number under her editorship.

A TRAGICAL AFFAIR. An Unknown Man Kills Himself with a Pistol in a Store on Market Street. A poor stranger committed suicide yesterday afternoon in the hardware store of Messrs. W. E. Springer & Co., under circumstances that suggest, if they do not reveal, a sad story of destitution and despair.

The Mayor stated the object of the meeting and the resolution offered by Alderman Bear was read, as follows: Resolved, That the same commission, to wit: B. G. Worth, Jas. H. Chadbourne, E. F. Moore, and Wm. B. DeRosier, be reappointed, with the full powers contemplated in the act of the General Assembly authorizing it, to sell or purchase of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company...

After the examination, Coroner Jacobs had the body removed to the shop of J. S. Gibson, undertaker, on Second street, near the corner of Princess, where an inquest was held.

Policeman W. H. Sholar, who was standing near the southeast corner of Front and Market streets, heard the pistol shot and saw people gathering in front of the Messrs. Springer's store.

Mr. Fred. Springer was first struck. He testified that the man entered the store about half-past 2 o'clock and inquired if he had pistols for sale.

The President is leaving his best efforts to clear up his work in leaving here early next week for the Adirondack mountains. He proposes to go as soon as he can, and will leave on Monday if his affairs permit.

Mr. Cutler, city attorney, being called upon for his opinion as to the powers of the Commission under the resolution and approval of the Board.

Mr. Alderman Worth said that the colored people looked upon the project with distrust. They were of the opinion that the road would be built by convict labor and that taxation would be increased, and if these were true would oppose it.

Mr. Alderman Dudley was opposed to the commission being authorized to make any subscription that was not submitted for approval to the Board.

Mr. Alderman Worth, Boney, Giles, Neas-Alderman Dudley, Howe, Giles, Chadwell and the negative, and announced that the resolutions were not adopted.

Mr. Alderman Dudley was opposed to the commission being authorized to make any subscription that was not submitted for approval to the Board.

WASHINGTON. Call for Bonds—Appointments—Governor's Receipts Since July 1st. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Call was made to-day for ten millions 5 per cents. The call matures September 1st.

RECEIPTS OF THE GOVERNMENT SINCE JULY 1st. Receipts of the Government since July 1st, have been nearly $4,000,000 in excess of the same period last year.

A general discussion of the subject then began. Alderman Giles opposed the adoption of the resolution. While he had the greatest respect for and confidence in the gentlemen composing the commission, he thought the city was in no condition to increase its indebtedness.

Mr. Alderman Boney said that the reason the city was in no condition to increase its indebtedness was because of the foundation upon which the road was built.

Mr. Alderman Worth had the greatest confidence in the gentlemen composing the commission. He was willing to trust everything in their hands.

The President is leaving his best efforts to clear up his work in leaving here early next week for the Adirondack mountains. He proposes to go as soon as he can, and will leave on Monday if his affairs permit.

Mr. Alderman Worth said that the colored people looked upon the project with distrust. They were of the opinion that the road would be built by convict labor and that taxation would be increased, and if these were true would oppose it.

Mr. Alderman Dudley was opposed to the commission being authorized to make any subscription that was not submitted for approval to the Board.

Mr. Alderman Worth, Boney, Giles, Neas-Alderman Dudley, Howe, Giles, Chadwell and the negative, and announced that the resolutions were not adopted.

Mr. Alderman Dudley was opposed to the commission being authorized to make any subscription that was not submitted for approval to the Board.

The following revival reports appear in the Raleigh Revivalist: Olo Creek Church, 19 additions; Matthews, 14 additions; Sawyer's Creek, 33 additions; Perry's Chapel, 19 additions; Mt. Hermon, 22 additions.

Stateville Christian Advocate: We give to day a letter from China, written by Rev. Charles Brock in the Raleigh Advocate. The author is a Christian and was converted to Christianity at Fifth Street M. E. Church, Wilmington, N. C., under the pastoral charge of Rev. T. W. Ricard, of the North Carolina Conference.

Goldboro Workman: The other day, we learn, a white man, with a ticket for Wilson, got aboard the north bound passenger train in this city as it was moving off. He jumped on the baggage car at the end next to the engine and started to pass through the car to the passenger coach, but the baggage men saw him and let him pass and told him to jump off the train and jump on it again at the proper coach.

Charlotte Chronicle: The prospects for having street cars in our city appear to be in the future. The city of Charlotte has been subscribed to the capital stock. The project of this enterprise is to be carried out by the city of Charlotte.

Fayetteville News: At Fayetteville Saturday night about 2 o'clock a negro burglar entered Mr. Thomas E. Phillips' residence, where a large quantity of money was stored.

Greensboro Patriot: The Patriot is one of the newspapers in North Carolina that will not take notice of the commutation of the death sentence by Gov. Seales of Gooch and Smith for the murder of Mr. Cheatham.

Excitement at Logansport Over the Abduction and Probable Murder of a Young Lady. Logansport, Aug. 14.—There is great excitement over the abduction and probable murder of a young lady.

Seattle, Aug. 14.—Advices from Alaska are to the effect that the anti-Chinese movements have spread to that territory.

Michigan. A Cold-Blooded Murder—Lynchings Probable. GRAND RAPIDS, August 14.—A cold blooded murder was perpetrated at Rockford, Mich., to-day, and a lynching is probable.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. A Double Elopement that Causes Excitement in Concord. Concord, August 14.—A double elopement which occurred yesterday is causing excitement here.

Pennsylvania. Coal Miners' Troubles—Another Strike Ended and Another Begun. PITTSBURGH, August 14.—Striking coal miners in three of Scott's mines at Seatonsville resumed to-day at the operators terms.